13.2. Notices. Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, all notices and other communications provided for hereunder or under any other Credit Document shall be in writing (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission). All such written notices shall be mailed, faxed or delivered to the applicable address, facsimile number or electronic mail address, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the applicable telephone number, as follows: if to the Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or a L/C Issuer, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 13.2 or to such other address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number as shall be designated by such party in a notice to the other parties.

All amounts payable under this Section 13.5 shall be paid within 30 days of receipt by the Borrower of an invoice relating thereto setting forth such expense in reasonable detail. The agreements in this Section 13.5 shall survive repayment of all amounts payable hereunder.

No Credit Party nor any indemnified Person or their respective Affiliates or the respective directors, officers, employees, advisors and agents of the foregoing shall have any liability for any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages resulting from this Agreement or any other Credit Document or arising out of its activities in connection herewith or therewith (whether before or after the Closing Date) (except, in the case of the Borrower's obligation hereunder to indemnify and hold harmless the indemnified Person, to the extent any indemnified Person is found liable for special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages to a third party). No Credit Party nor any indemnified Person or their respective Affiliates or the respective directors, officers, employees, advisors and agents of the foregoing shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed by it through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Credit Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except to the extent that such damages have resulted from the willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence of any indemnified Person or any of its Related Parties (as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction). This Section 13.5 shall not apply to Taxes.

Each indemnified Person, by its acceptance of the benefits of this Section 13.5, agrees to refund and return any and all amounts paid by the Borrower (or on its behalf) to it if, pursuant to limitations on indemnification set forth in this Section 13.5, such indemnified Person was not entitled to receipt of such amounts.

13.6. Successors and Assigns; Participations and Assignments.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby (including any Affiliate of a L/C Issuer that issues any Letter of Credit), except that (i) except as expressly permitted by Section 10.3, the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each L/C Issuer (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrower without such consent shall be null and void) and (ii) no L/C Issuer may assign or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations hereunder except in accordance with this Section 13.6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such assignment shall be made to (x) a natural person or (y) a Disqualified Institution, and any attempted assignment to a Disqualified Institution after the applicable Person became a Disqualified Institution shall be null and void. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the Administrative Agent shall have no obligation with respect to, and shall bear no responsibility or liability for, the monitoring or enforcing of the list of Persons who are Disqualified Institutions (or any provisions relating thereto) at any time and (ii) the Administrative Agent may share a list of Persons who are Disqualified Institutions with any L/C Issuer upon request.

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except (i) in the case of an assignment to a L/C Issuer or an Affiliate of a L/C Issuer or an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning L/C Issuer's L/C Commitment or (ii) an assignment to a Federal Reserve Bank, the amount of the L/C Commitment of the assigning L/C Issuer subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Acceptance with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $5,000,000; provided that no such consent of the Borrower shall be required if a Specified Default has occurred and is continuing with respect to the Borrower; provided, further, that contemporaneous assignments to a single assignee made by Affiliates of L/C Issuers shall be aggregated for purposes of meeting the minimum assignment amount requirements stated above;

(B) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning L/C Issuer's rights and obligations under this Agreement;

(C) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Acceptance, together with a processing and recordation fee in the amount of $3,500; provided that the Administrative Agent may, in its sole discretion, elect to waive such processing and recordation fee in the case of any assignment; and

(D) the assignee, if it shall not be a L/C Issuer, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an administrative questionnaire in a form approved by the Administrative Agent (the "Administrative Questionnaire").

(iii) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to clause (b)(iv) of this Section 13.6, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Acceptance, the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, have the rights and obligations of a L/C Issuer under this Agreement, and the assigning L/C Issuer thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Acceptance, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance covering all of the assigning L/C Issuer's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such L/C issuer shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 3.4, 5.2 and 12.3). Any assignment or transfer by a L/C Issuer of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 13.6 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such L/C issuer of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with clause (c) of this Section 13.6 (other than attempted assignments or transfers to Disqualified Institutions, which shall be null and void as provided above).

(iv) The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at the Administrative Agent's Office a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the name and address of the Recipients, and the amounts of and interest on the L/C Obligations owing to the Recipients pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). Further, each Register shall contain the name and address of the Administrative Agent and the lending office through which each such Person acts under this Agreement. The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the L/C Issuers shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a L/C Issuer hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower, the Collateral Agent and any L/C Issuer at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice; provided, that no L/C Issuer shall, in such capacity, have access to, or otherwise be permitted to review any information in the Register other than information with respect to such L/C Issuer.

(v) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Acceptance executed by an assigning L/C Issuer and an assignee, the assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire (unless the assignee shall already be a L/C Issuer hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b) of this Section 13.6 (unless waived) and any written consent to such assignment required by clause (b) of this Section 13.6, the Administrative Agent shall accept such Assignment and Acceptance and record the information contained therein in the Register.

(c) (i) Any L/C Issuer may, without the consent of the Borrower, the Administrative Agent or any other L/C Issuer, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities that are not Disqualified Institutions (each, a "Participant") (and any such attempted sales to Disqualified Institutions after such Person became a Disqualified Institution shall be null and void) in all or a portion of such L/C Issuer's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its L/C Commitments); provided that (A) such L/C Issuer's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (B) such L/C Issuer shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations, and (C) the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the other L/C Issuers shall continue to deal solely and directly with such L/C Issuer in connection with such L/C Issuer's rights and obligations under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent shall have no obligation with respect to, and shall bear no responsibility or liability for, the monitoring or enforcing of the list of Disqualified Institutions with respect to the sales of participations at any time. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a L/C Issuer sells such a participation shall provide that such L/C Issuer shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such L/C Issuer will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any consent, amendment, modification, supplement or waiver described in clause (i) of the second proviso of the first paragraph of Section 13.1 that directly and adversely affects such Participant. Subject to clause (c)(ii) of this Section 13.6, the Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 3.4 and 5.2 (it being understood that the documentation required under Section 5.2 shall be delivered to the participating L/C Issuer) to the same extent as if it were an L/C Issuer, and provided that such Participant agrees to be subject to the requirements of those Sections as though it were an L/C Issuer and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to clause (b) of this Section 13.6. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 13.7(b) as though it were an L/C Issuer; provided such Participant shall be subject to Section 13.7(a) as though it were a Lender.

(ii) A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Sections 3.4 and 5.2 than the applicable L/C Issuer would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant, unless the sale of the participation to such Participant is made with the Borrower's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

(iii) Each L/C Issuer that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each Participant's interest in the Letters of Credit (or other rights or obligations) held by it (the "Participant Register"). The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such L/C Issuer shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. no L/C Issuer shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any commitments, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Credit Document) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such commitment, letter of credit or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations or Section 1.163-5(b) of the United States Proposed Treasury Regulations (or any amended or successor version). This Section is intended such that the Letters of Credit are at all times maintained in "registered form" within the meaning of Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code.

(d) Any L/C Issuer may, without the consent of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure obligations of such L/C Issuer, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank, and this Section 13.6 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release such L/C Issuer from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such L/C Issuer as a party hereto.

(e) Subject to Section 13.16, the Borrower authorizes each L/C Issuer to disclose (other than to any Disqualified Institutions) to any Participant, secured creditor of such L/C Issuer or assignee (each, a "Transferee"), any prospective Transferee and any prospective direct or indirect contractual counterparties to any swap or derivative transactions to be entered into in connection with or relating to Letters of Credit issued hereunder any and all financial information in such L/C Issuer's possession concerning the Borrower and its Affiliates that has been delivered to such L/C Issuer by or on behalf of the Borrower and its Affiliates pursuant to this Agreement or that has been delivered to such L/C Issuer by or on behalf of the Borrower and its Affiliates in connection with such L/C Issuer's credit evaluation of the Borrower and its Affiliates prior to becoming a party to this Agreement.

(f) The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in any Assignment and Acceptance shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

13.7. Adjustments; Set-off.

(a) Except as contemplated in Section 13.6 or elsewhere herein or in any other Credit Document, if any L/C Issuer (a "Benefited L/C Issuer") shall at any time receive any collateral in respect of its Obligations hereunder (whether voluntarily or involuntarily, by set-off, pursuant to events or proceedings of the nature referred to in Section 11.5, or otherwise), in a greater proportion than any such Collateral received by any other L/C Issuer, if any, in respect of its Obligations hereunder, such Benefited L/C Issuer shall provide such other L/C Issuers with the benefits of any such collateral, or the proceeds thereof, as shall be necessary to cause such Benefited L/C Issuer to share the benefits of such collateral or proceeds ratably with each of the L/C Issuers; provided, however, that if all or any portion of such excess benefits is thereafter recovered from such Benefited L/C Issuer, such benefits shall be returned, to the extent of such recovery.

(b) After the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, in addition to any rights and remedies of the L/C Issuers provided by Applicable Law, each L/C Issuer shall have the right, without prior notice to the Borrower, any such notice being expressly waived by the Borrower to the extent permitted by Applicable Law but with the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, upon any amount becoming due and payable by the Borrower hereunder (whether at the stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) to set-off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) (other than payroll, trust, tax, fiduciary, employee health and benefits, pension, 401(k) and petty cash accounts), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by such L/C Issuer or any branch or agency thereof to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower. Each L/C Issuer agrees promptly to notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent after any such set-off and application made by such L/C Issuer; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

13.8. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by one or more of the parties to this Agreement on any number of separate counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission), and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. A set of the copies of this Agreement signed by all the parties shall be lodged with the Borrower and the Administrative Agent. This Agreement, any Credit Document and each Communication, including Communications required to be in writing, may be in the form of an Electronic Record (as defined below) and may be executed using Electronic Signatures (as defined below). Each of the Credit Parties and each of the Secured Parties agrees that any Electronic Signature on or associated with any Communication shall be valid and binding on such Person to the same extent as a manual, original signature, and that any Communication entered into by Electronic Signature will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of such Person enforceable against such Person in accordance with the terms thereof to the same extent as if a manually executed original signature was delivered. Any Communication may be executed in as many counterparts as necessary or convenient, including both paper and electronic counterparts, but all such counterparts are one and the same Communication. For the avoidance of doubt, the authorization under this paragraph may include, without limitation, use or acceptance of a manually signed paper Communication which has been converted into electronic form (such as scanned into PDF format), or an electronically signed Communication converted into another format, for transmission, delivery and/or retention. The Administrative Agent and each of the Secured Parties may, at its option, create one or more copies of any Communication in the form of an imaged Electronic Record ("Electronic Copy"), which shall be deemed created in the ordinary course of such Person's business, and destroy the original paper document. All Communications in the form of an Electronic Record, including an Electronic Copy, shall be considered an original for all purposes, and shall have the same legal effect, validity and enforceability as a paper record. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Administrative Agent is not under any obligation to accept an Electronic Signature in any form or in any format unless expressly agreed to by such Person pursuant to procedures approved by it; provided, further, without limiting the foregoing, (i) to the extent the Administrative Agent has agreed to accept such Electronic Signature, the Administrative Agent and each of the Secured Parties shall be entitled to rely on any such Electronic Signature purportedly given by or on behalf of any Credit Party and/or any Secured Party without further verification and (ii) upon the request of the Administrative Agent or any Secured Party, any Electronic Signature shall be promptly followed by a manually executed, original counterpart. For purposes hereof, "Electronic Record" and "Electronic Signature" shall have the meanings assigned to them, respectively, by 15 USC §7006, as it may be amended from time to time.

13.9. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

13.10. INTEGRATION. THIS WRITTEN AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS REPRESENT THE FINAL AGREEMENT OF PARENT, THE BORROWER, THE COLLATERAL AGENT, THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT AND THE L/C ISSUERS WITH RESPECT TO THE SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF, AND (1) THERE ARE NO PROMISES, UNDERTAKINGS, REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES BY THE BORROWER, THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT, THE COLLATERAL AGENT OR THE L/C ISSUERS RELATIVE TO SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH OR REFERRED TO HEREIN OR IN THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS, (2) THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENTS MAY NOT BE CONTRADICTED BY EVIDENCE OF PRIOR, CONTEMPORANEOUS, OR SUBSEQUENT ORAL AGREEMENTS OF THE PARTIES AND (3) THERE ARE NO UNWRITTEN ORAL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN THE PARTIES; PROVIDED THAT THE BORROWER'S CONFIDENTIALITY OBLIGATIONS IN THE ENGAGEMENT AND COMMITMENT LETTER SHALL REMAIN IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT. IT IS SPECIFICALLY AGREED THAT THE PROVISION OF THE LETTER OF CREDIT FACILITY HEREUNDER BY THE L/C ISSUERS SUPERSEDES AND IS IN SATISFACTION OF THE OBLIGATIONS OF THE AGENTS (AS DEFINED IN THE ENGAGEMENT AND COMMITMENT LETTER) TO PROVIDE THE COMMITMENTS SET FORTH IN THE ENGAGEMENT AND COMMITMENT LETTER.

13.11. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (WHETHER IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE AND WHETHER AT LAW OR IN EQUITY).

13.12. Submission to Jurisdiction; Waivers. Each party hereto irrevocably and unconditionally:

(a) submits for itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Agreement and the other Credit Documents to which it is a party, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof, to the exclusive general jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of

New York, in each case, in the City of New York, Borough of Manhattan and appellate courts from any thereof;

(b) consents that any such action or proceeding may be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(c) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Person at its address set forth on Schedule 13.2 at such other address of which the Administrative Agent shall have been notified pursuant to Section 13.2;

(d) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right to sue in any other jurisdiction;

(e) subject to the last paragraph of Section 13.5, waives, to the maximum extent not prohibited by Applicable Law, any right it may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceeding referred to in this Section 13.12 any special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages; and

(f) agrees that a final judgment in any action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by Applicable Law.

13.13. Acknowledgments. The Borrower hereby acknowledges that:

(a) With respect to any (x) Investment or acquisition merger or other similar transaction that the Issuer or one or more of its Restricted Subsidiaries is contractually committed to consummate and whose consummation is not conditioned on the availability of, or on obtaining, third-party financing and (y) redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment of Indebtedness or Preferred Stock requiring irrevocable notice in advance of such redemption, repurchase, defeasance, satisfaction and discharge or repayment (any transaction described in clauses (x) or (y), a "Limited Condition Transaction"), in each case for purposes of determining:

(1) whether any Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness), Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock that is being incurred or issued in connection with such Limited Condition Transaction is permitted to be incurred in compliance with Section 4.04;

(2) whether any Lien being incurred in connection with such Limited Condition Transaction or to secure any such Indebtedness or Preferred Stock is permitted to be incurred in accordance with Section 4.06 or the definitions of "Permitted Liens" or "Permitted Post-Release Liens";

(3) whether any other transaction (including any Investment or Restricted Payment) undertaken or proposed to be undertaken in connection with such Limited Condition Transaction complies with the covenants or agreements contained in this Indenture or the Notes; and

(4) any calculation of the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio, Consolidated Total Net Leverage Ratio, Consolidated Secured Net Leverage Ratio, Consolidated First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, Consolidated Total Net Debt, Consolidated Senior Secured Net Debt, Consolidated Net Income, Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA, Consolidated Net Tangible Assets and/or Total Assets and, whether a Default or Event of Default exists in

For the avoidance of doubt, if the Issuer elects to use the Transaction Agreement Date as the applicable date of determination in accordance with the foregoing, (a) such election may not be revoked, (b) any fluctuation or change in the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio, Consolidated Total Net Leverage Ratio, Consolidated Secured Net Leverage Ratio, Consolidated First Lien Net Leverage Ratio, Consolidated Total Net Debt, Consolidated Senior Secured Net Debt, Consolidated Net Income, Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA, Consolidated Net Tangible Assets and/or Total Assets of the Issuer, the target business, or assets to be acquired subsequent to the Transaction Agreement Date and prior to the consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction, will not be taken into account for purposes of determining whether any Investment, Restricted Payment, Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Lien that is being made, incurred or issued in connection with such Limited Condition Transaction is permitted to be made, incurred or issued or in connection with compliance by the Issuer or any of the Subsidiary Guarantors with any other provision of this Indenture or the Notes or any other action or transaction undertaken in connection with such Limited Condition Transaction and (c) until such Limited Condition Transaction is consummated or the definitive agreements related thereto are terminated, such Limited Condition Transaction and all transactions proposed to be undertaken in connection therewith (including the making of any Restricted Payment or Investment or the incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness, Preferred Stock and Liens) will be given pro forma effect when determining compliance of other transactions (including the making of any Restricted Payment or Investment or the incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness, Preferred Stock and Liens unrelated to such Investment, acquisition or repayment, repurchase or refinancing of Indebtedness) that are consummated after the Transaction Agreement Date and on or prior to the consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction and any such transactions (including any incurrence or issuance of Indebtedness, or Preferred Stock and the use of proceeds thereof) will be deemed to have occurred on the Transaction Agreement Date and outstanding thereafter for purposes of calculating any baskets or ratios under this Indenture after the date of such agreement and before the consummation of such Limited Condition Transaction; provided that for purposes of any such calculation of Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA, total interest expense will be calculated using an

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, for the purposes of this Section 1.04, compliance with any requirement relating to absence of Default or Event of Default may be determined as of the Transaction Agreement Date and not as of any later date as would otherwise be required under this Indenture.

Each item of Indebtedness, Preferred Stock or Lien incurred or issued and each other transaction undertaken will be deemed to have been incurred, issued or taken first, to the extent available, pursuant to the relevant Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio, Consolidated Total Net Leverage Ratio, Consolidated Secured Net Leverage Ratio or Consolidated First Lien Net Leverage Ratio test.

The aggregate principal amount of the Regulation S Temporary Global Notes and the Regulation S Permanent Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee and the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, in connection with transfers of interests as hereinafter provided.

(c) Book-Entry Provisions. Ownership of beneficial interests in the Global Notes shall be limited to persons that have accounts with DTC or persons that may hold interests through such participants, including through Euroclear and Clearstream. Ownership of beneficial interests in the Global Notes and transfers thereof shall be subject to restrictions on transfer and certification requirements as set forth herein. Participants and Indirect Participants shall have no rights under this Indenture or any Global Note with respect to any Global Note held on their behalf by the Depository or by the Trustee as custodian for the Depository, and the Depository shall be treated by the Issuer, the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee as the absolute owner of such Global Note for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Issuer, the Trustee or any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by the Depository or impair, as between the Depository and its Participants or Indirect Participants, the Applicable Procedures or the operation of customary practices of the Depository governing the exercise of the rights of a holder of a beneficial interest in any Global Note.

(d) DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream Procedures Applicable . Transfers of beneficial interests in the Global Notes between participants in DTC, participants in Euroclear or participants in Clearstream shall be effected by DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream pursuant to customary procedures and subject to the applicable rules and procedures established by DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream and their respective participants.

Section 2.02 Execution and Authentication.

One Officer must sign the Notes for the Issuer by manual, facsimile or .pdf signature.

If an Officer whose signature is on a Note no longer holds that office at the time a Note is authenticated, the Note will nevertheless be valid.

A Note will not be valid until authenticated by the manual signature of the Trustee. The signature will be conclusive evidence that the Note has been authenticated under this Indenture. A Note shall be dated the date of its authentication.

The Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, authenticate Notes for original issue under this Indenture. The aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding at any time may not exceed the aggregate principal amount of Notes authorized for issuance by the Issuer pursuant to one or more Issuer Orders, except as provided in Section 2.07 hereof.

The Trustee shall not be required to authenticate such Notes if the issue thereof will adversely affect the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under the Notes and this Indenture or otherwise in a manner which is not reasonably acceptable to the Trustee.

The Trustee may appoint an authenticating agent acceptable to the Issuer to authenticate Notes. An authenticating agent may authenticate Notes whenever the Trustee may do so. Each reference in this Indenture to authentication by the Trustee includes authentication by such agent. An authenticating agent has the same rights as an Agent to deal with Holders, the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer.

Section 2.03 Registrar and Paying Agent.

(a) The Issuer will maintain a Registrar and a Paying Agent with respect to the Notes issued pursuant to this Indenture. The Registrar will keep a register of the Holders and the Notes and of their transfer and exchange. The Issuer may appoint one or more co-registrars and one or more additional Paying Agents and may change any Paying Agent or Registrar without notice to any Holder. The Issuer will notify the Trustee in writing of the name and address of any Agent not a party to this Indenture. The Issuer or any of the Issuer's Subsidiaries may act as Paying Agent or Registrar.

(b) The Issuer initially appoints DTC to act as Depository with respect to the Global Notes.

(c) The Issuer initially appoints the Trustee to act as the Registrar and Paying Agent with respect to the Global Notes.

Section 2.04 Paying Agent to Hold Money in Trust.

The Issuer will require each Paying Agent other than the Trustee to agree in writing that the Paying Agent (i) will hold in trust for the benefit of Holders or the Trustee all money held by the Paying Agent for the payment of principal, premium or interest on such Notes and (ii) will notify the Trustee in writing of any default by the Issuer in making any such payment. While any such default continues, the Trustee may require a Paying Agent to pay all money held by it to the Trustee. The Issuer at any time may require a Paying Agent to pay all money held by it to the Trustee. Upon payment over to the Trustee, the Paying Agent (if other than the Issuer or a Subsidiary of the Issuer) will have no further liability for the money. If the Issuer or a Subsidiary of the Issuer acts as Paying Agent, it will segregate and hold in a separate trust fund for the benefit of the Holders all money held by it as Paying Agent. Upon any bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings relating to the Issuer, the Trustee will serve as Paying Agent for the Notes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Paying Agent shall be held harmless and have no liability with respect to payments or disbursements to be made by the Paying Agent until the Paying Agent has confirmed receipt of funds sufficient to make such relevant payment.

Section 2.05 Holder Lists.

The Trustee shall preserve in as current a form as is reasonably practicable the most recent list available to it of the names and addresses of all Holders. If the Trustee is not the Registrar, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee at least seven Business Days before each interest payment date and at such other times as the Trustee may request in writing, a list in such form and as of such date as the Trustee may reasonably require of the names and addresses of the Holders.

Section 2.06 Transfer and Exchange.

(a) Transfer and Exchange of Global Notes. A Global Note may not be transferred as a whole except by the Depository to a nominee of the Depository, by a nominee of the Depository to the Depository or to another nominee of the Depository, or by the Depository or any such nominee to a successor Depository or a nominee of such successor Depository. The Issuer shall exchange Global Notes for Definitive Notes if at any time:

(1) the Issuer delivers to the Trustee notice from the Depository that it is unwilling or unable to continue to act as Depository or that it is no longer a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act and, in either case, a successor Depository is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days after the date of such notice from the Depository; or

(2) upon the written request of a Holder if a Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing with respect to the Notes.

Upon the occurrence of any of the preceding events in (1) or (2) above, Definitive Notes shall be issued in such names and in any approved denominations as the Depository shall instruct the Trustee.

In no event shall the Regulation S Temporary Global Note be exchanged by the Issuer for Definitive Notes prior to (x) the expiration of the Distribution Compliance Period and (y) the receipt by the Registrar of any certificates required pursuant to Rule 903(b)(3)(ii)(B) under the Securities Act.

Upon the exchange of a Global Note for Definitive Notes, such Global Note shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, be cancelled by the Trustee. Definitive Notes issued in exchange for a Global Note pursuant to this Section 2.06 shall be registered in such names and in such authorized denominations as the Depository, pursuant to written instructions from its Participants or its Applicable Procedures, shall instruct the Trustee in writing. The Trustee shall deliver such Definitive Notes to or as directed by the Persons in whose names such Definitive Notes are so registered or to the Depository.

A Global Note may not be exchanged for another Note other than as provided in this Section 2.06(a), however, beneficial interests in a Global Note may be transferred and exchanged as provided in Section 2.06(b), (c) and (d) hereof.

(b) Transfer and Exchange of Beneficial Interests in the Global Notes. The transfer and exchange of beneficial interests in the Global Notes shall be effected through the Depository, in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture and the Applicable Procedures. Transfers of beneficial interests in the Global Notes also will require compliance with either subparagraph (1) or (2) below, as applicable, as well as one or more of the other following subparagraphs, as applicable:

(1) Transfer of Beneficial Interests in the Same Global Note. Beneficial interests in any Restricted Global Note may be transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in the same Restricted Global Note in accordance with the transfer restrictions set forth in the Private Placement Legend; provided, however, that prior to the expiration of the Distribution Compliance Period, transfers of beneficial interests in the Regulation S Temporary Global Note may not be made to or for the account or benefit of a "U.S. Person" (as defined in Rule 902(k) of Regulation S) (other than a "distributor" (as defined in Rule 902(d) of Regulation S)). Beneficial interests in any Unrestricted Global Note may be transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note. No written orders or instructions shall be required to be delivered to the Registrar to effect the transfers described in this Section 2.06(b)(1).

(2) All Other Transfers and Exchanges of Beneficial Interests in Global Notes. In connection with all transfers and exchanges of beneficial interests that are not subject to Section 2.06(b)(1) above, the transferor of such beneficial interest must deliver to the Registrar either:

(A) both:

(i) a written order from a Participant or an Indirect Participant given to the Depository in accordance with the Applicable Procedures directing the Depository to credit or cause to be credited a beneficial interest in another Global Note in an amount equal to the beneficial interest to be transferred or exchanged; and

(ii) instructions given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures containing information regarding the Participant account to be credited with such increase; or

(B) both:

(i) a written order from a Participant or an Indirect Participant given to the Depository in accordance with the Applicable Procedures directing the Depository to cause to be issued a Definitive Note in an amount equal to the beneficial interest to be transferred or exchanged; and

(ii) instructions given by the Depository to the Registrar containing information regarding the Person in whose name such Definitive Note shall be registered to effect the transfer or exchange referred to in (i) above; provided that in no event shall Definitive Notes be issued upon the transfer or exchange of beneficial interests in a Regulation S Temporary Global Note prior to (x) the expiration of the Distribution Compliance Period and (y) the receipt by the Registrar of any certificates required pursuant to Rule 903(b)(3)(ii)(B) under the Securities Act.

Upon satisfaction of all of the requirements for transfer or exchange of beneficial interests in Global Notes contained in this Indenture and the Notes or otherwise applicable under the Securities Act, and upon receipt of an Officer's Certificate in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, the Trustee shall adjust the principal amount of the relevant Global Note(s) pursuant to Section 2.06(g) hereof.

(3) Transfer of Beneficial Interests to Another Restricted Global Note. A beneficial interest in any Restricted Global Note may be transferred to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Restricted Global Note if the transfer complies with the requirements of Section 2.06(b)(2) above and the Registrar receives the following:

(A) if the transferee will take delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in the 144A Global Note, then the transferor must deliver a certificate in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (1) thereof;

(B) if the transferee will take delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in the Regulation S Temporary Global Note or the Regulation S Permanent Global Note, as the case may be, then the transferor must deliver a certificate in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (2) thereof; and

(C) if the transferee will take delivery in the form of a beneficial interest in the IAI Global Note, then the transferor must deliver a certificate in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications, certificates and Opinion of Counsel required by item (3)(d) thereof, if applicable.

in an Unrestricted Global Note or transferred to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note if the exchange or transfer complies with the requirements of Section 2.06(b)(2) above and:

(A) the Registrar receives the following:

(ii) if the Holder of such beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note proposes to transfer such beneficial interest to a Person who shall take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in an Unrestricted Global Note, a certificate from such Holder in the form of Exhibit B hereto, including the certifications in item (4) thereof; and, in each such case set forth in this subparagraph (A), if the Registrar so requests or if the Applicable Procedures so require, an Opinion of Counsel in form reasonably acceptable to the Registrar to the effect that such exchange or transfer is in compliance with the Securities Act and that the restrictions on transfer contained herein and in the Private Placement Legend are no longer required in order to maintain compliance with the Securities Act.

If any such transfer is effected pursuant to subparagraph (A) above at a time when an Unrestricted Global Note has not yet been issued, the Issuer shall issue and, upon receipt of an Issuer Order in accordance with Section 2.02 hereof, the Trustee shall authenticate one or more Unrestricted Global Notes in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of beneficial interests transferred pursuant to subparagraph (A) above.

Beneficial interests in an Unrestricted Global Note cannot be exchanged for, or transferred to Persons who take delivery thereof in the form of, a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note.

(c) Transfer or Exchange of Beneficial Interests in Global Notes for Definitive Notes. Transfers or exchanges of beneficial interests in Global Notes for Definitive Notes shall in each case be subject to the satisfaction of any applicable conditions set forth in Section 2.06(b)(2) hereof, and to the requirements set forth below in this Section 2.06(c).

(1) Beneficial Interests in Restricted Global Notes to Restricted Definitive Notes. If any Holder of a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note proposes to exchange such beneficial interest for a Restricted Definitive Note or to transfer such beneficial interest to a Person who takes delivery thereof in the form of a Restricted Definitive Note, then, upon receipt by the Registrar of the following documentation:

Any Definitive Note issued in exchange for a beneficial interest in a Restricted Global Note pursuant to this Section 2.06(c) shall be registered in such name or names and in such authorized denomination or denominations as the Holder of such beneficial

(3) Regulation S Temporary Global Note Legend. Each Regulation S Temporary Global Note will bear a legend in substantially the following form:

"THIS GLOBAL NOTE IS A TEMPORARY GLOBAL NOTE FOR PURPOSES OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT. NEITHER THIS TEMPORARY GLOBAL NOTE NOR ANY INTEREST HEREIN MAY BE OFFERED, SOLD, DELIVERED OR EXCHANGED FOR AN INTEREST IN A PERMANENT GLOBAL NOTE OR OTHER NOTE EXCEPT UPON DELIVERY OF THE CERTIFICATIONS SPECIFIED IN THE INDENTURE."

(g) Cancellation and/or Adjustment of Global Notes. At such time as all beneficial interests in a particular Global Note have been exchanged for Definitive Notes or a particular Global Note has been redeemed, repurchased or canceled in whole and not in part, each such Global Note shall be returned to or retained and canceled by the Trustee in accordance with Section 2.12 of this Indenture. At any time prior to such cancellation, if any beneficial interest in a Global Note is exchanged for or transferred to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Global Note or for Definitive Notes, the principal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note will be reduced accordingly and a notation will be made on the records maintained by the Trustee or by the Depository at the direction of the Trustee to reflect such reduction; and if the beneficial interest is being exchanged for or transferred to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Global Note, such other Global Note will be increased accordingly and a notation will be made on the records maintained by the Trustee or by the Depository at the direction of the Trustee to reflect such increase.

(h) General Provisions Relating to Transfers and Exchanges.

(1) To permit registrations of transfers and exchanges, the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate Global Notes and Definitive Notes upon receipt of an Issuer Order in accordance with Section 2.02 hereof or at the Registrar's request.

(2) No service charge shall be made to a Holder of a Global Note or to a Holder of a Definitive Note for any registration of transfer or exchange, but the Issuer may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or similar governmental charge payable in connection therewith (other than any such transfer taxes or similar governmental charge payable upon exchange or transfer pursuant to Sections 3.06, 4.11 and 9.04 hereof and Section 2.11 of this Indenture).

(3) The Registrar shall not be required to register the transfer of or exchange any Note selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Note being redeemed in part.

(4) All Global Notes and Definitive Notes issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Global Notes or Definitive Notes shall be the valid obligations of the Issuer, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Global Notes or Definitive Notes surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

(5) Neither the Registrar nor the Issuer shall be required:

(A) to issue, to register the transfer of or to exchange any Notes during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before the day of any selection of Notes for redemption under Section 3.02 hereof and ending at the close of business on the day of selection;

(B) to register the transfer of or to exchange any Note selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Note being redeemed in part; or

(C) to register the transfer of or to exchange a Note between a record date and the next succeeding interest payment date.

(6) Prior to due presentment for the registration of a transfer of any Note, the Trustee, any Agent and the Issuer may deem and treat the Person in whose name any Note is registered as the absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of and interest on such Notes and for all other purposes, and none of the Trustee, any Agent or the Issuer shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

(7) The Trustee shall authenticate Global Notes and Definitive Notes in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.02 hereof.

(8) All orders, certifications, certificates and Opinions of Counsel required to be submitted to the Registrar pursuant to this Section 2.06 to effect a registration of transfer or exchange may be submitted by facsimile.

(9) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, neither the Trustee nor the Registrar shall be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer or exchange complies with the registration provisions of or exemptions from the Securities Act or applicable state securities laws.

Section 2.07 Additional Notes.

(a) The aggregate amount of Notes that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is unlimited. The Notes may be issued in one or more series (any such Notes issued subsequent to the Issue Date, the "Additional Notes"), subject, in the case of Additional Notes, in compliance with Section 4.04 and Section 4.06. Any Additional Notes issued will have terms that are substantially identical to the terms of the Notes issued on the Issue Date, except in respect of any of the following terms, which shall be set forth in a supplemental indenture:

(1) the aggregate principal amount of such Additional Notes;

(2) the date or dates on which such Additional Notes will be issued;

(3) the price at which the Additional Notes will be issued;

(4) the first interest payment date and the first date from which interest will accrue on the Additional Notes

(5) the date or dates and price or prices at which, the period or periods within which, and the terms and conditions upon which, such Additional Notes may be redeemed, in whole or in part pursuant to any special mandatory redemption using amounts released from any escrow account into which proceeds of the issuance of such Additional Notes are deposited pending consummation of any acquisition, Investment, refinancing or other transaction (such redemption, an "Additional Notes Special Mandatory Redemption");

(6) the provisions relating to the escrow of all or a portion of the proceeds of such Additional Notes and the granting of Liens described in clause (11) of the definition of "Permitted Liens" and in clause (11) of the definition of "Permitted Post-Release Liens" in favor of the Trustee solely for the benefit of the Trustee and the Holders of such Additional Notes (and not, for the avoidance of doubt, for the benefit of the Holders of any other Notes), together with all necessary authorizations for the Trustee to enter into such arrangements; provided that, for so long as the proceeds of such Additional Notes are in escrow, such Additional Notes shall benefit only from such Liens and shall not be subject to any intercreditor agreement, including the Collateral Trust Agreement; and

(7) the ISIN, Common Code, CUSIP or other securities identification numbers with respect to such Additional Notes, and the relevant clearing systems.

(b) Any Additional Notes that are substantially identical in all material respects to any other series of Notes but for being subject to an Additional Notes Special Mandatory Redemption shall be deemed to be substantially identical to such series of Notes only following the date on which any such Special Mandatory Redemption provision ceases to apply. If any Additional Notes are not fungible with such Notes for U.S. federal income tax purposes, such Additional Notes will have a separate CUSIP or other identifying number. The Notes and any Additional Notes subsequently issued under this Indenture will be treated as a single class for all purposes under this Indenture, including, without limitation, waivers, amendments, redemptions and offers to purchase.

Section 2.08 Replacement Notes.

(a) If any mutilated Note is surrendered to the Trustee or the Issuer and the Trustee receives evidence to its satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Note, the Issuer will issue and the Trustee, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, will authenticate a replacement Note if the Trustee's requirements are met. An indemnity bond must be supplied by the Holder that is sufficient in the judgment of the Trustee and the Issuer to protect the Issuer, the Trustee, any Agent and any authenticating agent from any loss that any of them may suffer if a Note is replaced. The Issuer may charge for its expenses in replacing a Note.

(b) Every replacement Note is an additional obligation of the Issuer and will be entitled to all of the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with all other Notes duly issued hereunder.

Section 2.09 Outstanding Notes.

(a) The Notes outstanding at any time are all the Notes authenticated by the Trustee except for those canceled by it, those delivered to it for cancellation, those reductions in the interest in a Global Note effected by the Trustee in accordance with the provisions hereof or any applicable supplemental indenture, and those described in this Section 2.09 as not outstanding. Except as set forth in Section 2.10 hereof, a Note does not cease to be outstanding because the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer holds the Note.

(b) If a Note is replaced pursuant to Section 2.07 hereof, it ceases to be outstanding unless the Trustee receives proof satisfactory to it that the replaced Note is held by a protected purchaser.

(c) If the principal amount of any Note is considered paid under Section 4.01 hereof, it ceases to be outstanding and interest on it ceases to accrue.

(d) If the Paying Agent (other than the Issuer, a Subsidiary of the Issuer or an Affiliate of any thereof) holds, on a redemption date or maturity date, money sufficient to pay

Notes payable on that date, then on and after that date such Notes will be deemed to be no longer outstanding and will cease to accrue interest.

Section 2.10 Treasury Notes.

In determining whether the Holders of the required principal amount of Notes have concurred in any direction, waiver or consent pursuant to the Note Documents, Notes owned by the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor, or by any Person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under direct or indirect common control with the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor, will be considered as though not outstanding, except that for the purposes of determining whether the Trustee will be protected in relying on any such direction, waiver or consent, only Notes that a Responsible Officer of the Trustee actually knows are so owned will be so disregarded.

Section 2.11 Temporary Notes.

(a) Until certificates representing Notes are ready for delivery, the Issuer may prepare and the Trustee, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, will authenticate temporary Notes. Temporary Notes will be substantially in the form of certificated Notes but may have variations that the Issuer considers appropriate for temporary Notes and as may be reasonably acceptable to the Trustee. Without unreasonable delay, the Issuer will prepare and the Trustee will authenticate Definitive Notes in exchange for temporary Notes.

(b) Holders of temporary Notes will be entitled to all of the benefits of this Indenture as the Definitive Notes.

Section 2.12 Cancellation.

The Issuer at any time may deliver Notes to the Trustee for cancellation. The Registrar and Paying Agent will forward to the Trustee any Notes surrendered to them for registration of transfer, exchange or payment. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee and no one else will cancel all Notes surrendered for registration of transfer, exchange, payment, replacement or cancellation and will dispose of such canceled Notes in its customary manner. Certification of the disposition of all canceled Notes will be delivered to the Issuer at the Issuer's written request. The Issuer may not issue new Notes to replace Notes that it has paid or that have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

Section 2.13 CUSIP / ISIN Numbers.

The Issuer in issuing the Notes may use "CUSIP" or "ISIN" numbers (if then generally in use), and, if so, the Trustee shall use "CUSIP" or "ISIN" numbers in notices of redemption as a convenience to Holders; provided that any such notice may state that no representation is made as to the correctness of such numbers either as printed on the Notes or as contained in any notice of a redemption and that reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers printed on the Notes, and any such redemption shall not be affected by any defect in or omission of such numbers. The Issuer will promptly notify the Trustee in writing of any change in the "CUSIP" or "ISIN" numbers.

ARTICLE 3
REDEMPTION AND PREPAYMENT

Section 3.01 Notices to Trustee.

The Issuer may, with respect to the Notes, reserve the right to redeem and pay the Notes or may covenant to redeem and pay the Notes or any part thereof prior to the Stated Maturity thereof at such time and on such terms as provided for in such Notes. If a Note is redeemable and the Issuer elects or is obligated to redeem such Notes pursuant to the provisions of such Notes, it must furnish to the Trustee, at least 2 days prior to the date of the notice of redemption pursuant to Section 3.03, unless a shorter period is acceptable to the Trustee, an Officer's Certificate setting forth:

(1) the clause of the Notes pursuant to which the redemption shall occur;

(2) the redemption date;

(3) the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed;

(4) the redemption price; and

(5) the applicable CUSIP numbers, if any.

Section 3.02 Selection of Notes to Be Redeemed.

If less than all of the Notes are to be redeemed at any time, the Notes to be redeemed will be selected on a pro rata pass-through distribution basis to the extent practicable or by lot or such other similar method in accordance with the Applicable Procedures, unless otherwise required by law or applicable stock exchange requirements (so long as the Trustee has actual knowledge of such listing). The Trustee shall not be liable for any selections made in accordance with this paragraph.

In the event of partial redemption by lot, the Notes to be redeemed shall be selected, unless otherwise provided herein, not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the redemption by the Trustee from the outstanding Notes not previously called for redemption.

The Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuer in writing of the Notes selected for redemption and, in the case of any Note selected for partial redemption, the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. Notes and portions of Notes selected shall be in minimum amounts of $2,000 or whole multiples of $1,000 in excess of $2,000; except that if all of the Notes of a Holder are to be redeemed, the entire outstanding amount of Notes held by such Holder, even if not a multiple of $1,000, shall be redeemed. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, provisions of this Indenture that apply to the Notes called for redemption also apply to portions of Notes called for redemption.

No Notes of $2,000 or less shall be redeemed in part. Notices of redemption shall be mailed by first-class mail or delivered electronically at least 10 but not more than 60 days before the redemption date to each Holder to be redeemed, except that redemption notices may be mailed or delivered electronically more than 60 days prior to a redemption date if the notice is issued in connection with a defeasance of the Notes or a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture.

If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to that Note shall state the portion of the principal amount of that Note that is to be redeemed. In the case of certificated Notes, a new Note in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of the original Note shall be issued in the name of the Holder upon cancellation of the original Note.

Section 3.03 Notice of Redemption.

At least 10 days but not more than 60 days before a redemption date, the Issuer shall mail or cause to be mailed, by first-class mail or delivered electronically, a notice of redemption to each Holder whose Notes are to be redeemed, except that redemption notices may be mailed or delivered electronically more than 60 days prior to a redemption date if the notice is issued in connection with a defeasance of the Notes or a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture pursuant to Article 8 or Article 10 hereof.

The notice will identify the Notes to be redeemed and will state:

(1) the redemption date;

(2) the redemption price;

(3) if any Note is being redeemed in part, the portion of the principal amount of such Note to be redeemed and that, after the redemption date upon surrender of such Note, in the case of certificated Notes, a new Note or Notes in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion will be issued in the name of the Holder upon cancellation of the original Note;

(4) the name and address of the Paying Agent;

(5) that Notes called for redemption must be surrendered to the Paying Agent to collect the redemption price;

(6) that, unless the Issuer defaults in making such redemption payment, interest on Notes called for redemption ceases to accrue on and after the redemption date;

(7) the applicable section of this Indenture and/or the Note pursuant to which the Notes called for redemption are being redeemed;

(8) that no representation is made as to the correctness or accuracy of the CUSIP number, if any, listed in such notice or printed on the Notes; and

(9) if such redemption is subject to the satisfaction of one of more conditions precedent, such notice shall state that, in the Issuer's discretion, the redemption date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Issuer in its sole discretion), such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all of such conditions shall not have been satisfied (or waived by the Issuer in its sole discretion) by the redemption date, or by the redemption date so delayed.

At the Issuer's request, the Trustee shall give the notice of redemption in the Issuer's name and at its expense; provided, however, that the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee, at least 2 days prior to the date of the notice of redemption (or such shorter period as the Trustee in its sole discretion may allow), an Officer's Certificate requesting that the Trustee give such notice and setting forth the information to be stated in such notice as provided in the preceding paragraph.

Notice of any redemption of the Notes may, at the Issuer's discretion, be given prior to the consummation of a transaction or event (including an Equity Offering, an incurrence of Indebtedness, a Change of Control Triggering Event or other transaction or event), and any such redemption may, in the Issuer's discretion, be subject to the satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent (including the consummation of an Equity Offering, an incurrence of Indebtedness, a Change of Control Triggering Event or other transaction or event). If such redemption is subject to the satisfaction of one of more conditions precedent, such notice shall state that, in the Issuer's discretion, the redemption date may be delayed until such time (including more than 60 days after the date the notice of redemption was mailed or delivered, including by electronic transmission) as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Issuer in its sole discretion), such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all of such conditions shall not have been satisfied (or waived by the Issuer in its sole discretion) by the redemption date, or by the redemption date so delayed. If any such condition precedent has not been satisfied, the Issuer shall provide notice to the Trustee and each Holder prior to the close of business two Business Days prior to the redemption date. Upon receipt of such notice, unless the Issuer has elected to delay, the notice of redemption shall be rescinded and the redemption of the Notes shall not occur. If requested by the Issuer, upon receipt of the rescission notice, the Trustee shall provide such notice to each Holder in the same manner in which the notice of redemption was given if such notice was delivered by the Trustee. In addition, the Issuer may provide in such notice that payment of the redemption price and performance of the Issuer's obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person.

Section 3.04 Effect of Notice of Redemption.

Once notice of redemption is mailed or delivered electronically in accordance with Section 3.03 hereof, Notes called for redemption become, subject to any conditions precedent set forth in the notice of redemption, irrevocably due and payable on the redemption date at the redemption price.

Section 3.05 Deposit of Redemption Price.

One Business Day prior to the redemption date, the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee or with the Paying Agent money sufficient to pay the redemption price of, accrued interest to but excluding the redemption date, and premium, if any, on all Notes to be redeemed on that date. Promptly after the Issuer's written request, the Trustee or the Paying Agent shall promptly return to the Issuer any money deposited with the Trustee or the Paying Agent by the Issuer in excess of the amounts necessary to pay the redemption price of, accrued interest, and premium, if any, on, all Notes to be redeemed.

If the Issuer complies with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, on and after the redemption date, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes or the portions of Notes called for redemption.

If a Note is redeemed on or after an interest record date but on or prior to the related interest payment date, then any accrued and unpaid interest shall be paid to the Person in whose name such Note was registered at the close of business on such record date. If any Note called for redemption is not so paid upon surrender for redemption because of the failure of the Issuer to comply with the preceding paragraph, interest shall be paid on the unpaid principal, from the redemption date until such principal is paid, and to the extent lawful on any interest not paid on such unpaid principal, in each case at the rate provided in the Notes and in Section 4.01 hereof.

Section 3.06 Notes Redeemed in Part.

Upon surrender of a Note that is redeemed in part, the Issuer shall issue and, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall authenticate for the Holder at the expense of the Issuer a new Note equal in principal amount to the unredeemed portion of the Note surrendered.

Section 3.07 Calculation of Redemption Price.

The Trustee shall have no obligation to calculate the redemption price of any Note.

Upon any redemption that requires the payment of the Applicable Premium (as defined in the relevant Note) (including, without limitation, in connection with the Issuer's exercise of its Legal Defeasance option or Covenant Defeasance option as set forth in Article 8 or the discharge of the Issuer's obligations under the Note Documents in accordance with Article 10), the amount deposited with the Trustee shall be sufficient for purposes of this Indenture to the extent that an amount is deposited with the Trustee equal to the Applicable Premium calculated as of the date of the notice of redemption, with any deficit as of the date of redemption (any such amount, the "Applicable Premium Deficit") only required to be deposited with the Trustee on or prior to the date of redemption. Any Applicable Premium Deficit shall be set forth in an Officer's Certificate delivered to the Trustee simultaneously with the deposit of such Applicable Premium Deficit that confirms that such Applicable Premium Deficit shall be applied toward such redemption.

COVENANTS

Section 4.01 Payment of Notes.

The Issuer shall pay or cause to be paid the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes on the dates and in the manner provided in this Indenture and the Notes. Principal, premium, if any, and interest will be considered paid on the date due if the Paying Agent, if other than the Issuer or a Subsidiary thereof, holds as of 11:00 a.m. New York City time on the due date money deposited by the Issuer in immediately available funds and designated for and sufficient to pay all principal, premium, if any, and interest then due.

Section 4.02 Maintenance of Office or Agency.

(a) The Issuer shall, for the benefit of Holders, maintain an office or agency (which may be an office of the Trustee or an Affiliate of the Trustee or Registrar) where Notes may be surrendered for registration of transfer or for exchange and where notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Notes and this Indenture may be served. The Issuer shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee of the location, and any change in the location, of such office or agency. If at any time the Issuer fails to maintain any such required office or agency or fails to furnish the Trustee with the address thereof, such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands may be made or served at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee.

(b) The Issuer may also from time to time designate one or more other offices or agencies where the Notes may be presented or surrendered for any or all such purposes and may from time to time rescind such designations. The Issuer shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee of any such designation or rescission and of any change in the location of any such other office or agency.

(c) The Issuer hereby designates the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee for such Notes as one such office or agency of the Issuer in accordance with Section 2.03 hereof; provided, however, the Trustee shall not be deemed an agent of the Issuer for the service of legal process.

Section 4.03 Compliance Certificate.

(a) The Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee, within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2023, an Officer's Certificate stating that a review of the activities of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries during the preceding fiscal year has been made under the supervision of the signing Officers with a view to determining whether the Issuer has kept, observed, performed and fulfilled its obligations under this Indenture, and further stating, as to such Officer signing such certificate, that to the best of his or her knowledge the Issuer has kept, observed, performed and fulfilled each and every covenant contained in this Indenture and is not in default in the performance or observance of any of the terms, provisions and conditions of this Indenture (or, if a Default or Event of Default has occurred, describing all such Defaults or Events of Default of which he or she may have knowledge and what action the Issuer is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto) and that to the best of his or her knowledge no event has occurred and remains in existence by reason of which payments on account of the principal of or interest, if any, on the Notes is prohibited or if such event has occurred, a description of the event and what action the Issuer is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

(b) So long as any of the Notes are outstanding, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee, promptly upon the Issuer becoming aware of any Default or Event of Default, an Officer's Certificate specifying such Default or Event of Default and what action the Issuer is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

Section 4.04 Limitation on Indebtedness.

(a) The Issuer will not, and will not permit any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, create, incur, issue, assume, guarantee or otherwise become directly or indirectly liable, contingently or otherwise (collectively, "incur" and collectively, an "incurrence") any Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness); provided, however, that the Issuer and any of its Restricted Subsidiaries may incur Indebtedness (including Acquired Indebtedness), if on the date thereof and after giving effect thereto on a Pro Forma Basis (after giving effect to the application of the proceeds of such incurrence) either (x) the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio of the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries (calculated on a Pro Forma Basis) would have been at least 2.00 to 1.00 or (y) the Consolidated Total Net Leverage Ratio of the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries (calculated on a Pro Forma Basis) would have been equal to or less than (i) at any time prior to the Q2 2024 Financials Date, 3.25 to 1.00 or (ii) at any time on or after the Q2 2024 Financials Date, 3.75 to 1.00.

(b) Section 4.04(a) will not prohibit the incurrence of the following (collectively "Permitted Debt"):

(1) Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary incurred under one or more Credit Facilities and the issuance and creation of letters of credit and bankers' acceptances thereunder (with undrawn trade letters of credit and reimbursement obligations relating to trade letters of credit satisfied within 30 days being excluded, and bankers' acceptances being deemed to have a principal amount equal to the face amount thereof), in an aggregate principal amount outstanding at any one time not to exceed (A) $1,825.0 million (provided that such principal amount will increase by up to $100.0 million if the Issuer procures a revolving facility or an upsize of the revolving facility in the Exit Facilities Credit Agreement, or a commitment thereto, from a relationship bank, in the amount of such facility or commitment, in each case at or prior to the Completion Date) plus (B) the greater of (i) $440.0 million and (ii) solely on or after the financial statements required pursuant to Section 4.09 for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2024, 75% of Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA for the most recently ended Test Period (calculated on a Pro Forma Basis) at the time of incurrence or issuance plus (C) an additional amount such that on a Pro Forma Basis, (i) in the case of Indebtedness secured by Liens on the Collateral that rank pari passu with the Liens securing the Notes, the Consolidated First Lien Net Leverage Ratio is less than or equal to (x) at any time prior to the Q2 2024 Financials Date, 2.00 to 1.00 or (y) at any time on or after the Q2 2024 Financials Date, 2.50 to 1.00 and (ii) in the case of other Indebtedness, the Consolidated Secured Net Leverage Ratio is less than or equal to (x) at any time prior to the Q2 2024 Financials Date, 2.50 to 1.00 or (y) at any time on or after the Q2 2024 Financials Date, 3.00 to 1.00 (assuming, to the extent incurred pursuant to this clause (C)(ii), that all such Indebtedness is secured whether or not so secured);

(2) Indebtedness of the Issuer and any Subsidiary Guarantor of Indebtedness represented by the Notes (including any Subsidiary Guarantee thereof) (other than any Additional Notes, if any, or Subsidiary Guarantees with respect thereto);

(3) Indebtedness of the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries in existence on the Completion Date (other than Indebtedness described in clauses (1) and (2) of this Section 4.04(b)) after giving effect to the Transactions;

(4) Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary owed to the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary; provided that all such Indebtedness owed to any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor is expressly subordinated in right of payment (but only to the extent permitted by Applicable Law) to the Notes;

(5) Indebtedness in respect of any bankers' acceptance, bank guarantees, letter of credit, warehouse receipt or similar facilities entered into in the ordinary course of business (including in respect of construction and restoration activities and in respect of workers compensation claims, health, disability or other employee benefits or property, casualty or liability insurance or self-insurance or other Indebtedness with respect to reimbursement-type obligations regarding workers compensation claims and similar obligations);

(6) any Guarantee Obligations incurred by (i) Restricted Subsidiaries in respect of Indebtedness of the Issuer or any other Restricted Subsidiary that is permitted to be incurred under this Indenture and (ii) the Issuer in respect of Indebtedness of Restricted Subsidiaries that is permitted to be incurred under this Indenture; provided that (A) if the Indebtedness being guaranteed under this clause (6) is by its express terms subordinated in right of payment to the Notes or the Subsidiary Guarantee of such Restricted Subsidiary, as applicable, any such Guarantee Obligations shall be subordinated in right of payment to the Notes or such Subsidiary Guarantee, as applicable, substantially to the same extent as such Indebtedness is subordinated to the Notes or the Subsidiary Guarantee, as applicable and (B) the aggregate principal amount of Guarantee Obligations incurred by Restricted Subsidiaries that are not Subsidiary Guarantors under this clause (6), shall not exceed the greater of (x) $100.0 million and (y) solely on or after the Q2 2024 Financials Date, 20% of Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA for the most recently ended Test Period (calculated on a Pro Forma Basis) at the time of incurrence or issuance, in each case at any time outstanding;

(7) Guarantee Obligations (i) incurred in the ordinary course of business (including in respect of construction or restoration activities) in respect of obligations of

(or to) suppliers, customers, franchisees, lessors and licensees, (ii) otherwise constituting Restricted Payments permitted under this Indenture or Permitted Investments or (iii) contemplated by the Plan;

(8) (i) Indebtedness (including Indebtedness arising under Capital Leases) incurred to finance the purchase price, cost of design, acquisition, construction, repair, restoration, replacement, expansion, installation or improvement of fixed or capital assets or otherwise in respect of capital expenditures, so long as such Indebtedness, except in the case of Environmental CapEx or Necessary CapEx, is incurred within 270 days of the acquisition, construction, repair, restoration, replacement, expansion, installation or improvement of such fixed or capital assets or incurrence of such capital expenditure, (ii) Indebtedness arising under Capital Leases entered into in connection with Permitted Sale Leasebacks and (iii) Indebtedness arising under Capital Leases, other than Capital Leases in effect on the Completion Date and Capital Leases entered into pursuant to subclauses (i) and (ii) above; provided, that the aggregate principal amount of Indebtedness incurred pursuant to this clause (iii) shall not exceed the greater of (x) $200.0 million and (y) solely on or after the Q2 2024 Financials Date, 35% of Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA for the most recently ended Test Period (calculated on a Pro Forma Basis) at the time of incurrence or issuance, in each case at any time outstanding;

(b) If the Issuer is a Subsidiary of any direct or indirect parent company, the financial information required by the preceding paragraph may be those of such direct or indirect parent company instead of the Issuer; provided that, if there are material differences (as determined in good faith by the Issuer) between the consolidated results of operations and financial condition of such direct or indirect parent company and its consolidated Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and of the Issuer and its consolidated Subsidiaries, on the other hand, the quarterly and annual information required by the preceding paragraph will include a discussion of such material differences in reasonable detail as determined in good faith by the Issuer. For the avoidance of doubt, the information referred to in the proviso in the preceding sentence need not be audited.

(c) The Issuer will be deemed to have satisfied its obligation to deliver information under this Section 4.09 if information is filed or furnished with the SEC for public availability or is posted on a website (which may be nonpublic and may be password-protected) hosted by the Issuer or by a third party, in each case within the applicable time periods specified above. To the extent that any information required by this Section 4.09 is not delivered to Holders within the applicable time periods specified above and such information is subsequently delivered, the Issuer will be deemed to have satisfied its obligations under this Section 4.09 with respect to such information and any default or Event of Default with respect thereto will be deemed to have been cured and any acceleration of the Notes resulting therefrom will be deemed to have been rescinded so long as such rescission would not conflict with any applicable judgment or decree.

(d) For so long as any Notes remain outstanding, if at any time the Issuer is not required to file with the SEC the reports referred to in the preceding paragraphs, the Issuer will furnish to the Holders and to securities analysts and prospective investors, upon their request, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

(e) To the extent any such reports, information and documents are delivered to the Trustee, such delivery is for informational purposes only and the Trustee's receipt of such will not constitute actual or constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein, including compliance by the Issuer and the Subsidiary Guarantors with any of their covenants under this Indenture (as to which the Trustee is entitled to rely exclusively on Officer's Certificates). The Trustee shall have no duty to review or analyze reports delivered under this Section 4.09.

(f) During registration with respect to a Qualified IPO, the Issuer or other Person that may provide the information required by this Section 4.09 will not be required to disclose any information or take any actions that, in the view of the Issuer, would violate the applicable securities laws or the SEC's "gun jumping" rules or otherwise have an adverse effect on the Qualified IPO.

Section 4.10 Designation of Restricted Subsidiaries, Unrestricted Subsidiaries and Excluded Project Subsidiaries

(a) The Issuer may designate any Restricted Subsidiary (including any Restricted Subsidiary or any newly acquired or newly formed Restricted Subsidiary) to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary or an Excluded Project Subsidiary (a "Designation") so long as:

(1) no Event of Default exists or would result from such Designation after giving Pro Forma Effect thereto;

(2) such Designation would be permitted under Section 4.05 or the definition of "Permitted Investment".

(b) If, at any time, any Unrestricted Subsidiary would fail to meet the foregoing requirements as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, it shall thereafter cease to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary for purposes of this Indenture, and any Indebtedness of such Subsidiary shall be deemed to be incurred as of such date.

(c) If, at any time, any Excluded Project Subsidiary remains a Restricted Subsidiary of the Issuer, but fails to meet the requirements set forth in the definition of "Non-Recourse Subsidiary", it shall thereafter cease to be an Excluded Project Subsidiary for purposes of this Indenture and, unless it is, or has been, designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary at or prior to the time of such failure, such Subsidiary shall be deemed to be a Restricted Subsidiary for all purposes of this Indenture and any then outstanding Indebtedness of such Subsidiary that would otherwise only have been permitted to have been incurred by an Excluded Project Subsidiary will be deemed to be incurred by a Restricted Subsidiary that is not an Excluded Project Subsidiary as of such date.

(d) The Issuer may revoke any designation of a Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary or an Excluded Project Subsidiary (a "Revocation") only if, immediately after giving effect to such Revocation:

(e) Any such Designation or Revocation shall be evidenced to the Trustee by filing with the Trustee an Officer's Certificate certifying that such Designation or Revocation complies with the foregoing conditions.

(f) A Revocation will be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness by a Restricted Subsidiary of any outstanding Indebtedness of such Unrestricted Subsidiary or Excluded Project Subsidiary, as applicable.

(g) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Subsidiary may be designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary if (a) such Subsidiary owns any Material Intellectual Property at the time of designation or (b) after such designation, it would be a "Restricted Subsidiary" for the purpose of (or otherwise subject to the covenants governing) any Material Indebtedness for borrowed money that is secured on a pari passu basis with the Notes.

Section 4.11 Offer to Repurchase Upon a Change of Control Triggering Event.

(a) If a Change of Control Triggering Event occurs, unless a third party makes a Change of Control Offer or the Issuer has previously or substantially concurrently therewith delivered a redemption notice with respect to all the outstanding Notes as described in Section 4.11(d), each Holder will have the right to require the Issuer to repurchase all or any part (equal to $2,000 or an integral multiple of $1,000 in excess thereof) of that Holder's Notes pursuant to a change of control offer (the "Change of Control Offer"). In the Change of Control Offer, the Issuer will offer a payment (the "Change of Control Payment") in cash equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on the Notes to but excluding the date of purchase, subject to the rights of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date. (2) the purchase price and the purchase date, which date will be no earlier than 10 days and no later than 60 days from the date such notice is mailed or delivered electronically (the "Change of Control Payment Date");

(3) that any Note not tendered will continue to accrue interest;

(4) that, unless the Issuer defaults in the payment of the Change of Control Payment, all Notes accepted for payment pursuant to the Change of Control Offer will cease to accrue interest after the Change of Control Payment Date;

(5) that Holders electing to have any Notes purchased pursuant to a Change of Control Offer shall be required to surrender the Notes, with the form entitled "Option of Holder to Elect Purchase" on the reverse of the Notes completed, to the Paying Agent at the address specified in the notice prior to the close of business on the third Business Day preceding the Change of Control Payment Date;

(6) that Holders will be entitled to withdraw their election if the Paying Agent receives, not later than the close of business on the second Business Day preceding the Change of Control Payment Date, a telegram, telex, email, facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of Notes delivered for purchase, and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing his election to have the Notes purchased; and

(7) that Holders whose Notes are being purchased only in part will be issued new Notes equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered, which unpurchased portion must be equal to $2,000 in principal amount or an integral multiple of $1,000 in excess of $2,000.

(b) The Issuer shall comply with the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act and any other securities laws and regulations thereunder to the extent those laws and regulations are applicable in connection with the repurchase of the Notes as a result of a Change of Control Triggering Event. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws, rules or regulations conflict with the provisions of this Section 4.11, the Issuer shall comply with the applicable securities laws, rules and regulations, including Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act, and shall not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 4.11 by virtue of such compliance. The Issuer may rely on any no-action letters issued by the SEC indicating that the staff of the SEC will not recommend enforcement action in the event a tender offer satisfies certain conditions.

(c) On the Change of Control Payment Date, the Issuer shall, to the extent lawful:

(1) accept for payment all Notes or portions of Notes validly tendered pursuant to the Change of Control Offer;

(2) deposit with the Paying Agent an amount equal to the Change of Control Payment in respect of all Notes or portions of Notes validly tendered; and

(3) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee the Notes validly tendered together with an Officer's Certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of Notes or portions of Notes being purchased by the Issuer.

The Paying Agent shall promptly deliver to each Holder validly tendered the Change of Control Payment for the Notes, and the Trustee shall promptly authenticate and deliver (or cause to be transferred by book entry) to each Holder a new Note equal in principal amount to any unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered, if any; provided that each new Note shall be in a minimum principal amount of $2,000 or an integral multiple of $1,000 in excess thereof. The Issuer shall notify the Holders and the Trustee of the results of the Change of Control Offer on or as soon as practicable after the Change of Control Payment Date.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 4.11, the Issuer shall not be required to make a Change of Control Offer upon a Change of Control Triggering Event if (1) a third party makes the Change of Control Offer in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in this Section 4.11 and purchases all such Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn under the Change of Control Offer, or (2) notice of redemption with has been previously given or is concurrently given pursuant to Section 3.03 hereof, unless and until there is a default in payment of the applicable redemption price. A Change of Control Offer may be made in advance of a Change of Control Triggering Event, with the obligation to pay and the timing of payment conditioned upon the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event, if a definitive agreement to effect a Change of Control is in place at the time the Change of Control Offer is made.

(e) A Change of Control Offer may be made at the same time as consents are solicited with respect to an amendment, supplement or waiver of this Indenture, the Notes and/or the Subsidiary Guarantees (but the Change of Control Offer may not condition tenders on the delivery of such consents). In addition, the Issuer or any third party that is making the Change of Control Offer may, subject to Applicable Law, increase the Change of Control Payment being offered to Holders at any time in its sole discretion.

Section 4.12 Application of Covenants.

(a) The covenants set forth in this Article 4 (other than Section 4.01 and Section 4.02) and Article 5 will not apply to the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries until the Completion Date. However, on and after the Completion Date, all covenants set forth in this Article 4 and Article 5 will be deemed to have been applicable to the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries beginning on the Issue Date and, to the extent that the Issuer and its Restricted Subsidiaries took any action or inaction after the Issue Date and prior to the Completion Date that is prohibited under this Indenture, the Issuer will be in Default on such date. Without limiting the foregoing, if a Change of Control Triggering Event occurs prior to the Completion Date, such event will be deemed to have occurred on such date.

Section 4.13 Effectiveness of Covenants.

(a) If on any date following the Issue Date:

(1) an Investment Grade Event has occurred; and

(2) the Issuer delivers to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate certifying to the foregoing clause (1) (the occurrence of the events described in the foregoing clauses (1) and (2) being collectively referred to as a "Covenant Suspension Event")

then, beginning on that day and continuing at all times thereafter until the Reversion Date, Section 4.04, Section 4.05, Section 4.08 and Section 5.01(a)(4) will no longer be applicable to the Notes (collectively, the "Suspended Covenants"):

(b) In the event that the Issuer and the Restricted Subsidiaries are not subject to the Suspended Covenants for any period of time as a result of the foregoing, then on and after any Reversion Date, the Issuer and the Restricted Subsidiaries will thereafter again be subject to the Suspended Covenants with respect to future events. The period of time between the Covenant Suspension Event and the Reversion Date is referred to as the "Suspension Period."

(c) On each Reversion Date, all Indebtedness incurred during the preceding Suspension Period will be classified as having been incurred or issued pursuant to Section 4.04(b)(3). Calculations made after the Reversion Date of the amount available to be made as Restricted Payments under Section 4.05 will be made as though Section 4.05 had been in effect prior to, and during, the Suspension Period. No Default or Event of Default will be deemed to have occurred on the Reversion Date as a result of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by the Issuer or the Restricted Subsidiaries during the Suspension Period. On and after each Reversion Date, the Issuer and its Subsidiaries will be permitted to consummate the transactions contemplated by any contract entered into during the Suspension Period so long as such contract and such consummation would have been permitted during such Suspension Period.

(d) The Issuer shall deliver an Officer's Certificate to the Trustee notifying the Trustee of the commencement of any Suspension Period or the occurrence of any Reversion Date promptly after such commencement or occurrence, as the case may be, and the Trustee shall have no obligation to monitor or determine whether a Suspension Period or a Reversion Date has occurred or exists. The Trustee may provide a copy of the aforementioned Officer's Certificate to any Holder of Notes upon request.

SUCCESSORS

Section 5.01 Issuer.

(a) The Issuer may not, directly or indirectly: (i) consolidate or merge with or into another Person (whether or not the Issuer is the surviving corporation); or (ii) sell, assign, transfer, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the properties or assets of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, in one or more related transactions, to another Person; unless:

(1) either:

(A) the Issuer is the surviving entity; or

(B) the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger (if other than the Issuer) or to which such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance, lease or other disposition has been made is an entity organized or existing under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia (such Person, as the case may be, being herein called the "Successor Issuer");

(2) the Successor Issuer (if other than the Issuer) expressly assumes all the Obligations of the Issuer under this Indenture, the Notes and, if applicable, prior to a Release Event, the Note Security Documents, and in connection therewith shall cause instruments to be filed and recorded and take such other actions as may be required by Applicable Law to perfect or continue the perfection of the Lien created under the Note Security Documents on the Collateral owned by or transferred to such other Person, in each case, pursuant to documents in such form as are reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee and the Collateral Trustee;

(3) immediately after such transaction, no Event of Default exists; and

(4) immediately after giving pro forma effect to such transaction and any related financing transactions, as if such transactions had occurred at the beginning of the Test Period,

(A) the Successor Issuer would be permitted to incur at least $1.00 of additional Indebtedness pursuant to Section 4.04(a) or

(B) either (x) the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio would be equal to or greater than the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio or (y) the Consolidated Total Net Leverage Ratio would be equal to or less than the Consolidated Total Net Leverage Ratio, in each case, for the Test Period immediately prior to such transaction; and

(5) prior to a Release Event, to the extent any assets of the Person which is merged, consolidated or amalgamated with or into the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger are assets of the type which would constitute Collateral under the Note Security Documents, the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger will take such action as may be reasonably necessary to cause such property and assets to be made subject to the Lien of the Note Security Documents in the manner and to the extent required in this Indenture or any of the Note Security

Documents and shall take all reasonably necessary action so that such Lien is perfected to the extent required by the Note Security Documents.

Section 5.02 Subsidiary Guarantors.

(a) Subject to Section 11.03, no Subsidiary Guarantor may, directly or indirectly: (1) consolidate or merge with or into another Person (whether or not such Subsidiary Guarantor is the surviving corporation) or (2) sell, assign, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its properties or assets, in one or more related transactions, to another Person (in each case other than the Issuer or another Subsidiary Guarantor); unless:

(1) either:

(A) such Subsidiary Guarantor is the surviving entity or

(B) the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger (if other than such Subsidiary Guarantor) or to which such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition has been made is an entity organized or existing under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia (such Person, as the case may be, being herein called the "Successor Subsidiary Guarantor");

(2) the Successor Subsidiary Guarantor assumes all the Obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor under (x) this Indenture and the Subsidiary Guarantee and (y) if applicable, prior to a Release Event, the Note Security Documents, and in connection therewith shall cause instruments to be filed and recorded and take such other actions as may be required by Applicable Law to perfect or continue the perfection of the Lien created under the Note Security Documents on the Collateral owned by or transferred to such other Person, in each case, pursuant to documents in such form as are reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee and the Collateral Trustee;

(3) immediately after such transaction, no Event of Default exists; and

(4) prior to a Release Event, to the extent any assets of the Person which is merged, consolidated or amalgamated with or into the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger are assets of the type which would constitute Collateral under the Note Security Documents, the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger will take such action as may be reasonably necessary to cause such property and assets to be made subject to the Lien of the Note Security Documents in the manner and to the extent required in this Indenture or any of the Note Security Documents and shall take all reasonably necessary action so that such Lien is perfected to the extent required by the Note Security Documents.

Section 5.03 Application.

(a) This Article 5 will not apply to:

(1) a merger, amalgamation or consolidation solely for the purpose of reincorporating or reorganizing the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor in another jurisdiction or forming a direct or indirect holding company of the Issuer;

(2) any sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance, lease or other disposition of assets between or among the Issuer and its Subsidiaries, including by way of merger or consolidation;

(3) any Permitted Reorganization Transaction, any Permitted Spin-Out Transaction, any IPO Reorganization Transaction, the IPOCo Transactions, the Completion Date Rights Offering, the Transactions or any transactions as contemplated by the Plan;

(4) a merger, amalgamation or consolidation of a Subsidiary Guarantor with or into the Issuer or another Subsidiary Guarantor; and

(5) any sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance or other disposition of the property of a Subsidiary Guarantor as an entirety or substantially as an entirety to the Issuer or another Subsidiary Guarantor.

Section 5.04 Substitution.

Upon any transaction that is subject to, and that complies with the provisions of, Section 5.01 or Section 5.02 hereof, the Successor Issuer or Successor Subsidiary Guarantor, as applicable, shall succeed to, and be substituted for (so that from and after the date of such consolidation, merger, sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition, the provisions of this Indenture referring to the "Issuer" or the "Subsidiary Guarantor", as applicable, shall refer instead to the Successor Issuer (and not to the Issuer) or the Successor Subsidiary Guarantor (and not to the Subsidiary Guarantor), as applicable), and may exercise every right and power of the Issuer or Subsidiary Guarantor, as applicable, under this Indenture with the same effect as if the Successor Issuer or Successor Subsidiary Guarantor, as applicable, had been named as the Issuer or Subsidiary Guarantor, as applicable, herein; provided, however, that the predecessor Issuer shall not be relieved from the obligation to pay the principal of, interest, premium (if any) on the Notes except in the case of a sale of all of the Issuer's assets in a transaction that is subject to, and that complies with the provisions of, Section 5.01 hereof.

DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

Section 6.01 Events of Default.

Each of the following is an "Event of Default" with respect to the Notes:

(1) default for 30 days in the payment when due of interest on the Notes;

(2) default in payment when due of the principal of, or premium, if any, on the Notes;

(3) failure by the Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor to comply with any covenant in this Indenture (other than a default specified in clause (1) or (2) of this Section 6.01) for 60 days after (or 120 days in the case of Section 4.09) written notice by the Trustee or Holders of at least 30% in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding;

(4) default under any document evidencing any indebtedness for borrowed money by the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor, whether such indebtedness now exists or is created after the Issue Date, if that default:

(A) is caused by a failure to pay principal when due at final (and not any interim) maturity on or prior to the expiration of any grace period provided in such indebtedness (a "Payment Default"); or

(B) results in the acceleration of such indebtedness prior to its express maturity (without such acceleration having been rescinded, annulled or otherwise cured), and, in each case, the principal amount of any such indebtedness, together with the principal amount of any other such indebtedness under which there has been a Payment Default or the maturity of which has been so accelerated (without such acceleration having been rescinded, annulled or otherwise cured), aggregates in excess of the greater of (a) $160.0 million and (b) solely on or after the Q2 2024 Financials Date, 30% of Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA for the most recently ended Test Period; provided that this Section 6.01(4) shall not apply to (i) secured indebtedness that becomes due as a result of the voluntary sale or transfer of the property or assets securing such indebtedness, (ii) any such Payment Default that is waived (including in the form of amendment) by the requisite holders of the applicable item of Indebtedness or contested in good faith by the Issuer or the applicable Subsidiary Guarantor and, (iii) any indebtedness that is required to be converted into Qualifying Equity Interests upon the occurrence of certain designated events so long as no payments in cash or otherwise are required to be made in accordance with such conversion;

(5) except as permitted by this Indenture, any Subsidiary Guarantee of any Subsidiary Guarantor (or any group of Subsidiary Guarantors) that constitutes a Significant Subsidiary shall be held in any final and non-appealable judicial proceeding to be unenforceable or invalid or shall cease for any reason (other than in accordance with its terms) to be in full force and effect or any Subsidiary Guarantor (or any group of Subsidiary Guarantors) that constitutes a Significant Subsidiary, or any Person acting on behalf of any Subsidiary Guarantor (or any group of Subsidiary Guarantors) that constitutes a Significant Subsidiary, shall deny or disaffirm in writing its or their obligations under its or their Subsidiary Guarantee(s);

(6) (a) a court of competent jurisdiction (i) enters an order or decree under any Bankruptcy Law that is for relief against the Issuer, any Subsidiary Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary or any group of Subsidiary Guarantors that, taken together, would constitute a Significant Subsidiary in an involuntary case; (ii) appoints a custodian for all or substantially all of the property of the Issuer, any Subsidiary Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary or any group of Subsidiary Guarantors that, taken together, would constitute a Significant Subsidiary; or (iii) orders the liquidation of the Issuer, any Subsidiary Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary or any group of Subsidiary Guarantors that, taken together, would constitute a Significant Subsidiary and, in each of clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) of this Section 6.01(6), the order, appointment or decree remains unstayed and in effect for at least 60 consecutive days after the commencement of the actions described in such clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) of this Section 6.01(6), as applicable; or (b) the Issuer, any Subsidiary Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary or any group of Subsidiary Guarantors that, taken together, would constitute a Significant Subsidiary, pursuant to or within the meaning of Bankruptcy Law (i) commences a voluntary case; (ii) consents to the entry of an order for relief against it in an involuntary case; (iii) consents to the appointment of a custodian of it or for all or substantially all of its property; or (iv) makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; and

(7) other than by reason of the satisfaction in full of all Obligations under this Indenture and discharge of this Indenture or the release of such Collateral in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and the Note Security Documents (or any other reason provided herein or therein):

(A) in the case of any security interest with respect to Collateral having a fair market value in excess of the greater of (a) $160.0 million and (b) solely on or after the Q2 2024 Financials Date, 30% of Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA for the most recently ended Test Period, individually, such security interest under the Note Security Documents shall, at any time, cease to be a valid and perfected security interest or shall be declared invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction and any such default continues for 30 days after notice of such default shall have been given to the Issuer by the Trustee or the Holders of at least 30% in principal amount of the Notes that are outstanding, except to the extent that any such default (1) results from the failure of the Collateral Trustee to maintain possession of certificates, promissory notes or other instruments actually delivered to it representing securities pledged under the Note Security Documents or (2) to the extent relating to Collateral consisting of real property, is covered by a title insurance policy with respect to such real property and such insurer has not denied coverage; or

(B) the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary (or any group of Subsidiary Guarantors that, taken together, would constitute a Significant Subsidiary) shall assert, in any pleading in any court of competent jurisdiction, that any security interest under any Note Security Document is invalid or unenforceable.

Section 6.02 Acceleration.

In the case of an Event of Default with respect to the Issuer pursuant to Section 6.01(6), principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on all the Notes that are outstanding will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice. If any other Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee or the Holders of at least 30% in principal amount of the Notes that are outstanding may declare the principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on all the Notes to be due and payable immediately; provided that a notice of Default may not be given with respect to any action taken, and reported publicly or to Holders, more than two years prior to such notice of Default.

Section 6.03 Waiver of Past Defaults.

The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes that are then outstanding, by notice to the Trustee may, on behalf of the Holders, waive any existing Default or Event of Default and its consequences hereunder, except a continuing Default or Event of Default in the payment of interest on, or the principal of, such Notes (including in connection with an offer to purchase); provided, however, that the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may, on behalf of the Holders, rescind an acceleration and its consequences, including any related payment default that resulted from such acceleration. Upon any such waiver, such Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 6.04 Control by Majority.

Subject to the terms of the Collateral Trust Agreement, Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Notes that are then outstanding may direct the Trustee in its exercise of any trust or power in respect of the Notes. However, the Trustee may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or this Indenture or the Notes or, subject to Section 7.01 and Section 7.02, that the Trustee determines is unduly prejudicial to the rights of other Holders or would involve the Trustee in personal liability; provided, however, that the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction. The Trustee may withhold from Holders notice of any continuing Default or Event of Default if it determines that withholding notice is in their interest, except a Default or Event of Default relating to the payment of principal or interest.

Section 6.05 Limitations on Suits.

In case an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under this Indenture at the request or direction of any Holders unless such Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity and/or security reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee against any loss, liability or expense. Except to enforce the right to receive payment of principal, premium (if any) or interest when due, no Holder of a Note may pursue any remedy with respect to this Indenture unless:

(1) such Holder has previously given the Trustee notice that an Event of Default is continuing;

(2) Holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes that are then outstanding have requested the Trustee to pursue the remedy;

(3) such Holders have offered the Trustee reasonable security and/or indemnity against any loss, liability or expense;

(4) the Trustee has not complied with such request within 60 days after the receipt thereof and the offer of security or indemnity;

(5) Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes that are then outstanding have not given the Trustee a direction inconsistent with such request within such 60-day period; and

(6) such Holders are not prohibited from taking such action pursuant to the terms of the Collateral Trust Agreement.

Section 6.06 Collection Suit by Trustee.

Subject to the Collateral Trust Agreement, if an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(1) or Section 6.01(2) occurs and is continuing, the Trustee is authorized to recover judgment in its own name and as trustee of an express trust against the Issuer for the whole amount of principal of, premium, if any, and interest remaining unpaid on the Notes and interest on overdue principal and, to the extent lawful, interest and such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel. The Trustee may maintain a proceeding even if it does not possess any of the Notes or does not produce any of them in the proceeding.

Section 6.07 Priorities.

Subject to the Collateral Trust Agreement, if the Trustee collects any money pursuant to this Article 6, it shall pay out the money in the following order:

First: to the Trustee, its agents and attorneys for amounts due under the Note Documents, including payment of all compensation, expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and the costs and expenses of collection;

Second: to Holders of Notes for amounts due and unpaid on the Notes for principal, premium, if any, and interest, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Notes for principal, premium, if any, and interest, respectively; and Third: to the Issuer or to such party as a court of competent jurisdiction shall direct.

The Trustee may fix a record date and payment date for any payment to Holders of Notes pursuant to this Section 6.07.

Section 6.08 Trustee May File Proofs of Claim.

The Trustee may file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel) and the Holders allowed in any judicial proceedings relative to the Issuer, its Subsidiaries or its or their respective creditors or properties and, unless prohibited by law or applicable regulations, may be entitled and empowered to participate as a member of any official committee of creditors appointed in such matter and may vote on behalf of the Holders in any election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other Person performing similar functions, and any custodian or other party making payment in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay to the Trustee any amount due it for the compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and its counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee under Section 7.06 hereof. No provision of this Indenture shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Holder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in any such proceeding.

Section 6.09 Holder Representation.

(a) Any notice of Default, notice of acceleration or instruction to the Trustee to provide a notice of Default, notice of acceleration or take any other action (a "Noteholder Direction") provided by any one or more Holders (each, a "Directing Holder") must be accompanied by a written representation from each such Holder delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee that such Holder is not (or, in the case such Holder is DTC or its nominee, that such Holder is being instructed solely by Beneficial Owners that are not) Net Short (a "Position Representation"), which representation, in the case of a Noteholder Direction relating to a notice of Default shall be deemed repeated at all times until the resulting Event of Default is cured or otherwise ceases to exist or the Notes are accelerated. In addition, each Directing Holder must, at the time of providing a Noteholder Direction, covenant to provide the Issuer with such other information as the Issuer may reasonably request from time to time in order to verify the accuracy of such Directing Holder's Position Representation within five Business Days of request therefor (a "Verification Covenant"). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in any case in which the Holder is DTC or its nominee, any Position Representation or Verification Covenant required hereunder shall be provided by the Beneficial Owner of the Notes in lieu of DTC or its nominee, and DTC shall be entitled to rely on such Position Representation and Verification Covenant in delivering its direction to the Trustee, and such Beneficial Owner shall provide proof of its holdings in a manner reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee.

(b) If, following the delivery of a Noteholder Direction, but prior to acceleration of the Notes, the Issuer determines in good faith that there is a reasonable basis to believe a Directing Holder was, at any relevant time, in breach of its Position Representation and provides to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate certifying that the Issuer has initiated litigation ("Litigation") in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking a determination that such Directing Holder was, at such time, in breach of its Position Representation, and seeking to invalidate any Default, Event of Default or acceleration (or notice thereof) that resulted from the applicable Noteholder Direction, the cure period with respect to such Default or Event of Default shall be automatically stayed and the cure period with respect to such Default or Event of Default shall be automatically reinstituted and any remedy stayed pending a final and non-appealable determination of a court of competent jurisdiction on such matter (a "Final Decision"). Once such Officer's Certificate has been provided to the Trustee, the Trustee shall take no further action pursuant to the related Noteholder Direction until it has actual knowledge of a Final Decision. Alternatively, if, following the delivery of a Noteholder Direction, but prior to acceleration of the Notes, the Issuer provides to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate certifying that a Directing Holder failed to satisfy its Verification Covenant (a "Verification Covenant Officer's Certificate"), the cure period with respect to such Default or Event of Default shall be automatically stayed and the cure period with respect to any Default or Event of Default that resulted from the applicable Noteholder Direction shall be automatically reinstituted and any remedy stayed until such time as the Issuer provides the Trustee with an Officer's Certificate that the Verification Covenant has been satisfied (a "Covenant Satisfaction Officer's Certificate"); provided that the Issuer shall promptly deliver such Officer's Certificate to the Trustee upon becoming aware that the Verification Covenant has been satisfied. Any breach of the Position Representation (as evidenced by the delivery to the Trustee of the Officer's Certificate stating that a Directing Holder failed to satisfy its Verification Covenant (a "Covenant Failure Officer's Certificate")) shall result in such Directing Holder's participation in such Noteholder Direction being disregarded; and if, without the participation of such Holder, the percentage of Notes held by the remaining Directing Holders that provided such Noteholder Direction would have been insufficient to validly provide such Noteholder Direction, such Noteholder Direction shall be void ab initio, with the effect that such Default or Event of Default shall be deemed never to have occurred, the related acceleration voided and the Trustee shall be deemed not to have received such Noteholder Direction or any notice of such Default or Event of Default and shall not be permitted to act thereon and shall be prohibited from accepting and acting on any future Noteholder Direction in relation to such Default or Event of Default. If the Directing Holder has satisfied its Verification Covenant, then the Trustee shall be permitted to act in accordance with such Noteholder Direction. Notwithstanding the above, if such Directing Holder's participation is not required to achieve the requisite level of consent of Holders required under this Indenture to validly give such Noteholder Direction, the Trustee shall be permitted to act in accordance with such Noteholder Direction notwithstanding any action taken or to be taken by the Issuer (as described above). The Trustee shall be entitled to conclusively rely on any Noteholder Direction or Officer's Certificate delivered to it in accordance with this Indenture without verification, investigation or otherwise as to the statements made therein.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in Section 6.09(a) or Section 6.09(b) to the contrary, (i) any Noteholder Direction delivered to the Trustee during the pendency of an Event of Default as the result of a bankruptcy or similar proceeding shall not require compliance with the foregoing paragraphs and (ii) a notice of Default may not be given with respect to any action taken, and reported publicly or to Holders, more than two years prior to such notice of Default.

(d) Each Holder by accepting a Note acknowledges and agrees that the Trustee (and any agent) shall not be liable to any party for acting or refraining to act in accordance with (i) the foregoing provisions, (ii) any Noteholder Direction, (iii) any Officer's Certificate, (iv) any Final Decision or (v) its duties under this Indenture, as the Trustee may determine in its sole discretion. For the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee shall have no duty or obligation (i) to monitor, investigate, verify or otherwise determine if a Holder (or Beneficial Owners) holds a Net Short position, (ii) to inquire as to or investigate the accuracy of any Position Representation, enforce compliance with any Verification Covenant or verify any statements in any Officer's Certificates delivered to it or otherwise make calculations with respect to Derivative Instruments, Net Shorts, Long Derivative Instruments, Short Derivative Instruments or otherwise, (iii) prior to acting pursuant to a Noteholder Direction, inquire if the Issuer will seek to take action to determine if a Directing Holder has breached its Position Representation, (iv) monitor any court proceedings undertaken in connection therewith, or (v) monitor or investigate whether any Default or Event of Default has been publicly reported. The Trustee shall have no obligation to monitor or determine whether a Holder is Net Short and can rely conclusively on a Directing Holder's Position Representation, the Officer's Certificates delivered by the Issuer and determinations made by a court of competent jurisdiction and shall have no liability for ceasing to take any action, staying any remedy or otherwise failing to act in accordance with a Noteholder Direction during the pendency of Litigation or a Noteholder Direction after a Verification Covenant Officer's Certificate has been provided but prior to receipt of a Covenant Satisfaction Officer's Certificate. The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility to the Issuer or to any Holder or any other Person in connection with any Noteholder Direction or to determine whether or not any Holder has delivered a Position Representation or that such Position Representation conforms with this Indenture or any other agreement.

TRUSTEE

Section 7.01 Duties of Trustee.

(a) If an Event of Default with respect to the Notes as to which it is Trustee has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee will exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise, as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

(b) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default:

(1) the duties of the Trustee will be determined solely by the express provisions of this Indenture and only with respect to the Notes as to which it is Trustee and the Trustee need perform only those duties that are specifically set forth in this Indenture and no others, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(2) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture. However, with respect to certificates or opinions specifically required by any provision hereof to be furnished to it, the Trustee will examine the certificates and opinions to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture (but need not confirm or investigate the accuracy of mathematical calculations or other facts stated therein).

(c) The Trustee may not be relieved from liabilities for its own grossly negligent action, its own grossly negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(1) this Section 7.01(c) does not limit the effect of Section 7.01(b);

(2) the Trustee will not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer, unless it is proved that the Trustee was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts; and

(3) the Trustee will not be liable with respect to any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in accordance with a direction received by it pursuant to Section 6.04 hereof, relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture with respect to the Notes.

(d) No provision of this Indenture will require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or incur any liability.

(e) The Trustee will not be liable for interest on or the investment of any money received by it except as the Trustee may agree in writing with the Issuer. Money held in trust by the Trustee need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

(f) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture that in any way relates to the Trustee is subject to Section 7.01.

Section 7.02 Rights of Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper Person.

(b) Before the Trustee acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officer's Certificate or an Opinion of Counsel or both. The Trustee will not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel. The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own selection and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel will be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon.

(c) The Trustee may act through its attorneys and agents and will not be responsible for the misconduct, negligence or failure to act of any attorney or agent appointed with due care.

(d) The Trustee will not be liable for any action it takes, suffers or omits to take in good faith that it believes to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture.

(e) In the event the Trustee receives inconsistent or conflicting requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders, each representing less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may determine what action, if any, will be taken and the Trustee shall be entitled not to take any action until such instructions have been resolved or clarified to its satisfaction and the Trustee shall not be or become liable in any way or person for any failure to comply with any conflicting, unclear or equivocal instructions.

(f) The permissive right of the Trustee to take the actions permitted by this Indenture will not be construed as an obligation or duty to do so.

(g) Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Indenture, any demand, request, direction or notice from the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor, as applicable, will be sufficient if signed by an Officer of the Issuer or such Subsidiary Guarantor, as applicable.

(h) The Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders unless such Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity and/or security satisfactory to the Trustee against the losses, liabilities and expenses that might be incurred by the Trustee in compliance with such request or direction.

(i) In no event shall the Trustee be responsible or liable for special, indirect, punitive, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(j) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of any Default or Event of Default unless a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice of any event which is in fact such a default is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee, and such notice references the Notes and this Indenture.

(k) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder as Registrar and Paying Agent, and each Agent, Custodian and other Person employed to act hereunder.

(l) The Trustee may request that the Issuer and each Subsidiary Guarantor deliver an Officer's Certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of Officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to this Indenture, which Officer's Certificate may be signed by any Person authorized to sign an Officer's Certificate, including any Person specified as so authorized in any such certificate previously delivered and not superseded.

(m) The Trustee shall not have any obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance, and shall not be responsible or liable for compliance with restrictions on transfer, exchange, redemption, purchase or repurchase, as applicable, of minimum denominations imposed under this Indenture or under applicable law or regulation with respect to any transfer, exchange, redemption, purchase or repurchase, as applicable, of any interest in any Notes.

(n) Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Trustee be liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Indenture because of circumstances beyond its control, including, but not limited to, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, flood, war (whether declared or undeclared), terrorism, fire, riot, strikes or work stoppages for any reason, embargo, government action, including any laws, ordinances, regulations or the like which restrict or prohibit the providing of the services contemplated by this Indenture, inability to obtain material, equipment, or communications or computer (software and hardware) facilities, or the failure of equipment or interruption of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) facilities, and other causes beyond its control whether or not of the same class or kind as specifically named above.

(o) The Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit, and, if the Trustee shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, it shall be entitled to examine the books, records and premises of the Issuer, personally or by agent or attorney at the sole cost of the Issuer and shall incur no liability or additional liability of any kind by reason of such inquiry or investigation.

(p) The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the performance of its powers and duties hereunder.

(q) The Trustee shall have no duty (A) to see any recording, filing, or depositing of this Indenture or any Note Security Document, or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of such recording or filing or depositing, or to any re- recording, refiling, or redepositing of any thereof, or otherwise monitoring the perfection, continuation of perfection, or the sufficiency or validity of any security interest in or related to any Collateral or (B) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Collateral.

(r) The Trustee may assume without inquiry in the absence of actual knowledge that the Issuer and each of the Restricted Subsidiaries is duly complying with their obligations contained in any Note Document required to be performed and observed by them, and that no Default or Event of Default or other event which would require repayment of the Notes has occurred.

(s) The Trustee shall have no obligation whatsoever to assure that the Collateral exists or is owned by any Grantor or is cared for, protected, insured or has been encumbered, or that any Liens on the Collateral have been properly or sufficiently or lawfully created, perfected, protected, maintained or enforced or are entitled to any particular priority, or to determine whether the property constituting collateral intending to be subject to the interest and the interest of the Note Security Documents has been properly and completely listed or delivered, as the case may be, or the genuineness, validity, marketability or sufficiency thereof or title thereto.

(t) The Trustee shall have no duty to monitor the performance or actions of the Collateral Trustee. The Trustee shall have no responsibility or liability for the actions or omissions of the Collateral Trustee. In each case that the Trustee is requested hereunder or under any of the Note Security Documents to give direction or provide any consent or approval to the Collateral Trustee, the Issuer or to any other party, the Trustee may seek direction from the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes. If the Trustee requests direction from the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes with respect to giving any direction to the Collateral Trustee, the Trustee shall be entitled to refrain from giving such direction unless and until the Trustee shall have received direction from the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes, and the Trustee shall not incur liability to any Person by reason of so refraining.

(u) At any time that the security granted pursuant to the Note Security Documents has become enforceable and the Holders have given a direction to the Trustee to enforce such security, the Trustee is not required to give any direction to the Collateral Trustee with respect thereto unless it has been indemnified in accordance with Section 7.02(h). In any event, in connection with any enforcement of such security, the Trustee is not responsible for:

(1) any failure of the Collateral Trustee to enforce such security within a reasonable time or at all;

(2) any failure of the Collateral Trustee to pay over the proceeds of enforcement of the Collateral;

(3) any failure of the Collateral Trustee to realize such security for the best price obtainable;

(4) monitoring the activities of the Collateral Trustee in relation to such enforcement;

(5) taking any enforcement action itself in relation to such security;

(6) agreeing to any proposed course of action by the Collateral Trustee which could result in the Trustee incurring any liability for its own account; or

(7) paying any fees, costs or expenses of the Collateral Trustee.

(v) No provision of this Indenture or of the Notes Documents shall require the Trustee to indemnify the Collateral Trustee, and the Collateral Trustee shall be required to waive any claim it may otherwise have by operation of law in any jurisdiction to be indemnified by the Trustee acting as principal vis-à-vis its agent, the Collateral Trustee (but this shall not prejudice the Collateral Trustee's rights to bring any claim or suit against the Trustee (including for damages in the case of gross negligence or willful default of the Trustee)).

(v) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to effect or maintain insurance or to renew any policies of insurance or to inquire as to the sufficiency of any policies of insurance carried by the Issuer or any Grantor, or to report, or make or file claims or proof of loss for, any loss or damage insured against it that may occur, or to keep itself informed or advised as to the payment of any taxes or assessments, or to require any such payment be made.

Section 7.03 Individual Rights of Trustee.

The Trustee in its individual or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with either the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor or any Affiliate of the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. However, in the event that the Trustee acquires any conflicting interest it must eliminate such conflict within 90 days, apply to the SEC for permission to continue as Trustee (if this Indenture has been qualified under the TIA) or resign. Any Agent may do the same with like rights and duties.

Section 7.04 Trustee's Disclaimer.

The Trustee will not be responsible for and makes no representation as to the validity or adequacy of any offering materials, the Note Documents, the Notes or any Subsidiary Guarantee; it shall not be accountable for the Issuer's use of the proceeds from the Notes or any money paid to the Issuer or upon the Issuer's direction under any provision of this Indenture; it will not be responsible for the use or application of any money received by any Paying Agent other than the Trustee; and it will not be responsible for any statement or recital herein or any statement in the Notes, any Subsidiary Guarantee or any other document in connection with the sale of the Notes or pursuant to this Indenture other than its certificate of authentication.

Section 7.05 Notice of Defaults.

If a Default or Event of Default occurs and is continuing and if it is known to the Trustee, the Trustee will mail or deliver electronically to Holders a notice of the Default or Event of Default within 90 days after it occurs. Except in the case of a Default or Event of Default in payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on, any Note, the Trustee may and shall be protected in withholding the notice if and so long as it in good faith determines that withholding the notice is in the interests of the Holders.

Section 7.06 Compensation and Indemnity.

(a) The Issuer and any Subsidiary Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay to the Trustee from time to time reasonable compensation, as agreed in writing from time to time, for its acceptance and administration of this Indenture and services hereunder. The Trustee's compensation will not be limited by any law on compensation of a Trustee of an express trust. The Issuer and any Subsidiary Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall reimburse the Trustee promptly upon request for all reasonable and documented disbursements, advances and expenses incurred or made by it in addition to the compensation for its services. Such expenses will include the reasonable and documented compensation, disbursements and expenses of the Trustee's agents and counsel.

(b) The Issuer and any Subsidiary Guarantor, jointly and severally, will indemnify the Trustee and hold it harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, damages, costs or expenses incurred by it arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of its duties or the exercise of its rights under this Indenture, each supplemental indenture and any Subsidiary Guarantees, including the reasonable and documented costs and expenses of enforcing this Indenture, each supplemental indenture and any Subsidiary Guarantees against the Issuer and any Subsidiary Guarantors (including this Section 7.06) and defending itself against any claim (whether asserted by the Issuer, any Subsidiary Guarantors, any Holder or any other Person) or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties under this Indenture and each supplemental indenture, except to the extent any such loss, liability or expense may be attributable to its own gross negligence or bad faith or willful misconduct. The Trustee will notify the Issuer promptly of any claim for which it may seek indemnity. Failure by the Trustee to so notify the Issuer will not relieve the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantors of their obligations hereunder. The Issuer or any such Subsidiary Guarantor shall defend the claim and the Trustee shall cooperate in the defense. The Trustee may have separate counsel and the Issuer and/or any Subsidiary Guarantors shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel. Neither the Issuer nor any Subsidiary Guarantor need pay for any settlement made without its consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(c) When the Trustee incurs expenses or renders services after an Event of Default specified in clause (6) of Section 6.01 hereof occurs, the expenses and the compensation for the services (including the fees and expenses of its agents and counsel) are intended to constitute expenses of administration under any Bankruptcy Law.

(d) The Issuer's and Subsidiary Guarantors' obligations under this Section 7.06 shall survive the resignation or removal of the Trustee, the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture with respect to any Notes, the complete satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, any termination of this Indenture or any supplemental indenture, including any termination or rejection of this Indenture or any supplemental indenture in any insolvency or similar proceeding, and the repayment of all the Notes.

Section 7.07 Replacement of Trustee.

(a) A resignation or removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor Trustee will become effective only upon the successor Trustee's acceptance of appointment as provided in this Section 7.07.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time, with respect to the Notes, and be discharged from the trust hereby created by so notifying the Issuer in writing. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may remove the Trustee by so notifying the Trustee and the Issuer in writing not less than 30 days prior to the effective date of such removal. The Issuer may remove the Trustee with respect to the Notes if:

(1) the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.09 hereof;

(2) the Trustee is adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent or an order for relief is entered with respect to the Trustee under any Bankruptcy Law;

(3) a custodian or public officer takes charge of the Trustee or its property; or

(4) the Trustee becomes incapable of acting.

(c) If the Trustee resigns or is removed or if a vacancy exists in the office of Trustee with respect to Notes for any reason, the Issuer will promptly appoint a successor Trustee. Within one year after the successor Trustee takes office, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may appoint a successor Trustee to replace the successor Trustee appointed by the Issuer.

(d) If a successor Trustee with respect to the Notes does not take office within 30 days after the retiring Trustee resigns or is removed, the retiring or removed Trustee, the Issuer, or the Holders of at least 10% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may, at the expense of the Issuer, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee, after written request by any Holder who has been a Holder for at least six months, fails to comply with Section 7.09 hereof, such Holder may petition at the expense of the Issuer any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) A successor Trustee will deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Trustee and to the Issuer. Thereupon, the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee will become effective, and the successor Trustee will have all the rights, powers and duties of the Trustee for which it is acting as Trustee under this Indenture. The successor Trustee will mail or deliver electronically a notice of its succession to Holders. The retiring Trustee will promptly transfer all property held by it as Trustee to the successor Trustee; provided that all sums owing to the Trustee hereunder have been paid.

(g) The retiring Trustee shall have no responsibility or liability for any action or inaction of a successor Trustee.

Section 7.08 Successor Trustee by Merger, etc.

If the Trustee consolidates, merges or converts into, or transfers all or substantially all of its corporate trust business (including this transaction) to, another corporation, the successor corporation without any further act will be the successor Trustee.

Section 7.09 Eligibility; Disqualification.

There will at all times be a Trustee hereunder that is an entity organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state thereof that is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, that is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authorities and that has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50.0 million as set forth in its most recent published annual report of condition.

LEGAL DEFEASANCE AND COVENANT DEFEASANCE

Section 8.01 Option to Effect Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance.

The Issuer may, at its option evidenced by a resolution of its Board of Directors set forth in an Officer's Certificate, at any time, elect to have either Section 8.02 or Section 8.03 hereof be applied to the Note Documents upon compliance with the conditions set forth below in this Article 8.

Section 8.02 Legal Defeasance.

Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 8.01 hereof of the option applicable to this Section 8.02, the Issuer and each of the Subsidiary Guarantors shall, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 8.04 hereof, be deemed to have been discharged from their obligations with respect to the Note Documents (including the Subsidiary Guarantees) on the date the conditions set forth in Section 8.04 hereof are satisfied (hereinafter, "Legal Defeasance"). For this purpose, Legal Defeasance means that the Issuer and any Subsidiary Guarantors shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire Indebtedness represented by the Notes (including any Subsidiary Guarantees with respect to the Notes), which will thereafter be deemed to be "outstanding" only for the purposes of Section 8.05 hereof and the other Sections hereof referred to in clauses (1) and (2) below, and to have satisfied all their other obligations under the applicable Note Documents (and the Trustee, on demand of and at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except for the following provisions which will survive until otherwise terminated or discharged hereunder:

(1) the rights of Holders of such Notes that are then outstanding to receive payments in respect of the principal of, or interest or premium on, such Notes when such payments are due from the trust referred to in Section 8.04 hereof;

(2) the Issuer's Obligations with respect to such Notes under Article 2 and Section 4.02 hereof;

(3) the rights, powers, trusts, duties, indemnities and immunities of the Trustee hereunder, and the Issuer's and any Subsidiary Guarantors' Obligations in connection therewith; and

(4) this Article 8.

Subject to compliance with this Article 8, the Issuer may exercise its option under this Section 8.02 notwithstanding the prior exercise of its option under Section 8.03 hereof.

Section 8.03 Covenant Defeasance.

Upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 8.01 hereof of the option applicable to this Section 8.03, the Issuer and the Subsidiary Guarantors shall, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 8.04 hereof, be released from each of their obligations under Section 4.03 through (and including) Section 4.11 hereof with respect to the Notes on and after the date the conditions set forth in Section 8.04 hereof are satisfied (hereinafter, "Covenant Defeasance"), and the Notes will thereafter be deemed not "outstanding" for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent or declaration or act of the Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such covenants, but will continue to be deemed "outstanding" for all other purposes hereunder (it being understood that such Notes will not be deemed outstanding for accounting purposes). For this purpose, Covenant Defeasance means that, with respect to the Notes and any Subsidiary Guarantees, the Issuer and any Subsidiary Guarantors may omit to comply with and shall have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such covenant, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere herein to any such covenant or by reason of any reference in any such covenant to any other provision herein or in any other Note Document and such omission to comply will not constitute a Default or an Event of Default under Section 6.01 hereof, but, except as specified above, the remainder of this Indenture and such Notes and Subsidiary Guarantees shall be unaffected thereby. In addition, upon the Issuer's exercise under Section 8.01 hereof of the option applicable to this Section 8.03, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 8.04, 6.01(3), 6.01(4) and 6.01(5) hereof shall not constitute Events of Default.

Section 8.04 Conditions to Legal or Covenant Defeasance.

(a) In order to exercise either Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance with respect to the Note Documents under either Section 8.02 or Section 8.03 hereof:

(1) the Issuer must irrevocably deposit with the Trustee, in trust, for the benefit of the Holders, cash in U.S. dollars, non-callable Government Securities or a combination of cash in U.S. dollars and non-callable Government Securities, in amounts as will be sufficient to pay the principal of, or interest and premium on, such Notes that are then outstanding on the Stated Maturity or on the applicable redemption date, as the case may be, and the Issuer must specify whether such Notes are being defeased to maturity or to a particular redemption date;

(2) in the case of Legal Defeasance, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel reasonably acceptable to the Trustee confirming that, subject to customary assumptions and exclusions, (a) the Issuer has received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling or (b) since the Issue Date, there has been a change in the applicable U.S. federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such Opinion of Counsel will confirm that, the beneficial owners that are then outstanding will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such Legal Defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Legal Defeasance had not occurred;

(3) in the case of Covenant Defeasance, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel reasonably acceptable to the Trustee confirming that, subject to customary assumptions and exclusions, the beneficial owners that are then outstanding will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such Covenant Defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Covenant Defeasance had not occurred;

(4) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the date of such deposit (other than a Default or Event of Default resulting from the borrowing of funds to be applied to such deposit);

(5) such Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under any material agreement or instrument (other than this Indenture or the Note Security Documents) to which the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries are bound;

(6) the Issuer must deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate stating that the deposit was not made by the Issuer with the intent of preferring the Holders over the other creditors of the Issuer with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors of the Issuer or others; and

(7) the Issuer must deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent relating to the Legal Defeasance or the Covenant Defeasance have been complied with.

Section 8.05 Deposited Money and Government Securities to Be Held in Trust; Other Miscellaneous Provisions.

Subject to Section 8.06 hereof, all money and non-callable Government Securities (including the proceeds thereof) deposited with the Trustee (or other qualifying trustee, collectively for purposes of this Section 8.05, the "Trustee") pursuant to Section 8.04 hereof in respect of the outstanding Notes shall be held in trust and applied by the Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of such Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Issuer acting as Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of such Notes of all sums due and to become due thereon in respect of principal, premium, if any, and interest, but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

The Issuer shall pay and indemnify the Trustee against any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against the cash or non-callable Government Securities deposited pursuant to Section 8.04 hereof or the principal and interest received in respect thereof other than any such tax, fee or other charge which by law is for the account of the Holders of the outstanding Notes.

Notwithstanding anything in this Article 8 to the contrary, the Trustee shall deliver or pay to the Issuer from time to time upon the request of the Issuer any money or non-callable Government Securities held by it as provided in Section 8.04 hereof which, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants expressed in a written certification thereof delivered to the Trustee (which may be the opinion delivered under Section 8.04(a)(1) hereof), are in excess of the amount thereof that would then be required to be deposited to effect an equivalent Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance.

Section 8.06 Repayment to the Issuer.

Any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent, or then held by the Issuer, in trust for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on, any Notes and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, premium, if any, or interest has become due and payable, shall be paid to the Issuer on its written request or (if then held by the Issuer) will be discharged from such trust; and the Holders of such Notes will thereafter be permitted to look only to the Issuer for payment thereof, and all liability of the Trustee or such Paying Agent with respect to such trust money, and all liability of the Issuer as trustee thereof, will thereupon cease; provided, however, that the Trustee or such Paying Agent, before being required to make any such repayment, may at the expense of the Issuer cause to be published once, in the New York Times and The Wall Street Journal (national edition), notice that such money remains unclaimed and that, after a date specified therein, which will not be less than 30 days from the date of such notification or publication, any unclaimed balance of such money then remaining shall be repaid to the Issuer.

Section 8.07 Reinstatement.

If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any United States dollars or non-callable Government Securities in accordance with Section 8.02 or Section 8.03 hereof, as the case may be, by reason of any order or judgment of any court or Governmental Authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, then the Issuer's and any Subsidiary Guarantors' obligations under the applicable Note Documents will be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 8.02 or Section 8.03 hereof until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money in accordance with Section 8.02 or Section 8.03 hereof, as the case may be; provided, however, that, if the Issuer makes any payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note following the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuer shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

AMENDMENT, SUPPLEMENT AND WAIVER

Section 9.01 Without Consent of Holders of Notes.

Notwithstanding Section 9.02 hereof, the Issuer, the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Trustee may amend or supplement the Note Documents or any Escrow Agreement without the consent of any Holder:

(1) to cure any ambiguity, omission, mistake, defect, error or inconsistency;

(2) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes;

(3) to provide for the assumption of the Issuer's or a Subsidiary Guarantor's Obligations to Holders in the case of a merger or consolidation or sale of all or substantially all of the Issuer's or such Subsidiary Guarantor's assets pursuant to Article 5 of this Indenture (if applicable);

(4) to make any change that would provide any additional rights or benefits to the Holders or that does not adversely affect their legal rights under this Indenture in any material respect;

(5) to comply with requirements of the SEC in order to effect or maintain the qualification of this Indenture under the TIA;

(6) to conform the text of the Note Documents to any provision of the "Description of the Notes" section of the Offering Circular to the extent that such provision in the "Description of the Notes" was intended to be a verbatim or substantially verbatim recitation of a provision of the Note Documents, as evidenced by an Officer's Certificate of the Issuer;

(7) to evidence and provide for the acceptance and appointment under this Indenture of a successor Trustee pursuant to the requirements thereof;

(8) to provide for the issuance of Additional Notes in accordance with the limitations set forth in this Indenture;

(9) to allow any Subsidiary to execute a supplemental indenture and/or a Subsidiary Guarantee with respect to the Notes; provided that any supplemental indenture to add a Subsidiary Guarantor need only be signed by the Issuer, the Subsidiary Guarantor providing the Subsidiary Guarantee, and the Trustee;

(10) to release any Subsidiary Guarantor from its Subsidiary Guarantee pursuant to this Indenture when permitted or required by this Indenture

(11) to make, complete or confirm any grant of Collateral permitted or required by any of the Note Documents;

(12) to release, discharge, terminate or subordinate Liens on Collateral in accordance with the Note Documents; and to confirm and evidence any such release, discharge, termination or subordination;

(13) to make any amendment to the provisions of this Indenture relating to the transfer and legending of Notes not prohibited by this Indenture, including to facilitate the issuance and administration of Notes; provided, however, that such amendment does not materially and adversely affect the rights of Holders to transfer the Notes;

(14) to comply with the rules and procedures of any applicable securities depositary;

(15) with respect to the Note Documents, as provided in the Collateral Trust Agreement; or

(16) make any amendment to the provisions of any Note Document to eliminate the effect of any Accounting Change or in the application thereof.

In addition, the Collateral Trust Agreement may be amended in accordance with its terms and without the consent of any Holder or the Trustee with the consent of the parties thereto or otherwise in accordance with their terms, including to add additional Indebtedness as First Lien Obligations and add as parties thereto persons holding such Indebtedness (or any authorized agent thereof or trustee therefor) and to establish that the Liens on any Collateral securing such Indebtedness shall rank equally with the Liens on such Collateral securing the First Lien

Obligations then outstanding (including the Notes) to the extent permitted by the First Lien Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent restricted by the First Lien Documents, nothing will prevent the issuance by the Issuer or any of the Subsidiary Guarantors of Indebtedness secured by a Lien ranking junior to the Lien securing the First Lien Obligations or prevent the Collateral Trustee from entering into an intercreditor agreement in connection with such issuance.

After an amendment, supplement or waiver under this Section 9.01 becomes effective, the Issuer shall deliver to the Holders a notice briefly describing such amendment, supplement or waiver. Any failure of the Issuer to deliver such notice to all Holders, or any defect in the notice, will not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such amendment, supplement or waiver.

Section 9.02 With Consent of Holders of Notes.

(a) Except as provided in Section 9.02(b) and Section 9.02(c), the Issuer, the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Trustee may amend or supplement the Note Documents or any Escrow Agreement with the consent of the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding (including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a purchase of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, the Notes), and any existing Default or Event of Default or compliance with any provision of the Note Documents or the Escrow Agreement may be waived with the consent of the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding (including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a purchase of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, such Notes). Section 2.09 and Section 2.10 hereof shall determine which Notes are considered to be "outstanding" for purposes of this Section 9.02.

(b) Without the consent of each Holder affected, an amendment, supplement or waiver under this Section 9.02 may not (with respect to any such Notes held by a non-consenting Holder):

(1) reduce the principal amount of Notes whose Holders must consent to an amendment, supplement or waiver;

(2) reduce the principal of or extend the fixed maturity of any such Note or alter the provisions with respect to the redemption of such Notes (other than Section 4.11 and the provisions relating to the number of days of notice to be given in the event of a redemption);

(3) reduce the rate of or extend the stated time for payment of interest on any such Note;

(4) waive a Default or Event of Default in the payment of principal of, or interest or premium on the Notes (except a rescission of acceleration of the Notes by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes and a waiver of the payment default that resulted from such acceleration);

(5) make any Note payable in currency other than that stated in the Notes;

(6) make any change in the provisions of this Indenture relating to waivers of past Defaults;

(7) impair the contractual right expressly set forth in this Indenture or the Notes of any Holder to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to such Holder's Notes on or after the due dates therefor; or

(8) make any change to Section 9.01 and this Section 9.02.

(c) Without the consent of the Holders of at least 66 2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, no amendment or waiver may (A) make any change in any Note Security Documents or Article 12 or application of trust proceeds of the Collateral with the effect of releasing the Liens on all or substantially all of the Collateral which secure the Obligations in respect of the Notes, (B) change or alter the priority of the Liens securing the Obligations in respect of such Notes in any material portion of the Collateral in any way adverse to the Holders in any material respect, other than, in each case, as provided under the terms of the Note Security Documents or (C) make any change to Section 4.07.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, no amendment, waiver, modification or deletion of the provisions described under Article 4 or Article 5 shall be deemed to impair or affect any rights of Holders to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to, or to receive payment of principal of, or premium, if any, or interest on, the Notes.

(e) The consent of the Holders is not necessary under this Section 9.02 to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment, supplement or waiver. It is sufficient if such consent approves the substance of the proposed amendment, supplement or waiver. A consent to any amendment, supplement or waiver under this Indenture by any Holder given in connection with a tender of such Holder's Notes will not be rendered invalid by such tender.

(f) After an amendment, supplement or waiver under this Section 9.02 becomes effective, the Issuer shall deliver to the Holders a notice briefly describing such amendment, supplement or waiver. Any failure of the Issuer to deliver such notice to all Holders, or any defect in the notice, will not impair or affect the validity of any such amendment, supplement or waiver.

Section 9.03 Effect of Consents.

Until an amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective, a consent to it by a Holder of a Note is a continuing consent by the Holder of a Note and every subsequent Holder of a Note or portion of a Note that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder's Note, even if notation of the consent is not made on any Note. An amendment, supplement or waiver becomes effective in accordance with its terms and thereafter binds every Holder.

Section 9.04 Notation on or Exchange of Notes.

The Trustee may place an appropriate notation about an amendment, supplement or waiver on any Note thereafter authenticated. The Issuer in exchange for all Notes may issue and the Trustee shall, upon receipt of an Issuer Order, authenticate new Notes that reflect the amendment, supplement or waiver.

Failure to make the appropriate notation or issue a new Note will not affect the validity and effect of such amendment, supplement or waiver.

Section 9.05 Trustee to Sign Amendments, etc.

Upon the request of the Issuer and upon the filing with the Trustee of evidence satisfactory to the Trustee of the consent of the Holders as aforesaid, the Trustee shall sign any amended or supplemental indenture or other amendment of or supplement to or waiver under any Note Document or Escrow Agreement authorized pursuant to this Article 9 if the amendment, supplement or waiver does not adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities or immunities of the Trustee under this Indenture, in which case the Trustee may in its discretion, but will not be obligated to, enter into such amended or supplemental indenture or any amendment of or supplement to or waiver under any Note Document or any Escrow Agreement. In executing any amended or supplemental indenture or other amendment of or supplement to or waiver under any Note Document or Escrow Agreement, the Trustee will be entitled to receive and (subject to Section 7.01 hereof) will be fully protected in relying upon an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such amended or supplemental indenture or other amendment of or supplement to or waiver under any Note Document or Escrow Agreement is authorized or permitted by this Indenture.

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

Section 10.01 Satisfaction and Discharge.

This Indenture will be discharged and will cease to be of further effect as to all Notes issued hereunder, when:

(1) either:

(A) all such Notes that have been authenticated, except lost, stolen or destroyed Notes that have been replaced or paid and Notes for whose payment money has been deposited in trust and thereafter repaid to the Issuer, have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation; or

(B) all such Notes that have not been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation have become due and payable by reason of the issuance of a notice of redemption or otherwise or will become due and payable within one year and the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee as trust funds in trust solely for the benefit of the Holders, cash in U.S. dollars, non-callable Government Securities or a combination of cash in U.S. dollars and non-callable Government Securities, in amounts as will be sufficient, without consideration of any reinvestment of interest, to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness on the Notes not delivered to the Trustee for cancellation for principal, premium, if any, and accrued interest to the date of maturity or redemption;

(2) no Default or Event of Default under this Indenture has occurred and is continuing on the date of the deposit (other than a Default or Event of Default resulting from the borrowing of funds to be applied to such deposit) and the deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any other instrument to which the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor is a party or by which the Issuer or any such Subsidiary Guarantor is bound;

(3) the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor has paid or caused to be paid all sums payable by it with respect to the Notes under this Indenture; and

(4) the Issuer has delivered irrevocable written instructions to the Trustee under this Indenture to apply the deposited money toward the payment of the Notes at maturity or the redemption date, as the case may be.

In addition, the Issuer must deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent to satisfaction and discharge have been satisfied.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, if money has been deposited with the Trustee pursuant to subclause (B) of clause (1) of this Section 10.01, the provisions of Section 10.02 and Section 8.06 hereof will survive. In addition, nothing in this Section 10.01 will be deemed to discharge those provisions of Section 7.06 hereof, that, by their terms, survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture.

Section 10.02 Application of Trust Money.

Subject to the provisions of Section 8.06 hereof, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 10.01 hereof shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent (including the Issuer acting as its own Paying Agent) as the Trustee may determine, to the Persons entitled thereto, of the principal, premium, if any, and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any money or Government Securities in accordance with Section 10.01 hereof by reason of any legal proceeding or by reason of any order or judgment of any court or Governmental Authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, the Issuer's and any applicable Subsidiary Guarantor's obligations under this Indenture and the Notes shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to Section 10.01 hereof; provided that if the Issuer has made any payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Notes because of the reinstatement of its obligations, the Issuer shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Notes to receive such payment from the money or Government Securities held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

SUBSIDIARY GUARANTEES

Section 11.01 Guarantee.

(a) Subject to this Article 11, each of the Subsidiary Guarantors hereby, jointly and severally, irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to each Holder of a Note authenticated and delivered by the Trustee and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns, irrespective of the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes or the obligations of the Issuer hereunder or thereunder, that:

(1) the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes shall be promptly paid in full when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of and interest on the Notes, if any, if lawful, and all other obligations of the Issuer to the Holders or the Trustee hereunder or thereunder shall be promptly paid in full or performed, all in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof; and

(2) in case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any Notes or any of such other obligations, that same shall be promptly paid in full when due or performed in accordance with the terms of the extension or renewal, whether at Stated Maturity, by acceleration or otherwise.

Failing payment when due of any amount so guaranteed or any performance so guaranteed for whatever reason, the Subsidiary Guarantors will be jointly and severally obligated to pay the same immediately. Each Subsidiary Guarantor agrees that this is a guarantee of payment and not a guarantee of collection. The obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor in respect of its guarantee are secured by the Collateral on a senior secured basis as provided in the Note Security Documents.

(b) The Subsidiary Guarantors hereby agree that their obligations hereunder are unconditional, irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Notes or this Indenture, the absence of any action to enforce the same, any waiver or consent by any Holder with respect to any provisions hereof or thereof, the recovery of any judgment against the Issuer, any action to enforce the same or any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor. Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby waives diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Issuer, any right to require a proceeding first against the Issuer, protest, notice and all demands whatsoever and covenant that this Subsidiary Guarantee will not be discharged except by complete performance of the obligations contained in the Notes and this Indenture.

(c) If any Holder or the Trustee is required by any court or otherwise to return to the Issuer, the Subsidiary Guarantors or any custodian, trustee, liquidator or other similar official acting in relation to either the Issuer or the Subsidiary Guarantors, any amount paid by either to the Trustee or such Holder, this Subsidiary Guarantee, to the extent theretofore discharged, shall be reinstated in full force and effect.

(d) Each Subsidiary Guarantor agrees that it will not be entitled to any right of subrogation in relation to the Holders in respect of any obligations guaranteed hereby until payment in full of all obligations guaranteed hereby. Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that, as between the Subsidiary Guarantors, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (1) the maturity of the obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article 6 hereof for the purposes of this Subsidiary Guarantee, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the obligations guaranteed hereby, and (2) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such obligations as provided in Article 6 hereof, such obligations (whether or not due and payable) will forthwith become due and payable by the Subsidiary Guarantors for the purpose of this Subsidiary Guarantee. The Subsidiary Guarantors will have the right to seek contribution from any non- paying Subsidiary Guarantor so long as the exercise of such right does not impair the rights of the Holders under the Subsidiary Guarantee.

Section 11.02 Limitation on Subsidiary Guarantor Liability.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor, and by its acceptance of Notes, each Holder, hereby confirms that it is the intention of all such parties that the Subsidiary Guarantee of such Subsidiary Guarantor not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of Bankruptcy Law, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar federal or state law to the extent applicable to any Subsidiary Guarantee. To effectuate the foregoing intention, the Trustee, the Holders and the Subsidiary Guarantors hereby irrevocably agree that the obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor will be limited to the maximum amount that will, after giving effect to such maximum amount and all other contingent and fixed liabilities of such Subsidiary Guarantor that are relevant under such laws, and after giving effect to any collections from, rights to receive contribution from or payments made by or on behalf of any other Subsidiary Guarantor in respect of the obligations of such other Subsidiary Guarantor under this Article 10, result in the obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor under its Subsidiary Guarantee not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

Section 11.03 Releases.

(a) The Subsidiary Guarantee of a Subsidiary Guarantor will be released automatically:

(1) upon the release, discharge or termination of such Subsidiary Guarantor’s guarantee of all obligations of the Issuer under the Exit Facilities Credit Agreement;

(2) if such Subsidiary Guarantor has become a guarantor of any Additional Indebtedness, upon the release, discharge or termination of such Subsidiary Guarantor's guarantee of all obligations of the Issuer under such Additional Indebtedness;

(3) if such Subsidiary Guarantor has become an Excluded Subsidiary; provided, that the release of any Subsidiary Guarantor from its obligations under this Indenture, if such Subsidiary Guarantor becomes an Excluded Subsidiary of the type described in clause (b) of the definition thereof, shall only be permitted if such Subsidiary Guarantor becomes an Excluded Subsidiary of such type solely as a result of a permitted transaction with a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Issuer (other than to the extent such Person becomes a non-Affiliate of Issuer as a result of such transaction) that is not solely for the purpose of releasing such Subsidiary Guarantor from its Subsidiary Guarantee;

(4) in connection with any sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the properties or assets of such Subsidiary Guarantor (including by way of merger, consolidation or amalgamation) to a Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) the Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor if the sale or disposition does not violate the provisions set forth in Article 5;

(5) upon the full and final payment of the Notes and performance of all Obligations of the Issuer and the Subsidiary Guarantors under the Note Documents;

(6) upon defeasance or satisfaction and discharge of the Notes as provided in Article 8 and Article 10 hereof; or

(7) as described in Article 9.

(b) Upon delivery by the Issuer to the Trustee of an Officer's Certificate certifying that (i) the action or event giving rise to a release has occurred as specified above and (ii) the release is authorized or permitted by the Indenture, the Trustee shall execute any documents reasonably requested by the Issuer or the Trustee in order to evidence the release of any Subsidiary Guarantor from its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee.

(c) Any Subsidiary Guarantor not released from its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee as provided in this Section 11.03 will remain liable for the full amount of principal of and interest and premium, if any, on the Notes and for the other obligations of any Subsidiary Guarantor under this Indenture as provided in this Article 11.

Section 11.04 Notation Not Required.

Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary Guarantor shall be required to make a notation on the Notes to reflect any Subsidiary Guarantee or any release, termination or discharge thereof.

ARTICLE 12
COLLATERAL AND SECURITY

Section 12.01 Grant of Security Interest.

(a) The due and punctual payment of the Obligations on the Notes and the Obligations of the Subsidiary Guarantors under the Subsidiary Guarantees, when and as the same shall be due and payable, whether on an interest payment date, at maturity, by acceleration, repurchase, redemption or otherwise, and interest on the overdue principal of, premium on, if any, and interest, if any, on the Notes, any Subsidiary Guarantees and performance of all other Obligations of the Issuer and the Subsidiary Guarantors to the Holders or the Trustee under the Note Documents, according to the terms hereunder or thereunder (collectively, the "Notes Obligations"), will be secured, as of the Completion Date, as provided in the Note Security Documents. The Issuer hereby consents and agrees, and shall cause each of the Subsidiary Guarantors, to be bound by the terms of the Note Security Documents to which they are parties, as of the Completion Date and as the same may be in effect from time to time, and agree to perform their obligations thereunder in accordance therewith. The Issuer hereby agrees, and shall cause the Subsidiary Guarantors to agree, that the Collateral Trustee shall hold the Collateral (directly or through co-trustees or agents) on behalf of and for the benefit of all of the Holders and the other holders of First Lien Obligations.

(b) Each Holder, by its acceptance of any Notes and the Subsidiary Guarantees, consents and agrees to the terms of the Collateral Trust Agreement and the Note Security Documents (including, without limitation, the provisions providing for foreclosure and release of Collateral and amendments to the Note Security Documents) as the same may be in effect or may be amended from time to time in accordance with their terms, and authorizes and appoints Citibank, N.A. (or any successor thereto as contemplated by the Collateral Trust Agreement) as the Collateral Trustee. Each Holder, by accepting any Notes and the Subsidiary Guarantees, authorizes and directs the Collateral Trustee to enter into any Note Security Documents to the extent not already entered into (including any amendments thereto and any security documents to secure additional First Lien Debt in accordance with the Collateral Trust Agreement) and to perform its obligations and exercise its rights thereunder in accordance therewith, subject to the terms and conditions thereof. Each of the Trustee, the Collateral Trustee and the Holders, by accepting any Notes and the Subsidiary Guarantees, acknowledges that, as more fully set forth in the Note Security Documents, the Collateral as now or hereafter constituted shall be held for the benefit of all the holders of First Lien Obligations, the Collateral Trustee and the Trustee, and the Lien of this Indenture and the Note Security Documents is subject to and qualified and limited in all respects by the Note Security Documents and actions that may be taken thereunder.

Section 12.02 Post-Completion Date Collateral Requirements.

(a) The Issuer shall, or shall cause the applicable Subsidiary Guarantor to, use its commercially reasonable efforts to execute and deliver, on the Completion Date, to the Collateral Trustee as mortgagee or beneficiary, as applicable (with a copy to the Trustee), such Note Security Documents, and any supplements or amendments related thereto, together with satisfactory evidence of the completion (or satisfactory arrangements for the completion) of all recordings and filings of such Note Security Documents in the proper recorders' offices or appropriate public records (and payment of any taxes or fees in connection therewith) as may be necessary to create a valid, perfected first-priority Lien (subject to applicable Permitted Liens), securing the Notes, Subsidiary Guarantees and the Notes Obligations, on or against, except as otherwise provided in the Collateral Trust Agreement or the other Note Security Documents, the Collateral. If the Issuer and the Subsidiary Guarantors are unable to complete, on or prior to the Completion Date, all filings and other similar actions required in connection with the perfection of such security interests that are required to be undertaken under the Collateral Trust Agreement or the Note Security Documents and completed on the Completion Date under this Indenture or the Note Security Documents, they will use their commercially reasonable efforts to complete such actions as soon as reasonably practicable (but not later than 120 days) after the Completion Date. With respect to any real property Collateral owned as of the Completion Date, the Issuer and the Subsidiary Guarantors shall deliver such mortgages, financing statements, title insurance policies, surveys and opinions as shall be reasonably necessary to vest in the Collateral Trustee perfected security interests and mortgage liens on such real property Collateral within 120 days of the Completion Date (or such later date as the administrative agent under the Exit Facilities Credit Agreement may agree to).

(b) Any Note Security Documents entered into with respect to the Notes after the Completion Date shall be substantially in the form of the corresponding security document securing the Exit Facilities Credit Agreement in place on the Completion Date.

Section 12.03 Further Assurances; Liens on Additional Property.

(a) Solely to the extent required under the Collateral Trust Agreement and the Notes Security Documents, the Issuer and each of the Subsidiary Guarantors shall do or cause to be done all acts and things that may be required, or that the Collateral Trustee (acting at the written direction of the Controlling First Lien Representative) from time to time may reasonably request, to assure and confirm that the Collateral Trustee holds, for the benefit of the Holders, duly created and enforceable and perfected first-priority Liens upon the Collateral (including any property or assets constituting Collateral that are acquired or otherwise become, or are required by this Indenture to become, Collateral after the Completion Date), in each case, as contemplated by, and with the Lien priority required under, this Indenture and in connection with any merger, consolidation or sale of assets of the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor, the property and assets of the Person which is consolidated or merged with or into the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor, to the extent that they are property or assets of the types which would constitute Collateral under the Note Security Documents and, to the extent such property or assets are not otherwise required or permitted to be released as Collateral in connection with such transaction, shall be treated as after-acquired property and the Issuer or such Subsidiary Guarantor shall take such action as may be reasonably necessary to cause such property and assets to be made subject to the First Liens, in the manner and to the extent required under this Indenture.

(b) Solely to the extent required under the Collateral Trust Agreement and the Notes Security Documents, at any time and from time to time, the Issuer and each of the Subsidiary Guarantors will promptly execute such security documents, instruments, certificates, notices and other documents, and take such other actions (including the filing of financing statements, amendments to financing statements and continuation statements) as may be required, or that the Collateral Trustee (acting at the written direction of the Controlling First Lien Representative) or the Trustee may reasonably request from time to time, to grant, perfect and protect the validity and priority of the security interests, in each case as contemplated by this Indenture.

Section 12.04 Collateral Trust Agreement.

This Article 12 and the provisions of each of the Note Security Documents are subject to the terms, conditions and benefits set forth in the Collateral Trust Agreement. The Issuer consents to and agrees to be bound by, and shall cause each Subsidiary Guarantor to be bound by, the terms of the Collateral Trust Agreement, as the same may be in effect from time to time, and to perform its obligations thereunder in accordance with the terms therewith. Each Holder, by its acceptance of the Notes (a) agrees that it will be bound by, and will take no actions contrary to, the provisions of the Collateral Trust Agreement and (b) authorizes and instructs the Trustee on behalf of the Holders to enter into the Collateral Trust Agreement. In addition, each Holder authorizes and instructs the Collateral Trustee to enter into any amendments or joinders to the Collateral Trust Agreement in accordance with its terms with the consent of the parties thereto or otherwise in accordance with its terms, without the consent of any Holder or the Trustee, to add additional Indebtedness as First Lien Obligations to the extent permitted herein and therein and add other parties (or any authorized agent or trustee therefor) holding such Indebtedness thereto and to establish that the Lien on any Collateral securing such Indebtedness shall rank equally with the Liens on such Collateral securing the other First Lien Debt then outstanding. The Trustee and the Collateral Trustee shall be entitled to rely on an Officer's Certificate or an Opinion of Counsel certifying that any such amendment is authorized or permitted under the Note Documents and that all conditions precedent thereto have been satisfied.

Section 12.05 Releases of Collateral.

(a) The Liens on the Collateral of this Indenture will no longer secure the Notes outstanding under this Indenture or any other Note Obligations with respect to such Notes, and the right of the Holders to the benefits and proceeds of the Liens on the Collateral will terminate and be discharged, in each case, automatically and without the need for any further action by any Person:

(1) upon the occurrence of an Investment Grade Event; provided, however, that in the event that a Reversion Date occurs, then (i) the Issuer and any Subsidiary Guarantors will be required to secure the Notes with the Collateral within 60 days after the Reversion Date and (ii) will thereafter be subject to the terms of the Note Documents and the Note Security Documents with respect to future events; provided that clause (i) will not apply to property and other assets released by the Issuer under any other subsection of this Section 12.05(a). For the avoidance of doubt, in the event of any such reinstatement pursuant to clause (i) hereof, (A) no action taken or omitted to be taken by the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantors after a Release Event and before the Reversion Date will give rise to a Default, Event of Default or other breach under this Indenture, the Notes or the Subsidiary Guarantees and (B) none of the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor will bear any liability for any actions taken or events occurring after a Release Event and before the Reversion Date, or any actions taken at any time pursuant to any contractual obligation arising after a Release Event and before the Reversion Date; provided that all Liens incurred after a Release Event and before the Reversion Date will be classified to have been incurred or issued pursuant to the applicable clause (6) of the definition of "Permitted Lien".

(2) in connection with any sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of such properties or assets (including as part of or in connection with any other sale or other disposition that does not violate Article 5) to a Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) the Issuer or a Subsidiary Guarantor, if the sale or other disposition does not violate the provisions set forth in Article 5;

(3) in the case of a Subsidiary Guarantor that is released from its Subsidiary Guarantee pursuant to the terms of this Indenture, the release of the property or assets, and Equity Interests, of such Subsidiary Guarantor;

(4) as set forth in Article 9 hereof;

(5) as set forth in Section 4.1 of the Collateral Trust Agreement;

(6) upon the full and final payment of the Notes and performance of all Obligations of the Issuer and the Subsidiary Guarantors under this Indenture and the Notes;

(7) upon Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance under this Indenture pursuant to Article 8 hereof or upon the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture in accordance with Article 10 hereof;

(8) to the extent such Collateral is comprised of property leased to the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor, upon termination or expiration of such lease;

(9) as required to effect any sale or other disposition of Collateral in connection with any exercise of remedies of the Trustee pursuant to the Note Security Documents; or

(10) if such assets constitute Excluded Collateral.

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer will be permitted to elect that the occurrence of an Investment Grade Event will not constitute a Release Event for purposes of this Indenture.

Section 12.06 Release Documentation.

Upon compliance with the conditions to release of all or any portion of the Collateral set forth in Section 12.05, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Collateral Trust Agreement, the Collateral Trustee shall, without the consent or authorization of any Holder, and without any consent, direction or instruction from the Trustee, forthwith take all necessary action (at the written request of and the expense of the Issuer) to release and re-convey to the Issuer or any other Grantor, as the case may be, the applicable portion of the Collateral that is authorized to be released pursuant to Section 12.05, and shall deliver such Collateral in its possession to the Issuer or any other Grantor, as the case may be, including, without limitation, executing and delivering releases and satisfactions wherever required.

Section 12.07 Collateral Trustee.

(a) The Collateral Trustee will hold (directly or through co-trustees or agents) and will be entitled to enforce at the direction of the Controlling First Lien Representative, all Liens on the Collateral created by the Note Security Documents.

(b) Except as provided in the Collateral Trust Agreement or as directed by the Controlling First Lien Representative in accordance with the Collateral Trust Agreement, the Collateral Trustee will not be obligated:

(1) to act upon directions purported to be delivered to it by any Person;

(2) to take any Enforcement Action; or

(3) to take any other action whatsoever with regard to any or all of the Note Security Documents, the Liens created thereby or the Collateral.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Collateral Trust Agreement, the Collateral Trustee will not commence any Enforcement Action or otherwise take any action or proceeding against any of the Collateral unless and until it shall have been directed by written notice from the Controlling First Lien Representative and then only in accordance with the provisions of the Collateral Trust Agreement.

Section 12.08 Purchaser Protected.

No purchaser or grantee of any property or rights purporting to be released from the Liens in favor of the Collateral Trustee shall be bound to ascertain the authority of the Collateral Trustee or Trustee to execute the release or to inquire as to the existence of any conditions herein prescribed for the exercise of such authority so long as the conditions set forth in Section 12.06 have been satisfied.

Section 12.09 Authorization of Receipt of Funds by the Trustee Under the Note Security Documents.

The Trustee is authorized to receive any funds for the benefit of Holders distributed under the Note Security Documents and to apply such funds as provided in Section 6.07.

Section 12.10 Powers Exercisable by Receiver or Trustee.

In case the Collateral shall be in the possession of a receiver or trustee, lawfully appointed, the powers conferred in this Article 12 upon the Issuer or Grantor, as applicable, with respect to the release, sale or other disposition of such property may be exercised by such receiver or trustee, and an instrument signed by such receiver or trustee shall be deemed the equivalent of any similar instrument of the Issuer or any Grantor, as applicable, or of any officer or officers thereof required by the provisions of this Article 12.

after being deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, if mailed; when sent, without automatic reply that such was unsuccessful, if emailed; when receipt acknowledged, if sent by facsimile transmission; and the next Business Day after timely delivery to the courier, if sent by overnight air courier guaranteeing next day delivery.

Any notice or communication to a Holder will be delivered electronically or mailed by first class mail, certified or registered, return receipt requested, or by overnight air courier guaranteeing next day delivery or emailed to its address shown on the register kept by the Registrar. Failure to mail a notice or communication to a Holder or any defect in it will not affect its sufficiency with respect to other Holders. For so long as any Notes are represented by Global Notes, all notices to Holders will be delivered to DTC, which will give such notices to the Holders of book-entry interests in accordance with the applicable procedures of DTC, delivery of which shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of this paragraph.

If a notice or communication is delivered or mailed in the manner provided above within the time prescribed, it is duly given, whether or not the addressee receives it.

If the Issuer delivers a notice or communication to Holders, it will mail a copy to the Trustee and each Agent at the same time.

To the extent that the Issuer has or hereafter may acquire any immunity from jurisdiction of any court or from any legal process (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution or execution, on the ground of sovereignty or otherwise) with respect to itself or its property, it hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, such immunity in respect of its obligations under this Indenture and/or Note.

Section 13.08 Waiver of Jury Trials.

ALL PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS INDENTURE, THE SECURITIES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

Section 13.09 No Adverse Interpretation of Other Agreements.

This Indenture may not be used to interpret any other indenture, loan or debt agreement of the Issuer or its Subsidiaries or of any other Person. Any such indenture, loan or debt agreement may not be used to interpret this Indenture.

1 . Interest. Talen Energy Supply, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Issuer"), promises to pay interest on the principal amount of this Note at 8.625% per annum from [●] until maturity. The Issuer shall pay interest semi-annually in arrears on June 1 and December 1 of each year, or if any such day is not a Business Day, on the next succeeding Business Day (and without any additional interest or other payment in respect of any delay) (each, an "Interest Payment Date"), with the same force and effect as if made on such date. Interest on the Notes will accrue from the most recent date to which interest has been paid or, if no interest has been paid, from the date of issuance; provided that if there is no existing Default in the payment of interest, and if this Note is authenticated between a record date referred to on the face hereof and the next succeeding Interest Payment Date, interest shall accrue from such next succeeding Interest Payment Date; provided further, that the first Interest Payment Date shall be [●]. Interest will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months, and with respect to any period less than a full calendar month, on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed during the period.

2. Method of Payment. The Issuer shall pay interest on the Notes to the Persons who are registered Holders of Notes on May 15 and November 15 (whether or not a Business Day) immediately preceding the Interest Payment Date, except that interest payable at maturity will be paid to the person to whom principal is paid. The Notes will be payable as to principal, premium, if any, and interest at the office or agency of the Issuer maintained for such purpose, or, at the option of the Issuer, payment of interest and may be made by check mailed to the Holders at their addresses set forth in the register of Holders; provided that payment by wire transfer of immediately available funds will be required with respect to principal of and interest and premium, if any, on, all Global Notes and all other Notes the Holders of which will have provided wire transfer instructions to the Issuer or the Paying Agent. Such payment shall be in such coin or currency of the United States of America as at the time of payment is legal tender for payment of public and private debts.

3 . Paying Agent and Registrar. Initially, Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, the Trustee under the Indenture, will act as Paying Agent and the Registrar. The Issuer may change any Paying Agent or the Registrar without prior notice to any Holder. The Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries may act in any such capacity.

4. Indenture. The Issuer issued the Notes as one of a duly authenticated series of securities of the Issuer issued and to be issued in one or more series under an Indenture dated as of May 12, 2023 (the "Indenture"), among the Issuer and the Trustee, and Holders are referred to the Indenture for a statement of such terms. To the extent any provision of this Note conflicts with the express provisions of the Indenture, the provisions of the Indenture shall govern and be controlling. The Issuer shall be entitled to issue Additional Notes pursuant to Section 2.07 of the Indenture.

5. Optional Redemption.

(a) At any time prior to June 1, 2026, the Issuer may, on any one or more occasions, redeem all or a part of the Notes at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed, plus the Applicable Premium as of, and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date, subject to the rights of Holders of such Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date.

(b) At any time prior to June 1, 2026, the Issuer may, on any one or more occasions, redeem the Notes with the proceeds from any Equity Offering at a redemption price equal to 108.625% of the principal amount of such Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date (subject to the rights of Holders of such Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date), in an aggregate principal amount for all such redemptions not to exceed 40% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes issued under the Indenture on the Issue Date (together with Additional Notes); provided that

(i) in each case the redemption takes place not later than 180 days after the closing of the related Equity Offering, and

(ii) not less than 50% of the aggregate principal amount of the then- outstanding Notes issued under the Indenture remains outstanding immediately thereafter (including Additional Notes but excluding Notes held by the Issuer or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries), unless all such Notes are redeemed or repurchased or to be redeemed or repurchased substantially concurrently.

(c) In addition, during any 12-month period prior to June 1, 2026, the Issuer may redeem up to 10.0% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes issued under the Indenture on the Issue Date (together with Additional Notes) at a redemption price equal to 103.000% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date, subject to the rights of Holders of such Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date.

(d) At any time on or after June 1, 2026, the Issuer may, on any one or more occasions, redeem all or a part of the Notes at the following redemption prices (expressed as a percentage of principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed) set forth below, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date, if redeemed during the 12-month period beginning on June 1 of each of the years indicated below subject to the rights of Holders of such Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date:

Year	Percentage
2028 and thereafter	100.000%

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with any tender offer for or other offer to purchase the Notes, including a Change of Control Offer, if Holders of not less than 90% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes validly tender and do not validly withdraw such Notes in such offer and the Issuer, or any third party making such an offer in lieu of the Issuer, purchase all of the Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn by such Holders, all Holders will be deemed to have consented to such offer, and the Issuer or such third party will have the right upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' notice, given not more than 30 days following such offer expiration date, to redeem (with respect to the Issuer) or purchase (with respect to a third party) Notes that remain outstanding, in whole but not in part, following such purchase at a price equal to the price paid to each other Holder (excluding any early tender, incentive or similar fee) in such offer, plus, to the extent not included in the offer payment, accrued and unpaid interest, if any, thereon, to, but excluding, such redemption date. In determining whether the Holders of at least 90% of the aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes have validly tendered and not validly withdrawn such Notes in a tender offer or other offer to purchase, such calculation shall include all Notes owned by an Affiliate of the Issuer (notwithstanding any provision of the Indenture to the contrary).

(f) If a redemption date is not a Business Day, payment may be made on the next succeeding day that is a Business Day, and no interest shall accrue on any amount that would have been otherwise payable on such redemption date if it were a Business Day for the intervening period.

(g) If the optional redemption date is on or after an interest record date but on or prior to the related interest payment date, then any accrued and unpaid interest in respect of Notes subject to redemption will be paid on the redemption date to the Person in whose name the Note is registered at the close of business on such record date, and no additional interest will be payable to Holders whose Notes will be subject to redemption by the Issuer.

(h) Certain defined terms:

"Applicable Premium" means, with respect to any Note on any redemption date, the greater of:

(i) 1.0% of the principal amount of such Note; or

(ii) the excess of:

(a) the present value at such redemption date of (i) the redemption price of such Note at June 1, 2026 (such redemption price (expressed in percentage of principal amount) being set forth in the table under Section 5(d) hereof, exclusive of any accrued and unpaid interest) plus (ii) all required interest payments due on the Note through June 1, 2026, (excluding accrued but unpaid interest to the redemption date), computed using a discount rate equal to the Treasury Rate as of such redemption date plus 50 basis points; over

(b) the principal amount of such Note.

Calculation of the Applicable Premium shall be made by the Issuer or on behalf of the Issuer by such Person as the Issuer shall designate and, in any event, such calculation shall not be a duty or obligation of the Trustee in any of its capacities hereunder.

"Treasury Rate" means, as of any redemption date, the yield to maturity as of such redemption date of United States Treasury securities with a constant maturity (as compiled and published in the most recent Federal Reserve Statistical Release H.15 (519) that has become publicly available at least two Business Days prior to the redemption date (or, if such Statistical Release is no longer published, any publicly available source of similar market data)) most nearly equal to the period from the redemption date to June 1, 2026; provided, however, that if the period from the redemption date to June 1, 2026 is less than one year, the weekly average yield on actively traded United States Treasury securities adjusted to a constant maturity of one year will be used.

6. Special Mandatory Redemption.

(a) In the event that (i) the Escrow Outside Date occurs and the Escrow Agent shall not have received the Escrow Release Officer's Certificate on or prior to such date or (ii) the Issuer informs the Escrow Agent in writing that, in the reasonable good faith judgment of the Issuer, the Effective Date will not occur on or prior to the Escrow Outside Date (the date of any such event being the "Special Termination Date"), the Issuer shall redeem the Notes (the "Special Mandatory Redemption") at a price (the "Special Mandatory Redemption Price") equal to 100% of the gross proceeds of the issuance and sale of the Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes, from and including the Issue Date to, but excluding, the Special Mandatory Redemption Date, subject to the right of Holders on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date.

(b) Subject to Section 6(c) below, notice of the Special Mandatory Redemption will be delivered by the Issuer no later than one Business Day following the Special Termination Date, to the Trustee, the Escrow Agent and Holders and will provide that the Notes shall be redeemed on a date that is no later than the third Business Day after such notice is given by the Issuer in accordance with the terms of the Escrow Agreement (the "Special Mandatory Redemption Date") or otherwise in accordance with the Applicable Procedures.

(c) On the Special Mandatory Redemption Date, the Escrow Agent shall pay to the Trustee for payment to each Holder the Special Mandatory Redemption Price for such Holder's Notes and, concurrently with the payment to such Holders and after deduction for any unpaid fees and expenses of the Trustee and the Escrow Agent, deliver any excess Escrowed Property (if any) to the Issuer. In the event that the Escrowed Property is insufficient to pay the Special Mandatory Redemption Price on the Special Mandatory Redemption Date, plus fees and expenses of the Trustee and the Escrow Agent, the Issuer will deposit any shortfall with the Escrow Agent on or prior to the Special Mandatory Redemption Date.

(d) Certain defined terms:

"Escrow Account" means a segregated account with respect to the Initial Notes under the control of the Trustee established pursuant to the Escrow Agreement.

"Escrow Agent" means Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, in its capacity as escrow agent under the Escrow Agreement and together with its successors.

"Escrow Conditions" refers to the following conditions which shall have been or, substantially concurrently with the release of the Escrowed Property, shall be, satisfied:

(1) neither the Plan nor the Confirmation Order shall have been amended, stayed, supplemented or otherwise modified in any respect that is, in the aggregate, materially adverse to the rights and interests of the Holders. The Plan shall be substantially consummated, as set forth in section 1101 of the Bankruptcy Code, and effective concurrently with the initial funding of the term loan facilities under the Exit Facilities Credit Agreement in accordance with the Plan;

(2) the Exit Facilities Credit Agreement shall have been executed, on terms that are substantially consistent with the terms described under the caption "Description of Other Indebtedness" in the Offering Circular;

(3) each then existing Subsidiary of the Issuer that is a guarantor under the Exit Facilities Credit Agreement has become or will become substantially concurrently with the Escrow Release a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to a supplemental indenture; and

(4) all obligations under the Existing Secured Financing Agreements have been paid in full (and all commitments thereunder terminated), or will be paid in full (and all commitments thereunder terminated) substantially simultaneously with, or prior to, the Escrow Release, and all Liens related thereto have been extinguished, terminated or otherwise released or shall be extinguished, terminated or otherwise released substantially simultaneously with, or prior to, the Escrow Release.

"Escrow Outside Date" means 11:59 p.m. (New York City time) on August 10, 2023.

"Escrow Release" means, with respect to any Escrowed Property, the release by the Escrow Agent of such Escrowed Property at the entitled direction of the Issuer, other than in connection with a Special Mandatory Redemption.

"Escrow Release Officer's Certificate" means the officer's certificate required to be delivered to the Escrow Agent and the Trustee in connection with the Escrow Release and the satisfaction of the Escrow Conditions, pursuant to the terms of the Escrow Agreement.

"Escrowed Property" means the Escrow Account, the initial funds deposited in the Escrow Account, and all other funds, securities, interest, dividends, distributions and other property and payments credited to the Escrow Account (less any property and/or funds paid in accordance with the Escrow Agreement).

7. Offer to Repurchase Upon a Change of Control Triggering Event. Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event, each Holder shall have the right to require the Issuer to make an offer (a "Change of Control Offer") to repurchase all or any part (equal to $2,000 or an integral multiple of $1,000 in excess of $2,000) of each Holder's Notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes, if any, to, but excluding, the date of purchase, subject to the rights of Holders of Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date specified in the notice (the "Change of Control Payment"). Within 30 days following any Change of Control Triggering Event, the Issuer shall mail (or deliver electronically) a notice to each Holder describing the transaction or transactions that constitute the Change of Control as required by the Indenture.

8. Notice of Redemption. Except in certain circumstances, notice of redemption will be furnished at least 10 days but not more than 60 days before the redemption date to each Holder whose Notes are to be redeemed. Notes in denominations larger than $2,000 may be redeemed in part but only in whole multiples of $1,000, unless all of the Notes held by a Holder are to be redeemed. On and after the redemption date interest ceases to accrue on Notes or portions thereof called for redemption.

9. Denominations, Transfer, Exchange. The Notes are in registered form without coupons in minimum denominations of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess of $2,000. A Holder may transfer or exchange Notes in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture. The Registrar and the Trustee may require a Holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents in connection with a transfer of Notes. There will be no service charge for any transfer or exchange of the Notes, but Holders will be required to pay all taxes due on transfer. The Issuer is not required to transfer or exchange any Note selected for redemption or to transfer or exchange any Note for a period of 15 days before a selection of Notes to be redeemed. The registered Holder will be treated as the owner of the Note for all purposes.

10. Persons Deemed Owners. The registered Holder of a Note may be treated as its owner for all purposes.

11. Amendment, Supplement and Waiver. Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Indenture, the Issuer, the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Trustee may amend or supplement the Note Documents or the Escrow Agreement with the consent of the Holders of at least a majority in principal aggregate amount of the Notes then outstanding and any existing Default or Event of Default (other than a Default or Event of Default in the payment of the principal of, premium or interest on such Notes, except a payment default resulting from an acceleration that has been rescinded) or compliance with any provision of the Note Documents or the Escrow Agreement may be waived with the consent of the Holders of a majority in principal aggregate amount of the Notes then outstanding. Without the consent of each Holder affected, the Note Documents may not (with respect to any such Notes held by a non-consenting Holder) be amended, supplemented or waived for certain purposes set forth in the Indenture.

12. Defaults and Remedies. Events of Default include those events as set forth in the Indenture. In the case of an Event of Default with respect to the Issuer with respect to the Notes arising from certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency, principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on all the Notes that are outstanding will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice. If any other Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee or the Holders of at least 30% in principal amount of the Notes that are outstanding may declare the principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on all the Notes to be due and payable immediately. Subject to certain limitations set forth in the Indenture, Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then-outstanding Notes may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for exercising any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on it. Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may rescind an acceleration and its consequences, including any related payment default that resulted from such acceleration.

13. Security and Collateral. The Notes will be entitled to the benefits of certain Collateral pledged for the benefit of the Holders pursuant to the terms of the Note Documents. Reference is hereby made to the Note Documents for a statement of the respective rights, limitations of rights, duties and obligations thereunder of the Issuer, the Subsidiary Guarantors, the Collateral Trustee, the Trustee and the Holders. The Issuer agrees, and each Holder by accepting a Note agrees, to the provisions contained in the Note Documents.

14. Trustee Dealings with Issuer. The Trustee in its individual or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Notes and may otherwise deal with the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor or any Affiliate of the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. However, in the event that the Trustee acquires any conflicting interest it must eliminate such conflict within 90 days, apply to the SEC for permission to continue as Trustee (if the Indenture has been qualified under the TIA) or resign. Any Agent may do the same with like rights and duties. The Trustee is also subject to Section 7.09 of the Indenture.

15. No Recourse Against Others. No director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of the Issuer or any Subsidiary Guarantor, as such, will have any liability for any obligations of the Issuer or the Subsidiary Guarantors under the Notes, the Indenture, the Subsidiary Guarantees or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. Each Holder by accepting a Note waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes. The waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under the federal securities laws.

16. Authentication. This Note will not be valid until authenticated by the manual signature of the Trustee or an authenticating agent.

17. Abbreviations. Customary abbreviations may be used in the name of a Holder or an assignee, such as: TEN COM (= tenants in common), TEN ENT (= tenants by the entireties), JT TEN (= joint tenants with right of survivorship and not as tenants in common), CUST (= Custodian), and U/G/M/A (= Uniform Gifts to Minors Act).

18. CUSIP Numbers/ISINs. Pursuant to a recommendation promulgated by the Committee on Uniform Security Identification Procedures, the Issuer has caused CUSIP numbers/ISINs to be printed on the Notes and the Trustee may use CUSIP numbers/ISINs in notices of redemption as a convenience to Holders. No representation is made as to the accuracy of such numbers either as printed on the Notes or as contained in any notice of redemption and reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers placed thereon.

19. NEW YORK LAW TO GOVERN. THE INDENTURE, THIS NOTE AND THE SUBSIDIARY GUARANTEES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

The Issuer shall furnish to any Holder upon written request and without charge a copy of the Indenture. Requests may be made to:

INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

This INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into, effective as of [●], 2023 by and between Talen Energy Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and [●] ("Indemnitee").

WHEREAS, in light of the litigation costs and risks to directors and officers resulting from their service to companies, and the desire of the Company to attract and retain qualified individuals to serve as directors and officers, it is reasonable, prudent and necessary for the Company to indemnify and advance expenses on behalf of the directors and officers to the extent permitted by applicable law so that they will serve or continue to serve the Company free from undue concern regarding such risks;

WHEREAS, Indemnitee is willing to serve as a director or officer or in any other Company Status (as hereinafter defined) on the condition that Indemnitee be so indemnified;

WHEREAS, this Agreement is a supplement to and in furtherance of the Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company, as amended from time to time (the "Company Certificate"), the Second Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company, as amended from time to time (the "Bylaws" and, together with the Company Certificate, the "Company Organizational Documents"), any organizational documents of any other Enterprise (collectively, the "Enterprise Organizational Documents") and any resolutions adopted by the board of directors of the Company or similar governing body of any other Enterprise (pursuant to the applicable Enterprise Organizational Documents), and shall not be deemed to be a substitute therefor nor to diminish or abrogate any rights of Indemnitee thereunder; and NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the covenants contained herein, the Company and Indemnitee do hereby covenant and agree as follows:

1. Services by Indemnitee. Indemnitee will serve or continue to serve as a director or officer of Talen Energy Supply, LLC, for so long as Indemnitee is duly elected or appointed and qualified in accordance with the provisions of the General Corporate Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL") and the Company Organizational Documents or until Indemnitee tenders Indemnitee's resignation or is removed as a director or officer. Indemnitee may from time to time also agree to serve, as the Company may request from time to time, as a director, officer or in another capacity for any Enterprise. Indemnitee and the Company each acknowledge that they have entered into this Agreement as a means of inducing Indemnitee to serve, or continue to serve, the Company in such capacities. Indemnitee may at any time and for any reason resign from such position or positions (subject to any other contractual obligation or any obligation imposed by operation of law).

2. Indemnification – General. On the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, the Company shall, and shall cause each Enterprise, to the fullest extent permitted under the Company Organizational Documents, the Enterprise Organizational Documents, and the DGCL and any other applicable law, indemnify Indemnitee with respect to, and hold Indemnitee harmless from and against, all losses, liabilities, judgments, fines, penalties, costs, Expenses (as hereinafter defined) and other amounts that Indemnitee actually and reasonably incurs and that result from, arise in connection with or are by reason of Indemnitee's Company Status, regardless of whether the basis of such Proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or in any other capacity while Indemnitee serves as a director, officer, employee or agent, and shall advance Expenses to Indemnitee in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, in each case, except with respect to any Disabling Conduct (as hereinafter defined). The obligations of the Company under this Agreement shall (a) continue after such time as Indemnitee ceases to serve as a director or officer or in any other Company Status and (b) include claims for monetary damages against Indemnitee in respect of any actual or alleged liability or other loss of Indemnitee, to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL and any other applicable law as in existence on the date hereof (and to such greater extent as the DGCL and any other applicable law may hereafter from time to time permit); provided that neither the Company nor any Enterprise shall indemnify or advance Expenses to Indemnitee for Disabling Conduct. The other provisions in this Agreement are provided in addition to and as a means of furtherance and implementation of, and not in limitation of, the obligations expressed in this Section 2.

3. Proceedings Other Than Proceedings by or in the Right of the Company. If, in connection with or by reason of Indemnitee's Company Status, Indemnitee was, is or is threatened to be made a party to or a participant in any Proceeding (as hereinafter defined), other than a Proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor addressed in Section 4 below, the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL and any other applicable law, indemnify Indemnitee with respect to, and hold Indemnitee harmless from and against, all Expenses, liabilities, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of such liabilities, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee or on behalf of Indemnitee in connection with such Proceeding or any claim, issue or matter therein, in each case, except with respect to any Disabling Conduct.

4. Proceedings by or in the Right of the Company. If, by reason of Indemnitee's Company Status, Indemnitee was or is threatened to be made, or was or is, a party to or a participant in any Proceeding by or in the right of the Company or any Enterprise to procure a judgment in its favor, the Company shall, and shall cause each Enterprise, to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL and any other applicable law, indemnify Indemnitee with respect to, and hold Indemnitee harmless from and against, all Expenses reasonably incurred by Indemnitee or on behalf of Indemnitee in connection with such Proceeding; provided, however, that indemnification against such Expenses (other than Expenses with respect to Disabling Conduct) shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter in such Proceeding as to which Indemnitee shall have been adjudged by a Court to be liable to the Company only if (and only to the extent that) the Court in which such Proceeding shall have been brought or is pending shall determine that, despite such adjudication of liability and in light of all circumstances, such indemnification may be made.

5. Mandatory Indemnification in Case of a Wholly or Partly Successful Defense. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, to the extent that Indemnitee is, by reason of Indemnitee's Company Status, a party to or a participant in and is successful, on the merits or otherwise, in any Proceeding (including any Proceeding brought by or in the right of the Company), in whole or in part, the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, as such may be amended from time to time, indemnify Indemnitee with respect to, and hold Indemnitee harmless from and against, all Expenses (other than Expenses with respect to Disabling Conduct) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee or on behalf of Indemnitee in connection therewith (which, for the avoidance of doubt, includes prosecuting or defending such suit to the fullest extent permitted by law). For purposes of this Section 5 and without limitation, the termination of any claim, issue or matter in such a Proceeding by dismissal, with or without prejudice, on substantive or procedural grounds, shall be deemed to be a successful result as to such claim, issue or matter.

6. Partial Indemnification. If Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of this Agreement or otherwise to indemnification by the Company for some or a portion of the Expenses, liabilities, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of such liabilities, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement) incurred by Indemnitee or on behalf of Indemnitee in connection with a Proceeding or any claim, issue or matter therein, in whole or in part, the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL and any other applicable law, indemnify Indemnitee to the fullest extent to which Indemnitee is entitled to such indemnification, excluding, in all cases, indemnification with respect to Disabling Conduct.

7. Indemnification for Additional Expenses Incurred to Secure Recovery or as Witness.

(a) The Company shall, and shall cause each Enterprise, to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL and any other applicable law, indemnify Indemnitee with respect to, and hold Indemnitee harmless from and against, any and all Expenses (other than Expenses with respect to Disabling Conduct) and, if requested by Indemnitee, shall advance on an as-incurred basis (as provided in Section 8 of this Agreement) such Expenses to Indemnitee, which are actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with any action or proceeding or part thereof brought by Indemnitee for (i) indemnification or advance payment of Expenses by the Company under this Agreement, any other agreement or the Company Organizational Documents; or (ii) recovery under any director and officer insurance policies maintained by the Company or other Enterprise.

(b) To the extent that Indemnitee is, by reason of Indemnitee's Company Status, a witness (or is forced or asked to respond to discovery requests) in any Proceeding to which Indemnitee is not a party, the Company shall, and shall cause each Enterprise, to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL and any other applicable law, indemnify Indemnitee with respect to, and hold Indemnitee harmless from and against, and the Company will advance on an as-incurred basis (as provided in Section 8 of this Agreement), all Expenses (other than Expenses with respect to Disabling Conduct) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee or on behalf of Indemnitee in connection therewith.

8. Advancement of Expenses. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement (other than Section 13), the Company shall pay on a current and as-incurred basis, to the extent not prohibited by law, all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by or on behalf of Indemnitee in connection with any Proceeding (or part of any Proceeding) not initiated by Indemnitee or any Proceeding initiated by Indemnitee with the prior approval of the Board of Directors as provided for in Section 13. Such Expenses shall be paid in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding, without regard to whether Indemnitee will ultimately be entitled to be indemnified for such Expenses and without regard to whether an Adverse Determination (as hereinafter defined) has been or may be made, except as contemplated by the last sentence of Section 9(f). Upon submission of a request for advancement of Expenses pursuant to Section 9(c), Indemnitee shall be entitled to advancement of Expenses as provided in this Section 8, and such advancement of Expenses shall continue until such time (if any) as there is a final and non- appealable judgment by a Court that Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification or that Indemnitee engaged in Disabling Conduct. Indemnitee shall repay such amounts advanced if and to the extent that it shall ultimately be determined in a final and non-appealable judgment by a Court that Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company for such Expenses or that Indemnitee engaged in Disabling Conduct. Such repayment obligation shall be unsecured and shall not bear interest. The Company shall not impose on Indemnitee additional conditions to advancement or require from Indemnitee additional undertakings regarding repayment.

9. Indemnification Procedures. It is the intent of this Agreement to secure for Indemnitee rights of indemnity that are as favorable as may be permitted under the DGCL and public policy of the State of Delaware. Accordingly, the parties agree that the following procedures and presumptions shall apply in the event of any question as to whether Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification under this Agreement.

(a) Notice of Proceeding. Indemnitee agrees to notify the Company promptly upon being served with any summons, citation, subpoena, complaint, indictment, information or other document relating to any Proceeding or matter which may be subject to indemnification or advancement of Expenses hereunder. Any failure by Indemnitee to notify the Company will relieve the Company of its advancement or indemnification obligations under this Agreement only to the extent the Company can establish that such omission to notify resulted in actual prejudice to it, and the omission to notify the Company will, in any event, not relieve the Company from any liability which it may have to indemnify Indemnitee or advance Expenses to Indemnitee otherwise than under this Agreement. If, at the time of receipt of any such notice, the Company has director and officer insurance policies in effect, the Company will promptly notify the relevant insurers in accordance with the procedures and requirements of such policies.

(b) Defense; Settlement. The Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Indemnitee, which may be provided or withheld in Indemnitee's sole discretion, effect any settlement of any Proceeding against Indemnitee or which could have been brought against Indemnitee or which potentially or actually imposes any cost, liability, exposure or burden on Indemnitee unless such settlement solely involves the payment of money or performance of any obligation by Persons other than Indemnitee and includes an unconditional release of Indemnitee from all liability on any matters that are the subject of such Proceeding and an acknowledgment that Indemnitee denies all wrongdoing in connection with such matters. The Company shall not be obligated to indemnify Indemnitee against amounts paid in settlement of a Proceeding against Indemnitee if such settlement is effected by Indemnitee without the Company's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(c) Request for Advancement; Request for Indemnification.

(i) To obtain advancement of Expenses under this Agreement, Indemnitee shall submit to the Company a written request therefor, together with such invoices or other supporting information as may be reasonably requested by the Company and reasonably available to Indemnitee, and, to the extent required by the DGCL and any other applicable law, an unsecured written undertaking to repay amounts advanced if it shall ultimately be determined in a final and non-appealable judgment by a Court that Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification or that Indemnitee engaged in Disabling Conduct. The Company shall make advance payment of Expenses to Indemnitee no later than ten (10) days after receipt of the written request for advancement (and each subsequent request for advancement) by Indemnitee. If, at the time of receipt of any such written request for advancement of Expenses, the Company has director and officer insurance policies in effect, the Company will promptly notify the relevant insurers in accordance with the procedures and requirements of such policies.

(ii) To obtain indemnification under this Agreement, at any time after submission of a request for advancement pursuant to Section 9(c)(i), Indemnitee may submit a written request for indemnification hereunder. The time at which Indemnitee submits a written request for indemnification shall be determined by Indemnitee in Indemnitee's sole discretion. Once Indemnitee submits such a written request for indemnification (and only at such time that Indemnitee submits such a written request for indemnification), a Determination (as hereinafter defined) shall thereafter be made, as provided in and only to the extent required by Section 9(d). In no event shall a Determination be made, or required to be made, as a condition to or otherwise in connection with any advancement of Expenses pursuant to Section 8 and Section 9(c)(i). If, at the time of receipt of any such request for indemnification, the Company has director and officer insurance policies in effect, the Company will promptly notify the relevant insurers in accordance with the procedures and requirements of such policies.

(d) Determination. Any Determination shall be made within thirty (30) days after receipt of Indemnitee's written request for indemnification pursuant to Section 9(c)(ii) and such Determination shall be made, subject to Section 9(f), (x) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of the Disinterested Directors (as hereinafter defined) even though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors, (y) by a majority vote of a committee consisting solely of one or more Disinterested Directors designated to act in the matter by a majority vote of the Disinterested Directors, even though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors, or (z) if there are no Disinterested Directors or, if such Disinterested Directors so direct, by independent counsel mutually agreed to by Indemnitee and the Disinterested Directors.

(i) If the Person empowered or selected under this Section 9 to make a Determination shall not have made such Determination within the thirty (30) day period set forth in this Section 9(d), the requisite Determination shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be deemed to have been a Favorable Determination and Indemnitee shall be entitled to such indemnification absent (A) a misstatement by Indemnitee of a material fact, or an omission of a material fact necessary to make Indemnitee's statement not materially misleading, in connection with the request for indemnification, or (B) prohibition of such indemnification under applicable law; provided, however, that such thirty (30) day period may be extended for a reasonable time, not to exceed an additional fifteen (15) days, if the Person making such Determination in good faith requires such additional time to obtain or evaluate documentation or information relating thereto.

(e) If a Determination is made that Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, payment to Indemnitee shall be made within ten (10) days after such Determination. Indemnitee shall reasonably cooperate with the Person or Persons making such Determination, including providing to such Persons upon reasonable advance request any documentation or information which is not privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure and which is reasonably available to Indemnitee and reasonably necessary to such Determination. Any Expenses incurred by Indemnitee in so cooperating with the Disinterested Directors or independent counsel, as the case may be, making such determination shall be advanced and borne by the Company (irrespective of the Determination as to Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification) and the Company is liable to indemnify and hold Indemnitee harmless therefrom.

(f) Consequences of Determination; Remedies of Indemnitee. The Company shall be bound by and shall have no right to challenge, and shall cause each Enterprise not to challenge, a Favorable Determination (as hereinafter defined). If an Adverse Determination is made, or if for any other reason the Company does not make timely indemnification payments or advances of Expenses, Indemnitee shall have the right to commence a Proceeding before a Court to challenge such Adverse Determination and/or to require the Company to make such payments or advances (and the Company shall have the right to defend its position in such Proceeding and to appeal any adverse judgment in such Proceeding). Indemnitee shall be entitled to be indemnified for all Expenses incurred in connection with such a Proceeding and to have such Expenses advanced by the Company in accordance with Section 8 and Indemnitee shall be entitled to an adjudication in a Court of Indemnitee's entitlement to such indemnification, contribution or advancement of Expenses. If Indemnitee fails to challenge an Adverse Determination, or if Indemnitee challenges an Adverse Determination and such Adverse Determination has been upheld by a final and non-appealable judgment of a Court, then, to the extent and only to the extent required by such Adverse Determination or final and non-appealable judgment, the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify or advance Expenses to Indemnitee under this Agreement.

(g) Presumptions; Burden and Standard of Proof. The parties intend and agree that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, in connection with any Determination with respect to Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification hereunder by any Person, including a Court:

(i) it will be presumed that Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification under this Agreement, and the Entity or any other Person challenging such right will have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption in connection with the making by any Person of any determination contrary to that presumption;

(ii) the termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, adversely affect the right of Indemnitee to indemnification or create a presumption that Indemnitee engaged in Disabling Conduct or acted in a manner which Indemnitee did not reasonably believe to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the applicable Entity, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that Indemnitee's conduct was unlawful or that Indemnitee did not act in accordance with any other applicable standard of conduct imposed by contract, applicable law or otherwise;

(iii) Indemnitee will be deemed to have not engaged in Disabling Conduct if Indemnitee's action or omission is based on the records or books of account of the applicable Entity, including financial statements, or on information supplied to Indemnitee by the officers, employees, or committees of the board of directors or other governing body of the applicable Entity, or on the advice of legal counsel for the applicable Entity or on information or records given in reports made to the applicable Entity by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert or advisor selected by the applicable Entity; and (iv) the knowledge and/or actions, or failure to act, of any director, officer, manager, representative, agent or employee of any Entity or other relevant Enterprises will not be imputed to Indemnitee in a manner that limits or otherwise adversely affects Indemnitee's rights hereunder.

Whether or not the foregoing provisions of this Section 9(g) are satisfied, it shall in any event be presumed that Indemnitee has at all times acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. Anyone seeking to overcome this presumption shall have the burden of proof and the burden of persuasion by clear and convincing evidence. The provisions of this Section 9(g) shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the other circumstances in which Indemnitee may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in this Agreement.

(h) The Company acknowledges that a settlement or other disposition short of final judgment may be successful if it permits a party to avoid expense, delay, distraction, disruption and uncertainty. In the event that any Proceeding to which Indemnitee is a party is resolved in any manner other than by adverse judgment against Indemnitee (including, without limitation, settlement of such Proceeding with or without payment of money or other consideration), it shall to the fullest extent permitted by law be presumed that Indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in such Proceeding. Anyone seeking to overcome this presumption shall have the burden of proof and the burden of persuasion by clear and convincing evidence.

10. Insurance; Subrogation; Other Rights of Recovery, Etc.

(a) The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to purchase and maintain a policy or policies of insurance with reputable insurance companies with A.M. Best ratings of "A" or better, providing Indemnitee with coverage for any liability asserted against, and incurred by, Indemnitee or on Indemnitee's behalf by reason of Indemnitee's Company Status, or arising out of Indemnitee's status as such, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify Indemnitee against such liability. In all such insurance policies, Indemnitee shall be named as an insured in such a manner as to provide Indemnitee with the same rights and benefits as are accorded to the most favorably insured of the Enterprises' directors and officers. If the Company has such insurance in effect at the time it receives from Indemnitee any notice of the commencement of an action, suit, proceeding or other claim, the Company shall give prompt notice of the commencement of such action, suit, proceeding or other claim to the insurers in accordance with the procedures set forth in the policy. The Company shall thereafter take all necessary or desirable action to cause such insurers to pay, on behalf of Indemnitee, all amounts payable as a result of such action, suit, proceeding or other claim in accordance with the terms of such policy. The Company shall continue to provide such insurance coverage to Indemnitee for a period of at least six (6) years after Indemnitee ceases to serve as a Director or any other Company Status.

(b) Subject to Section 10(c), in the event of any payment by the Company under this Agreement, the Company shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the rights of recovery of Indemnitee against any other Enterprise, and Indemnitee hereby agrees, as a condition to obtaining any advancement or indemnification from the Company, to assign to the Company all of Indemnitee's rights to obtain from such other Enterprise such amounts to the extent that they have been paid by the Company to or for the benefit of Indemnitee as advancement or indemnification under this Agreement and are adequate to indemnify Indemnitee with respect to the costs, Expenses or other items to the full extent that Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification or other payment hereunder; and Indemnitee will (upon request by the Company) execute all papers required and take all action necessary to secure such rights, including execution of such documents as are necessary to enable the Company to bring suit or enforce such rights.

(c) The Company shall not be liable to pay or advance to Indemnitee any amounts otherwise indemnifiable under this Agreement or under any other indemnification agreement if and to the extent that Indemnitee has otherwise actually received such payment under any insurance policy, contract, agreement or otherwise; provided, however, that the Company hereby agrees on behalf of itself and each other Entity, that the Entities are the indemnitors of first resort under this Agreement, under the Company Organizational Documents or the Enterprise Organizational Documents or under any other indemnification agreement, arrangement or undertaking or from any insurance policy for the benefit of such Indemnitee (other than any director and officer insurance policy for the benefit of such Indemnitee maintained or paid for by any Enterprise), to provide advancement or indemnification for all or any portion of the same Expenses, liabilities, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of such Expenses, liabilities, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement) incurred by Indemnitee and any rights of recovery of Indemnitee under any insurance policy for the benefit of such Indemnitee (other than any director and officer insurance policy for the benefit of such Indemnitee maintained or paid for by any Enterprise) are secondary.

(d) Subject to Section 10(c), the Company's obligation to indemnify or advance Expenses hereunder to Indemnitee in respect of or relating to Indemnitee's Company Status shall be reduced by any amount Indemnitee has actually received as payment of indemnification or advancement of Expenses from such other Enterprise, except to the extent that such indemnification payments and advance payment of Expenses when taken together with any such amount actually received from other Enterprises or under director and officer insurance policies maintained by one or more Enterprises are inadequate to fully pay all costs, Expenses or other items to the full extent that Indemnitee is otherwise entitled to indemnification or other payment hereunder.

(e) Except for the rights set forth in Sections 10(c) and 10(d), the rights to indemnification and advancement of Expenses as provided by this Agreement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which Indemnitee may at any time, whenever conferred or arising, be entitled under applicable law, under the Company's Organizational Documents, Enterprise Organizational Documents or under any other agreement, resolution of directors (or similar governing body) of any Enterprise, or otherwise. Indemnitee's rights under this Agreement are present contractual rights that fully vest upon Indemnitee's first service as a director or an officer. The parties hereby agree that Sections 10(c) and 10(d) shall be deemed exclusive and shall be deemed to modify, amend and clarify any right to indemnification or advancement provided to Indemnitee under any other contract, agreement or document with any Enterprise relating to advancement or indemnification.

(f) No amendment, alteration or repeal of this Agreement or of any provision hereof shall limit or restrict any right of Indemnitee under this Agreement in respect of any action taken or omitted by such Indemnitee in Indemnitee's Company Status prior to such amendment, alteration or repeal. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other right or remedy.

11. Employment Rights; Successors; Third Party Beneficiaries.

(a) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving Indemnitee any right to be, or to be retained, in the employment of any of the Entities. This Agreement shall continue in force as provided above after Indemnitee has ceased to serve as a director or officer or in any other Company Status.

(b) This Agreement shall be binding upon each of the Company and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of Indemnitee and Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators.

12. Severability. If any provision or provisions of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever: (a) the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, each portion of any Section of this Agreement containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that is not itself invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby and shall remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law; (b) such provision or provisions shall be deemed reformed to the extent necessary to conform to applicable law and to give the maximum effect to the intent of the parties hereto; and (c) to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Agreement (including each portion of any Section of this Agreement containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that is not itself invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested thereby. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this Agreement is intended to confer upon Indemnitee indemnification rights to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws.

13. Exceptions to Right of Indemnification or Advancement of Expenses. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement and except as provided in Section 7(a) of this Agreement or as may otherwise be agreed by the Company, Indemnitee shall not be entitled to indemnification or advancement of Expenses under this Agreement with respect to any Proceeding initiated by Indemnitee (other than a Proceeding by Indemnitee (i) to enforce Indemnitee's rights under this Agreement or (ii) to enforce any other rights of Indemnitee to indemnification, advancement or contribution from the Company under any other contract, Company Organizational Document, Enterprise Organizational Document or under statute or other law), unless the initiation of such Proceeding or making of such claim shall have been (A) approved by the Board of Directors or the Company has joined in the Proceeding (or any part of the Proceeding) or (B) the Company provides such indemnification, advancement or contribution, in its sole discretion, pursuant to the powers vested in the Company under applicable law. In addition, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, to the extent that Indemnitee is a director or officer of any Enterprise, Indemnitee shall not be entitled to indemnification or advancement of Expenses under this Agreement with respect to any Proceeding if Indemnitee did not act in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company and/or any such Enterprise.

19. Contribution.

(a) Whether or not the indemnification or advancement in respect thereof provided in Sections 1-8 are available, in respect of any threatened, pending or completed Proceeding in which the Company is jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such Proceeding), to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company shall pay, in the first instance, the entire amount of any judgment or settlement of such Proceeding without requiring Indemnitee to contribute to such payment and the Company hereby waives and relinquishes any right of contribution it may have against Indemnitee. The Company shall not, without the Indemnitee's prior written consent, enter into any such settlement of any Proceeding (in whole or in part) unless such settlement (i) provides for a full and final release of all claims asserted against Indemnitee and (ii) does not impose any Expense, judgment, fine, penalty or limitation on Indemnitee.

(b) Without diminishing or impairing the obligations of the Company set forth in the preceding subparagraph, if, for any reason, Indemnitee shall elect or be required to pay all or any portion of any judgment or settlement in any threatened, pending or completed Proceeding in which the Company is jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such Proceeding), to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company shall contribute to the amount of Expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred and paid or payable by Indemnitee in proportion to the relative benefits received by the Company and all officers, directors or employees of the Company, other than Indemnitee, who are jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such Proceeding), on the one hand, and Indemnitee, on the other hand, from the transaction or events from which such Proceeding arose; provided, however, that the proportion determined on the basis of relative benefit may, to the extent necessary to conform to law, be further adjusted by reference to the relative fault of the Company and all officers, directors or employees of the Company, other than Indemnitee, who are jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such Proceeding), on the one hand, and Indemnitee, on the other hand, in connection with the transaction or events that resulted in such expenses, judgments, fines or settlement amounts, as well as any other equitable considerations which the law may require to be considered. The relative fault of the Company and all officers, directors or employees of the Company, other than Indemnitee, who are jointly liable with Indemnitee (or would be if joined in such Proceeding), on the one hand, and Indemnitee, on the other hand, shall be determined by reference to, among other things, the degree to which their actions were motivated by intent to gain personal profit or advantage, the degree to which their liability is primary or secondary and the degree to which their conduct is active or passive.

(c) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company hereby agrees to fully indemnify and hold Indemnitee harmless from any claims of contribution which may be brought by officers, directors or employees of the Company, other than Indemnitee, who may be jointly liable with Indemnitee.

(d) To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, if the indemnification provided for in this Agreement is unavailable to Indemnitee for any reason whatsoever, the Company, in lieu of indemnifying Indemnitee, shall contribute to the amount incurred by Indemnitee, whether for judgments, fines, penalties, excise taxes, amounts paid or to be paid in settlement and/or for reasonably incurred Expenses (other than amounts with respect to Disabling Conduct), in connection with any claim relating to an indemnifiable event under this Agreement, in such proportion as is deemed fair and reasonable in light of all of the circumstances of such Proceeding in order to reflect (i) the relative benefits received by the Company and Indemnitee as a result of the event(s) and/or transaction(s) giving cause to such Proceeding, and/or (ii) the relative fault of the Company (and its directors, officers, employees and agents) and Indemnitee in connection with such event(s) and/or transaction(s).

20. Governing Law; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

APPLICABLE TO CONTRACTS MADE AND TO BE PERFORMED IN SUCH STATE WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ITS PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAWS.

(b) EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LITIGATION IN ANY COURT WITH RESPECT TO, IN CONNECTION WITH, OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY ANCILLARY AGREEMENT OR THE VALIDITY, PROTECTION, INTERPRETATION, COLLECTION OR ENFORCEMENT THEREOF.

21. Dispute Resolution.

(a) The parties acknowledge that the expeditious and equitable settlement of disputes arising under this Agreement is to their mutual advantage. To that end, the parties agree to attempt to resolve differences of opinion and to settle all disputes through joint cooperation and consultation.

(b) The parties irrevocably and unconditionally (and without limitation) agree that any dispute, challenge or disagreement whatsoever between or among any of the parties hereto with respect to any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement (including any dispute relating to an alleged breach or interpretation of this Agreement) that the parties hereto are unable to settle through cooperation and consultation as set forth in Section 21(a), or in any action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, shall be brought only in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (the "Delaware Court") and not in any other state or federal court in the United States and each party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally (and without limitation) agrees (i) to consent to submit to, and hereby submits to and accepts, for itself and in respect of its assets, generally and unconditionally, the exclusive jurisdiction of the Delaware Court for purposes of any action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, (ii) to waive, and does hereby agree not to plead or make, any claim or objection that it may have now or in the future that the Delaware Court lacks venue or that any such action or proceeding brought in the Delaware Court has been brought in an improper or inconvenient forum, (iii) that in any such action or proceeding it shall not raise, rely on or claim any immunity (including from suit, judgment, attachment before judgment or otherwise, execution or other enforcement); (iv) to waive any right of immunity that it has or its assets may have at any time; and (v) to consent, and does hereby consent, generally to the giving of any relief or the issue of any process in connection with any such action or proceeding including the making, enforcement or execution of any order or judgment against any of its property. In the event of any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement that is subject to judicial proceedings, the parties expressly covenant that they shall petition the Delaware Court for entry of a protective order that shall require the filing of all pleadings under seal and that shall maintain the maximum confidentiality applicable to such judicial proceedings and, in the event that such an order is not entered, shall take commercially reasonable not to publicize such proceedings.

22. Non-Disclosure of Payments. Except as expressly required by applicable law, neither party shall disclose any payments under this Agreement unless prior approval of the other party is obtained. If any payment information must be disclosed, the Company shall afford the Indemnitee an opportunity to review all such disclosures and, if requested, the Company shall consider in good faith additional disclosures to explain in such statement any mitigating circumstances regarding the events to be reported.

23. Enforcement and Binding Effect.

(a) The Company expressly confirms and agrees that it has entered into this Agreement and assumed the obligations imposed on it hereby in order to induce Indemnitee to serve as a director or officer of the Company, and the Company acknowledges that Indemnitee is relying upon this Agreement in serving or continuing to serve as a director or officer of the Company.

(b) Without limiting any of the rights of Indemnitee under the Company Certificate or Bylaws as they may be amended from time to time, this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral, written and implied, between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(c) The indemnification and advancement of Expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Agreement shall be binding upon and be enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns (including any direct or indirect successor by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company), shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company or of any other Enterprise at the Company's request, and shall inure to the benefit of Indemnitee and Indemnitee's spouse, assigns, heirs, devisees, executors and administrators and other legal representatives.

(d) The Company shall require and cause any successor (whether direct or indirect by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company to expressly assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform if no such succession had taken place.

(e) The Company and Indemnitee agree herein that a monetary remedy for breach of this Agreement, at some later date, may be inadequate, impracticable and difficult of proof, and further agree that such breach may cause Indemnitee irreparable harm. Accordingly, the parties hereto agree that Indemnitee may enforce this Agreement by seeking injunctive relief and/or specific performance hereof, without any necessity of showing actual damage or irreparable harm and that by seeking injunctive relief and/or specific performance, Indemnitee shall not be precluded from seeking or obtaining any other relief to which Indemnitee may be entitled. The Company and Indemnitee further agree that Indemnitee shall be entitled to such specific performance and injunctive relief, including temporary restraining orders, preliminary injunctions and permanent injunctions, without the necessity of posting bonds or other undertaking in connection therewith. The Company acknowledges that in the absence of a waiver, a bond or undertaking may be required of Indemnitee by the court, and the Company hereby waives any such requirement of such a bond or undertaking.

24. Headings. The headings of the paragraphs of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not be deemed to constitute part of this Agreement or to affect the construction thereof.

25. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts (including a facsimile or digital/electronic transmission thereof) with the same effect as if all signing parties had signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and constitute the same instrument.

"Termination" means a Termination of Consultancy, Termination of Directorship, or Termination of Employment, as applicable.

"Termination of Consultancy" means: (a) that the Consultant is no longer acting as a consultant to a Company Entity; or (b) when an entity (other than the Company) that is retaining a Participant as a Consultant ceases to be a Company Entity, unless the Participant otherwise is, or thereupon becomes, a Consultant to another Company Entity at the time the entity ceases to be a Company Entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may otherwise define Termination of Consultancy in the Award Agreement or, if no rights of a Participant related to any Awards held by such Participant are reduced, may otherwise define Termination of Consultancy thereafter; provided that any such change to the definition of the term Termination of Consultancy does not subject the applicable Award to Section 409A of the Code.

"Termination of Directorship" means that the Non-Employee Director has ceased to be a director of the Company.

"Termination of Employment" means (a) a termination of employment (for reasons other than a military or personal leave of absence granted by the Company) of a Participant from all Company Entities; or (b) when an entity (other than the Company) that is employing a Participant ceases to be a Company Entity, unless the Participant otherwise is, or thereupon becomes, employed by another Company Entity at the time the entity ceases to be a Company Entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may otherwise define Termination of Employment in the Award Agreement or, if no rights of a Participant related to any Awards held by such Participant are reduced, may otherwise define Termination of Employment thereafter; provided that any such change to the definition of the term Termination of Employment does not subject the applicable Award to Section 409A of the Code.

"Transfer" means: (a) when used as a noun, any direct or indirect transfer, sale, assignment, pledge, hypothecation, encumbrance, or other disposition (including the issuance of equity in any entity), whether for value or no value and whether voluntary or involuntary (including by operation of law), and (b) when used as a verb, to directly or indirectly transfer, sell, assign, pledge, encumber, charge, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of (including the issuance of equity in any entity) whether for value or for no value and whether voluntarily or involuntarily (including by operation of law). The terms "Transferred" and "Transferable" have correlative meanings.

"Voting Stock" means, with respect to the Company or any other entity, outstanding voting securities of such entitled to vote generally in the election of members of the board of directors or other governing body of such entity; and any specified percentage or portion of the outstanding Voting Stock (or of other voting stock) is determined based on the combined voting power of such securities.

ARTICLE III
ADMINISTRATION

3.1 Committee. The Plan shall be administered and interpreted by the Committee. To the extent required to comply with the provisions of Rule 16b-3 (if the Board is not acting as the Committee under the Plan), it is intended that each member of the Committee shall, at the time such member takes any action with respect to an Award under the Plan that is intended to qualify for the exemptions provided by Rule 16b-3, be a Qualifying Director. If it is later determined that one or more members of the Committee do not so qualify, actions taken by the Committee prior to such determination shall be valid for all other purposes under the Plan despite such failure to qualify.

3.2 Grants of Awards. The Committee shall have full authority to grant, pursuant to the terms of the Plan and applicable law, to Eligible Individuals: (i) Stock Options; (ii) Restricted Stock; (iii) Restricted Stock Units; (iv) Performance Awards; (v) Other Stock-Based Awards; and (vi) Other Cash-Based Awards. In particular, subject to the provisions of the Plan and applicable law , the Committee shall have the authority to:

(a) select the Eligible Individuals to whom Awards may from time to time be granted hereunder;

(b) determine whether and to what extent Awards, or any combination thereof, are to be granted hereunder to one or more Eligible Individuals;

(c) determine the number of Shares to be covered by each Award granted hereunder;

(d) determine the terms and conditions, not inconsistent with the terms of the Plan, of any Award granted hereunder (including, but not limited to, the exercise or purchase price (if any), any restriction or limitation, any vesting schedule or acceleration thereof, or any forfeiture restrictions or waiver thereof, regarding any Award and the Shares relating thereto, based on such factors, if any, as the Committee shall determine, in its sole discretion);

(e) provide for the accelerated vesting or lapse of restrictions of any Award at any time;

(f) determine the amount of cash (if any) to be covered by each Award granted hereunder;

(g) determine whether and under what circumstances a Stock Option may be settled in cash, Shares, and/or Restricted Stock under Section 6.4(d);

(h) determine whether a Stock Option is an Incentive Stock Option or Nonqualified Stock Option;

(i) impose a "blackout" period during which Options and/or SARs may not be exercised;

(j) determine whether and under what circumstances an Award may be settled in cash, Shares, other property, or a combination of the foregoing;

(k) modify, waive, amend, or adjust the terms and conditions of any Award, at any time or from time to time, which will include the ability to modify, extend, or renew an Award, subject to Article XI and Section 6.4(l); provided, however, that such action does not subject the Award to Section 409A of the Code without the consent of the Participant;

(l) determine whether, to what extent and under what circumstances cash, shares, or other property and other amounts payable with respect to an Award under the Plan shall be deferred either automatically or at the election of the Participant; and

(m) determine whether to require a Participant, as a condition of the granting of any Award, to not sell or otherwise dispose of Shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of an Award for a period of time as determined by the Committee, in its sole discretion, following the date of the acquisition of such Award.

(n) Except to the extent prohibited by applicable law or the applicable rules and regulations of any securities exchange or inter-dealer quotation system on which the securities of the Company are listed or traded, the Committee may allocate all or any portion of its responsibilities and powers to any one or more of its members and may delegate all or any part of its responsibilities and powers to any person or persons selected by it. Any such allocation or delegation may be revoked by the Committee at any time. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Committee may delegate to one or more officers of any member of the Company Entities, the authority to act on behalf of the Committee with respect to any matter, right, obligation, or election that is the responsibility of, or that is allocated to, the Committee herein, and that may be so delegated as a matter of law, except for grants of Awards to Non-Employee Directors. Notwithstanding the foregoing in this Section 3.2, it is intended that any action under the Plan intended to qualify for an exemption provided by Rule 16b-3 related to persons who are subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act will be taken only by the Board or by a committee or subcommittee of two or more Qualifying Directors. However, the fact that any member of such committee or subcommittee shall fail to qualify as a Qualifying Director shall not invalidate any action that is otherwise valid under the Plan.

3.3 Guidelines. Subject to Article XI, the Committee shall have the authority to adopt, alter, and repeal such administrative rules, guidelines, and practices governing the Plan and perform all acts, including the delegation of its responsibilities (to the extent permitted by applicable law and applicable stock exchange rules), as it shall, from time to time, deem advisable; to construe and interpret the terms and provisions of the Plan and any Award issued under the Plan (and any Award Agreements or sub-plans relating thereto), and to otherwise supervise the administration of the Plan. The Committee may correct any defect, supply any omission, or reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan or in any Award Agreement in the manner and to the extent it shall deem necessary to effectuate the purpose and intent of the Plan. The Committee may adopt special guidelines and provisions for persons who are residing in or employed in, or subject to, the taxes of, any domestic or foreign jurisdictions to comply with applicable tax and securities laws of such domestic or foreign jurisdictions. In taking actions under this Section 3.3, the Committee shall act in good faith. To the extent applicable, the Plan is intended to comply with the applicable requirements of Rule 16b-3 and the Plan shall be limited, construed, and interpreted in a manner so as to comply therewith.

3.4 Decisions Final. Any decision, interpretation, or other action made or taken in good faith by or at the direction of the Company, the Board, or the Committee (or any of its members) arising out of or in connection with the Plan shall be within the absolute discretion of all and each of them, as the case may be, and shall be final, binding, and conclusive on all Persons, including all employees and Participants and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns.

3.5 Designation of Consultants/Liability.

(a) The Committee may designate employees of the Company and professional advisors to assist the Committee in the administration of the Plan and (to the extent permitted by applicable law and applicable exchange rules) may grant authority to officers to execute agreements or other documents on behalf of the Committee.

(b) The Committee may employ such legal counsel, consultants, and agents as it may deem desirable for the administration of the Plan and may rely upon any opinion received from any such counsel or consultant and any computation received from any such consultant or agent. Expenses incurred by the Committee or the Board in the engagement of any such counsel, consultant, or agent shall be paid by the Company. The Committee, its members, and any person designated or granted authority pursuant to Section 3.5(a) shall not be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no officer or employee of the Company or its Affiliates or member or former member of the Committee or of the Board shall be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any Award granted under it.

3.6 Indemnification. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law and to the extent not covered by insurance directly insuring such person, each current and former officer or employee of any Company Entity and member or former member of the Committee or the Board shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company against any cost or expense (including reasonable fees of counsel acceptable to the Committee) or liability (including any sum paid in settlement of a claim with the approval of the Committee), and advanced amounts necessary to pay the foregoing at the earliest time and to the fullest extent permitted, arising out of any act or omission to act in connection with the administration of this Plan, except to the extent arising out of such officer's, employee's, member's, or former member's own fraud or bad faith. Such indemnification shall be in addition to any right of indemnification that the current or former employee, officer or member may have under applicable law, under the by-laws of any Company Entity or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything else herein, this indemnification will not apply to the actions or determinations made by an individual with regard to Awards granted to such individual under this Plan.

ARTICLE IV
SHARE LIMITATION

4.1 Shares.

(a) The aggregate number of Shares that may be issued or used for reference purposes or with respect to which Awards may be granted under the Plan shall not exceed 7,083,461 shares (subject to any increase or decrease pursuant to Section 4.2) (the "Share Reserve"), which may be either authorized and unissued Shares or Shares held in or acquired for the treasury of the Company or both. The maximum number of Shares with respect to which Incentive Stock Options may be granted under the Plan shall be equal to the Share Reserve. If any Award granted under the Plan expires, terminates, or is canceled for any reason without having been exercised in full, the number of Shares underlying any unexercised Award shall again be available for the purpose of Awards under the Plan. If any Shares subject to an Award under the Plan to a Participant are forfeited for any reason, the number of forfeited Shares shall again be available for purposes of Awards under the Plan. Any Award under the Plan settled in cash shall not be counted against the foregoing maximum share limitations. Shares withheld by the Company in satisfaction of the applicable exercise price or withholding taxes upon the issuance, vesting, or settlement of Awards, in each case, shall again be available for future issuance under the Plan. In each calendar year during any part of which this Plan is in effect, a Non-Employee Director may not receive Awards for such individual's service on the Board that, taken together with any cash fees paid to such Non-Employee Director during such calendar year for such individual's service on the Board, have a value in excess of $750,000 (calculating the value of any such Awards based on the grant date fair value of such Awards for financial reporting purposes); provided, that (a) the Committee may make exceptions to this limit, except that the Non-Employee Director receiving such additional compensation may not participate in the decision to award such compensation or in other contemporaneous decisions involving compensation for Non-Employee Directors and (b) for any calendar year in which a Non-Employee Director (i) first commences service on the Board, (ii) serves on a special committee of the Board, or (iii) serves as lead director or non-executive chair of the Board, such limit shall be increased to $1,500,000; provided, further, that the limit set forth in this Section 4.1 shall be applied without regard to Awards or other compensation, if any, provided to a Non-Employee Director in respect of any period in which such individual was an employee of the Company or any Affiliate or was otherwise providing services to the Company or to any Affiliate other than in the capacity as a Non-Employee Director.

(b) Awards may, in the sole discretion of the Committee, be granted under the Plan in assumption of, or in substitution for, outstanding awards previously granted by an entity directly or indirectly acquired by the Company or with which the Company combines ("Substitute Awards"). Substitute Awards shall not be counted against the Share Reserve; provided that Substitute Awards issued in connection with the assumption of, or in substitution for, outstanding Options intended to qualify as Incentive Stock Options shall be counted against the aggregate number of shares available for Incentive Stock Options awarded under the Plan. Subject to applicable stock exchange requirements, available shares under a stockholder approved plan of an entity directly or indirectly acquired by the Company or with which the Company combines (as appropriately adjusted to reflect the acquisition or combination transaction) may be used for Awards under the Plan and shall not reduce the number of shares available for issuance under the Plan.

4.2 Changes.

(a) The existence of the Plan and the Awards granted hereunder shall not affect in any way the right or power of the Board or the stockholders of the Company to make or authorize (i) any adjustment, recapitalization, reorganization, or other change in the Company's capital structure or its business, (ii) any merger or consolidation of the Company or any Affiliate, (iii) any issuance of bonds, debentures, preferred or prior preference stock ahead of or affecting the Shares, (iv) the dissolution or liquidation of the Company or any Affiliate, (v) any sale or transfer of all or part of the assets or business of the Company or any Affiliate, or (vi) any other corporate act or proceeding.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 10.1:

(i) If the Company at any time subdivides (by any split, recapitalization, or otherwise) the outstanding Shares into a greater number of Shares, or combines (by reverse split, combination, or otherwise) its outstanding Shares into a lesser number of Shares, then the respective exercise prices for outstanding Awards that provide for a Participant-elected exercise, the number of Shares covered by outstanding Awards, the aggregate number or kind of securities that thereafter may be issued under the Plan, and the other limits contained in Section 4.1, in each case, shall be appropriately adjusted by the Committee to prevent dilution or enlargement of the rights granted to, or available for, Participants under the Plan.

(ii) Excepting transactions covered by Section4.2(b)(i), if the Company effects any merger, consolidation, statutory exchange, spin-off, reorganization, sale or transfer of all or substantially all the Company's assets or business, or other corporate transaction or event in such a manner that the Company's outstanding Shares are converted into the right to receive (or the holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive in exchange therefor), either immediately or upon liquidation of the Company, securities or other property of the Company or other entity (each, a "Reorganization"), then, subject to the provisions of Section 10.1, (A) the aggregate number or kind of securities that thereafter may be issued under the Plan and the other limits contained in Section 4.1, (B) the number or kind of securities or other property (including cash) to be issued pursuant to Awards granted under the Plan (including as a result of the assumption of the Plan and the obligations hereunder by a successor entity, as applicable), and/or (C) the purchase price of any Award, shall be appropriately adjusted by the Committee to prevent dilution or enlargement of the rights granted to, or available for, Participants under the Plan.

(iii) If there shall occur any change in the capital structure of the Company other than those covered by Section 4.2(b)(i) or 4.2(b)(ii), including by reason of any extraordinary dividend (whether cash or equity), any conversion, any adjustment, any issuance of any class of securities convertible or exercisable into, or exercisable for, any class of equity securities of the Company that affects the Common Stock, then the Committee shall adjust any Award and make such other equitable or proportional adjustments to the Plan to prevent dilution or enlargement of the rights granted to, or available for, Participants under the Plan.

(iv) The Committee may adjust the performance goals applicable to any Awards to reflect any unusual or non-recurring events and other extraordinary items, impact of charges for restructurings, discontinued operations, and the cumulative effects of accounting or tax changes, each as defined by generally accepted accounting principles or as identified in the Company's financial statements, notes to the financial statements, management's discussion and analysis, or other Company public filing.

(v) Any such adjustment determined by the Committee pursuant to this Section 4.2(b) shall be final, binding, and conclusive on all Persons including all employees and Participants and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and permitted assigns. Any adjustment to, or assumption or substitution of, an Award under this Section 4.2(b) shall be intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code and Treasury Regulations § 1.424-1 (and any amendments thereto), to the extent applicable. Except as expressly provided in this Section 4.2 or in the applicable Award Agreement, a Participant shall have no additional rights under the Plan by reason of any transaction or event described in this Section 4.2.

(vi) Fractional Shares resulting from any adjustment in Awards pursuant to Section 4.2(a) or this Section 4.2(b) shall be aggregated until, and eliminated at, the time of exercise or payment by rounding-down. No cash settlements shall be required with respect to fractional shares eliminated by rounding. Notice of any adjustment shall be given by the Committee to each Participant whose Award has been adjusted and such adjustment (whether or not such notice is given) shall be effective and binding for all purposes of the Plan.

ARTICLE V
ELIGIBILITY

5.1 General Eligibility. All current and prospective Eligible Individuals are eligible to be granted Awards. Eligibility for the grant of Awards and actual participation in the Plan shall be determined by the Committee in its sole discretion. The Committee shall have full discretion to treat different Participants under the Plan differently in any circumstance.

5.2 Incentive Stock Options. Notwithstanding the foregoing, only Eligible Employees of a Company Entity are eligible to be granted Incentive Stock Options under the Plan. Eligibility for the grant of an Incentive Stock Option and actual participation in the Plan shall be determined by the Committee in its sole discretion.

5.3 General Requirement. The grant of Awards to a prospective Eligible Individual is conditioned upon such individual actually becoming an Eligible Employee, Consultant, or Non-Employee Director, respectively.

ARTICLE VI
STOCK OPTIONS

6.1 Options. Stock Options may be granted alone or in addition to other Awards granted under the Plan. Each Stock Option granted under the Plan shall be of one of two types: (a) an Incentive Stock Option or (b) a Nonqualified Stock Option.

6.2 Grants. The Committee shall have the authority to grant to any Eligible Employee one or more Incentive Stock Options, Nonqualified Stock Options, or both types of Stock Options, in each case, pursuant to an Award Agreement. The Committee shall have the authority to grant any Consultant or Non-Employee Director one or more Nonqualified Stock Options. To the extent that any Stock Option does not qualify as an Incentive Stock Option (whether because of its provisions or the time or manner of its exercise or otherwise), such Stock Option or the portion thereof that does not so qualify shall constitute a separate Nonqualified Stock Option. If required by the Award Agreement, an Eligible Individual selected to receive Stock Options shall not have any right with respect to such Award, unless and until such Eligible Individual has delivered a fully executed copy of the Award Agreement evidencing the Award to the Company, to the extent required by the Committee, and has otherwise complied with the applicable terms and conditions of such Award.

6.3 Incentive Stock Options. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, no term of the Plan relating to Incentive Stock Options shall be interpreted, amended, or altered, nor shall any discretion or authority granted under the Plan be so exercised, so as to disqualify the Plan under Section 422 of the Code, or, without the consent of the Participants affected, to disqualify any Incentive Stock Option under such Section 422.

6.4 Terms of Options. Options granted under the Plan shall be subject to the following terms and conditions and shall be in such form and contain such additional terms and conditions, not inconsistent with the terms of the Plan, as the Committee shall deem desirable, including those set forth in an Award Agreement:

(a) Exercise Price. The exercise price per Share subject to a Stock Option shall be determined by the Committee at the time of grant; provided that the per share exercise price of a Stock Option shall not be less than 100% (or, in the case of an Incentive Stock Option granted to a Ten Percent Stockholder, 110%) of the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date of grant

(b) Stock Option Term. The term of each Stock Option shall be fixed by the Committee; provided that no Stock Option shall be exercisable more than 10 years after the date the Option is granted; and provided, further, that the term of an Incentive Stock Option granted to a Ten Percent Stockholder shall not exceed five years.

(c) Exercisability. Stock Options granted under the Plan shall be exercisable at such time or times and subject to such terms and conditions as shall be determined by the Committee at the time of grant. If the Committee provides, in its discretion, that any Stock Option is exercisable subject to certain limitations (including that such Stock Option is exercisable only in installments or within certain time periods), the Committee may waive such limitations on the exercisability at any time at or after the time of grant in whole or in part (including waiver of the installment exercise provisions or acceleration of the time at which such Stock Option may be exercised), based on such factors, if any, as the Committee shall determine, in its sole discretion.

(d) Method of Exercise. Subject to whatever installment exercise and waiting period provisions apply under Section 6.4(c), to the extent vested, Stock Options may be exercised in whole or in part at any time during the Option term, by giving written notice of exercise to the Company (or to its agent specifically designated for such purpose) specifying the number of Shares to be purchased (which notice may be provided in an electronic form to the extent acceptable to the Committee and the Company). Such notice shall be accompanied by payment in full of the purchase price (which shall equal the product of such number of Shares to be purchased multiplied by the applicable exercise price) as follows, as determined by the Committee in the Award Agreement or otherwise: (i) in cash or by check, bank draft, or money order payable to the order of the Company; (ii) solely to the extent permitted by applicable law, if the Common Stock is traded on a national securities exchange, and the Committee authorizes, through a procedure whereby the Participant delivers irrevocable instructions to a broker reasonably acceptable to the Committee to deliver promptly to the Company Shares with an aggregate value equal to the purchase price; (iii) by having the Company withhold Shares issuable upon exercise of the Stock Option; or (iv) on such other terms and conditions as may be acceptable to the Committee (including with the consent of the Committee, by payment in full or in part in the form of Shares owned by the Participant, based on the Fair Market Value of the Shares on the payment date as determined by the Committee). No Shares shall be issued until payment therefor, as provided herein, has been made or provided for and the Participant has paid to the Company an amount equal to any Federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income, employment, and any other applicable taxes required to be withheld or otherwise made arrangements for the satisfaction of such taxes in a manner permitted under the terms of the Plan or any Award Agreement.

(e) Non-Transferability of Options. No Stock Option shall be Transferable by the Participant other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, and all Stock Options shall be exercisable, during the Participant's lifetime, only by the Participant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may determine, in its sole discretion, at the time of grant or thereafter that a Nonqualified Stock Option that is otherwise not Transferable pursuant to this Section 6.4(e) is Transferable to a Family Member in whole or in part and in such circumstances, and under such conditions, as specified by the Committee. A Nonqualified Stock Option that is Transferred to a Family Member pursuant to the preceding sentence (i) may not be subsequently Transferred other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution; (ii) remains subject to the terms of the Plan and the applicable Award Agreement; and (iii) may be exercised by such Family Member. Any Shares acquired upon the exercise of a Nonqualified Stock Option by a permissible transferee of a Nonqualified Stock Option or a permissible transferee pursuant to a Transfer after the exercise of the Nonqualified Stock Option shall be subject to the terms of the Plan and the applicable Award Agreement.

(f) Termination by Death or Disability. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee in the applicable Award Agreement or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the applicable Award Agreement and the Plan, if a Participant's Termination is by reason of death or Disability, all Stock Options that are held by such Participant that are vested and exercisable at the time of the Participant's Termination may be exercised by the Participant (or in the case of the Participant's death, by the legal representative of the Participant's estate) at any time within a period of one year from the date of such Termination, but in no event beyond the expiration of the stated term of such Stock Options; provided, however, that, in the event of a Participant's Termination by reason of Disability, if the Participant dies within such exercise period, all vested and unexercised Stock Options held by such Participant shall thereafter be exercisable, to the extent to which they were exercisable at the time of death, for a period of one year from the date of such death, but in no event beyond the expiration of the stated term of such Stock Options.

(g) Involuntary Termination without Cause. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee in the applicable Award Agreement or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the applicable Award Agreement and the Plan, if a Participant's Termination is by a Company Entity without Cause (other than due to death or Disability), all Stock Options that are held by such Participant that are vested and exercisable at the time of the Participant's Termination may be exercised by the Participant at any time within a period of 90 days from the date of such Termination, but in no event beyond the expiration of the stated term of such Stock Options.

(h) Voluntary Resignation. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee in the applicable Award Agreement or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the applicable Award Agreement and the Plan, if a Participant's Termination is voluntary, all Stock Options that are held by such Participant that are vested and exercisable at the time of the Participant's Termination may be exercised by the Participant at any time within a period of 30 days from the date of such Termination, but in no event beyond the expiration of the stated term of such Stock Options.

(i) Termination for Cause. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee in the applicable Award Agreement or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the applicable Award Agreement and the Plan, if a Participant's Termination is by a Company Entity for Cause, all Stock Options, whether vested or not vested, that are held by such Participant shall thereupon terminate and expire as of the date of such Termination.

(j) Unvested Stock Options. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee in the applicable Award Agreement or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the applicable Award Agreement and the Plan, Stock Options that are not vested or exercisable as of the date of a Participant's Termination for any reason shall terminate and expire as of the date of such Termination.

(k) Incentive Stock Option Limitations. To the extent that the aggregate Fair Market Value (determined as of the time of grant) of the Shares with respect to which Incentive Stock Options are exercisable for the first time by an Eligible Employee during any calendar year under the Plan and/or any other stock option plan of any Company Entity exceeds $100,000, such Options shall be treated as Nonqualified Stock Options. In addition, if an Eligible Employee does not remain employed by a Company Entity at all times from the time an Incentive Stock Option is granted until three months prior to the date of exercise thereof (or such other period as required by applicable law), such Stock Option shall be treated as a Nonqualified Stock Option. Should any provision of the Plan not be necessary for the Stock Options to qualify as Incentive Stock Options, or should any additional provisions be required, the Committee may amend the Plan accordingly, without the necessity of obtaining the approval of the stockholders of the Company to the extent permissible under Section 422 of the Code and any applicable exchange rules.

(l) Form, Modification, Extension, and Renewal of Stock Options. Subject to the terms and conditions and within the limitations of the Plan, including those set forth in the following sentence, Stock Options shall be evidenced by such form of agreement or grant as is approved by the Committee, and the Committee may (i) modify, extend, or renew outstanding Stock Options granted under the Plan (provided that the rights of a Participant are not reduced without such Participant's consent; and provided, further, that such action does not subject the Stock Options to Section 409A of the Code without the consent of the Participant) and (ii) accept the surrender of outstanding Stock Options (to the extent not theretofore exercised) and authorize the granting of new Stock Options or other Awards in substitution therefor (to the extent not theretofore exercised). Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent required by applicable exchange rules and except in connection with a corporate transaction involving the Company in accordance with Section 4.2 (including any stock dividend, stock split, extraordinary cash dividend, recapitalization, reorganization, merger, consolidation, split-up, spin-off, combination, or exchange of shares), an outstanding Stock Option may not be modified to reduce the exercise price thereof nor may a new Stock Option at a lower price be substituted for a surrendered Stock Option, unless such action is approved by the stockholders of the Company.

(m) Early Exercise. The Committee may provide that a Stock Option include a provision whereby the Participant may elect at any time before the Participant's Termination to exercise the Stock Option as to any part or all of the Shares subject to the Stock Option prior to the full vesting of the Stock Option, and such shares shall be subject to the provisions of Article VII and be treated as Restricted Stock, which will remain subject to the original vesting schedule applicable to the predecessor Stock Option. Unvested Shares so purchased may be subject to a repurchase option in favor of the Company or to any other restriction the Committee determines to be appropriate.

(n) Other Terms and Conditions. The Committee may include a provision in an Award Agreement providing for the automatic exercise of a Nonqualified Stock Option on a cashless basis on the last day of the term of such Option if the Participant has failed to exercise the Nonqualified Stock Option as of such date, with respect to which the Fair Market Value of the Shares underlying the Nonqualified Stock Option exceeds the exercise price of such Nonqualified Stock Option on the date of expiration of such Option, subject to Section 13.4. Stock Options may contain such other provisions, which shall not be inconsistent with any of the terms of the Plan, as the Committee shall deem appropriate. The recipient of a Stock Option under this Article VI shall not be entitled to receive, currently or on a deferred basis, dividends or dividend equivalents in respect of the number of Shares covered by the Stock Option. The Company will evidence each Participant's ownership of Shares issued upon exercise of a Stock Option pursuant to a designated system, such as book entries by the transfer agent; if a stock certificate for such Shares is issued, it will be substantially in the form set forth in Section 7.2(a)(iii).

ARTICLE VII
RESTRICTED STOCK; RESTRICTED STOCK UNITS

7.1 Awards of Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units. Shares of Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units may be granted either alone or in addition to other Awards granted under the Plan. The Committee shall determine the Eligible Individuals, to whom, and the time or times at which, grants of Restricted Stock and/or Restricted Stock Units shall be made, the number of shares of Restricted Stock or Restricted Stock Units to be awarded, the price (if any) to be paid by the Participant (subject to Section 7.2), the time or times within which such Awards may be subject to forfeiture, the vesting schedule and rights to acceleration thereof, and all other terms and conditions of the Awards. The Committee may condition the grant or vesting of Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units upon the attainment of specified performance targets (including, one or more performance goals) or such other factor(s) as the Committee may determine, in its sole discretion.

7.2 Awards and Certificates. If required by the Award Agreement, Eligible Individuals selected to receive Restricted Stock and/or Restricted Stock Units shall not have any right with respect to such Award, unless and until such Participant has delivered a fully executed copy of the Award Agreement evidencing the Award to the Company, to the extent required by the Committee, and has otherwise complied with the applicable terms and conditions of such Award. Further, such Award shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) Restricted Stock:

(i) Purchase Price. The purchase price of Restricted Stock shall be fixed by the Committee. The purchase price for shares of Restricted Stock may be zero to the extent permitted by applicable law, and, to the extent not so permitted, such purchase price may not be less than par value.

(ii) Acceptance. Awards of Restricted Stock must be accepted within a period of 60 days (or such shorter period as the Committee may specify at grant) after the grant date, by executing an Award Agreement and by paying whatever price (if any) the Committee has designated thereunder.

(iii) Legend. The Company will evidence each Participant's ownership of Restricted Stock pursuant to a designated system, such as book entries by the transfer agent. If a stock certificate for such shares of Restricted Stock is issued, such certificate shall be registered in the name of such Participant, and shall, in addition to such legends required by applicable securities laws, bear an appropriate legend referring to the terms, conditions, and restrictions applicable to such Award, substantially in the following form:

> "The anticipation, alienation, attachment, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, or charge of the shares of stock represented hereby are subject to the terms and conditions (including forfeiture) of the Talen Energy Corporation (the "Company") 2023 Equity Incentive Plan (as it may be amended, the "Plan") and an Agreement entered into between the registered owner and the Company dated _____. Copies of such Plan and Agreement are on file at the principal office of the Company."

(iv) Custody. If stock certificates are issued in respect of shares of Restricted Stock, the Committee may require that any stock certificates evidencing such shares be held in custody by the Company until the restrictions thereon shall have lapsed, and that, as a condition of any grant of Restricted Stock, the Participant shall have delivered a duly signed stock power or other instruments of assignment (including a power of attorney), each endorsed in blank with a guarantee of signature if deemed necessary or appropriate by the Company, which would permit transfer to the Company of all or a portion of the shares of Restricted Stock in the event that such Award is forfeited in whole or part or otherwise transferred to the Company.

(v) Rights as a Stockholder. Except as provided in Section 7.3(a) and this Section 7.2(a) or as otherwise determined by the Committee in an Award Agreement, the Participant shall have, with respect to the shares of Restricted Stock, all of the rights of a holder of Shares of the Company, including the right to receive dividends (the payment of which may be deferred (without interest) until, and conditioned upon, the expiration of the applicable Restriction Period, as determined in the Committee's sole discretion), the right to vote such shares, and, subject to and conditioned upon the full vesting of shares of Restricted Stock, the right to tender such shares.

(vi) Lapse of Restrictions. If and when the Restriction Period expires without a prior forfeiture of the shares of Restricted Stock, such earned shares (and to the extent ownership of such shares is evidenced by stock certificates, the stock certificates for such shares) shall be delivered to the Participant. All legends shall be removed from said certificates at the time of delivery to the Participant, except as otherwise required by applicable law or other limitations imposed by the Committee.

(b) Restricted Stock Units:

(i) Settlement. The Committee may provide that settlement of Restricted Stock Units will occur upon or as soon as reasonably practical after the Restricted Stock Units vest or will instead be deferred, on a mandatory basis or at the Participant's election, in a manner intended to comply with Section 409A of the Code.

(ii) Right as a Stockholder. A Participant will have no rights of a stockholder with respect to Shares subject to any Restricted Stock Unit unless and until Shares are delivered in settlement of the Restricted Stock Units.

(c) Dividend Equivalents. If the Committee so provides, a grant of Restricted Stock Units may provide a Participant with the right to receive dividend equivalents. Dividend equivalents may be paid currently or credited to an account for the Participant, settled in cash or Shares, and may be subject to the same restrictions on transferability and forfeitability as the Restricted Stock Units with respect to which the dividend equivalents are granted and subject to other terms and conditions as set forth in the Award Agreement.

7.3 Restrictions and Conditions. The shares of Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units awarded pursuant to the Plan shall be subject to the following restrictions and conditions and such other terms and conditions as may be determined by the Committee in its sole discretion:

(a) Restriction Period. The Participant shall not be permitted to Transfer shares of Restricted Stock awarded under the Plan or vest in Restricted Stock Units during the period or periods set by the Committee (the "Restriction Period") commencing on the date of such Award, as set forth in the Award Agreement and such agreement shall set forth a vesting schedule and any event that would accelerate vesting of the shares of Restricted Stock and/or Restricted Stock Units. Within these limits, based on service, attainment of one or more performance goals, and/or such other factors or criteria as the Committee may determine in its sole discretion, the Committee may condition the grant or provide for the lapse of such restrictions in installments in whole or in part, or may accelerate the vesting of all or any part of any Award of Restricted Stock or Restricted Stock Unit and/or waive the deferral limitations for all or any part of any Award.

(b) Termination. Subject to the applicable provisions of the Award Agreement and the Plan, upon a Participant's Termination for any reason during the relevant Restriction Period, all Restricted Stock or Restricted Stock Units still subject to restriction will vest or be forfeited in accordance with the Award Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII
PERFORMANCE AWARDS

8.1 Performance Awards. The Committee may designate an Award (including any Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Unit and any Other Stock-Based Award) at grant as a Performance Award payable upon the attainment of specific performance goals. If the Performance Award is payable in shares of Restricted Stock, such shares shall be transferable to the Participant only upon attainment of the relevant performance goal in accordance with Article VII. If the Performance Award is denominated in cash, it may be paid upon the attainment of the relevant performance goals either in cash, Shares, and/or in shares of Restricted Stock (based on the then current Fair Market Value of such shares), as determined by the Committee, in its sole and absolute discretion. Each Performance Award shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement in such form that is not inconsistent with the Plan and that the Committee may from time to time approve. If required by the Award Agreement, an Eligible Individual selected to receive Performance Awards shall not have any right with respect to such Award, unless and until such Eligible Individual has delivered a fully executed copy of the Award Agreement evidencing the Award to the Company, to the extent required by the Committee, and has otherwise complied with the applicable terms and conditions of such Award.

8.2 Terms and Conditions. Performance Awards awarded pursuant to this Article VIII shall be subject to the following terms and conditions and such other terms and conditions as may be determined by the Committee in its sole discretion:

(a) Earning of Performance Award. At the expiration of the applicable Performance Period, the Committee shall determine the extent to which the performance goals are achieved and the percentage of each Performance Award that has been earned and certify such results in writing.

(b) Non-Transferability. Subject to the applicable provisions of the Award Agreement and the Plan, Performance Awards may not be Transferred during the Performance Period.

(c) Dividends. To the extent determined by the Committee, Participants shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the dividends paid on the number of Shares covered by the Performance Award; provided that the Committee may, in its sole discretion, provide for either of the following at the time of grant: (i) dividends or dividend equivalents will be paid as accrued but will be subject to the same vesting terms and conditions as the underlying Performance Award; or (ii) payment of dividends or dividend equivalents shall be deferred until, and conditioned upon, settlement of the underlying Performance Award.

(d) Payment. Following the Committee's determination in accordance with Section 8.2(a), the Company shall settle Performance Awards, in such form (including in Shares, Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Unit and/or in cash) as determined by the Committee, in an amount equal to such Participant's earned Performance Awards. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may, in its sole discretion, award an amount more or less than the earned Performance Awards and/or subject the payment of all or part of any Performance Award to additional vesting, forfeiture, and deferral conditions as it deems appropriate.

(e) Termination. Subject to the applicable provisions of the Award Agreement and the Plan, upon a Participant's Termination for any reason during the Performance Period for a given Performance Award, the Performance Award in question will vest or be forfeited in accordance with the Award Agreement.

ARTICLE IX
OTHER STOCK-BASED AND CASH-BASED AWARDS

9.1 Other Stock-Based Awards. The Committee is authorized to grant to Eligible Individuals Other Stock-Based Awards that are payable in, valued in whole or in part by reference to, or otherwise based on or related to Shares, including, but not limited to, Shares awarded purely as a bonus and not subject to restrictions or conditions, Shares in payment of the amounts due under an incentive or performance plan sponsored or maintained by the Company or an Affiliate, stock equivalent units, SARs, and Awards valued by reference to book value of Shares. Other Stock-Based Awards may be granted either alone or in addition to or in tandem with other Awards granted under the Plan. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee shall have authority to determine the Eligible Individuals, to whom, and the time or times at which, such Awards shall be made, the number of Shares to be awarded pursuant to such Awards, and all other conditions of the Awards. If required by the Award Agreement, an Eligible Individual selected to receive Other Stock-Based Awards shall not have any right with respect to such Award, unless and until such Eligible Individual has delivered a fully executed copy of the Award Agreement evidencing the Award to the Company, to the extent required by the Committee, and has otherwise complied with the applicable terms and conditions of such Award.

9.2 Terms and Conditions. Other Stock-Based Awards made pursuant to this Article IX shall be subject to the following terms and conditions and such other terms and conditions as may be determined by the Committee in its sole discretion:

(a) Non-Transferability. Subject to the applicable provisions of the Award Agreement and the Plan, Shares subject to Awards made under this Article IX may not be Transferred prior to the date on which the Shares are issued, or, if later, the date on which any applicable restriction, performance or deferral period lapses.

(b) Dividends. To the extent determined by the Committee, Participants may be entitled to receive an amount equal to the dividends paid on the number of Shares covered by Awards made under this Article IX; provided that the Committee may, in its sole discretion, provide for either of the following at the time of grant: (i) dividends or dividend equivalents will be paid as accrued but will be subject to the same vesting terms and conditions as the underlying Award; or (ii) payment of dividends or dividend equivalents shall be deferred until, and conditioned upon, settlement of the underlying Award.

(c) Vesting. Any Award under this Article IX and any Shares covered by any such Award shall vest or be forfeited to the extent so provided in the Award Agreement, as determined by the Committee, in its sole discretion.

(d) Price. Shares issued on a bonus basis under this Article IX may be issued for no cash consideration. Shares purchased pursuant to a purchase right awarded under this Article IX shall be priced, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion.

(e) Other Terms. Any Award under this Article IX shall be subject any additional terms and conditions set forth in the applicable Award Agreement.

9.3 Other Cash-Based Awards. The Committee may from time to time grant Other Cash-Based Awards to Eligible Individuals in such amounts, on such terms and conditions, and for such consideration, including no consideration or such minimum consideration as may be required by applicable law, as it shall determine in its sole discretion. Other Cash-Based Awards may be granted subject to the satisfaction of vesting conditions or may be awarded purely as a bonus and not subject to restrictions or conditions, and if subject to vesting conditions, the Committee may accelerate the vesting of such Awards at any time in its sole discretion. The grant of an Other Cash-Based Award shall not require a segregation of any of the Company's assets for satisfaction of the Company's payment obligation thereunder.

ARTICLE X
CHANGE IN CONTROL PROVISIONS

10.1 Benefits. In the event of a Change in Control of the Company (as defined below), and except as otherwise provided by the Committee in an Award Agreement or otherwise, a Participant's unvested Awards shall not vest automatically and a Participant's Awards may be treated in accordance with one or more of the following methods as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion:

(a) Awards, whether or not then vested, shall be continued, assumed, or have new rights substituted therefor, as determined by the Committee in a manner consistent with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, and restrictions to which shares of Restricted Stock or any other Award granted prior to the Change in Control are subject shall not lapse upon a Change in Control. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, for purposes of Incentive Stock Options, any assumed or substituted Stock Option shall comply with the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.424-1 (and any amendment thereto).

(b) The Committee may accelerate the exercisability of, lapse of restrictions on, Awards or provide for a period of time for exercise prior to the occurrence of such event.

(c) Any one or more outstanding Awards may be cancelled and the Committee may cause to be paid to the holders thereof, in cash, Shares, other securities or other property, or any combination thereof, the value of such Awards, if any, as determined by the Committee (which if applicable shall be based upon the price per Share received or to be received by other stockholders of the Company in such event), including in the case of an outstanding Stock Option or SAR, a cash payment in an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Fair Market Value (as of a date specified by the Committee) of the Shares subject to such Stock Option or SAR over the aggregate exercise price of such Stock Option or SAR, respectively (it being understood that, in such event, any Stock Option or SAR having a per share exercise price equal to, or in excess of, the Fair Market Value of a Share subject thereto may be cancelled and terminated without any payment or consideration therefor).

(d) The Committee may, in its sole discretion, terminate all outstanding and unexercised Stock Options or any Other Stock-Based Award that provides for a Participant elected exercise, effective as of the date of the Change in Control, by delivering notice of termination to each Participant at least 20 days prior to the date of consummation of the Change in Control, in which case during the period from the date on which such notice of termination is delivered to the consummation of the Change in Control, each such Participant shall have the right to exercise in full all of such Participant's Awards that are then outstanding (without regard to any limitations on exercisability otherwise contained in the Award Agreements), but any such exercise shall be contingent on the occurrence of the Change in Control, and, provided that, if the Change in Control does not take place within a specified period after giving such notice for any reason whatsoever, the notice and exercise pursuant thereto shall be null and void.

(e) The Committee may, in its sole discretion, make any other determination as to the treatment of Awards in connection with such Change in Control as the Committee may determine. Any escrow, holdback, earnout, or similar provisions in the definitive agreement(s) relating to such transaction may apply to any payment to the holders of Awards to the same extent and in the same manner as such provisions apply to the holders of Common Stock.

10.2 Change in Control. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee in the applicable Award Agreement or other written agreement with a Participant approved by the Committee, a "Change in Control" shall be deemed to have occurred upon the occurrence of any of the following:

(a) any Person, other than an ERISA-regulated pension plan established by the Company or any of its Affiliates, makes an acquisition of outstanding Voting Stock and is, immediately thereafter, the beneficial owner of 50% or more of the then outstanding Voting Stock;

(b) individuals who are Incumbent Directors cease for any reason to constitute a majority of the members of the Board;

(c) consummation of a Business Combination unless, immediately following such Business Combination, (i) all or substantially all of the individuals and entities that were the beneficial owners (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of the Voting Stock of the Company outstanding immediately before such Business Combination beneficially own, directly or indirectly, at least 50% of the then outstanding shares of Voting Stock of the Parent Corporation resulting from such Business Combination in substantially the same relative proportions as their ownership, immediately before such Business Combination, of the shares of Voting Stock of the Company outstanding, (ii) if the Business Combination involves the issuance or payment by the Company of consideration to another entity or its shareholders, the total fair market value of such consideration plus the principal amount of the consolidated long-term debt of the entity or business being acquired (in each case, determined as of the date of consummation of such Business Combination by a majority of the Incumbent Directors) does not exceed 50% of the sum of the fair market value of the shares of Voting Stock of the Company outstanding plus the principal amount of the Company's consolidated long-term debt (in each case, determined immediately before such consummation by a majority of the Incumbent Directors), (iii) no Person (other than any corporation resulting from such Business Combination) beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, 30% or more of the then outstanding shares of Voting Stock of the Parent Corporation resulting from such Business Combination, and (iv) a majority of the members of the board of directors of the Parent Corporation resulting from such Business

Combination were Incumbent Directors of the Company immediately before consummation of such Business Combination; or

(d) consummation of a Major Asset Disposition unless, immediately following such Major Asset Disposition, (i) individuals and entities that were beneficial owners of the Voting Stock of the Company outstanding immediately before such Major Asset Disposition beneficially own, directly or indirectly, at least 50% of the then outstanding shares of Voting Stock of the Company (if it continues to exist) and of the entity that acquires the largest portion of such assets (or the entity, if any, that owns a majority of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock of such acquiring entity) and (ii) a majority of the members of the Board (if it continues to exist) and of the entity that acquires the largest portion of such assets (or the entity, if any, that owns a majority of the outstanding voting stock of such acquiring entity) were Incumbent Directors of the Company immediately before consummation of such Major Asset Disposition.

For the avoidance of doubt, neither a bankruptcy or liquidation (or similar transaction) of the Company nor an initial public offering of the Company's equity shall constitute a Change in Control. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this "Change in Control" definition, if an event that constitutes a Change in Control for purposes of this Plan does not also constitute a "change in control event" (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code), any payments in respect of Awards that constitute "nonqualified deferred compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code that would be payable upon a Change in Control shall be made on the first date such payments may be made in compliance with Section 409A of the Code.

ARTICLE XI
TERMINATION OR AMENDMENT OF PLAN

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, the Board may at any time, and from time to time, amend, in whole or in part, any or all of the provisions of the Plan (including any amendment deemed necessary to ensure that the Company may comply with any regulatory requirement referred to in Article XIII or Section 409A of the Code), or suspend or terminate it entirely, retroactively or otherwise, and the Committee may amend the Plan to the extent such amendment is (a) ministerial or administrative in nature and does not result in a material change to the cost of the Plan or (b) required by law; provided that, in all cases, (i) no such amendment, suspension, or termination by the Board or the Committee will occur without stockholder approval if such approval is necessary to comply with any tax or regulatory requirement applicable to the Plan and (ii) unless otherwise required by law or specifically provided herein, the rights of a Participant, with respect to all Awards granted prior to any amendment (whether by the Board or the Committee), suspension, or termination, may not be impaired in any way without the express written consent of such Participant. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Board may amend the Plan or any Award Agreement at any time without a Participant's consent only to comply with applicable law, including Section 409A of the Code. The Committee may amend the terms of any Award theretofore granted, prospectively or retroactively, but, subject to Article IV and except as otherwise specifically provided herein, no such amendment or other action by the Committee shall impair in any way the rights of any holder without the holder's express written consent.

UNFUNDED STATUS OF PLAN

The Plan is intended to constitute an "unfunded" plan for incentive and deferred compensation. With respect to any payment as to which a Participant has a fixed and vested interest but which is not yet made to a Participant by the Company, nothing contained herein shall give any such Participant any right that is greater than those of a general unsecured creditor of the Company.

ARTICLE XIII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

13.1 Legend. The Committee may require each person receiving Shares pursuant to a Stock Option or other Award under the Plan to represent to and agree with the Company in writing that the Participant is acquiring the shares without a view to distribution thereof. In addition to any legend required by the Plan, the certificates for such shares (if any) may include any legend that the Committee deems appropriate to reflect any restrictions on Transfer. All certificates for Shares (to the extent such shares are certificated) delivered under the Plan shall be subject to such stop-transfer orders and other restrictions as the Committee may deem advisable under the rules, regulations, and other requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission, any stock exchange upon which the Common Stock is then listed, or any national securities exchange system or over-the-counter market upon whose system the Common Stock is then quoted, any applicable federal or state securities law, and any applicable corporate law, and the Committee may cause a legend or legends to be put on any such certificates to make appropriate reference to such restrictions.

13.2 Other Plans. Nothing contained in the Plan shall prevent the Board from adopting other or additional compensation arrangements, subject to stockholder approval if such approval is required, and such arrangements may be either generally applicable or applicable only in specific cases.

13.3 No Right to Employment, Directorship, or Consultancy. Neither the Plan nor the grant of any Option or other Award hereunder shall give any Participant or other employee, Consultant, or Non-Employee Director any right with respect to continuance of employment, consultancy, or directorship by the Company or any of its Affiliates, nor shall the Plan nor the grant of any Option or other Award hereunder limit in any way the right of the Company or any of its Affiliates by which an employee is employed or a Consultant or Non-Employee Director is retained to terminate such employment, consultancy, or directorship at any time.

13.4 Withholding of Taxes. A Participant shall be required to pay to the Company or one of its Affiliates, as applicable, or make arrangements satisfactory to the Company regarding the payment of, any income tax, social insurance contribution or other applicable taxes that are required to be withheld in respect of an Award. The Committee may (but is not obligated to), in its sole discretion, permit or require a Participant to satisfy all or any portion of the applicable taxes that are required to be withheld with respect to an Award by (a) the delivery of Shares (which are not subject to any pledge or other security interest) having an aggregate Fair Market Value equal to such withholding liability (or portion thereof); (b) having the Company withhold from the Shares otherwise issuable or deliverable to, or that would otherwise be retained by, the Participant upon the grant, exercise, vesting, or settlement of the Award, as applicable, a number of Shares with an aggregate Fair Market Value equal to the amount of such withholding liability; or (c) by any other means specified in the applicable Award Agreement or otherwise determined by the Committee.

13.5 No Assignment of Benefits. No Award or other benefit payable under the Plan shall, except as otherwise specifically provided by law or permitted by the Committee, be Transferable in any manner, and any attempt to Transfer any such benefit shall be void, and any such benefit shall not in any manner be liable for or subject to the debts, contracts, liabilities, engagements, or torts of any person who shall be entitled to such benefit, nor shall it be subject to attachment or legal process for or against such person.

13.6 Fractional Shares. No fractional Shares shall be issued or delivered pursuant to the Plan. The Committee shall determine whether cash, additional Awards, or other securities or property shall be used or paid in lieu of fractional Shares or whether any fractional shares should be rounded, forfeited, or otherwise eliminated.

13.7 Listing and Other Conditions.

(a) Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, as long as the Common Stock is listed on a national securities exchange, system sponsored by a national securities association, or recognized over-the-counter market, the issuance of Shares pursuant to an Award shall be conditioned upon such Shares being listed on such exchange, system, or market. The Company shall have no obligation to issue such Shares unless and until such Shares are so listed, and the right to exercise any Option or other Award with respect to such Shares shall be suspended until such listing has been effected.

(b) If at any time any sale or delivery of Shares pursuant to an Option or other Award is or may in the circumstances be determined to be unlawful or result in the imposition of excise taxes on the Company under the statutes, rules, or regulations of any applicable jurisdiction, the Company shall have no obligation to make such sale or delivery, or to make any application or to effect or to maintain any qualification or registration under the Securities Act or otherwise, with respect to Shares or Awards, and the right to exercise any Option or other Award shall be suspended until, it is determined that such sale or delivery shall be lawful or will not result in the imposition of excise taxes on the Company.

(c) Upon termination of any period of suspension under this Section 13.7, any Award affected by such suspension that shall not then have expired or terminated shall be reinstated as to all shares available before such suspension and as to shares that would otherwise have become available during the period of such suspension, but no such suspension shall extend the term of any Award.

(d) A Participant shall be required to supply the Company with certificates, representations, and information that the Company requests and otherwise cooperate with the Company in obtaining any listing, registration, qualification, exemption, consent, or approval the Company deems necessary or appropriate.

13.8 Other Requirements. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, as a condition to the receipt of Shares pursuant to an Award under the Plan, to the extent required by the Committee, the Participant shall execute and deliver documentation that shall set forth certain restrictions on transferability of the Shares acquired upon exercise or purchase, and such other terms as the Committee shall from time to time establish. Without limited the foregoing, the Committee may condition a Participant's right to receive Shares pursuant to any Award on the execution of a joinder or similar documentation reflecting agreement to the terms of any stockholders' agreement that may be in place from time to time.

13.9 Governing Law. The Plan and actions taken in connection herewith shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware (without regard to principles of conflicts of laws).

13.10 Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial. Any suit, action, or proceeding with respect to the Plan or any Award Agreement, or any judgment entered by any court of competent jurisdiction in respect of any thereof, shall be resolved only in the courts of the State of Delaware or the United States District Court for the Delaware Court of Chancery and the appellate courts having jurisdiction of appeals in such courts. In that context, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company and each Participant shall irrevocably and unconditionally (a) submit in any proceeding relating to the Plan or any Award Agreement, or for the recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof (a "Proceeding"), to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware, the court of the United States of America for the Delaware Court of Chancery, and appellate courts having jurisdiction of appeals from any of the foregoing, and agree that tax claims in respect of any such Proceeding shall be heard and determined in such Delaware court or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court, (b) consent that any such Proceeding may and shall be brought in such courts and waives any objection that the Company and each Participant may now or thereafter have to the venue or jurisdiction of any such Proceeding in any such court or that such Proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agree not to plead or claim the same, (c) waives all right to trial by jury in any Proceeding (whether based on contract, tort, or otherwise) arising out of or relating to the Plan or any Award Agreement, (d) agree that service of process in any such Proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy of such process by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such party, in the case of a Participant, at the Participant's address shown in the books and records of the Company, or, in the case of the Company, at the Company's principal offices, attention General Counsel, and (e) agrees that nothing in the Plan shall affect the right to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by the laws of the State of Delaware.

13.11 Construction. Wherever any words are used in the Plan or an Award Agreement in the masculine gender they shall be construed as though they were also used in the feminine gender in all cases where they would so apply, and wherever words are used herein in the singular form they shall be construed as though they were also used in the plural form in all cases where they would so apply. Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, the words "include," "includes," and "including" do not limit the preceding words or terms and shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." Where specific language is used to clarify by example a general statement contained herein (such as by using the words "such as"), such specific language shall not be deemed to modify, limit, or restrict in any manner the construction of the general statement to which it relates.

13.12 Other Benefits. No Award granted or paid out under the Plan shall be deemed compensation for purposes of computing benefits under any retirement plan of the Company or its Affiliates nor affect any benefit or compensation under any other plan now or subsequently in effect under which the availability or amount of benefits is related to the level of compensation.

13.13 Costs. The Company shall bear all expenses associated with administering the Plan, including expenses of issuing Shares pursuant to Awards hereunder.

13.14 No Right to Same Benefits. The provisions of Awards need not be the same with respect to each Participant, and such Awards to individual Participants need not be the same in subsequent years.

13.15 Death/Disability. The Committee may in its discretion require the transferee of a Participant to supply it with written notice of the Participant's death or Disability and to supply it with a copy of the will (in the case of the Participant's death) or such other evidence as the Committee deems necessary to establish the validity of the transfer of an Award. The Committee may also require the agreement of the transferee to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of the Plan and the applicable Award Agreement.

13.16 Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act. All elections and transactions under the Plan by persons subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act involving Common Stock are intended to comply with any applicable exemptive condition under Rule 16b-3. The Committee may establish and adopt written administrative guidelines, designed to facilitate compliance with Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act, as it may deem necessary or proper for the administration and operation of the Plan and the transaction of business thereunder.

13.17 Section 409A of the Code. The Plan and Awards are intended to comply with, or be exempt from, the applicable requirements of Section 409A of the Code and shall be limited, construed, and interpreted in accordance with such intent. To the extent that any Award is subject to Section 409A of the Code, it shall be paid in a manner that will comply with or be exempt from Section 409A of the Code, including proposed, temporary, or final regulations or any other guidance issued by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service with respect thereto. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any provision in the Plan that is inconsistent with Section 409A of the Code shall be deemed to be amended to comply with or be exempt from Section 409A of the Code and to the extent such provision cannot be amended to comply therewith or be exempt therefrom, such provision shall be null and void. The Company shall have no liability to a Participant, or any other Person, if an Award that is intended to be exempt from, or compliant with, Section 409A of the Code is not so exempt or compliant or for any action taken by the Committee or the Company and, in the event that any amount or benefit under the Plan becomes subject to penalties under Section 409A of the Code, responsibility for payment of such penalties shall rest solely with the affected Participants and not with the Company. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in the Plan or Award Agreement, any payment(s) of "nonqualified deferred compensation" (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code) that are otherwise required to be made under the Plan to a "specified employee" (as defined under Section 409A of the Code) as a result of such employee's separation from service (other than a payment that is not subject to Section 409A of the Code) shall be delayed for the first six months following such separation from service (or, if earlier, the date of death of the specified employee) and shall instead be paid (in a manner set forth in the Award Agreement) upon expiration of such delay period. Furthermore, notwithstanding any contrary provision of the Plan or Award Agreement, any payment of "nonqualified deferred compensation" (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code) under this Plan that may be made in installment shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments. Whenever a payment under this Agreement specifies a payment period with reference to a number of days, the actual date of payment within the specified period shall be within the sole discretion of the Company.

13.18 Successors and Assigns. The Plan and any applicable Award Agreement(s) shall be binding on all successors and permitted assigns of a Participant, including the estate of such Participant and the executor, administrator or trustee of such estate.

13.19 Severability of Provisions. If any provision of the Plan or any Award Agreement shall be held invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect any other provisions hereof, and the Plan and/or Award Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such provisions had not been included.

13.20 Lock-Up Agreement. As a condition to the grant of an Award, if requested by the Company and the lead underwriter of any public offering of Common Stock (the "Lead Underwriter"), a Participant shall irrevocably agree not to sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase, transfer the economic risk of ownership in, make any short sale of, pledge, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, any interest in any Shares or any securities convertible into, derivative of, or exchangeable or exercisable for, or any other rights to purchase or acquire Shares (except Shares included in such public offering or acquired on the public market after such offering) during such period of time following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the Securities Act that the Lead Underwriter shall specify (the "Lock-Up Period"). The Participant shall further agree to sign such documents as may be requested by the Lead Underwriter to effect the foregoing and agree that the Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to Shares acquired pursuant to an Award until the end of such Lock-Up Period.

13.21 Headings and Captions. The headings and captions herein are provided for reference and convenience only, shall not be considered part of the Plan, and shall not be employed in the construction of the Plan.

13.22 Company Recoupment of Awards. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, a Participant's rights with respect to any Award hereunder shall in all events be subject to (a) any right that the Company may have under any Company recoupment policy or other agreement or arrangement with a Participant, or (b) any right or obligation that the Company may have regarding the clawback of "incentive-based compensation" under Section 10D of the Exchange Act and any applicable rules and regulations promulgated thereunder from time to time by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

13.23 Data Protection. By participating in the Plan or accepting any rights granted under it, each Participant consents to the collection and processing of personal data relating to the Participant so that any Company Entity can fulfill its obligations and exercise its rights under the Plan and generally administer and manage the Plan. This data will include, but may not be limited to, data about participation in the Plan and shares offered or received, purchased, or sold under the Plan from time to time and other appropriate financial and other data (such as the date on which the Awards were granted) about the Participant and the Participant's participation in the Plan.

13.24 International Participants. With respect to Participants who reside or work outside of the United States of America, the Committee may, in its sole discretion, amend the terms of the Plan and create or amend sub-plans or amend outstanding Awards with respect to such Participants to conform such terms with the requirements of local law or to obtain more favorable tax or other treatment for a Participant or any Company Entity.

RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT

THIS RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT (this " Agreement") is entered into by and between the Company and the Participant as of the Date of Grant set forth in the Grant Notice to which this Agreement is attached. Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan.

WHEREAS, the Committee has determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to grant the Participant RSUs on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan.

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the covenants of the parties contained in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, for themselves and their successors and assigns, hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of RSUs.

(a) Grant. The Company hereby grants to the Participant the number of RSUs set forth in the Grant Notice on the terms and conditions set forth in the Grant Notice, this Agreement, and the Plan.

(b) Incorporation by Reference. The provisions of the Plan are incorporated herein by reference. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, this Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of the Plan.

2. Terms of Issuance of Grant. Concurrently with, or prior to, the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Participant is entering into, or has entered into an employment agreement with the Company or one of its Affiliates providing restrictive covenants applicable during and following employment in a form considered satisfactory by the Committee (the "Restrictive Covenant Agreement") and the Participant's entry into the Restrictive Covenant Agreement is a material inducement for, and a condition of, the Company's entry into this Agreement and issuance of the RSUs specified in this Agreement. To the maximum extent permissible under applicable law, all of the restrictive covenants applicable to the Participant set forth in the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, including, without limitation, any non-competition and non-solicitation provisions applicable to Participant set forth therein, are hereby incorporated by reference into this Agreement (with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein).

3. Vesting.

(a) Normal Vesting. Subject to Sections 3(b) and 3(c), the RSUs shall vest in accordance with the vesting schedule set forth in the Grant Notice.

(b) Termination of Employment.

(i) Termination without Cause; Resignation for Good Reason. If the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment by the Company without Cause, or by the Participant for Good Reason, in each case, prior to a Change in Control, subject to Participant's timely execution of a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees, immediately upon such Termination of Employment, all unvested RSUs will immediately vest. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall have the meaning set forth in the Employment Agreement by and between Participant and the Company, dated May 17, 2023, as may be amended and/or restated from time to time.

(ii) Death or Disability. If the Termination of Employment is due to the Participant's death or Disability, in each case, on or following the first anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date and prior to a Change in Control then, subject to Participant's timely execution of a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees, immediately upon such Termination of Employment, (A) a pro rata portion of the RSUs that would have vested on the next scheduled vesting date following such Termination of Employment in accordance with Section 3(a) will vest, calculated based on (x) the number of RSUs that would have vested on such next scheduled vesting date, multiplied by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days from the vesting date immediately preceding the date of the Termination of Employment to the date of the Termination of Employment, and the denominator of which is 365, and (B) all unvested RSUs (after taking into account the accelerated vesting set forth in clause (A)) shall be forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(iii) If the Termination of Employment is due to any other reason except as described in Sections 3(b)(i) and (ii), then all unvested RSUs shall be immediately forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(c) Change in Control. In connection with a Change in Control, all unvested RSUs shall fully vest as of the occurrence of such Change in Control.

4. Settlement. Subject to Section 6, the Company shall, at the discretion of the Committee, issue either one Share or cash in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of one Share, or any combination thereof, to the Participant for each RSU that becomes vested hereunder by the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the date on which such RSU becomes vested.

5. Dividend Equivalents; Rights as Member. Until such time as the RSUs have been settled pursuant to Section 4, the Participant shall have no rights as a holder of Common Stock, including, without limitation, any right to dividends or other distributions or any right to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company declares any cash dividend the record date of which occurs while the RSUs are outstanding, the Participant shall be credited a dividend equivalent in an amount equal to the dividend that would have been paid on the Common Stock underlying the RSUs had such shares been outstanding on such record date. Any such dividend equivalents shall be subject to the same vesting conditions applicable to the underlying RSU with respect to which they accrue, and shall, if the underlying RSU vests, be paid by the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the applicable vesting date.

6. Taxes. The Company shall have the power and the right to deduct or withhold, or require the Participant to remit to the Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy any federal, state, local, and foreign taxes of any kind that the Company, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to be withheld or remitted to comply with the Code and/or any other applicable law, rule, or regulation with respect to the RSUs and, if the Participant fails to do so, the Company may refuse to issue or transfer any Common Stock or dividend equivalents otherwise required to be issued pursuant to this Agreement. Unless as otherwise agreed to by the parties hereto, any withholding obligation with regard to the Participant (up to the maximum statutory rate) may be satisfied by reducing the number of Shares otherwise deliverable to Participant hereunder.

7. Non-Transferability. The RSUs may not, at any time prior to being settled, be assigned, alienated, pledged, attached, sold, or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the Participant, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. Any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer, or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Company.

8. Restrictions on Transfer of Award Shares . The Participant agrees not to sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase, transfer the economic risk of ownership in, make any short sale of, pledge or otherwise transfer or dispose of, any interest in any Shares received upon settlement of the RSUs (each, an "Award Share") for the period ending on the earlier of (a) a Change in Control and (b) the third anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that any Award Share will be subject to legends, stop transfer orders or any other similar restriction that the Company deems reasonably necessary to effectuate the provisions set forth in this Section 8.

9. Securities Law Representations. The Participant acknowledges that the Common Stock underlying the RSUs is not being registered under the Securities Act, based, in part, on reliance upon an exemption from registration under Rule 701 or Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and a comparable exemption from qualification under applicable state securities laws, as each may be amended from time to time. The Participant, by executing this Agreement, hereby makes the following representations to the Company and acknowledges that the Company's reliance on federal and state securities law exemptions from registration and qualification is predicated, in substantial part, upon the accuracy of these representations:

(a) Investment Purpose. The Participant is acquiring the RSUs solely for the Participant's own account, for investment purposes only, and not with a view or an intent to sell, or to offer for resale in connection with any unregistered distribution, all or any portion of Shares underlying the RSUs within the meaning of the Securities Act and/or any applicable state securities laws.

(b) Knowledge. The Participant has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the RSUs. The Participant has been furnished with, and/or has access to, such information as the Participant considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to acquire the Common Stock underlying the RSUs. In evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Common Stock underlying the RSUs, however, the Participant has and will rely only upon the advice of the Participant's own legal counsel, tax advisors, and/or investment advisors.

(c) Risk of Loss. The Participant is aware that any value the RSUs may have depends on vesting and certain other factors, and that any investment in Common Stock of a privately held corporation such as the Company is non-marketable, nontransferable, and could require capital to be invested for an indefinite period of time, possibly without return, and at substantial risk of loss.

(d) Resales. The Participant understands that the RSUs will be characterized as "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws and that, under such laws and applicable regulations, such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances, including in accordance with the conditions of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, as presently in effect. The Participant represents that the Participant is familiar with Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act and the applicable state securities law.

(e) Restrictions. The Participant has read and understands the restrictions, limitations, and the Company's rights set forth in the Plan and this Agreement that will be imposed on the RSUs and any Common Stock issued in respect of the RSUs.

(f) Non-Reliance. The Participant has not relied upon any oral representation made to the Participant relating to the RSUs or the Common Stock or upon information presented in any promotional meeting or material relating to the RSUs.

(g) Legends. The Participant understands and acknowledges that (i) any certificate evidencing the Common Stock (or evidencing any other securities issued with respect thereto pursuant to any stock split, stock dividend, merger, or other form of reorganization or recapitalization) when issued shall bear any legends that may be required by applicable federal and state securities laws, this Agreement, the Plan, or any stockholders' agreement that may be in place from time to time; and (ii) the Company has no obligation to register the Common Stock or file any registration statement under federal or state securities laws. The Committee reserves the right to account for Common Stock through book-entry or other electronic means rather than the issuance of stock certificates.

10. Miscellaneous.

(a) Confidentiality. The Participant agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement, unless and until such terms have been disclosed publicly other than through a breach by the Participant of this covenant. This provision shall not prohibit the Participant from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Participant's attorneys, financial advisors, or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal, financial, or tax advice or as otherwise required by law.

(b) Compliance with Laws. The grant of RSUs and the issuance of Common Stock hereunder shall be subject to, and shall comply with, any applicable requirements of any foreign and U.S. federal and state securities laws, rules, and regulations (including, without limitation, the provisions of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, and in each case any respective rules and regulations promulgated thereunder) and any other law, rule, regulation, or exchange requirement applicable thereto.

(c) Successors. The terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns, and of the Participant and the beneficiaries, executors, administrators, and heirs of the Participant.

(d) No Waiver; Amendment. No waiver of any right hereunder by any party shall operate as a waiver of any other right, or as a waiver of the same right with respect to any subsequent occasion for its exercise, or as a waiver of any right to damages. No waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other breach or a waiver of the continuation of the same breach. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument executed by the Participant and the Company.

(e) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and each other provision of this Agreement shall be severable and enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

(f) No Right to Service. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving the Participant any right to be retained, in any position, as an employee, consultant, or director of any Company Entity or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the right of any Company Entity to remove, terminate, or discharge the Participant at any time for any reason whatsoever.

(g) Unfunded Plan. The Award of RSUs is unfunded and the Participant shall be considered an unsecured creditor of the Company with respect to the Company's obligations, if any, to issue Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement, and no action taken pursuant to its provisions, shall create or be construed to create a trust of any kind or a fiduciary relationship between the Participant and any Company Entity or any other Person.

(h) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Grant Notice, the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, and the Plan contain the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter contained herein and supersede all prior communications, representations, and negotiations with respect thereto.

(i) Bound by the Plan. By signing this Agreement, the Participant acknowledges that the Participant has received a copy of the Plan and has had an opportunity to review the Plan and agrees to be bound by all the terms and provisions of the Plan. In the event of any conflict between the Plan and this Agreement, this Agreement shall control.

(j) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without regard to principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of laws of any other jurisdiction that could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

(k) Business Days. If any time period for giving notice or taking action hereunder expires on a day that is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday in the state in which the Company's principal executive office is located, the time period shall be automatically extended to the business day immediately following such Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

(l) Headings. The headings of the Sections hereof are provided for convenience only and are not to serve as a basis for interpretation or construction, and shall not constitute a part, of this Agreement.

(m) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(n) Section 409A of the Code. It is intended that the RSUs granted pursuant to this Agreement and the provisions of this Agreement be exempt from or comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code.

(o) Consent to Electronic Delivery; Electronic Signature. In lieu of receiving documents in paper format, the Participant agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to accept electronic delivery of any documents that the Company may be required to deliver (including, without limitation, prospectuses, prospectus supplements, grant or award notifications and agreements, account statements, annual and quarterly reports and all other forms of communications) in connection with this and any other Award made or offered by the Company. Electronic delivery may be via a Company electronic mail system or by reference to a location on a Company intranet or third party website to which the Participant has access. The Participant hereby consents to any and all procedures the Company has established or may establish for an electronic signature system for delivery and acceptance of any such documents that the Company may be required to deliver, and agrees that the Participant's electronic signature is the same as, and shall have the same force and effect as, the Participant's manual signature.

(p) Forfeiture and Clawback Provisions. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Grant Notice or the Plan, the RSUs (including any proceeds, gains or other economic benefit actually or constructively received with respect thereto) shall, unless otherwise determined by the Committee or required by applicable law, be subject to the provisions of any clawback policy implemented by the Company or otherwise required by applicable law, whether or not such clawback policy was in place at the Date of Grant and whether or not the RSUs are vested. In addition, if the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment for Cause or breaches any of the restrictive covenants set forth in the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, then the Participant shall automatically and immediately forfeit to the Company for no consideration: (i) all of the RSUs (whether vested or not vested), (ii) all Award Shares held by the Participant and, (iii) in the event the Participant has sold or otherwise disposed of any Award Shares, the amount of any cash proceeds received from such sale or disposition, in each case, effective as of the date of such Termination for Cause or the breach of the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, as applicable.

TALEN ENERGY CORPORATION
PERFORMANCE-BASED RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT

THIS PERFORMANCE-BASED RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT (this " Agreement") is entered into by and between the Company and the Participant as of the Date of Grant set forth in the Grant Notice to which this Agreement is attached. Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan.

WHEREAS, the Committee has determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to grant the Participant PSUs on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan.

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the covenants of the parties contained in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, for themselves and their successors and assigns, hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of PSUs.

(a) Grant. The Company hereby grants to the Participant the number of PSUs set forth in the Grant Notice on the terms and conditions set forth in the Grant Notice, this Agreement, and the Plan.

(b) Incorporation by Reference. The provisions of the Plan are incorporated herein by reference. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, this Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of the Plan.

2. Terms of Issuance of Grant. Concurrently with, or prior to, the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Participant is entering into, or has entered into an employment agreement with the Company or one of its Affiliates providing restrictive covenants applicable during and following employment in a form considered satisfactory by the Committee (the "Restrictive Covenant Agreement") and the Participant's entry into the Restrictive Covenant Agreement is a material inducement for, and a condition of, the Company's entry into this Agreement and issuance of the PSUs specified in this Agreement. To the maximum extent permissible under applicable law, all of the restrictive covenants applicable to the Participant set forth in the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, including, without limitation, any non-competition and non-solicitation provisions applicable to Participant set forth therein, are hereby incorporated by reference into this Agreement (with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein).

3. Vesting.

(a) Performance Vesting. The "Measurement Date" applicable to the PSUs shall be the earlier of (i) the consummation of a Change in Control and (ii) the third anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date, and the period beginning on the Vesting Commencement Date and ending on the Measurement Date is referred to herein as the "Performance Period." The Committee shall determine the actual number of PSUs earned by the Participant (the "Earned PSUs") no later than (x) immediately prior to the consummation of a Change in Control, if the Measurement Date is the consummation of a Change in Control, or (y) 90 days following the Measurement Date, in any other case. The number of Earned PSUs shall be determined as a percentage of the Target Number of PSUs based on the level of Adjusted Equity Value achievement as set forth in the table below. Linear interpolation shall be used to determine the number of Earned PSUs to the extent that the Adjusted Equity Value is between the Threshold and Maximum amounts set forth in the table below. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Adjusted Equity Value is less than the Threshold set forth in the table below, none of the PSUs will become Earned PSUs. To the extent that the Adjusted Equity Value as of the Measurement Date exceeds the Maximum set forth in the table below, the Company will allocate an additional number of Earned PSUs (the "Kicker PSUs") to all Participants who have not incurred a Termination prior to the Measurement Date and who hold Eligible PSUs (as defined below) that (excluding the Kicker PSUs) will become Earned PSUs as of such Measurement Date (each such Participant, an "Eligible Participant"). The aggregate number of Kicker PSUs to be delivered to all Eligible Participants shall be equal to (x) one percent of the product of (A) the amount by which the Adjusted Equity Value as of the Measurement Date exceeds the Maximum Adjusted Equity Value set forth in the table below and (B) the total number of Shares outstanding as of the Measurement Date, divided by (y) the Fair Market Value of a Share as of the Measurement Date (which, in the case of a Change in Control, shall be the implied per Share value achieved in connection with such Change in Control). The number of Kicker PSUs allocated to each Eligible Participant shall be determined based on the number of Eligible PSUs (excluding the Kicker PSUs) held by the Eligible Participant that become Earned PSUs as of the Measurement Date as a fraction of all Eligible PSUs held by all Eligible Participants that become Earned PSUs as of the Measurement Date. Any Earned PSUs shall time-vest in accordance with Section 3(b).

Performance Level	Adjusted Equity Value (per Share)	Earned PSUs (% of Target Number of PSUs)
Threshold	$42.35	0%
Target	$52.52	100%
Maximum	$73.69	200%
Above Maximum	>$73.69	1% of market capitalization implied by Adjusted Equity Value in excess of Maximum are allocated as incremental Earned PSUs (as described above)

"Adjusted Equity Value" means a per Share amount equal to the sum of (i) (A) if the Measurement Date is a Change in Control, the implied per Share value achieved in connection with such Change in Control or (B) if the Measurement Date is not a Change in Control, the per Share value (I) if the Company is listed on a national securities exchange, based on the 120-Day VWAP, or (II) if the Company is not listed on a national securities exchange, as determined by the Committee in good faith, and (ii) the aggregate per Share value of any distributions or dividends (A) paid with respect to Shares between the Vesting Commencement Date and the Measurement Date or (B) approved for distribution within the next quarter but not yet paid.

"Eligible PSUs" means all PSUs granted by the Company pursuant to an award agreement that provides for the grant of Kicker PSUs upon achievement of Adjusted Equity Value above the Maximum.

(b) Service Vesting. Subject to Sections 3(c) and 3(d), the PSUs shall vest on the Measurement Date, subject to the Participants continued employment through such date.

(c) Termination of Employment.

(i) Termination without Cause; Resignation for Good Reason. If the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment by the Company without Cause, or by the Participant for Good Reason, in each case, prior to a Change in Control, subject to Participant's timely execution of a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees, all unvested PSUs shall become fully time vested, and such PSUs shall remain outstanding and eligible to performance vest through the end of the Performance Period. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall have the meaning set forth in that certain Employment Agreement by and between Participant and the Company, dated May 17, 2023, as may be amended and/or restated from time to time.

(ii) Death or Disability. If the Termination of Employment is due to the Participant's death or Disability, in each case, on or following the first anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date and prior to a Change in Control then, subject to Participant's timely execution of a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees, the Target Number of PSUs shall be reduced such that the Target Number of PSUs outstanding under the Agreement shall be equal the Target Number of PSUs (before taking into account the reduction set forth in this Section 3(c)(ii)), multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days from the Vesting Commencement Date to the date of such Termination of Employment, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in the Performance Period. For the avoidance of doubt, all references to "Target Number of PSUs" shall, following such Termination of Employment, refer to the Target Number of PSUs as reduced pursuant to this Section 3(c)(ii).

(iii) If the Termination of Employment is due to any other reason except as described in Section 3(c)(i) and (ii), then all unvested PSUs shall be immediately forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(d) Change in Control. In connection with a Change in Control, all unvested PSUs shall fully vest based on the applicable Adjusted Equity Value as of the occurrence of such Change in Control.

4. Settlement. Subject to Section 6, the Company shall, at the discretion of the Committee, issue either one Share or cash in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of one Share, or any combination thereof, to the Participant for each Earned PSU that becomes vested as of the Measurement Date on the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the date on which such PSU becomes vested (including, for the avoidance of doubt any Kicker PSUs).

5. Dividend Equivalents; Rights as Member. Until such time as the PSUs have been settled pursuant to Section 4, the Participant shall have no rights as a holder of Common Stock, including, without limitation, any right to dividends or other distributions or any right to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company declares any cash dividend the record date of which occurs while the PSUs are outstanding, the Participant shall be credited a dividend equivalent in an amount equal to the dividend that would have been paid on the Common Stock underlying the PSUs had such shares been outstanding on such record date. Any such dividend equivalents shall be subject to the same vesting conditions applicable to the underlying PSU with respect to which they accrue, and shall, if the underlying PSU vests, be paid by the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the applicable vesting date.

6. Taxes. The Company shall have the power and the right to deduct or withhold, or require the Participant to remit to the Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy any federal, state, local, and foreign taxes of any kind that the Company, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to be withheld or remitted to comply with the Code and/or any other applicable law, rule, or regulation with respect to the PSUs and, if the Participant fails to do so, the Company may refuse to issue or transfer any Common Stock or dividend equivalents otherwise required to be issued pursuant to this Agreement. Unless as otherwise agreed to by the parties hereto, any withholding obligation with regard to the Participant (up to the maximum statutory rate) may be satisfied by reducing the number of Shares otherwise deliverable to Participant hereunder.

7. Non-Transferability. The PSUs may not, at any time prior to being settled, be assigned, alienated, pledged, attached, sold, or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the Participant, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. Any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer, or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Company.

8. Securities Law Representations. The Participant acknowledges that the Common Stock underlying the PSUs is not being registered under the Securities Act, based, in part, on reliance upon an exemption from registration under Rule 701 or Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and a comparable exemption from qualification under applicable state securities laws, as each may be amended from time to time. The Participant, by executing this Agreement, hereby makes the following representations to the Company and acknowledges that the Company's reliance on federal and state securities law exemptions from registration and qualification is predicated, in substantial part, upon the accuracy of these representations:

(a) Investment Purpose. The Participant is acquiring the PSUs solely for the Participant's own account, for investment purposes only, and not with a view or an intent to sell, or to offer for resale in connection with any unregistered distribution, all or any portion of Shares underlying the PSUs within the meaning of the Securities Act and/or any applicable state securities laws.

(b) Knowledge. The Participant has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the PSUs. The Participant has been furnished with, and/or has access to, such information as the Participant considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to acquire the Common Stock underlying the PSUs. In evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Common Stock underlying the PSUs, however, the Participant has and will rely only upon the advice of the Participant's own legal counsel, tax advisors, and/or investment advisors.

(c) Risk of Loss. The Participant is aware that any value the PSUs may have depends on vesting and certain other factors, and that any investment in Common Stock of a privately held corporation such as the Company is non-marketable, nontransferable, and could require capital to be invested for an indefinite period of time, possibly without return, and at substantial risk of loss.

(d) Resales. The Participant understands that the PSUs will be characterized as "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws and that, under such laws and applicable regulations, such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances, including in accordance with the conditions of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, as presently in effect. The Participant represents that the Participant is familiar with Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act and the applicable state securities law.

(e) Restrictions. The Participant has read and understands the restrictions, limitations, and the Company's rights set forth in the Plan and this Agreement that will be imposed on the PSUs and any Common Stock issued in respect of the PSUs.

(f) Non-Reliance. The Participant has not relied upon any oral representation made to the Participant relating to the PSUs or the Common Stock or upon information presented in any promotional meeting or material relating to the PSUs.

(g) Legends. The Participant understands and acknowledges that (i) any certificate evidencing the Common Stock (or evidencing any other securities issued with respect thereto pursuant to any stock split, stock dividend, merger, or other form of reorganization or recapitalization) when issued shall bear any legends that may be required by applicable federal and state securities laws, this Agreement, the Plan, or any stockholders' agreement that may be in place from time to time; and (ii) the Company has no obligation to register the Common Stock or file any registration statement under federal or state securities laws. The Committee reserves the right to account for Common Stock through book-entry or other electronic means rather than the issuance of stock certificates.

9. Miscellaneous.

(a) Confidentiality. The Participant agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement, unless and until such terms have been disclosed publicly other than through a breach by the Participant of this covenant. This provision shall not prohibit the Participant from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Participant's attorneys, financial advisors, or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal, financial, or tax advice or as otherwise required by law.

(b) Compliance with Laws. The grant of PSUs and the issuance of Common Stock hereunder shall be subject to, and shall comply with, any applicable requirements of any foreign and U.S. federal and state securities laws, rules, and regulations (including, without limitation, the provisions of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, and in each case any respective rules and regulations promulgated thereunder) and any other law, rule, regulation, or exchange requirement applicable thereto.

(c) Successors. The terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns, and of the Participant and the beneficiaries, executors, administrators, and heirs of the Participant.

(d) No Waiver; Amendment. No waiver of any right hereunder by any party shall operate as a waiver of any other right, or as a waiver of the same right with respect to any subsequent occasion for its exercise, or as a waiver of any right to damages. No waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other breach or a waiver of the continuation of the same breach. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument executed by the Participant and the Company.

(e) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and each other provision of this Agreement shall be severable and enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

(f) No Right to Service. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving the Participant any right to be retained, in any position, as an employee, consultant, or director of any Company Entity or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the right of any Company Entity to remove, terminate, or discharge the Participant at any time for any reason whatsoever.

(g) Unfunded Plan. The Award of PSUs is unfunded and the Participant shall be considered an unsecured creditor of the Company with respect to the Company's obligations, if any, to issue Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement, and no action taken pursuant to its provisions, shall create or be construed to create a trust of any kind or a fiduciary relationship between the Participant and any Company Entity or any other Person.

(h) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Grant Notice, the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, and the Plan contain the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter contained herein and supersede all prior communications, representations, and negotiations with respect thereto.

(i) Bound by the Plan. By signing this Agreement, the Participant acknowledges that the Participant has received a copy of the Plan and has had an opportunity to review the Plan and agrees to be bound by all the terms and provisions of the Plan. In the event of any conflict between the Plan and this Agreement, this Agreement shall control.

(j) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without regard to principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of laws of any other jurisdiction that could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

(k) Business Days. If any time period for giving notice or taking action hereunder expires on a day that is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday in the state in which the Company's principal executive office is located, the time period shall be automatically extended to the business day immediately following such Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

(l) Headings. The headings of the Sections hereof are provided for convenience only and are not to serve as a basis for interpretation or construction, and shall not constitute a part, of this Agreement.

(m) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(n) Section 409A of the Code. It is intended that the PSUs granted pursuant to this Agreement and the provisions of this Agreement be exempt from or comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code.

(o) Consent to Electronic Delivery; Electronic Signature. In lieu of receiving documents in paper format, the Participant agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to accept electronic delivery of any documents that the Company may be required to deliver (including, without limitation, prospectuses, prospectus supplements, grant or award notifications and agreements, account statements, annual and quarterly reports and all other forms of communications) in connection with this and any other Award made or offered by the Company. Electronic delivery may be via a Company electronic mail system or by reference to a location on a Company intranet or third party website to which the Participant has access. The Participant hereby consents to any and all procedures the Company has established or may establish for an electronic signature system for delivery and acceptance of any such documents that the Company may be required to deliver, and agrees that the Participant's electronic signature is the same as, and shall have the same force and effect as, the Participant's manual signature.

(p) Forfeiture and Clawback Provisions. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Grant Notice or the Plan, the PSUs (including any proceeds, gains or other economic benefit actually or constructively received with respect thereto) shall, unless otherwise determined by the Committee or required by applicable law, be subject to the provisions of any clawback policy implemented by the Company or otherwise required by applicable law, whether or not such clawback policy was in place at the Date of Grant and whether or not the PSUs are vested. In addition, if the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment for Cause (or, following a Termination, the Company discovers that grounds for Termination for Cause existed at the time of Termination) or breaches any of the restrictive covenants set forth in the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, then the Participant shall automatically and immediately forfeit to the Company for no consideration: (i) all of the PSUs (whether vested or not vested), (ii) all Shares previously received on settlement of the PSUs (the "Award Shares") held by the Participant and, (iii) in the event the Participant has sold or otherwise disposed of any Award Shares, the amount of any cash proceeds received from such sale or disposition, in each case, effective as of the date of such Termination for Cause (or determination that grounds for termination for Cause existed, as applicable) or the breach of the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, as applicable.

RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT

THIS RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT (this " Agreement") is entered into by and between the Company and the Participant as of the Date of Grant set forth in the Grant Notice to which this Agreement is attached. Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan.

WHEREAS, the Committee has determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to grant the Participant RSUs on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan.

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the covenants of the parties contained in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, for themselves and their successors and assigns, hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of RSUs.

(a) Grant. The Company hereby grants to the Participant the number of RSUs set forth in the Grant Notice on the terms and conditions set forth in the Grant Notice, this Agreement, and the Plan.

(b) Incorporation by Reference. The provisions of the Plan are incorporated herein by reference. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, this Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of the Plan.

2. Terms of Issuance of Grant.

(a) Concurrently with, or prior to, the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Participant is entering into, or has entered into a Confidentiality, Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation Agreement with the Company or one of its Affiliates providing restrictive covenants applicable during and following employment in a form considered satisfactory by the Committee (the "Restrictive Covenant Agreement") and the Participant's entry into the Restrictive Covenant Agreement is a material inducement for, and a condition of, the Company's entry into this Agreement and issuance of the RSUs specified in this Agreement. To the maximum extent permissible under applicable law, all of the restrictive covenants applicable to the Participant set forth in the Restrictive Covenant Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference into this Agreement (with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein).

(b) [As a condition to receiving this Award, Participant hereby waives any claim of "good reason" (or term of like import) under that certain [[Severance Agreement] / [Offer Letter], dated [ ], by and between Participant and [ ]], or any other agreement to which Participant is a party that Participant may otherwise have as a result of any event, occurrence or circumstance prior to the Date of Grant.]

3. Vesting.

(a) Normal Vesting. Subject to Sections 3(b) and 3(c), the RSUs shall vest in accordance with the vesting schedule set forth in the Grant Notice.

(b) Termination of Employment.

(i) Within One Year of the Vesting Commencement Date . If the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment prior to the first anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date:

(1) If the Termination of Employment is by the Company without Cause or by the Participant for Good Reason (if Good Reason applies to this award, as set forth below), then, subject to the Participant's timely execution of a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees, immediately upon such Termination of Employment, (A) a pro rata portion of the RSUs that would have vested on the next scheduled vesting date following such Termination of Employment in accordance with Section 3(a) will vest, calculated based on (x) the number of RSUs that would have vested on such next scheduled vesting date, multiplied by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days from the Vesting Commencement Date to the date of the Termination of Employment, and the denominator of which is 365, and (B) all unvested RSUs (after taking into account the accelerated vesting set forth in clause (A)) shall be forfeited and cancelled for no consideration. For purposes of this Agreement, if the Participant is party to an employment agreement, offer letter, consulting agreement or similar agreement with the Company or one of its Affiliates (as applicable, an "Employment Agreement") that defines "good reason" (or words of like import), "Good Reason" shall have the meaning set forth in the Employment Agreement. If the Participant is not party to an Employment Agreement or if the Employment Agreement does not define "good reason" (or words of like import), the term "Good Reason" does not apply to this Award.

(2) If the Termination of Employment is due to any other reason except as described in Section 3(b)(i)(1) prior to the first anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any resignation by the Participant for any reason if the Participant is not party to an Employment Agreement or if the Employment Agreement does not define "good reason" (or terms of like import)), then all unvested RSUs shall be immediately forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(ii) On or Following the First Anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date. If the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment on or following the first anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date:

(1) If the Termination of Employment is by the Company without Cause, due to the Participant's death or Disability, or by the Participant for Good Reason (if Good Reason applies to this award) then, subject to the Participant's timely execution of a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees, immediately upon such Termination of Employment, (A) a pro rata portion of the RSUs that would have vested on the next scheduled vesting date following such Termination of Employment in accordance with Section 3(a) will vest, calculated based on (x) the number of RSUs that would have vested on such next scheduled vesting date, multiplied by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days from the vesting date immediately preceding the date of the Termination of Employment to the date of the Termination of Employment, and the denominator of which is 365, and (B) all unvested RSUs (after taking into account the accelerated vesting set forth in clause (A)) shall be forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(2) If the Termination of Employment is due to any other reason except as described in Section 3(b)(ii)(1) (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any resignation by the Participant for any reason if the Participant is not party to an Employment Agreement or if the Employment Agreement does not define "good reason" (or terms of like import)), then all unvested RSUs shall be immediately forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(c) Change in Control. In connection with a Change in Control, all unvested RSUs shall fully vest as of the occurrence of such Change in Control.

4. Settlement. Subject to Section 6, the Company shall, at the discretion of the Committee, issue either one Share or cash in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of one Share, or any combination thereof, to the Participant for each RSU that becomes vested hereunder by the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the date on which such RSU becomes vested.

5. Dividend Equivalents; Rights as Member. Until such time as the RSUs have been settled pursuant to Section 4, the Participant shall have no rights as a holder of Common Stock, including, without limitation, any right to dividends or other distributions or any right to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company declares any cash dividend the record date of which occurs while the RSUs are outstanding, the Participant shall be credited a dividend equivalent in an amount equal to the dividend that would have been paid on the Common Stock underlying the RSUs had such shares been outstanding on such record date. Any such dividend equivalents shall be subject to the same vesting conditions applicable to the underlying RSU with respect to which they accrue, and shall, if the underlying RSU vests, be paid by the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the applicable vesting date.

6. Taxes. The Company shall have the power and the right to deduct or withhold, or require the Participant to remit to the Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy any federal, state, local, and foreign taxes of any kind that the Company, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to be withheld or remitted to comply with the Code and/or any other applicable law, rule, or regulation with respect to the RSUs and, if the Participant fails to do so, the Company may refuse to issue or transfer any Common Stock or dividend equivalents otherwise required to be issued pursuant to this Agreement. Unless as otherwise agreed to by the parties hereto, any withholding obligation with regard to the Participant (up to the maximum statutory rate) may be satisfied by reducing the number of Shares otherwise deliverable to Participant hereunder.

7. Non-Transferability. The RSUs may not, at any time prior to being settled, be assigned, alienated, pledged, attached, sold, or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the Participant, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. Any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer, or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Company.

8. Restrictions on Transfer of Award Shares . The Participant agrees not to sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase, transfer the economic risk of ownership in, make any short sale of, pledge or otherwise transfer or dispose of, any interest in any Shares received upon settlement of the RSUs (each, an "Award Share") for the period ending on the earlier of (a) a Change in Control and (b) the third anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that any Award Share will be subject to legends, stop transfer orders or any other similar restriction that the Company deems reasonably necessary to effectuate the provisions set forth in this Section 8.

9. Securities Law Representations. The Participant acknowledges that the Common Stock underlying the RSUs is not being registered under the Securities Act, based, in part, on reliance upon an exemption from registration under Rule 701 or Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and a comparable exemption from qualification under applicable state securities laws, as each may be amended from time to time. The Participant, by executing this Agreement, hereby makes the following representations to the Company and acknowledges that the Company's reliance on federal and state securities law exemptions from registration and qualification is predicated, in substantial part, upon the accuracy of these representations:

(a) Investment Purpose. The Participant is acquiring the RSUs solely for the Participant's own account, for investment purposes only, and not with a view or an intent to sell, or to offer for resale in connection with any unregistered distribution, all or any portion of Shares underlying the RSUs within the meaning of the Securities Act and/or any applicable state securities laws.

(b) Knowledge. The Participant has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the RSUs. The Participant has been furnished with, and/or has access to, such information as the Participant considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to acquire the Common Stock underlying the RSUs. In evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Common Stock underlying the RSUs, however, the Participant has and will rely only upon the advice of the Participant's own legal counsel, tax advisors, and/or investment advisors.

(c) Risk of Loss. The Participant is aware that any value the RSUs may have depends on vesting and certain other factors, and that any investment in Common Stock of a privately held corporation such as the Company is non-marketable, nontransferable, and could require capital to be invested for an indefinite period of time, possibly without return, and at substantial risk of loss.

(d) Resales. The Participant understands that the RSUs will be characterized as "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws and that, under such laws and applicable regulations, such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances, including in accordance with the conditions of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, as presently in effect. The Participant represents that the Participant is familiar with Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act and the applicable state securities law.

(e) Restrictions. The Participant has read and understands the restrictions, limitations, and the Company's rights set forth in the Plan and this Agreement that will be imposed on the RSUs and any Common Stock issued in respect of the RSUs.

(f) Non-Reliance. The Participant has not relied upon any oral representation made to the Participant relating to the RSUs or the Common Stock or upon information presented in any promotional meeting or material relating to the RSUs.

(g) Legends. The Participant understands and acknowledges that (i) any certificate evidencing the Common Stock (or evidencing any other securities issued with respect thereto pursuant to any stock split, stock dividend, merger, or other form of reorganization or recapitalization) when issued shall bear any legends that may be required by applicable federal and state securities laws, this Agreement, the Plan, or any stockholders' agreement that may be in place from time to time; and (ii) the Company has no obligation to register the Common Stock or file any registration statement under federal or state securities laws. The Committee reserves the right to account for Common Stock through book-entry or other electronic means rather than the issuance of stock certificates.

10. Miscellaneous.

(a) Confidentiality. The Participant agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement, unless and until such terms have been disclosed publicly other than through a breach by the Participant of this covenant. This provision shall not prohibit the Participant from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Participant's attorneys, financial advisors, or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal, financial, or tax advice or as otherwise required by law.

(b) Compliance with Laws. The grant of RSUs and the issuance of Common Stock hereunder shall be subject to, and shall comply with, any applicable requirements of any foreign and U.S. federal and state securities laws, rules, and regulations (including, without limitation, the provisions of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, and in each case any respective rules and regulations promulgated thereunder) and any other law, rule, regulation, or exchange requirement applicable thereto.

(c) Successors. The terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns, and of the Participant and the beneficiaries, executors, administrators, and heirs of the Participant.

(d) No Waiver; Amendment. No waiver of any right hereunder by any party shall operate as a waiver of any other right, or as a waiver of the same right with respect to any subsequent occasion for its exercise, or as a waiver of any right to damages. No waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other breach or a waiver of the continuation of the same breach. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument executed by the Participant and the Company.

(e) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and each other provision of this Agreement shall be severable and enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

(f) No Right to Service. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving the Participant any right to be retained, in any position, as an employee, consultant, or director of any Company Entity or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the right of any Company Entity to remove, terminate, or discharge the Participant at any time for any reason whatsoever.

(g) Unfunded Plan. The Award of RSUs is unfunded and the Participant shall be considered an unsecured creditor of the Company with respect to the Company's obligations, if any, to issue Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement, and no action taken pursuant to its provisions, shall create or be construed to create a trust of any kind or a fiduciary relationship between the Participant and any Company Entity or any other Person.

(h) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Grant Notice, the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, and the Plan contain the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter contained herein and supersede all prior communications, representations, and negotiations with respect thereto.

(i) Bound by the Plan. By signing this Agreement, the Participant acknowledges that the Participant has received a copy of the Plan and has had an opportunity to review the Plan and agrees to be bound by all the terms and provisions of the Plan. In the event of any conflict between the Plan and this Agreement, this Agreement shall control.

(j) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without regard to principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of laws of any other jurisdiction that could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

(k) Business Days. If any time period for giving notice or taking action hereunder expires on a day that is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday in the state in which the Company's principal executive office is located, the time period shall be automatically extended to the business day immediately following such Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

(l) Headings. The headings of the Sections hereof are provided for convenience only and are not to serve as a basis for interpretation or construction, and shall not constitute a part, of this Agreement.

(m) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(n) Section 409A of the Code. It is intended that the RSUs granted pursuant to this Agreement and the provisions of this Agreement be exempt from or comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code.

(o) Consent to Electronic Delivery; Electronic Signature. In lieu of receiving documents in paper format, the Participant agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to accept electronic delivery of any documents that the Company may be required to deliver (including, without limitation, prospectuses, prospectus supplements, grant or award notifications and agreements, account statements, annual and quarterly reports and all other forms of communications) in connection with this and any other Award made or offered by the Company. Electronic delivery may be via a Company electronic mail system or by reference to a location on a Company intranet or third party website to which the Participant has access. The Participant hereby consents to any and all procedures the Company has established or may establish for an electronic signature system for delivery and acceptance of any such documents that the Company may be required to deliver, and agrees that the Participant's electronic signature is the same as, and shall have the same force and effect as, the Participant's manual signature.

(p) Forfeiture and Clawback Provisions. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Grant Notice or the Plan, the RSUs (including any proceeds, gains or other economic benefit actually or constructively received with respect thereto) shall, unless otherwise determined by the Committee or required by applicable law, be subject to the provisions of any clawback policy implemented by the Company or otherwise required by applicable law, whether or not such clawback policy was in place at the Date of Grant and whether or not the RSUs are vested. In addition, if the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment for Cause (or, following a Termination, the Company discovers that grounds for Termination for Cause existed at the time of Termination) or breaches any of the restrictive covenants set forth in the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, then the Participant shall automatically and immediately forfeit to the Company for no consideration: (i) all of the RSUs (whether vested or not vested), (ii) all Shares previously received on settlement of the RSUs held by the Participant and, (iii) in the event the Participant has sold or otherwise disposed of any Award Shares, the amount of any cash proceeds received from such sale or disposition, in each case, effective as of the date of such Termination for Cause (or determination that grounds for termination for Cause existed, as applicable) or the breach of the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, as applicable.

The "Measurement Date" applicable to the PSUs shall be the earlier of (i) the consummation of a Change in Control and (ii) the third anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date, and the period beginning on the Vesting Commencement Date and ending on the Measurement Date is referred to herein as the "Performance Period." The Committee shall determine the actual number of PSUs earned by the Participant (the "Earned PSUs") no later than (x) immediately prior to the consummation of a Change in Control, if the Measurement Date is the consummation of a Change in Control, or (y) 90 days following the Measurement Date, in any other case. The number of Earned PSUs shall be determined as a percentage of the Target Number of PSUs based on the level of Adjusted Equity Value achievement as set forth in the table below. Linear interpolation shall be used to determine the number of Earned PSUs to the extent that the Adjusted Equity Value is between the Threshold and Maximum amounts set forth in the table below. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Adjusted Equity Value is less than the Threshold set forth in the table below, none of the PSUs will become Earned PSUs, and in no event will the number of PSUs that become Earned PSUs exceed 200% of the Target Number of PSUs. Any Earned PSUs shall time-vest in accordance with Section 3(b).

Performance Level	Adjusted Equity Value (per Share)	Earned PSUs (% of Target Number of PSUs)
Threshold	$42.35	0%
Target	$52.52	100%
Maximum	$73.69	200%

"Adjusted Equity Value" means a per Share amount equal to the sum of (i) (A) if the Measurement Date is a Change in Control, the implied per Share value achieved in connection with such Change in Control or (B) if the Measurement Date is not a Change in Control, the per Share value (I) if the Company is listed on a national securities exchange, based on the 120-Day VWAP, or (II) if the Company is not listed on a national securities exchange, as determined by the Committee in good faith, and (ii) the aggregate per Share value of any distributions or dividends (A) paid with respect to Shares between the Vesting Commencement Date and the Measurement Date or (B) approved for distribution within the next quarter but not yet paid.

(b) Service Vesting. Subject to Sections 3(c) and 3(d), the PSUs shall vest on the Measurement Date, subject to the Participant's continued employment through such date.

(c) Termination of Employment.

(i) Within One Year of the Vesting Commencement Date . If the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment prior to the first anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date (and prior to a Change in Control):

(1) If the Termination of Employment is by the Company without Cause or by the Participant for Good Reason (if Good Reason applies to this award, as set forth below), subject to the Participant's timely execution of a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees, the Target Number of PSUs shall be reduced such that the Target Number of PSUs outstanding under the Agreement shall be equal the Target Number of PSUs (before taking into account the reduction set forth in this Section 3(c)(i)(1)), multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days from the Vesting Commencement Date to the date of such Termination of Employment, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in the Performance Period. For the avoidance of doubt, all references to "Target Number of PSUs" shall, following such Termination of Employment, refer to the Target Number of PSUs as reduced pursuant to this Section 3(c)(i)(1). For purposes of this Agreement, if the Participant is party to an employment agreement, offer letter, consulting agreement or similar agreement with the Company or one of its Affiliates (as applicable, an "Employment Agreement") that defines "good reason" (or words of like import), "Good Reason" shall have the meaning set forth in the Employment Agreement. If the Participant is not party to an Employment Agreement or if the Employment Agreement does not define "good reason" (or words of like import), the term "Good Reason" does not apply to this Award.

(2) If the Termination of Employment is due to any other reason except as described in Section 3(c)(i)(1) (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any resignation by the Participant for any reason if the Participant is not party to an Employment Agreement or if the Employment Agreement does not define "good reason" (or terms of like import)), then all unvested PSUs shall be immediately forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(ii) On or Following the First Anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date . If the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment on or following the first anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date (and prior to a Change in Control):

(1) If the Termination of Employment is by the Company without Cause, due to the Participant's death or Disability, or by the Participant for Good Reason (if Good Reason applies to this award) then, subject to the Participant's timely execution of a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees, the Target Number of PSUs shall be reduced such that the Target Number of PSUs outstanding under the Agreement shall be equal the Target Number of PSUs (before taking into account the reduction set forth in this Section 3(c)(ii)(1)), multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days from the Vesting Commencement Date to the date of such Termination of Employment, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in the Performance Period. For the avoidance of doubt, all references to "Target Number of PSUs" shall, following such Termination of Employment, refer to the Target Number of PSUs as reduced pursuant to this Section 3(c)(ii)(1).

(2) If the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment prior to a Change in Control due to any other reason except as described in Section 3(c)(ii)(1) (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any resignation by the Participant for any reason if the Participant is not party to an Employment Agreement or if the Employment Agreement does not define "good reason" (or terms of like import)), then all outstanding unvested PSUs shall be immediately forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(d) Change in Control. In connection with a Change in Control, all unvested PSUs shall fully vest based on the applicable Adjusted Equity Value as of the occurrence of such Change in Control.

4. Settlement. Subject to Section 6, the Company shall, at the discretion of the Committee, issue either one Share or cash in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of one Share, or any combination thereof, to the Participant for each Earned PSU that becomes vested as of the Measurement Date on the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the date on which such PSU becomes vested.

5. Dividend Equivalents; Rights as Member. Until such time as the PSUs have been settled pursuant to Section 4, the Participant shall have no rights as a holder of Common Stock, including, without limitation, any right to dividends or other distributions or any right to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company declares any cash dividend the record date of which occurs while the PSUs are outstanding, the Participant shall be credited a dividend equivalent in an amount equal to the dividend that would have been paid on the Common Stock underlying the PSUs had such shares been outstanding on such record date. Any such dividend equivalents shall be subject to the same vesting conditions applicable to the underlying PSU with respect to which they accrue, and shall, if the underlying PSU vests, be paid by the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the applicable vesting date.

6. Taxes. The Company shall have the power and the right to deduct or withhold, or require the Participant to remit to the Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy any federal, state, local, and foreign taxes of any kind that the Company, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to be withheld or remitted to comply with the Code and/or any other applicable law, rule, or regulation with respect to the PSUs and, if the Participant fails to do so, the Company may refuse to issue or transfer any Common Stock or dividend equivalents otherwise required to be issued pursuant to this Agreement. Unless as otherwise agreed to by the parties hereto, any withholding obligation with regard to the Participant (up to the maximum statutory rate) may be satisfied by reducing the number of Shares otherwise deliverable to Participant hereunder.

7. Non-Transferability. The PSUs may not, at any time prior to being settled, be assigned, alienated, pledged, attached, sold, or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the Participant, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. Any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer, or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Company.

8. Securities Law Representations. The Participant acknowledges that the Common Stock underlying the PSUs is not being registered under the Securities Act, based, in part, on reliance upon an exemption from registration under Rule 701 or Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and a comparable exemption from qualification under applicable state securities laws, as each may be amended from time to time. The Participant, by executing this Agreement, hereby makes the following representations to the Company and acknowledges that the Company's reliance on federal and state securities law exemptions from registration and qualification is predicated, in substantial part, upon the accuracy of these representations:

(a) Investment Purpose. The Participant is acquiring the PSUs solely for the Participant's own account, for investment purposes only, and not with a view or an intent to sell, or to offer for resale in connection with any unregistered distribution, all or any portion of Shares underlying the PSUs within the meaning of the Securities Act and/or any applicable state securities laws.

(b) Knowledge. The Participant has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the PSUs. The Participant has been furnished with, and/or has access to, such information as the Participant considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to acquire the Common Stock underlying the PSUs. In evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Common Stock underlying the PSUs, however, the Participant has and will rely only upon the advice of the Participant's own legal counsel, tax advisors, and/or investment advisors.

(c) Risk of Loss. The Participant is aware that any value the PSUs may have depends on vesting and certain other factors, and that any investment in Common Stock of a privately held corporation such as the Company is non-marketable, nontransferable, and could require capital to be invested for an indefinite period of time, possibly without return, and at substantial risk of loss.

(d) Resales. The Participant understands that the PSUs will be characterized as "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws and that, under such laws and applicable regulations, such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances, including in accordance with the conditions of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, as presently in effect. The Participant represents that the Participant is familiar with Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act and the applicable state securities law.

(e) Restrictions. The Participant has read and understands the restrictions, limitations, and the Company's rights set forth in the Plan and this Agreement that will be imposed on the PSUs and any Common Stock issued in respect of the PSUs.

(f) Non-Reliance. The Participant has not relied upon any oral representation made to the Participant relating to the PSUs or the Common Stock or upon information presented in any promotional meeting or material relating to the PSUs.

(g) Legends. The Participant understands and acknowledges that (i) any certificate evidencing the Common Stock (or evidencing any other securities issued with respect thereto pursuant to any stock split, stock dividend, merger, or other form of reorganization or recapitalization) when issued shall bear any legends that may be required by applicable federal and state securities laws, this Agreement, the Plan, or any stockholders' agreement that may be in place from time to time; and (ii) the Company has no obligation to register the Common Stock or file any registration statement under federal or state securities laws. The Committee reserves the right to account for Common Stock through book-entry or other electronic means rather than the issuance of stock certificates.

9. Miscellaneous.

(a) Confidentiality. The Participant agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement, unless and until such terms have been disclosed publicly other than through a breach by the Participant of this covenant. This provision shall not prohibit the Participant from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Participant's attorneys, financial advisors, or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal, financial, or tax advice or as otherwise required by law.

(b) Compliance with Laws. The grant of PSUs and the issuance of Common Stock hereunder shall be subject to, and shall comply with, any applicable requirements of any foreign and U.S. federal and state securities laws, rules, and regulations (including, without limitation, the provisions of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, and in each case any respective rules and regulations promulgated thereunder) and any other law, rule, regulation, or exchange requirement applicable thereto.

(c) Successors. The terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns, and of the Participant and the beneficiaries, executors, administrators, and heirs of the Participant.

(d) No Waiver; Amendment. No waiver of any right hereunder by any party shall operate as a waiver of any other right, or as a waiver of the same right with respect to any subsequent occasion for its exercise, or as a waiver of any right to damages. No waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other breach or a waiver of the continuation of the same breach. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument executed by the Participant and the Company.

(e) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and each other provision of this Agreement shall be severable and enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

(f) No Right to Service. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving the Participant any right to be retained, in any position, as an employee, consultant, or director of any Company Entity or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the right of any Company Entity to remove, terminate, or discharge the Participant at any time for any reason whatsoever.

(g) Unfunded Plan. The Award of PSUs is unfunded and the Participant shall be considered an unsecured creditor of the Company with respect to the Company's obligations, if any, to issue Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement, and no action taken pursuant to its provisions, shall create or be construed to create a trust of any kind or a fiduciary relationship between the Participant and any Company Entity or any other Person.

(h) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Grant Notice, the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, and the Plan contain the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter contained herein and supersede all prior communications, representations, and negotiations with respect thereto.

(i) Bound by the Plan. By signing this Agreement, the Participant acknowledges that the Participant has received a copy of the Plan and has had an opportunity to review the Plan and agrees to be bound by all the terms and provisions of the Plan. In the event of any conflict between the Plan and this Agreement, this Agreement shall control.

(j) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without regard to principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of laws of any other jurisdiction that could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

(k) Business Days. If any time period for giving notice or taking action hereunder expires on a day that is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday in the state in which the Company's principal executive office is located, the time period shall be automatically extended to the business day immediately following such Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

(l) Headings. The headings of the Sections hereof are provided for convenience only and are not to serve as a basis for interpretation or construction, and shall not constitute a part, of this Agreement.

(m) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(n) Section 409A of the Code. It is intended that the PSUs granted pursuant to this Agreement and the provisions of this Agreement be exempt from or comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code.

(o) Consent to Electronic Delivery; Electronic Signature. In lieu of receiving documents in paper format, the Participant agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to accept electronic delivery of any documents that the Company may be required to deliver (including, without limitation, prospectuses, prospectus supplements, grant or award notifications and agreements, account statements, annual and quarterly reports and all other forms of communications) in connection with this and any other Award made or offered by the Company. Electronic delivery may be via a Company electronic mail system or by reference to a location on a Company intranet or third party website to which the Participant has access. The Participant hereby consents to any and all procedures the Company has established or may establish for an electronic signature system for delivery and acceptance of any such documents that the Company may be required to deliver, and agrees that the Participant's electronic signature is the same as, and shall have the same force and effect as, the Participant's manual signature.

(p) Forfeiture and Clawback Provisions. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Grant Notice or the Plan, the PSUs (including any proceeds, gains or other economic benefit actually or constructively received with respect thereto) shall, unless otherwise determined by the Committee or required by applicable law, be subject to the provisions of any clawback policy implemented by the Company or otherwise required by applicable law, whether or not such clawback policy was in place at the Date of Grant and whether or not the PSUs are vested. In addition, if the Participant incurs a Termination of Employment for Cause (or, following a Termination, the Company discovers that grounds for Termination for Cause existed at the time of Termination) or breaches any of the restrictive covenants set forth in the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, then the Participant shall automatically and immediately forfeit to the Company for no consideration: (i) all of the PSUs (whether vested or not vested), (ii) all Shares previously received on settlement of the PSUs (the "Award Shares") held by the Participant and, (iii) in the event the Participant has sold or otherwise disposed of any Award Shares, the amount of any cash proceeds received from such sale or disposition, in each case, effective as of the date of such Termination for Cause (or determination that grounds for termination for Cause existed, as applicable) or the breach of the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, as applicable.

PERFORMANCE-BASED RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT

THIS PERFORMANCE-BASED RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT (this " Agreement") is entered into by and between the Company and the Participant as of the Date of Grant set forth in the Grant Notice to which this Agreement is attached. Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan.

WHEREAS, the Committee has determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to grant the Participant PSUs on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan.

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the covenants of the parties contained in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, for themselves and their successors and assigns, hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of PSUs.

(a) Grant. The Company hereby grants to the Participant the number of PSUs set forth in the Grant Notice on the terms and conditions set forth in the Grant Notice, this Agreement, and the Plan.

(b) Incorporation by Reference. The provisions of the Plan are incorporated herein by reference. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, this Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of the Plan.

2. Vesting.

(a) Performance Vesting . The "Measurement Date" applicable to the PSUs shall be the earlier of (i) the consummation of a Change in Control and (ii) the third anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date, and the period beginning on the Vesting Commencement Date and ending on the Measurement Date is referred to herein as the "Performance Period." The Committee shall determine the actual number of PSUs earned by the Participant (the "Earned PSUs") no later than (x) immediately prior to the consummation of a Change in Control, if the Measurement Date is the consummation of a Change in Control, or (y) 90 days following the Measurement Date, in any other case. The number of Earned PSUs shall be determined as a percentage of the Target Number of PSUs based on the level of Adjusted Equity Value achievement as set forth in the table below. Linear interpolation shall be used to determine the number of Earned PSUs to the extent that the Adjusted Equity Value is between the Threshold and Maximum amounts set forth in the table below. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Adjusted Equity Value is less than the Threshold set forth in the table below, none of the PSUs will become Earned PSUs. To the extent that the Adjusted Equity Value as of the Measurement Date exceeds the Maximum set forth in the table below, the Company will allocate an additional number of Earned PSUs (the "Kicker PSUs") to all Participants who have not incurred a Termination prior to the Measurement Date and who hold Eligible PSUs (as defined below) that (excluding the Kicker PSUs) will become Earned PSUs as of such Measurement Date (each such Participant, an "Eligible Participant"). The aggregate number of Kicker PSUs to be delivered to all Eligible Participants shall be equal to (x) one percent of the product of (A) the amount by which the Adjusted Equity Value as of the Measurement Date exceeds the Maximum Adjusted Equity Value set forth in the table below and (B) the total number of Shares outstanding as of the Measurement Date, divided by (y) the Fair Market Value of a Share as of the Measurement Date (which, in the case of a Change in Control, shall be the implied per Share value achieved in connection with such Change in Control). The number of Kicker PSUs allocated to each Eligible Participant shall be determined based on the number of Eligible PSUs (excluding the Kicker PSUs) held by the Eligible Participant that become Earned PSUs as of the Measurement Date as a fraction of all Eligible PSUs held by all Eligible Participants that become Earned PSUs as of the Measurement Date. Any Earned PSUs shall time-vest in accordance with Section 2(b).

Performance Level	Adjusted Equity Value (per Share)	Earned PSUs (% of Target Number of PSUs)
Threshold	$42.35	0%
Target	$52.52	100%
Maximum	$73.69	200%
Above Maximum	>$73.69	1% of market capitalization implied by Adjusted Equity Value in excess of Maximum are allocated as incremental Earned PSUs (as described above)

"Adjusted Equity Value" means a per Share amount equal to the sum of (i) (A) if the Measurement Date is a Change in Control, the implied per Share value achieved in connection with such Change in Control or (B) if the Measurement Date is not a Change in Control, the per Share value (I) if the Company is listed on a national securities exchange, based on the 120-Day VWAP, or (II) if the Company is not listed on a national securities exchange, as determined by the Committee in good faith, and (ii) the aggregate per Share value of any distributions or dividends (A) paid with respect to Shares between the Vesting Commencement Date and the Measurement Date or (B) approved for distribution within the next quarter but not yet paid.

"Eligible PSUs" means all PSUs granted by the Company pursuant to an award agreement that provides for the grant of Kicker PSUs upon achievement of Adjusted Equity Value above the Maximum.

(b) Service Vesting. Subject to Sections 2(c) and 2(d), the PSUs shall vest on the Measurement Date, subject to the Participants continued service through such date.

(c) Termination of Directorship.

(i) Within One Year of the Vesting Commencement Date . If the Participant incurs a Termination of Directorship prior to the first anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date (and prior to a Change in Control):

(1) If the Termination of Directorship is by the Company without Cause, subject to Participant's timely execution of a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees, the Target Number of PSUs shall be reduced such that the Target Number of PSUs outstanding under the Agreement shall be equal the Target Number of PSUs (before taking into account the reduction set forth in this Section 2(c)(i)(1)), multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days from the Vesting Commencement Date to the date of such Termination of Directorship, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in the Performance Period. For the avoidance of doubt, all references to "Target Number of PSUs" shall, following such Termination of Directorship, refer to the Target Number of PSUs as reduced pursuant to this Section 2(c)(i)(1).

(2) If the Termination of Directorship is due to any other reason except as described in Section 2(c)(i)(1), then all unvested PSUs shall be immediately forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(ii) On or Following the First Anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date . If the Participant incurs a Termination of Directorship on or following the first anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date (and prior to a Change in Control):

(1) If the Termination of Directorship is by the Company without Cause or due to the Participant's death or Disability then, subject to Participant's timely execution of a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees, the Target Number of PSUs shall be reduced such that the Target Number of PSUs outstanding under the Agreement shall be equal the Target Number of PSUs (before taking into account the reduction set forth in this Section 2(c)(ii)(1)), multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days from the Vesting Commencement Date to the date of such Termination of Directorship, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in the Performance Period. For the avoidance of doubt, all references to "Target Number of PSUs" shall, following such Termination of Directorship, refer to the Target Number of PSUs as reduced pursuant to this Section 2(c)(ii)(1).

(2) If the Participant incurs a Termination of Directorship prior to a Change in Control due to any other reason except as described as described in Section 2(c)(ii)(1), then all outstanding unvested PSUs shall be immediately forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(d) Change in Control. In connection with a Change in Control, all unvested PSUs shall fully vest based on the applicable Adjusted Equity Value as of the occurrence of such Change in Control.

3. Settlement. Subject to Section 5, the Company shall, at the discretion of the Committee, issue either one Share or cash in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of one Share, or any combination thereof, to the Participant for each Earned PSU that becomes vested as of the Measurement Date on the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the date on which such PSU becomes vested (including, for the avoidance of doubt any Kicker PSUs).

4. Dividend Equivalents; Rights as Member. Until such time as the PSUs have been settled pursuant to Section 3, the Participant shall have no rights as a holder of Common Stock, including, without limitation, any right to dividends or other distributions or any right to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company declares any cash dividend the record date of which occurs while the PSUs are outstanding, the Participant shall be credited a dividend equivalent in an amount equal to the dividend that would have been paid on the Common Stock underlying the PSUs had such shares been outstanding on such record date. Any such dividend equivalents shall be subject to the same vesting conditions applicable to the underlying PSU with respect to which they accrue, and shall, if the underlying PSU vests, be paid by the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the applicable vesting date.

5. Taxes. The Company shall have the power and the right to deduct or withhold, or require the Participant to remit to the Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy any federal, state, local, and foreign taxes of any kind that the Company, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to be withheld or remitted to comply with the Code and/or any other applicable law, rule, or regulation with respect to the PSUs and, if the Participant fails to do so, the Company may refuse to issue or transfer any Common Stock or dividend equivalents otherwise required to be issued pursuant to this Agreement. Unless as otherwise agreed to by the parties hereto, any withholding obligation with regard to the Participant (up to the maximum statutory rate) may be satisfied by reducing the number of Shares otherwise deliverable to Participant hereunder.

6. Non-Transferability. The PSUs may not, at any time prior to being settled, be assigned, alienated, pledged, attached, sold, or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the Participant, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. Any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer, or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Company.

7. Securities Law Representations. The Participant acknowledges that the Common Stock underlying the PSUs is not being registered under the Securities Act, based, in part, on reliance upon an exemption from registration under Rule 701 or Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and a comparable exemption from qualification under applicable state securities laws, as each may be amended from time to time. The Participant, by executing this Agreement, hereby makes the following representations to the Company and acknowledges that the Company's reliance on federal and state securities law exemptions from registration and qualification is predicated, in substantial part, upon the accuracy of these representations:

(a) Investment Purpose. The Participant is acquiring the PSUs solely for the Participant's own account, for investment purposes only, and not with a view or an intent to sell, or to offer for resale in connection with any unregistered distribution, all or any portion of Shares underlying the PSUs within the meaning of the Securities Act and/or any applicable state securities laws.

(b) Knowledge. The Participant has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the PSUs. The Participant has been furnished with, and/or has access to, such information as the Participant considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to acquire the Common Stock underlying the PSUs. In evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Common Stock underlying the PSUs, however, the Participant has and will rely only upon the advice of the Participant's own legal counsel, tax advisors, and/or investment advisors.

(c) Risk of Loss. The Participant is aware that any value the PSUs may have depends on vesting and certain other factors, and that any investment in Common Stock of a privately held corporation such as the Company is non-marketable, nontransferable, and could require capital to be invested for an indefinite period of time, possibly without return, and at substantial risk of loss.

(d) Resales. The Participant understands that the PSUs will be characterized as "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws and that, under such laws and applicable regulations, such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances, including in accordance with the conditions of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, as presently in effect. The Participant represents that the Participant is familiar with Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act and the applicable state securities law.

(e) Restrictions. The Participant has read and understands the restrictions, limitations, and the Company's rights set forth in the Plan and this Agreement that will be imposed on the PSUs and any Common Stock issued in respect of the PSUs.

(f) Non-Reliance. The Participant has not relied upon any oral representation made to the Participant relating to the PSUs or the Common Stock or upon information presented in any promotional meeting or material relating to the PSUs.

(g) Legends. The Participant understands and acknowledges that (i) any certificate evidencing the Common Stock (or evidencing any other securities issued with respect thereto pursuant to any stock split, stock dividend, merger, or other form of reorganization or recapitalization) when issued shall bear any legends that may be required by applicable federal and state securities laws, this Agreement, the Plan, or any stockholders' agreement that may be in place from time to time; and (ii) the Company has no obligation to register the Common Stock or file any registration statement under federal or state securities laws. The Committee reserves the right to account for Common Stock through book-entry or other electronic means rather than the issuance of stock certificates.

8. Miscellaneous.

(a) Confidentiality. The Participant agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement, unless and until such terms have been disclosed publicly other than through a breach by the Participant of this covenant. This provision shall not prohibit the Participant from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Participant's attorneys, financial advisors, or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal, financial, or tax advice or as otherwise required by law.

(b) Compliance with Laws. The grant of PSUs and the issuance of Common Stock hereunder shall be subject to, and shall comply with, any applicable requirements of any foreign and U.S. federal and state securities laws, rules, and regulations (including, without limitation, the provisions of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, and in each case any respective rules and regulations promulgated thereunder) and any other law, rule, regulation, or exchange requirement applicable thereto.

(c) Successors. The terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns, and of the Participant and the beneficiaries, executors, administrators, and heirs of the Participant.

(d) No Waiver; Amendment. No waiver of any right hereunder by any party shall operate as a waiver of any other right, or as a waiver of the same right with respect to any subsequent occasion for its exercise, or as a waiver of any right to damages. No waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other breach or a waiver of the continuation of the same breach. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument executed by the Participant and the Company.

(e) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and each other provision of this Agreement shall be severable and enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

(f) No Right to Service. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving the Participant any right to be retained, in any position, as an employee, consultant, or director of any Company Entity or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the right of any Company Entity to remove, terminate, or discharge the Participant at any time for any reason whatsoever.

(g) Unfunded Plan. The Award of PSUs is unfunded and the Participant shall be considered an unsecured creditor of the Company with respect to the Company's obligations, if any, to issue Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement, and no action taken pursuant to its provisions, shall create or be construed to create a trust of any kind or a fiduciary relationship between the Participant and any Company Entity or any other Person.

(h) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Grant Notice and the Plan contain the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter contained herein and supersede all prior communications, representations, and negotiations with respect thereto.

(i) Bound by the Plan. By signing this Agreement, the Participant acknowledges that the Participant has received a copy of the Plan and has had an opportunity to review the Plan and agrees to be bound by all the terms and provisions of the Plan. In the event of any conflict between the Plan and this Agreement, this Agreement shall control.

(j) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without regard to principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of laws of any other jurisdiction that could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

(k) Business Days. If any time period for giving notice or taking action hereunder expires on a day that is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday in the state in which the Company's principal executive office is located, the time period shall be automatically extended to the business day immediately following such Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

(l) Headings. The headings of the Sections hereof are provided for convenience only and are not to serve as a basis for interpretation or construction, and shall not constitute a part, of this Agreement.

(m) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(n) Section 409A of the Code. It is intended that the PSUs granted pursuant to this Agreement and the provisions of this Agreement be exempt from or comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code.

(o) Consent to Electronic Delivery; Electronic Signature. In lieu of receiving documents in paper format, the Participant agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to accept electronic delivery of any documents that the Company may be required to deliver (including, without limitation, prospectuses, prospectus supplements, grant or award notifications and agreements, account statements, annual and quarterly reports and all other forms of communications) in connection with this and any other Award made or offered by the Company. Electronic delivery may be via a Company electronic mail system or by reference to a location on a Company intranet or third party website to which the Participant has access. The Participant hereby consents to any and all procedures the Company has established or may establish for an electronic signature system for delivery and acceptance of any such documents that the Company may be required to deliver, and agrees that the Participant's electronic signature is the same as, and shall have the same force and effect as, the Participant's manual signature.

(p) Forfeiture and Clawback Provisions. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Grant Notice or the Plan, the PSUs (including any proceeds, gains or other economic benefit actually or constructively received with respect thereto) shall, unless otherwise determined by the Committee or required by applicable law, be subject to the provisions of any clawback policy implemented by the Company or otherwise required by applicable law, whether or not such clawback policy was in place at the Date of Grant and whether or not the PSUs are vested. In addition, if the Participant incurs a Termination of Directorship for Cause (or, following a Termination, the Company discovers that grounds for Termination for Cause existed at the time of Termination), then the Participant shall automatically and immediately forfeit to the Company for no consideration: (i) all of the PSUs (whether vested or not vested), (ii) all Shares previously received on settlement of the PSUs (the "Award Shares") held by the Participant and, (iii) in the event the Participant has sold or otherwise disposed of any Award Shares, the amount of any cash proceeds received from such sale or disposition, in each case, effective as of the date of such Termination for Cause (or determination that grounds for termination for Cause existed, as applicable).

RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT

THIS RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT (this " Agreement") is entered into by and between the Company and the Participant as of the Date of Grant set forth in the Grant Notice to which this Agreement is attached. Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan.

WHEREAS, the Committee has determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to grant the Participant RSUs on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan.

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the covenants of the parties contained in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, for themselves and their successors and assigns, hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of RSUs.

(a) Grant. The Company hereby grants to the Participant the number of RSUs set forth in the Grant Notice on the terms and conditions set forth in the Grant Notice, this Agreement, and the Plan.

(b) Incorporation by Reference. The provisions of the Plan are incorporated herein by reference. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, this Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of the Plan.

2. Vesting.

(a) Normal Vesting. Subject to Sections 2(b) and 2(c), the RSUs shall vest in accordance with the vesting schedule set forth in the Grant Notice.

(b) Termination of Directorship. If the Participant incurs a Termination of Directorship for any reason, then all unvested RSUs shall be immediately forfeited and cancelled for no consideration.

(c) Change in Control. All unvested RSUs shall fully vest as of the occurrence of a Change in Control, subject to the Participant not incurring a Termination of Directorship prior to the Change in Control.

3. Settlement. Subject to Section 5, the Company shall, at the discretion of the Committee, issue either one Share or cash in an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of one Share, or any combination thereof, to the Participant for each RSU that becomes vested hereunder by the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the date on which such RSU becomes vested.

4. Dividend Equivalents; Rights as Member. Until such time as the RSUs have been settled pursuant to Section 3, the Participant shall have no rights as a holder of Common Stock, including, without limitation, any right to dividends or other distributions or any right to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company declares any cash dividend the record date of which occurs while the RSUs are outstanding, the Participant shall be credited a dividend equivalent in an amount equal to the dividend that would have been paid on the Common Stock underlying the RSUs had such shares been outstanding on such record date. Any such dividend equivalents shall be subject to the same vesting conditions applicable to the underlying RSU with respect to which they accrue, and shall, if the underlying RSU vests, be paid by the earlier of (a) the consummation of a Change in Control and (b) 30 days following the applicable vesting date.

5. Taxes. The Company shall have the power and the right to deduct or withhold, or require the Participant to remit to the Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy any federal, state, local, and foreign taxes of any kind that the Company, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to be withheld or remitted to comply with the Code and/or any other applicable law, rule, or regulation with respect to the RSUs and, if the Participant fails to do so, the Company may refuse to issue or transfer any Common Stock or dividend equivalents otherwise required to be issued pursuant to this Agreement. Unless as otherwise agreed to by the parties hereto, any withholding obligation with regard to the Participant (up to the maximum statutory rate) may be satisfied by reducing the number of Shares otherwise deliverable to Participant hereunder.

6. Non-Transferability. The RSUs may not, at any time prior to being settled, be assigned, alienated, pledged, attached, sold, or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the Participant, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. Any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer, or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Company.

7. Restrictions on Transfer of Award Shares . The Participant agrees not to sell, contract to sell, grant any option to purchase, transfer the economic risk of ownership in, make any short sale of, pledge or otherwise transfer or dispose of, any interest in any Shares received upon settlement of the RSUs (each, an "Award Share") for the period ending on the earlier of (a) a Change in Control and (b) the third anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that any Award Share will be subject to legends, stop transfer orders or any other similar restriction that the Company deems reasonably necessary to effectuate the provisions set forth in this Section 7.

8. Securities Law Representations. The Participant acknowledges that the Common Stock underlying the RSUs is not being registered under the Securities Act, based, in part, on reliance upon an exemption from registration under Rule 701 or Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act and a comparable exemption from qualification under applicable state securities laws, as each may be amended from time to time. The Participant, by executing this Agreement, hereby makes the following representations to the Company and acknowledges that the Company's reliance on federal and state securities law exemptions from registration and qualification is predicated, in substantial part, upon the accuracy of these representations:

(a) Investment Purpose. The Participant is acquiring the RSUs solely for the Participant's own account, for investment purposes only, and not with a view or an intent to sell, or to offer for resale in connection with any unregistered distribution, all or any portion of Shares underlying the RSUs within the meaning of the Securities Act and/or any applicable state securities laws.

(b) Knowledge. The Participant has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the RSUs. The Participant has been furnished with, and/or has access to, such information as the Participant considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to acquire the Common Stock underlying the RSUs. In evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Common Stock underlying the RSUs, however, the Participant has and will rely only upon the advice of the Participant's own legal counsel, tax advisors, and/or investment advisors.

(c) Risk of Loss. The Participant is aware that any value the RSUs may have depends on vesting and certain other factors, and that any investment in Common Stock of a privately held corporation such as the Company is non-marketable, nontransferable, and could require capital to be invested for an indefinite period of time, possibly without return, and at substantial risk of loss.

(d) Resales. The Participant understands that the RSUs will be characterized as "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws and that, under such laws and applicable regulations, such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances, including in accordance with the conditions of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, as presently in effect. The Participant represents that the Participant is familiar with Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act and the applicable state securities law.

(e) Restrictions. The Participant has read and understands the restrictions, limitations, and the Company's rights set forth in the Plan and this Agreement that will be imposed on the RSUs and any Common Stock issued in respect of the RSUs.

(f) Non-Reliance. The Participant has not relied upon any oral representation made to the Participant relating to the RSUs or the Common Stock or upon information presented in any promotional meeting or material relating to the RSUs.

(g) Legends. The Participant understands and acknowledges that (i) any certificate evidencing the Common Stock (or evidencing any other securities issued with respect thereto pursuant to any stock split, stock dividend, merger, or other form of reorganization or recapitalization) when issued shall bear any legends that may be required by applicable federal and state securities laws, this Agreement, the Plan, or any stockholders' agreement that may be in place from time to time; and (ii) the Company has no obligation to register the Common Stock or file any registration statement under federal or state securities laws. The Committee reserves the right to account for Common Stock through book-entry or other electronic means rather than the issuance of stock certificates.

9. Miscellaneous.

(a) Confidentiality. The Participant agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement, unless and until such terms have been disclosed publicly other than through a breach by the Participant of this covenant. This provision shall not prohibit the Participant from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Participant's attorneys, financial advisors, or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal, financial, or tax advice or as otherwise required by law.

(b) Compliance with Laws. The grant of RSUs and the issuance of Common Stock hereunder shall be subject to, and shall comply with, any applicable requirements of any foreign and U.S. federal and state securities laws, rules, and regulations (including, without limitation, the provisions of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, and in each case any respective rules and regulations promulgated thereunder) and any other law, rule, regulation, or exchange requirement applicable thereto.

(c) Successors. The terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns, and of the Participant and the beneficiaries, executors, administrators, and heirs of the Participant.

(d) No Waiver; Amendment. No waiver of any right hereunder by any party shall operate as a waiver of any other right, or as a waiver of the same right with respect to any subsequent occasion for its exercise, or as a waiver of any right to damages. No waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other breach or a waiver of the continuation of the same breach. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument executed by the Participant and the Company.

(e) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and each other provision of this Agreement shall be severable and enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

(f) No Right to Service. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving the Participant any right to be retained, in any position, as an employee, consultant, or director of any Company Entity or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the right of any Company Entity to remove, terminate, or discharge the Participant at any time for any reason whatsoever.

(g) Unfunded Plan. The Award of RSUs is unfunded and the Participant shall be considered an unsecured creditor of the Company with respect to the Company's obligations, if any, to issue Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement, and no action taken pursuant to its provisions, shall create or be construed to create a trust of any kind or a fiduciary relationship between the Participant and any Company Entity or any other Person.

(h) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Grant Notice and the Plan contain the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter contained herein and supersede all prior communications, representations, and negotiations with respect thereto.

(i) Bound by the Plan. By signing this Agreement, the Participant acknowledges that the Participant has received a copy of the Plan and has had an opportunity to review the Plan and agrees to be bound by all the terms and provisions of the Plan. In the event of any conflict between the Plan and this Agreement, this Agreement shall control.

(j) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without regard to principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of laws of any other jurisdiction that could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

(k) Business Days. If any time period for giving notice or taking action hereunder expires on a day that is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday in the state in which the Company's principal executive office is located, the time period shall be automatically extended to the business day immediately following such Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

(l) Headings. The headings of the Sections hereof are provided for convenience only and are not to serve as a basis for interpretation or construction, and shall not constitute a part, of this Agreement.

(m) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(n) Section 409A of the Code. It is intended that the RSUs granted pursuant to this Agreement and the provisions of this Agreement be exempt from or comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code.

(o) Consent to Electronic Delivery; Electronic Signature. In lieu of receiving documents in paper format, the Participant agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to accept electronic delivery of any documents that the Company may be required to deliver (including, without limitation, prospectuses, prospectus supplements, grant or award notifications and agreements, account statements, annual and quarterly reports and all other forms of communications) in connection with this and any other Award made or offered by the Company. Electronic delivery may be via a Company electronic mail system or by reference to a location on a Company intranet or third party website to which the Participant has access. The Participant hereby consents to any and all procedures the Company has established or may establish for an electronic signature system for delivery and acceptance of any such documents that the Company may be required to deliver, and agrees that the Participant's electronic signature is the same as, and shall have the same force and effect as, the Participant's manual signature.

(p) Forfeiture and Clawback Provisions. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Grant Notice or the Plan, the RSUs (including any proceeds, gains or other economic benefit actually or constructively received with respect thereto) shall, unless otherwise determined by the Committee or required by applicable law, be subject to the provisions of any clawback policy implemented by the Company or otherwise required by applicable law, whether or not such clawback policy was in place at the Date of Grant and whether or not the RSUs are vested.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Talen Energy Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Mark A. McFarland ("Employee") effective as of May 17, 2023 (the "Effective Date").

1. Employment. During the Employment Period (as defined below), the Company shall employ Employee, and Employee shall serve, as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and in such other position or positions as may be assigned from time to time by the board of directors (the "Board") of the Company. Employee shall be appointed as a member of the Board effective as of the beginning of the Term (as defined below), and during the Employment Period will be nominated by the Board for re-election upon the expiration of his term as a director. In addition, if requested by the Company, Employee shall serve as an officer or member of the board of directors of any subsidiaries or affiliates of the Company without additional compensation.

2. Duties and Responsibilities of Employee.

(a) During the Employment Period, Employee shall actively engage in the business and affairs of the Company (together with its direct and indirect subsidiaries, the "Company Group") as may be requested by the Board from time to time, devote such amount of Employee's business time and attention as is reasonably necessary to manage the business and affairs of the Company, which amount of time will constitute substantially all of Employee's business time. Employee's duties and responsibilities shall include those normally incidental to the position(s) identified in Section 1, as well as such additional duties as may be assigned to Employee by the Board from time to time, which duties and responsibilities may include providing services to other members of the Company Group in addition to the Company. Employee may, without violating this Section 2(a), (i) as a passive investment, own publicly traded securities in such form or manner as will not require any services by Employee in the operation of the entities in which such securities are owned; (ii) engage in charitable and civic activities; (iii) with the prior written consent of the Board, engage in other personal and passive investment activities; (iv) serve on the board of directors at California Resources Corporation as a non-employee director; and (v) with the prior written consent of the Board, serve on the board of directors of one other for-profit corporation, so long as such engagements, ownership, interests or activities do not interfere with Employee's ability to fulfill Employee's duties and responsibilities under this Agreement and are not inconsistent with Employee's obligations to any member of the Company Group or competitive with the business of any member of the Company Group.

(b) Employee hereby represents and warrants that Employee is not the subject of, or a party to, any non-competition or non-solicitation covenant, non-disclosure agreement, or any other agreement, obligation, restriction or understanding that would prohibit Employee from executing this Agreement or fully performing each of Employee's duties and responsibilities hereunder, or would in any manner, directly or indirectly, limit or affect any of the duties and responsibilities that may now or in the future be assigned to Employee hereunder. Employee expressly acknowledges and agrees that Employee is strictly prohibited from using or disclosing any confidential information belonging to any prior employer in the course of performing services for any member of the Company Group, and Employee promises that Employee shall not do so. Employee shall not introduce documents or other materials containing confidential information of any prior employer to the premises or property (including computers and computer systems) of any member of the Company Group.

(c) Employee owes each member of the Company Group fiduciary duties, and the obligations described in this Agreement are in addition to, and not in lieu of, the obligations Employee owes each member of the Company Group under statutory and common law.

3. Compensation.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company shall pay to Employee an annualized base salary of $1,125,000 (the "Base Salary") in consideration for Employee's services under this Agreement, payable in substantially equal installments in conformity with the Company's customary payroll practices for similarly situated employees as may exist from time to time, but no less frequently than twice per month. The Base Salary shall be subject to annual review by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") and may be increased, but not decreased, at the discretion of the Compensation Committee following consultation with the other independent members of the Board.

(b) Annual Bonus. Employee shall be eligible for bonus compensation for calendar year 2023 and each subsequent complete calendar year that Employee is employed by the Company hereunder (the "Annual Bonus"). The target Annual Bonus for each such calendar year (the "Bonus Year") shall be 135% of Employee's Base Salary in effect as of the first day of the Bonus Year (or, with respect to calendar year 2023, in effect on the Effective Date), and the actual Annual Bonus for a Bonus Year may range from 0% to 200% of such target Annual Bonus depending on the level of achievement of the performance targets as determined by the Compensation Committee for the Bonus Year. The performance targets that must be achieved in order to be eligible for certain bonus levels shall be established by the Compensation Committee annually, in its sole discretion, and communicated to Employee within the first one-hundred twenty (120) days of the applicable Bonus Year. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Annual Bonus that Employee shall be eligible to receive for the 2023 calendar year (the "2023 Bonus") shall be prorated, calculated based on the Annual Bonus that Employee would have received based on actual performance multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days during the 2023 calendar year that Employee was employed (or otherwise provided full-time services prior to the Effective Date) and the denominator of which is the total number of calendar days during the 2023 calendar year. Each Annual Bonus (including the 2023 Bonus), if any, shall be paid as soon as administratively feasible after the Compensation Committee certifies whether the applicable performance targets for the applicable Bonus Year have been achieved, but in no event later than March 15 following the end of such Bonus Year. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3(b) to the contrary, but subject to Section 8, no Annual Bonus (including the 2023 Bonus), if any, nor any portion thereof, shall be payable for any Bonus Year unless Employee remains continuously employed by the Company from the Effective Date through the date on which such Annual Bonus is paid.

(c) Long-Term Incentive Awards.

(i) As soon as practicable (but no later than sixty (60) days) following the Effective Date (the "Date of Grant"), the Board shall establish a Long Term Incentive Plan (such plan, or any successor plan, the "LTIP") and grant to Employee thereunder: (i) an award of restricted stock units (the "RSUs") and (ii) an award of performance stock units (the "PSUs," and collectively with the RSUs, the "Emergence Grant"). The Emergence Grant will be made with respect to a number of shares of Company common stock having a value, based on the equity value implied by the Company's plan enterprise value determined as of the effective date of its Plan of Reorganization pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as determined by the Board in good faith, equal to $23,625,000. The Emergence Grant will be allocated between RSUs and PSUs on a basis determined by the Board in consultation with Employee. The RSUs shall generally vest in one-third increments on each of the first three (3) anniversaries of the Date of Grant, provided Employee remains continuously employed by the Company or an affiliate of the Company through each such vesting date. The PSUs shall vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Date of Grant, subject to Employee's continuous employment and the achievement of the performance metrics determined by the Board in consultation with Employee and set forth in the applicable grant agreements.

(ii) Provided that Employee is employed by the Company on the applicable date of grant, Employee shall be eligible to receive an annual grant under the LTIP with a grant date target value not less than 700% of Employee's Base Salary as in effect on the applicable date of grant of such award on such terms and conditions as the Board and the Compensation Committee shall determine from time to time. All awards granted to Employee under the LTIP shall be subject to and governed by the terms and provisions of the LTIP as in effect from time to time and the award agreements evidencing such awards. For the avoidance of doubt, after the receipt of the Emergence Grant, Employee shall not receive any additional annual grants in the calendar years of 2023, 2024 or 2025. Employee will resume receipt of annual grants under the LTIP in the normal course in calendar year 2026.

4. Term of Employment. The term of Employee's employment under this Agreement shall be for the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term"). The parties may, but shall not be required to, mutually agree to extend the Term for additional one (1)-year periods. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Employee's employment pursuant to this Agreement may be terminated at any time in accordance with Section 8. The period from the Effective Date through the expiration of this Agreement or, if sooner, the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Agreement, regardless of the time or reason for such termination, shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period."

5. Business Expenses. Subject to Section 27, the Company shall reimburse Employee for Employee's reasonable out-of-pocket business-related expenses actually incurred in the performance of Employee's duties hereunder during the Employment Period so long as Employee timely submits all documentation for such expenses, as required by Company policy in effect from time to time. Any such reimbursement of expenses shall be made by the Company upon or as soon as practicable following receipt of such documentation (but in any event not later than the close of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which the expense is incurred by Employee). In no event shall any reimbursement be made to Employee for any expenses incurred after the date of Employee's termination of employment with the Company.

6. Signing Bonus. The Company will pay to Employee a one-time signing bonus of $2,000,000 (the "Signing Bonus") payable in two installments, which shall each comprise fifty percent (50%) of the Signing Bonus, in cash on each of the first two (2) anniversaries of the Effective Date provided Employee remains continuously employed by the Company or an affiliate of the Company through each such payment date.

7. Benefits.

(a) During the Employment Period, Employee shall be eligible to participate in the same benefit plans and programs in which other similarly situated Company employees are eligible to participate, subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plans and programs in effect from time to time. The Company shall not, however, by reason of this Section 7, be obligated to institute, maintain, or refrain from changing, amending, or discontinuing, any such plan or policy, so long as such changes are similarly applicable to similarly situated Company employees generally.

(b) Subject to Section 27, the Company shall reimburse Employee for relocation expenses not to exceed $25,000 for his relocation to the Houston, Texas metropolitan area that are mutually agreeable to Employee and the Company, so long as Employee submits all documentation for such reimbursement within thirty (30) days following the date the applicable expense is incurred by Employee. Any reimbursement of expenses shall be made by the Company upon or as soon as practicable following receipt of supporting documentation (but in any event not later the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expenses were incurred by Employee).

(c) The Company shall reimburse Employee up to $15,000 for legal fees incurred in connection with the review of this Agreement.

(d) The Company shall cover Employee under directors' and officers' liability insurance from the Effective Date, through the Term, and, while potential liability exists, after the Term or the termination of Employee's employment with the Company, on the most favorable terms as provided to any other director or executive officer of the Company.

8. Termination of Employment.

(a) Company's Right to Terminate Employee's Employment for Cause . The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment hereunder at any time for Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean Employee's commission of an act or omission, or Employee causing the Company or any other member of the Company Group to commit an act or omission, that constitutes:

(i) Employee's fraud or misconduct;

(ii) Employee's violation of applicable law in connection with the management, operation or reputation of the Company or any other member of the Company Group that results in (or could reasonably be expected to result in) material injury to the Company or any other member of the Company Group;

(iii) Employee's material breach of this Agreement or any other written agreement between Employee and one or more members of the Company Group, including Employee's material breach of any representation, warranty or covenant made under any such agreement;

(iv) Employee's act of theft, embezzlement or misappropriation of the property of the Company or any other member of the Company Group, in each case, that results in (or could reasonably be expected to result in) material financial or reputational harm to the Company or any other member of the Company Group;

(v) Employee's breach of his duty of loyalty to the Company or violation of the Company's policies (to the extent such policies have been clearly communicated in writing to Employee), including the Company's code of conduct and business ethics (or similar policies), anti-harassment policy, anti-retaliation, or policies related to age, sex or other prohibited discrimination in the workplace; or

(vi) Employee's conviction or plea of nolo contendere to a felony or crime involving moral turpitude.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no determination of "Cause" may be made pursuant to Sections 8(a)(ii) or (iii) unless (1) Employee has been given written notice by the Board describing the specific alleged action(s) or omission(s) that constitute "Cause," and (2) Employee has failed to cure such acts or omissions within thirty (30) days of such notice from the Board. Upon the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Section 8(a), the Company shall pay to Employee (A) all earned and unpaid Base Salary as of the date of the termination of Employee's employment with the Company, (B) reimbursement for all incurred but unreimbursed expenses for which Employee is entitled to reimbursement in accordance with Section 5 and Sections 7(b), (c), and (d), and (C) benefits to which Employee is entitled under the terms of any applicable benefit plan or program described in Section 7(a) (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits"). In addition, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event of a termination of Employee's employment for Cause.

(b) Company's Right to Terminate for Convenience. The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment for convenience at any time and for any reason, or no reason at all, upon written notice to Employee, in which event Employee shall receive the compensation and benefits described in Section 8(f).

(c) Employee's Right to Terminate for Good Reason. Employee shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment with the Company at any time for Good Reason, in which event Employee shall receive the compensation and benefits described in Section 8(f). For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean any of the following occurring without Employee's consent:

(i) a material adverse change in Employee's title, duties or responsibilities (including reporting responsibilities);

(ii) a material reduction in Employee's Base Salary;

(iii) a relocation of Employee's primary work location to a distance of more than 50 miles from the Houston, Texas metropolitan area; or

(iv) a material breach by the Company of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

The Company and Employee agree that Good Reason shall not exist unless and until Employee provides the Company with written notice of the acts alleged to constitute Good Reason within ninety (90) days of Employee's knowledge of the occurrence of such event, and Company fails to cure such acts within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice. Employee must terminate employment within sixty (60) days following the expiration of such cure period for the termination to be on account of Good Reason.

(d) Death or Disability. Upon the death or Disability of Employee, Employee's employment with the Company shall automatically terminate and the Company shall pay to Employee or Employee's estate, as applicable, (i) the Accrued Benefits, (ii) any earned and unpaid Annual Bonus for the calendar year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurs (which amount shall be paid within sixty (60) days following the date of such termination of employment but in no event later than March 15 of the year following the Bonus Year to which such Annual Bonus relates), and (iii) an Annual Bonus for the year in which such termination of employment occurs based on actual performance results for the applicable Bonus Year and prorated for the period of days beginning on January 1 (or, if later the Effective Date) and ending on the date of such termination of employment relative to the number of days in the applicable Bonus Year. The prorated Annual Bonus described in clause (iii) of the preceding sentence, if any, shall be paid in cash at the same time corresponding bonuses are paid to similarly situated employees of the Company, but in no event later than March 15 following the year in which such termination of employment occurs. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Disability" shall exist if, as determined in the reasonable opinion of a licensed physician, Employee is unable to perform the essential functions of Employee's position (after accounting for reasonable accommodation, if applicable and required by applicable law), due to physical or mental impairment, that continues for a period in excess of ninety (90) consecutive days or one hundred-eighty (180) days, whether or not consecutive (or for any longer period as may be required by applicable law), in any twelve (12)-month period.

(e) Employee's Right to Terminate for Convenience. In addition to Employee's right to terminate Employee's employment for Good Reason, Employee shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment with the Company for convenience at any time and for any other reason, or no reason at all, upon sixty (60) days' advance written notice to the Company; provided, however, that if Employee has provided notice to the Company of Employee's termination of employment, the Company may determine, in its sole discretion, that such termination shall be effective on any date prior to the effective date of termination provided in such notice (and, if such earlier date is so required, then it shall not change the basis for Employee's termination of employment nor be construed or interpreted as a termination of employment pursuant to Section 8(b)). Upon the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Section 8(e), the Company shall pay to Employee the Accrued Benefits.

(f) Effect of Termination of Employment without Cause or for Good Reason.

(i) If Employee's employment hereunder is terminated prior to the expiration of the Term by the Company without Cause pursuant to Section 8(b) or is terminated by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Section 8(c), then the Company shall pay Employee the Accrued Benefits and any earned and unpaid Annual Bonus for the calendar year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurs (which amount shall be paid within sixty (60) days following the date of such termination of employment but in no event later than March 15 of the year following the Bonus Year to which such Annual Bonus relates) and, so long as (and only if) Employee: (x) executes on or before the Release Expiration Date (as defined below), and does not revoke within any time provided by the Company to do so, a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees (the "Release"), which Release shall release each member of the Company Group and their respective affiliates, and the foregoing entities' respective shareholders, members, partners, officers, managers, directors, fiduciaries, employees, representatives, agents and benefit plans (and fiduciaries of such plans) from any and all claims, including any and all causes of action arising out of Employee's employment with the Company and any other member of the Company Group or the termination of such employment, but excluding all claims to severance payments Employee may have under this Section 8(f); and (y) abides by the terms of each of Sections 9, 10, and 11 then:

(A.) The Company shall make severance payments to Employee in a total amount equal to (i) twenty-four (24) months' worth of Employee's Base Salary and (ii) two (2) times the target Annual Bonus, where each are determined as of the year in which such termination occurs (such total severance payments being referred to as the "Severance Payment"). The Severance Payment will be divided into substantially equal installments paid over the twenty-four (24)-month period following the date on which Employee's employment terminates (the "Termination Date"). On the Company's first regularly scheduled pay date that is on or after the date that is sixty (60) days after the Termination Date (the "First Payment Date"), the Company shall pay to Employee, without interest, a number of such installments equal to the number of such installments that would have been paid during the period beginning on the Termination Date and ending on the First Payment Date had the installments been paid on the Company's regularly scheduled pay dates on or following the Termination Date, and each of the remaining installments shall be paid on the Company's regularly scheduled pay dates during the remainder of such twenty-four (24)-month period; provided, however, that to the extent, if any, that the aggregate amount of the installments of the Severance Payment that would otherwise be paid pursuant to the preceding provisions of this Section 8(f)(i) after March 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Termination Date occurs (the "Applicable March 15") exceeds the maximum exemption amount under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii)(A), then such excess shall be paid to Employee in a lump sum on the Applicable March 15 (or the first Business Day (as defined below) preceding the Applicable March 15 if the Applicable March 15 is not a Business Day) and the installments of the Severance Payment payable after the Applicable March 15 shall be reduced by such excess (beginning with the installment first payable after the Applicable March 15 and continuing with the next succeeding installment until the aggregate reduction equals such excess). "Business Day" shall mean any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in Houston, Texas, are authorized or required by law to be closed.

(B.) One-hundred percent (100%) of the RSUs under Employee's Emergence Grant shall immediately become nonforfeitable, and one- hundred percent (100%) of the PSUs under Employee's Emergence Grant shall become vested and remain outstanding during the remainder of the applicable performance period, and shall be eligible to become earned based on the level of achievement of the applicable performance goal.

(C.) One-hundred percent (100%) of the Signing Bonus shall immediately vest and, to the extent not already paid, shall be payable in cash in a lump sum on the date sixty (60) days following termination of employment.

The payments and benefits described in clauses (A), (B), and (C) above are collectively referred to herein as the "Termination Benefits."

(ii) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Termination Benefits (and any portions thereof) shall not be payable if Employee's employment hereunder terminates upon the expiration of the Term.

(iii) If the Release is not executed and returned to the Company on or before the Release Expiration Date, and the required revocation period has not fully expired without revocation of the Release by Employee, then Employee shall not be entitled to any portion of the Termination Benefits. As used herein, the "Release Expiration Date" is that date that is twenty-one (21) days following the date upon which the Company delivers the Release to Employee (which shall occur no later than seven (7) days after the Termination Date) or, in the event that such termination of employment is "in connection with an exit incentive or other employment termination program" (as such phrase is defined in the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967), the date that is forty-five (45) days following such delivery date.

(g) After-Acquired Evidence. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines, in good faith, that Employee is eligible to receive the Termination Benefits pursuant to Section 8(f) but, after such determination, the Company subsequently acquires evidence or determines that: (i) Employee has failed to abide by the terms of Sections 9, 10, or 11; or (ii) a Cause condition existed prior to the Termination Date that, had the Company been fully aware of such condition, would have given the Company the right to terminate Employee's employment pursuant to Section 8(a), then the Company shall have the right to cease the payment of any future installments of the Termination Benefits and Employee shall promptly return to the Company all installments of the Termination Benefits received by Employee prior to the date that the Company determines that the conditions of this Section 8(g) have been satisfied. In addition, the provisions of the last sentence of Section 8(a) shall apply, and, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event Employee fails to abide by the terms of Sections 9, 10 or 11.

9. Disclosures. Promptly (and in any event, within three (3) Business Days) upon becoming aware of (a) any actual or potential Conflict of Interest or (b) any lawsuit, claim or arbitration filed against or involving Employee or any trust or vehicle owned or controlled by Employee, in each case, Employee shall disclose such actual or potential Conflict of Interest or such lawsuit, claim or arbitration to the Board. A "Conflict of Interest" shall exist when Employee engages in, or plans to engage in, any activities, associations, or interests that conflict with, or create an appearance of a conflict with, Employee's duties, responsibilities, authorities, or obligations for or to any member of the Company Group.

10. Confidentiality. In the course of Employee's employment with the Company and the performance of Employee's duties on behalf of the Company Group hereunder, Employee will be provided with, and will have access to, Confidential Information (as defined below). As a condition of Employee's receipt and access to such Confidential Information and in exchange for other valuable consideration provided hereunder, and as a condition of Employee's employment hereunder, Employee shall comply with this Section 10.

(a) Both during the Employment Period and thereafter, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or by directive of the Board, Employee shall not disclose any Confidential Information to any person or entity and shall not use any Confidential Information except for the benefit of the Company Group. Employee shall follow all Company policies and protocols regarding the security of all documents and other materials containing Confidential Information (regardless of the medium on which Confidential Information is stored). The covenants of this Section 10(a) shall apply to all Confidential Information, whether now known or later to become known to Employee during the period that Employee is employed by or affiliated with or providing services to the Company or any other member of the Company Group.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of Section 10(a) to the contrary, Employee may make the following disclosures and uses of Confidential Information:

(i) disclosures to other employees of a member of the Company Group who have a need to know the information in connection with the businesses of the Company Group;

(ii) disclosures to third parties when, in the reasonable and good faith belief of Employee, such disclosure is in connection with Employee's performance of Employee's duties under this Agreement and in the best interest of the Company Group;

(iii) disclosures and uses that are approved in writing by the Board; or

(iv) disclosures to a person or entity that has (x) been retained by a member of the Company Group to provide services to one or more members of the Company Group and (y) agreed in writing to abide by the terms of a confidentiality agreement.

(c) Upon the expiration of the Employment Period, and at any other time upon request of the Company, Employee shall promptly surrender and deliver to the Company all documents (including electronically stored information) and all copies thereof and all other materials of any nature containing or pertaining to all Confidential Information and any other Company Group property (including any Company Group-issued computer, mobile device or other equipment) in Employee's possession, custody or control and Employee shall not retain any such documents or other materials or property of the Company Group. Within five (5) days of any such request, Employee shall certify to the Company in writing that all such documents, materials and property have been returned to the Company.

(d) All trade secrets, non-public information, designs, ideas, concepts, improvements, product developments, discoveries and inventions, whether patentable or not, that are conceived, made, developed or acquired by or disclosed to Employee, individually or in conjunction with others, during the period that Employee is employed by the Company or any other member of the Company Group (whether during business hours or otherwise and whether on the Company's premises or otherwise), that relate to any member of the Company Group's businesses or properties, products or services (including all such information relating to corporate opportunities, operations, future plans, methods of doing business, business plans, strategies for developing business and market share, research, financial and sales data, pricing terms, evaluations, opinions, interpretations, acquisition prospects, the identity of customers or acquisition targets or their requirements, the identity of key contacts within customers' organizations or within the organization of acquisition prospects, or marketing and merchandising techniques, prospective names and marks) is defined as "Confidential Information." Moreover, all documents, videotapes, written presentations, brochures, drawings, memoranda, notes, records, files, correspondence, manuals, models, specifications, computer programs, e-mail, voice mail, electronic databases, maps, drawings, architectural renditions, models and all other writings or materials of any type including or embodying any of such information, ideas, concepts, improvements, discoveries, inventions and other similar forms of expression are and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company or other applicable member of the Company Group and be subject to the same restrictions on disclosure applicable to all Confidential Information pursuant to this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information shall not include any information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure or wrongful act of Employee or any of Employee's agents; (ii) was available to Employee on a non-confidential basis before its disclosure by a member of the Company Group; or (iii) becomes available to Employee on a non-confidential basis from a source other than a member of the Company Group; provided, however, that such source is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other obligation with respect to confidentiality to, a member of the Company Group.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or restrict Employee from lawfully: (i) initiating communications directly with, cooperating with, providing information to, causing information to be provided to, or otherwise assisting in an investigation by, any governmental authority regarding a possible violation of any law; (ii) responding to any inquiry or legal process directed to Employee from any such governmental authority; (iii) testifying, participating or otherwise assisting in any action or proceeding by any such governmental authority relating to a possible violation of law; or (iv) making any other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of any applicable law. Additionally, pursuant to the federal Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, an individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that: (A) is made (1) in confidence to a federal, state or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney and (2) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; (B) is made to the individual's attorney in relation to a lawsuit for retaliation against the individual for reporting a suspected violation of law; or (C) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Nothing in this Agreement requires Employee to obtain prior authorization before engaging in any conduct described in this paragraph, or to notify the Company that Employee has engaged in any such conduct.

1 1 . Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation. The Employee acknowledges that (i) the Employee performs services of a unique nature for the Company that are irreplaceable, and that the Employee's performance of such services to a competing business will result in irreparable harm to the Company, (ii) the Employee has had and will continue to have access to Confidential Information which, if disclosed, would unfairly and inappropriately assist in competition against the Company Group, (iii) in the course of the Employee's employment by a competitor, the Employee would inevitably use or disclose such Confidential Information, (iv) the Company and Group has substantial relationships with their Customers and the Employee has had and will continue to have access to these Customers, (v) the Employee has received and will receive specialized training from the Company Group, and (vi) the Employee has generated and will continue to generate goodwill for the Company Group in the course of the Employee's employment. Accordingly, the Employee agrees as that for the duration of Employee's employment and for one (1) year thereafter, Employee shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) own, manage, operate, control, be employed by (whether as an employee, consultant, independent contractor or otherwise, and whether or not for compensation) or render services to any person, firm, corporation or other entity, in whatever form, engaged in competition with the Company Group on the Termination Date, which includes the business of merchant power production, including nuclear power generation, or any business material to the Company which the Company has taken substantial steps, on or prior to such date, to engage in, in any geographic region in the United States where the Company conducts or has taken substantial steps to conduct business prior to the Termination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prohibit the Employee from being a passive owner of not more than three percent (3%) of the equity securities of a publicly traded corporation engaged in a business that is in competition with the Company Group, so long as the Employee has no active participation in the business of such corporation. In addition, the provisions of this Section 11(a) shall not be violated by the Employee commencing employment with a subsidiary, division or unit of any entity that engages in a business in competition with the Company Group so long as the Employee and such subsidiary, division or unit does not engage in a business in competition with the Company Group.

(b) solicit, induce or attempt to induce any employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company or any member of the Company Group to terminate his or her employment or contracting relationship with such entity, or to become an employee or independent contractor of any other Person or hire or retain any such employee, agent or individual, or take any action to materially assist or aid any other Person in identifying, hiring or soliciting any such employee, agent or individual (any employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company shall be deemed covered by this Section 11(b) while so employed or retained and for a period of six (6) months thereafter);

(c) solicit, induce or attempt to induce any Customer, supplier or other business relation of the Company Group to cease doing or reduce the amount of its business with such entity or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such Customer, supplier or other business relation and such entity; or

(d) interfere, or aid or induce any other person or entity in interfering, with the relationship between the Company Group and any of their respective vendors, joint venturers or licensors.

(e) Definitions. For the purposes of this Section 11, the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Customer" means any Person who or which: (a) purchased products or services from the Company Group prior to or during Employee's period of employment and who or which Employee was aware of or about which Employee had received Confidential Information; or (b) was called upon or solicited by the Company Group or any of their predecessors prior to or during the twelve (12) month period prior to the Termination Date, if Employee had direct or indirect contact with such Person as an employee of the Company Group or learned or became aware of such Person during Employee's employment with the Company Group.

(ii) "Person" means an individual, a partnership, a limited liability company, a corporation, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint venture, an unincorporated organization and a governmental entity or any department, agency or political subdivision thereof.

12. Ownership of Intellectual Property.

(a) Employee agrees that the Company shall own, and Employee shall (and hereby does) assign, all right, title and interest (including patent rights, copyrights, trade secret rights, mask work rights, trademark rights, and all other intellectual and industrial property rights of any sort throughout the world) relating to any and all inventions (whether or not patentable), discoveries, developments, improvements, innovations, works of authorship, mask works, designs, know-how, ideas, formulae, processes, techniques, data and information authored, created, contributed to, made or conceived or reduced to practice, in whole or in part, by Employee during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, whether or not registerable under U.S. law or the laws of other jurisdictions, that either (i) relate, at the time of conception, reduction to practice, creation, derivation or development, to any member of the Company Group's businesses or actual or anticipated research or development; or (ii) were developed on any amount of the Company's or any other member of the Company Group's time or with the use of any member of the Company Group's equipment, supplies, facilities or Confidential Information (all of the foregoing collectively referred to herein as "Company Intellectual Property"), and Employee shall promptly disclose all Company Intellectual Property to the Company in writing. To support Employee's disclosure obligation herein, Employee shall keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all Company Intellectual Property made by Employee (solely or jointly with others) during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group in such form as may be specified from time to time by the Company. These records shall be available to, and remain the sole property of, the Company at all times.

(b) All of Employee's works of authorship and associated copyrights created during the period in which Employee is employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group and in the scope of Employee's employment or engagement shall be deemed to be "works made for hire" within the meaning of the Copyright Act. To the extent any right, title and interest in and to Company Intellectual Property cannot be assigned by Employee to the Company, Employee shall grant, and does hereby grant, to the Company Group an exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import, export, reproduce, practice and otherwise commercialize such rights, title and interest.

(c) Employee recognizes that this Agreement will not be deemed to require assignment of any invention or intellectual property that Employee developed entirely on Employee's own time without using the equipment, supplies, facilities, trade secrets, or Confidential Information of any member of the Company Group. In addition, this Agreement does not apply to any invention that qualifies fully for protection from assignment to the Company under any specifically applicable state law or regulation.

(d) To the extent allowed by law, this Section applies to all rights that may be known as or referred to as "moral rights," "artist's rights," "droit moral," or the like, including without limitation those rights set forth in 17 U.S.C. §106A (collectively, "Moral Rights"). To the extent Employee retains any Moral Rights under applicable law, Employee hereby ratifies and consents to any action that may be taken with respect to such Moral Rights by or authorized by the Company or any member of the Company Group, and Employee hereby waives and agrees not to assert any Moral Rights with respect to such Moral Rights. Employee shall confirm any such ratifications, consents, waivers, and agreements from time to time as requested by the Company.

(e) All inventions (whether or not patentable), original works of authorship, designs, know-how, mask works, ideas, information, developments, improvements, and trade secrets of which Employee is the sole or joint author, creator, contributor, or inventor that were made or developed by Employee prior to Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, or in which Employee asserts any intellectual property right, and which are applicable to or relate in any way to the business, products, services, or demonstrably anticipated research and development or business of any member of the Company Group ("Prior Inventions") are listed on Exhibit A, and Employee represents that Exhibit A is a complete list of all such Prior Inventions. If no such list is attached, Employee hereby represents and warrants that there are no Prior Inventions, and Employee shall make no claim of any rights to any Prior Inventions. If, in the course of Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, Employee incorporates into the product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group a Prior Invention, the Company Group is hereby granted and will have a nonexclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license to make, have made, modify, use, import, export, offer for sale, sell and otherwise commercialize such Prior Invention as part of or in connection with such product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group.

(f) Employee shall perform, during and after the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, all acts deemed necessary or desirable by the Company to permit and assist each member of the Company Group, at the Company's expense, in obtaining and enforcing the full benefits, enjoyment, rights and title throughout the world in the Company Intellectual Property and Confidential Information assigned, to be assigned, or licensed to the Company under this Agreement. Such acts may include execution of documents and assistance or cooperation (i) in the filing, prosecution, registration, and memorialization of assignment of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, or other applications; (ii) in the enforcement of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, moral rights, trade secrets, or other proprietary rights; and (iii) in other legal proceedings related to the Company Intellectual Property or Confidential Information.

(g) In the event that the Company (or, as applicable, a member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to file, prosecute, register, or memorialize the assignment of any patent, copyright, mask work or other applications or to enforce any patent, copyright, mask work, moral right, trade secret or other proprietary right under any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property (including derivative works, improvements, renewals, extensions, continuations, divisionals, continuations in part, continuing patent applications, reissues, and reexaminations of such Company Intellectual Property), Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee, (i) to execute, file, prosecute, register and memorialize the assignment of any such application; (ii) to execute and file any documentation required for such enforcement; and (iii) to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the filing, prosecution, registration, memorialization of assignment, issuance, and enforcement of patents, copyrights, mask works, moral rights, trade secrets or other rights under the Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, all with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Employee.

(h) In the event that Employee enters into, on behalf of any member of the Company Group, any contracts or agreements relating to any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, Employee shall assign such contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) promptly, and in any event, prior to Employee's termination of employment. If the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to assign said contracts or agreements, or if Employee does not assign said contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) prior to Employee's termination of employment, Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee to execute said assignments and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the execution of said documents.

13. Defense of Claims. During the Employment Period and for a period of one (1) year following the Termination Date, upon request from the Company, Employee shall reasonably cooperate with the Company Group, at times and locations agreeable to Employee, to assist (i) in the prosecution of any claims that may be made by the Company Group, to the extent that such claims may relate to the Employee's employment with the Company and about which the Employee has substantial knowledge (collectively, the "Claims"), (2) in the defense of any Claims that may be made by or against any member of the Company Group that relate to Employee's actual or prior areas of responsibility. Subject to Section 10(e), the Employee agrees to promptly inform the Company if the Employee becomes aware of any lawsuits involving Claims that may be filed or threatened against the Company Group. Subject to Section 10(e), the Employee also agrees to promptly inform the Company (to the extent that the Employee is legally permitted to do so) if the Employee is asked to assist in any investigation of the Company Group (or their actions) or another party attempts to obtain information or documents from the Employee (other than in connection with any litigation or other proceeding in which the Employee is a party-in-opposition) with respect to matters the Employee believes in good faith to relate to any investigation of the Company Group, in each case, regardless of whether a lawsuit or other proceeding has then been filed against the Company Group with respect to such investigation, and shall not do so unless legally required. Subject to Section 10(e), during the pendency of any litigation or other proceeding involving Claims, the Employee shall not communicate with anyone (other than the Employee's attorneys and tax and/or financial advisors and except to the extent that the Employee determines in good faith is necessary in connection with the performance of the Employee's duties hereunder) with respect to the facts or subject matter of any pending or potential litigation or regulatory or administrative proceeding involving the Company Group without giving prior written notice to the Company or the Company's counsel.

14. Non-Disparagement. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except to the extent compelled or required by applicable law and subject to Section 10(e), Employee agrees Employee shall not disparage the Company or its respective officers, directors, employees, shareholders or successors or their respective products or services, in any manner (including but not limited to, verbally or via hard copy, websites, blogs, social media forums or any other medium); provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall prevent Employee from: engaging in concerted activity relative to the terms and conditions of Employee's employment and in communications protected under the National Labor Relations Act, filing a charge or providing information to any governmental agency; and provided, further, that nothing in this Section shall prevent either Employee or the Company or any of its directors or executive officers from providing information in response to a subpoena or other enforceable legal process or as otherwise required by law.

15. Reasonableness of Covenants. In signing this Agreement, Employee has carefully read and considered all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed under these Sections 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14. Employee agrees that these restraints are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company Group and their trade secrets and Confidential Information and that such restraints are reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area. Employee acknowledges that each of these covenants has a unique, very substantial and immeasurable value to the Company Group.

16. Tolling. In the event of any violation of the provisions of Section 11 hereto, Employee acknowledges and agrees that the post-termination restrictions contained in Section 11 shall be extended by a period of time equal to the period of such violation, as determined by a court of law, it being the intention of the parties hereto that the running of the applicable post-termination restriction period shall be tolled during any period of such violation.

17. Withholdings; Deductions. The Company may withhold and deduct from any benefits and payments made or to be made pursuant to this Agreement (a) all federal, state, local and other taxes as may be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling and (b) any deductions consented to in writing by Employee.

18. Title and Headings; Construction. Titles and headings to Sections hereof are for the purpose of reference only and shall in no way limit, define or otherwise affect the provisions hereof. Any and all Exhibits or Attachments referred to in this Agreement are, by such reference, incorporated herein and made a part hereof for all purposes. Unless the context requires otherwise, all references to laws, regulations, contracts, documents, agreements and instruments refer to such laws, regulations, contracts, documents, agreements and instruments as they may be amended from time to time, and references to particular provisions of laws or regulations include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any succeeding law or regulation. All references to "dollars" or "$" in this Agreement refer to United States dollars. The words "herein", "hereof", "hereunder" and other compounds of the word "here" shall refer to the entire Agreement, including all Exhibits attached hereto, and not to any particular provision hereof. The word "or" is not exclusive. Wherever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural and conversely. All references to "including" shall be construed as meaning "including without limitation." Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein shall be construed or resolved against any party hereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Agreement has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of the parties hereto.

19. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall in all respects be construed according to the laws of the State of Texas without regard to its conflict of laws principles that would result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. With respect to any claim or dispute related to or arising under this Agreement, the parties hereto consent to the exclusive jurisdiction, forum and venue of the state and federal courts (as applicable) located in Houston, Texas.

20. Entire Agreement and Amendment. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the matters covered herein and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, oral or written, between the parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof, other than any indemnification rights or equity award agreements, which are in effect or outstanding as of the Effective Date. This Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument executed by both parties hereto.

21. Enforcement. The parties hereto acknowledge that an award of damages for failure to comply with Sections 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14 of this Agreement may not be an adequate remedy for the Company attempting to enforce or prevent the breach of such provisions, and accordingly the parties hereto authorize the Company to (in addition to any other remedies or relief to which it may be entitled) bring an action against Employee for a permanent or temporary injunction, to compel the specific performance or any other equitable remedy by Employee of their obligations to comply with, or prevent the breach of or remedy the breach of, such provisions without proof of actual damages.

22. Waiver of Breach. Any waiver of this Agreement must be executed by the party to be bound by such waiver. No waiver by either party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other party, or of compliance with any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party, will operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by such other party or any similar or dissimilar provision or condition at the same or any subsequent time. The failure of either party hereto to take any action by reason of any breach will not deprive such party of the right to take action at any time.

23. Assignment. This Agreement is personal to Employee, and neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder shall be assignable or otherwise transferred by Employee. The Company may assign this Agreement without Employee's consent, including to any member of the Company Group and to any successor (whether by merger, purchase or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the equity, assets or businesses of the Company.

24. Notices. Notices provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly received (a) when delivered in person; (b) on the first Business Day after such notice is sent by express overnight courier service; or (c) on the second Business Day following deposit with a nationally-recognized second-day courier service with proof of receipt maintained, in each case, to the following address, as applicable:

If to the Company, addressed to:

1780 Hughes Landing Blvd.
Suite 800
The Woodlands, Texas 77380
Attention: Board of Directors

If to Employee, addressed to:

Mark A. McFarland

(Or, if different, the latest address on file with the Company)

25. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, including by electronic mail or facsimile, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument. Each counterpart may consist of a copy hereof containing multiple signature pages, each signed by one party, but together signed by both parties hereto.

26. Deemed Resignations. Except as otherwise determined by the Board or as otherwise agreed to in writing by Employee and any member of the Company Group prior to the termination of Employee's employment with the Company or any member of the Company Group, any termination of Employee's employment shall constitute, as applicable, an automatic resignation of Employee: (a) as an officer of the Company and each member of the Company Group; (b) from the Board; and (c) from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any member of the Company Group and from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any corporation, limited liability entity, unlimited liability entity or other entity in which any member of the Company Group holds an equity interest and with respect to which board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) Employee serves as such Company Group member's designee or other representative.

27. Section 409A.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all provisions of this Agreement are intended to comply with Section 409A of the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations and administrative guidance issued thereunder (collectively, "Section 409A") or an exemption therefrom and shall be construed and administered in accordance with such intent. Any payments under this Agreement that may be excluded from Section 409A either as separation pay due to an involuntary separation from service or as a short-term deferral shall be excluded from Section 409A to the maximum extent possible. For purposes of Section 409A, each installment payment provided under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment. Any payments to be made under this Agreement upon a termination of Employee's employment shall only be made if such termination of employment constitutes a "separation from service" under Section 409A.

(b) To the extent that any right to reimbursement of expenses or payment of any benefit in-kind under this Agreement constitutes nonqualified deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A), (i) any such expense reimbursement shall be made by the Company no later than the last day of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which such expense was incurred by Employee, (ii) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (iii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other taxable year; provided, that the foregoing clause shall not be violated with regard to expenses reimbursed under any arrangement covered by Section 105(b) of the Code solely because such expenses are subject to a limit related to the period in which the arrangement is in effect.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, if any payment or benefit provided for herein would be subject to additional taxes and interest under Section 409A if Employee's receipt of such payment or benefit is not delayed until the earlier of the date of Employee's death or the date that is six (6) months after the Termination Date (such date, the "Section 409A Payment Date"), then such payment or benefit shall not be provided to Employee (or Employee's estate, if applicable) until the Section 409A Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company makes no representations that the payments and benefits provided under this Agreement are exempt from, or compliant with, Section 409A and in no event shall any member of the Company Group be liable for all or any portion of any taxes, penalties, interest or other expenses that may be incurred by Employee on account of non-compliance with Section 409A.

28. Effect of Termination. The provisions of Sections 8(a), 9-16, 21, 26, and 27 and those provisions necessary to interpret and enforce them, shall survive any termination of this Agreement and any termination of the employment relationship between Employee and the Company.

29. Third-Party Beneficiaries. Each member of the Company Group that is not a signatory to this Agreement shall be a third-party beneficiary of Employee's obligations under Sections 8-16, 21, and 26 and shall be entitled to enforce such obligations as if a party hereto.

30. Certain Excise Taxes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if Employee is a "disqualified individual" (as defined in Section 280G(c) of the Code), and the benefits provided for in this Agreement, together with any other payments and benefits which Employee has the right to receive from the Company and its affiliates, would constitute a "parachute payment" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), then the benefits provided for in this Agreement (beginning with any benefit to be paid in cash hereunder) shall be either (a) reduced (but not below zero) so that the present value of such total amounts and benefits received by Employee from the Company will be one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) and so that no portion of such amounts and benefits received by Employee shall be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or (b) paid in full, whichever produces the better net after-tax position to Employee (taking into account any applicable excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code and any other applicable taxes). The determination as to whether any such reduction in the amount of the benefits provided hereunder is necessary shall be made by the Compensation Committee in good faith and in consultation with tax and legal advisors of the Company. If a reduced payment or benefit is made and through error or otherwise that payment or benefit, when aggregated with other payments and benefits from the Company (or its affiliates) used in determining if a "parachute payment" exists, exceeds one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's base amount, then Employee shall immediately repay such excess to the Company upon notification that an overpayment has been made. Nothing in this Section 30 shall require the Company to be responsible for, or have any liability or obligation with respect to, Employee's excise tax liabilities under Section 4999 of the Code.

31. Severability. If an arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) is invalid or unenforceable, then the invalidity or unenforceability of that provision (or portion thereof) shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Talen Energy Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Terry Nutt ("Employee") effective as of July 10, 2023 (the "Effective Date").

1. Employment. During the Employment Period (as defined below), the Company shall employ Employee, and Employee shall serve, as Chief Financial Officer of the Company. In addition, if requested by the Company, Employee shall serve as an officer or member of the board of directors of any subsidiaries or affiliates of the Company without additional compensation.

2. Duties and Responsibilities of Employee.

(a) During the Employment Period, Employee shall actively engage in the business and affairs of the Company (together with its direct and indirect subsidiaries, the "Company Group") as may be requested by the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of the Company from time to time, devote such amount of Employee's business time and attention as is reasonably necessary to manage the business and affairs of the Company, which amount of time will constitute substantially all of Employee's business time. Employee's duties and responsibilities shall include those normally incidental to the position(s) identified in Section 1, as well as such additional duties as may be assigned to Employee by the CEO from time to time, which duties and responsibilities may include providing services to other members of the Company Group in addition to the Company. Employee may, without violating this Section 2(a), (i) as a passive investment, own publicly traded securities in such form or manner as will not require any services by Employee in the operation of the entities in which such securities are owned; (ii) engage in charitable and civic activities; and (iii) with the prior written consent of the board of directors of the Company (the "Board"), engage in other personal and passive investment activities, in each case, so long as such engagements, ownership, interests or activities do not interfere with Employee's ability to fulfill Employee's duties and responsibilities under this Agreement and are not inconsistent with Employee's obligations to any member of the Company Group or competitive with the business of any member of the Company Group.

(b) Employee hereby represents and warrants that Employee is not the subject of, or a party to, any non-competition or non-solicitation covenant, non-disclosure agreement, or any other agreement, obligation, restriction or understanding that would prohibit Employee from executing this Agreement or fully performing each of Employee's duties and responsibilities hereunder, or would in any manner, directly or indirectly, limit or affect any of the duties and responsibilities that may now or in the future be assigned to Employee hereunder (a "Pre-Existing Agreement"), or to the extent Employee is the subject of, or a party to, a Pre-Existing Agreement, Employee has secured, from each applicable party to such Pre-Existing Agreement a waiver of the provisions of such Pre-Existing Agreement that would otherwise violate this Section 2(b). Employee expressly acknowledges and agrees that Employee is strictly prohibited from using or disclosing any confidential information belonging to any prior employer in the course of performing services for any member of the Company Group, and Employee promises that Employee shall not do so. Employee shall not introduce documents or other materials containing confidential information of any prior employer to the premises or property (including computers and computer systems) of any member of the Company Group.

(c) Employee owes each member of the Company Group fiduciary duties, and the obligations described in this Agreement are in addition to, and not in lieu of, the obligations Employee owes each member of the Company Group under statutory and common law.

3. Compensation.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company shall pay to Employee an annualized base salary of $550,000 (the "Base Salary") in consideration for Employee's services under this Agreement, payable in substantially equal installments in conformity with the Company's customary payroll practices for similarly situated employees as may exist from time to time, but no less frequently than twice per month. The Base Salary shall be subject to annual review by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee").

(b) Annual Bonus. Employee shall be eligible for bonus compensation for calendar year 2023 and each subsequent complete calendar year that Employee is employed by the Company hereunder (the "Annual Bonus"). The target Annual Bonus for each such calendar year (the "Bonus Year") shall be 100% of Employee's Base Salary in effect as of the first day of the Bonus Year (or, with respect to calendar year 2023, in effect on the Effective Date), with the actual Annual Bonus for a Bonus Year depending on the level of achievement of the performance targets as determined by the Compensation Committee for the Bonus Year. For the avoidance of doubt, the Annual Bonus with respect to the 2023 calendar year shall not be subject to proration to reflect Employee's start date. The performance targets that must be achieved in order to be eligible for certain bonus levels shall be established by the Compensation Committee annually, in its sole discretion, and communicated to Employee within the first one-hundred twenty (120) days of the applicable Bonus Year. Each Annual Bonus, if any, shall be paid as soon as administratively feasible after the Compensation Committee certifies whether the applicable performance targets for the applicable Bonus Year have been achieved, but in no event later than March 15 following the end of such Bonus Year. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3(b) to the contrary, but subject to Section 7, no Annual Bonus, if any, nor any portion thereof, shall be payable for any Bonus Year unless Employee remains continuously employed by the Company from the Effective Date through the date on which such Annual Bonus is paid.

(c) Long-Term Incentive Awards.

(i) As soon as practicable (but no later than sixty (60) days) following the Effective Date (the "Date of Grant"), the Board shall establish a Long Term Incentive Plan (such plan, or any successor plan, the "LTIP") and grant to Employee thereunder: (i) an award of restricted stock units (the "RSUs") and (ii) an award of performance stock units (the "PSUs," and collectively with the RSUs, the "Emergence Grant"). The Emergence Grant will be made with respect to a number of shares of Company common stock having a value, based on the equity value implied by the Company's plan enterprise value determined as of the effective date of its Plan of Reorganization pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as determined by the Board in good faith, equal to $6,600,000. The Emergence Grant will be allocated between RSUs and PSUs on a basis determined by the Board. The RSUs shall generally vest in one-third increments on each of the first three (3) anniversaries of the Date of Grant, provided Employee remains continuously employed by the Company or an affiliate of the Company through each such vesting date. The PSUs shall vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Date of Grant, subject to Employee's continuous employment and the achievement of the performance metrics determined by the Board and set forth in the applicable grant agreements.

(ii) Provided that Employee is employed by the Company on the applicable date of grant, Employee shall be eligible to receive an annual grant under the LTIP with a grant date target value not less than 400% of Employee's Base Salary as in effect on the applicable date of grant of such award on such terms and conditions as the Board and the Compensation Committee shall determine from time to time. All awards granted to Employee under the LTIP shall be subject to and governed by the terms and provisions of the LTIP as in effect from time to time and the award agreements evidencing such awards. For the avoidance of doubt, after the receipt of the Emergence Grant, Employee shall not receive any additional annual grants in the calendar years of 2023, 2024 or 2025. Employee will resume receipt of annual grants under the LTIP in the normal course in calendar year 2026.

4. Term of Employment. The term of Employee's employment under this Agreement shall be for the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term"). The parties may, but shall not be required to, mutually agree to extend the Term for additional one (1)-year periods. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Employee's employment pursuant to this Agreement may be terminated at any time in accordance with Section 7. The period from the Effective Date through the expiration of this Agreement or, if sooner, the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Agreement, regardless of the time or reason for such termination, shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period."

5. Business Expenses. Subject to Section 26, the Company shall reimburse Employee for Employee's reasonable out-of-pocket business-related expenses actually incurred in the performance of Employee's duties hereunder during the Employment Period so long as Employee timely submits all documentation for such expenses, as required by Company policy in effect from time to time. Any such reimbursement of expenses shall be made by the Company upon or as soon as practicable following receipt of such documentation (but in any event not later than the close of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which the expense is incurred by Employee). In no event shall any reimbursement be made to Employee for any expenses incurred after the date of Employee's termination of employment with the Company.

6. Benefits.

(a) During the Employment Period, Employee shall be eligible to participate in the same benefit plans and programs in which other similarly situated Company employees are eligible to participate, subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plans and programs in effect from time to time. The Company shall not, however, by reason of this Section 6, be obligated to institute, maintain, or refrain from changing, amending, or discontinuing, any such plan or policy, so long as such changes are similarly applicable to similarly situated Company employees generally.

(b) The Company shall reimburse Employee up to $15,000 for legal fees incurred in connection with the review of this Agreement and documents related to the LTIP, RSUs and PSUs.

(c) The Company shall cover Employee under directors' and officers' liability insurance from the Effective Date, through the Term, and, while potential liability exists, after the Term or the termination of Employee's employment with the Company, on substantially similar terms as provided to other executive officers of the Company.

(d) During the Employment Period, the Employee shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of paid vacation per calendar year (as prorated for partial years), administered in accordance with the Company's policy on accrual and use applicable to employees as in effect from time to time. Vacation may be taken at such times and intervals as the Employee determines, subject to the business needs of the Company.

7. Termination of Employment.

(a) Company's Right to Terminate Employee's Employment for Cause. The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment hereunder at any time for Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean Employee's commission of an act or omission, or Employee causing the Company or any other member of the Company Group to commit an act or omission, that constitutes:

(i) Employee's fraud or misconduct;

(ii) Employee's violation of applicable law in connection with the management, operation or reputation of the Company or any other member of the Company Group that results in (or could reasonably be expected to result in) material injury to the Company or any other member of the Company Group;

(iii) Employee's material breach of this Agreement or any other written agreement between Employee and one or more members of the Company Group, including Employee's material breach of any representation, warranty or covenant made under any such agreement;

(iv) Employee's act of theft, embezzlement or misappropriation of the property of the Company or any other member of the Company Group, in each case, that results in (or could reasonably be expected to result in) material financial or reputational harm to the Company or any other member of the Company Group;

(v) Employee's breach of his duty of loyalty to the Company or violation of the Company's policies (to the extent such policies have been clearly communicated in writing to Employee), including the Company's code of conduct and business ethics (or similar policies), anti-harassment policy, anti-retaliation, or policies related to age, sex or other prohibited discrimination in the workplace; or

(vi) Employee's conviction or plea of nolo contendere to a felony or crime involving moral turpitude.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no determination of "Cause" may be made pursuant to Sections 7(a)(ii) or (iii) unless (1) Employee has been given written notice by the Board describing the specific alleged action(s) or omission(s) that constitute "Cause," and (2) Employee has failed to cure such acts or omissions within thirty (30) days of such notice from the Board. Upon the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Section 7(a), the Company shall pay to Employee (A) all earned and unpaid Base Salary as of the date of the termination of Employee's employment with the Company, (B) reimbursement for all incurred but unreimbursed expenses for which Employee is entitled to reimbursement in accordance with Section 5 and Sections 6(b), (c), and (d), and (C) benefits to which Employee is entitled under the terms of any applicable benefit plan or program described in Section 6(a) (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits"). In addition, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event of a termination of Employee's employment for Cause.

(b) Company's Right to Terminate for Convenience. The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment for convenience at any time and for any reason, or no reason at all, upon written notice to Employee, in which event Employee shall receive the compensation and benefits described in Section 7(f).

(c) Employee's Right to Terminate for Good Reason. Employee shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment with the Company at any time for Good Reason, in which event Employee shall receive the compensation and benefits described in Section 7(f). For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean any of the following occurring without Employee's consent:

(i) a material adverse change in Employee's title, duties or responsibilities (including reporting responsibilities);

(ii) a material reduction in Employee's Base Salary;

(iii) a relocation of Employee's primary work location to a distance of more than 50 miles from the Houston, Texas metropolitan area; or

(iv) a material breach by the Company of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

The Company and Employee agree that Good Reason shall not exist unless and until Employee provides the Company with written notice of the acts alleged to constitute Good Reason within ninety (90) days of Employee's knowledge of the occurrence of such event, and Company fails to cure such acts within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice. Employee must terminate employment within sixty (60) days following the expiration of such cure period for the termination to be on account of Good Reason.

(d) Death or Disability. Upon the death or Disability of Employee, Employee's employment with the Company shall automatically terminate and the Company shall pay to Employee or Employee's estate, as applicable, (i) the Accrued Benefits, (ii) any earned and unpaid Annual Bonus for the calendar year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurs (which amount shall be paid within sixty (60) days following the date of such termination of employment but in no event later than March 15 of the year following the Bonus Year to which such Annual Bonus relates), and (iii) an Annual Bonus for the year in which such termination of employment occurs based on actual performance results for the applicable Bonus Year and prorated for the period of days beginning on January 1 (or, if later the Effective Date) and ending on the date of such termination of employment relative to the number of days in the applicable Bonus Year. The prorated Annual Bonus described in clause (iii) of the preceding sentence, if any, shall be paid in cash at the same time corresponding bonuses are paid to similarly situated employees of the Company, but in no event later than March 15 following the year in which such termination of employment occurs. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Disability" shall exist if, as determined in the reasonable opinion of a licensed physician, Employee is unable to perform the essential functions of Employee's position (after accounting for reasonable accommodation, if applicable and required by applicable law), due to physical or mental impairment, that continues for a period in excess of ninety (90) consecutive days or one hundred-eighty (180) days, whether or not consecutive (or for any longer period as may be required by applicable law), in any twelve (12)-month period.

(e) Employee's Right to Terminate for Convenience. In addition to Employee's right to terminate Employee's employment for Good Reason, Employee shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment with the Company for convenience at any time and for any other reason, or no reason at all, upon sixty (60) days' advance written notice to the Company; provided, however, that if Employee has provided notice to the Company of Employee's termination of employment, the Company may determine, in its sole discretion, that such termination shall be effective on any date prior to the effective date of termination provided in such notice (and, if such earlier date is so required, then it shall not change the basis for Employee's termination of employment nor be construed or interpreted as a termination of employment pursuant to Section 7(b)). Upon the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Section 7(e), the Company shall pay to Employee the Accrued Benefits.

(f) Effect of Termination of Employment without Cause or for Good Reason.

(i) If Employee's employment hereunder is terminated prior to the expiration of the Term by the Company without Cause pursuant to Section 7(b) or is terminated by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Section 7(c), then the Company shall pay Employee the Accrued Benefits and any earned and unpaid Annual Bonus for the calendar year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurs (which amount shall be paid within sixty (60) days following the date of such termination of employment but in no event later than March 15 of the year following the Bonus Year to which such Annual Bonus relates) and, so long as (and only if) Employee: (x) executes on or before the Release Expiration Date (as defined below), and does not revoke within any time provided by the Company to do so, a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees (the "Release"), which Release shall release each member of the Company Group and their respective affiliates, and the foregoing entities' respective shareholders, members, partners, officers, managers, directors, fiduciaries, employees, representatives, agents and benefit plans (and fiduciaries of such plans) from any and all claims, including any and all causes of action arising out of Employee's employment with the Company and any other member of the Company Group or the termination of such employment, but excluding all claims to severance payments, Employee may have under this Section 7(f); and (y) abides by the terms of each of Sections 8, 9, and 10 then:

(A) The Company shall make severance payments to Employee in a total amount equal to (i) twelve (12) months' worth of Employee's Base Salary and (ii) one (1) times the target Annual Bonus, where each are determined as of the year in which such termination occurs (such total severance payments being referred to as the "Severance Payment"). The Severance Payment will be divided into substantially equal installments paid over the twelve (12)-month period following the date on which Employee's employment terminates (the "Termination Date"). On the Company's first regularly scheduled pay date that is on or after the date that is sixty (60) days after the Termination Date (the "First Payment Date"), the Company shall pay to Employee, without interest, a number of such installments equal to the number of such installments that would have been paid during the period beginning on the Termination Date and ending on the First Payment Date had the installments been paid on the Company's regularly scheduled pay dates on or following the Termination Date, and each of the remaining installments shall be paid on the Company's regularly scheduled pay dates during the remainder of such twelve (12)-month period; provided, however, that to the extent, if any, that the aggregate amount of the installments of the Severance Payment that would otherwise be paid pursuant to the preceding provisions of this Section 7(f)(i) after March 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Termination Date occurs (the "Applicable March 15") exceeds the maximum exemption amount under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii)(A), then such excess shall be paid to Employee in a lump sum on the Applicable March 15 (or the first Business Day (as defined below) preceding the Applicable March 15 if the Applicable March 15 is not a Business Day) and the installments of the Severance Payment payable after the Applicable March 15 shall be reduced by such excess (beginning with the installment first payable after the Applicable March 15 and continuing with the next succeeding installment until the aggregate reduction equals such excess). "Business Day" shall mean any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in Houston, Texas, are authorized or required by law to be closed.

(B) The RSUs and PSUs issued under Employee's Emergence Grant shall be treated in accordance with the award agreements evidencing such Emergence Grant.

The payments and benefits described in clauses (A) and (B) above are collectively referred to herein as the "Termination Benefits."

(ii) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Termination Benefits (and any portions thereof) shall not be payable if Employee's employment hereunder terminates upon the expiration of the Term.

(iii) If the Release is not executed and returned to the Company on or before the Release Expiration Date, and the required revocation period has not fully expired without revocation of the Release by Employee, then Employee shall not be entitled to any portion of the Termination Benefits. As used herein, the "Release Expiration Date" is that date that is twenty-one (21) days following the date upon which the Company delivers the Release to Employee (which shall occur no later than seven (7) days after the Termination Date) or, in the event that such termination of employment is "in connection with an exit incentive or other employment termination program" (as such phrase is defined in the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967), the date that is forty-five (45) days following such delivery date.

(g) After-Acquired Evidence. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines, in good faith, that Employee is eligible to receive the Termination Benefits pursuant to Section 7(f) but, after such determination, the Company subsequently acquires evidence or determines that: (i) Employee has failed to abide by the terms of Sections 8, 9, or 10; or (ii) a Cause condition existed prior to the Termination Date that, had the Company been fully aware of such condition, would have given the Company the right to terminate Employee's employment pursuant to Section 7(a), then the Company shall have the right to cease the payment of any future installments of the Termination Benefits and Employee shall promptly return to the Company all installments of the Termination Benefits received by Employee prior to the date that the Company determines that the conditions of this Section 7(g) have been satisfied. In addition, the provisions of the last sentence of Section 7(a) shall apply, and, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event Employee fails to abide by the terms of Sections 8, 9 or 10.

8. Disclosures. Promptly (and in any event, within three (3) Business Days) upon becoming aware of (a) any actual or potential Conflict of Interest or (b) any lawsuit, claim or arbitration filed against or involving Employee or any trust or vehicle owned or controlled by Employee, in each case, Employee shall disclose such actual or potential Conflict of Interest or such lawsuit, claim or arbitration to the Board. A "Conflict of Interest" shall exist when Employee engages in, or plans to engage in, any activities, associations, or interests that conflict with, or create an appearance of a conflict with, Employee's duties, responsibilities, authorities, or obligations for or to any member of the Company Group.

9. Confidentiality. In the course of Employee's employment with the Company and the performance of Employee's duties on behalf of the Company Group hereunder, Employee will be provided with, and will have access to, Confidential Information (as defined below). As a condition of Employee's receipt and access to such Confidential Information and in exchange for other valuable consideration provided hereunder, and as a condition of Employee's employment hereunder, Employee shall comply with this Section 9.

(a) Both during the Employment Period and thereafter, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or by directive of the Board, for the benefit of the Company Group, or while acting in the course and scope of his employment, Employee shall not disclose any Confidential Information to any person or entity and shall not use any Confidential Information.

Employee shall follow all Company policies and protocols regarding the security of all documents and other materials containing Confidential Information to the extent such policies have been clearly communicated in writing or made available to Employee (regardless of the medium on which Confidential Information is stored). The covenants of this Section 9(a) shall apply to all Confidential Information, whether now known or later to become known to Employee during the period that Employee is employed by or affiliated with or providing services to the Company or any other member of the Company Group.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of Section 9(a) to the contrary, Employee may make the following disclosures and uses of Confidential Information:

(i) disclosures to other employees of a member of the Company Group who have a need to know the information in connection with the businesses of the Company Group;

(ii) disclosures to third parties when, in the reasonable and good faith belief of Employee, such disclosure is in connection with Employee's performance of Employee's duties under this Agreement and in the best interest of the Company Group;

(iii) disclosures and uses that are approved in writing by the Board; or

(iv) disclosures to a person or entity that has (x) been retained by a member of the Company Group to provide services to one or more members of the Company Group and (y) agreed in writing to abide by the terms of a confidentiality agreement.

(c) Upon the expiration of the Employment Period, and at any other time upon request of the Company, Employee shall promptly surrender and deliver to the Company all documents (including electronically stored information) and all copies thereof and all other materials of any nature containing or pertaining to all Confidential Information and any other Company Group property (including any Company Group-issued computer, mobile device or other equipment) in Employee's possession, custody or control and Employee shall not retain any such documents or other materials or property of the Company Group. Within five (5) days of any such request, Employee shall certify to the Company in writing that all such documents, materials and property have been returned to the Company.

(d) All trade secrets, non-public information, designs, ideas, concepts, improvements, product developments, discoveries and inventions, whether patentable or not, that are conceived, made, developed or acquired by or disclosed to Employee, individually or in conjunction with others, during the period that Employee is employed by the Company or any other member of the Company Group (whether during business hours or otherwise and whether on the Company's premises or otherwise), that relate to any member of the Company Group's businesses or properties, products or services (including all such information relating to corporate opportunities, operations, future plans, methods of doing business, business plans, strategies for developing business and market share, research, financial and sales data, pricing terms, evaluations, opinions, interpretations, acquisition prospects, the identity of customers or acquisition targets or their requirements, the identity of key contacts within customers' organizations or within the organization of acquisition prospects, or marketing and merchandising techniques, prospective names and marks) is defined as "Confidential Information." Moreover, all documents, videotapes, written presentations, brochures, drawings, memoranda, notes, records, files, correspondence, manuals, models, specifications, computer programs, e-mail, voice mail, electronic databases, maps, drawings, architectural renditions, models and all other writings or materials of any type including or embodying any of such information, ideas, concepts, improvements, discoveries, inventions and other similar forms of expression are and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company or other applicable member of the Company Group and be subject to the same restrictions on disclosure applicable to all Confidential Information pursuant to this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information shall not include any information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure or wrongful act of Employee or any of Employee's agents; (ii) was available to Employee on a non-confidential basis before its disclosure by a member of the Company Group; or (iii) becomes available to Employee on a non-confidential basis from a source other than a member of the Company Group; provided, however, that such source is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other obligation with respect to confidentiality to, a member of the Company Group.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or restrict Employee from lawfully: (i) initiating communications directly with, cooperating with, providing information to, causing information to be provided to, or otherwise assisting in an investigation by, any governmental authority regarding a possible violation of any law; (ii) responding to any inquiry or legal process directed to Employee from any such governmental authority; (iii) testifying, participating or otherwise assisting in any action or proceeding by any such governmental authority relating to a possible violation of law; or (iv) making any other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of any applicable law. Additionally, pursuant to the federal Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, an individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that: (A) is made (1) in confidence to a federal, state or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney and (2) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; (B) is made to the individual's attorney in relation to a lawsuit for retaliation against the individual for reporting a suspected violation of law; or (C) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Nothing in this Agreement requires Employee to obtain prior authorization before engaging in any conduct described in this paragraph, or to notify the Company that Employee has engaged in any such conduct.

10. Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation. The Employee acknowledges that (i) the Employee performs services of a unique nature for the Company that are irreplaceable, and that the Employee's performance of such services to a competing business will result in irreparable harm to the Company, (ii) the Employee has had and will continue to have access to Confidential Information which, if disclosed, would unfairly and inappropriately assist in competition against the Company Group, (iii) in the course of the Employee's employment by a competitor, the Employee would inevitably use or disclose such Confidential Information, (iv) the Company Group has substantial relationships with their Customers and the Employee has had and will continue to have access to these Customers, (v) the Employee has received and will receive specialized training from the Company Group, and (vi) the Employee has generated and will continue to generate goodwill for the Company Group in the course of the Employee's employment. Accordingly, the Employee agrees that for the duration of Employee's employment and for one (1) year thereafter, Employee shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) own, manage, operate, control, be employed by (whether as an employee, consultant, independent contractor or otherwise, and whether or not for compensation) or render services to any person, firm, corporation or other entity, in whatever form, engaged in competition with the Company Group on the Termination Date, which includes the business of merchant power production, including nuclear power generation, or any business material to the Company which the Company has taken substantial steps, on or prior to such date, to engage in, in any geographic region in the United States where the Company conducts or has taken substantial steps to conduct business prior to the Termination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prohibit the Employee from being a passive owner of not more than three percent (3%) of the equity securities of a publicly traded corporation engaged in a business that is in competition with the Company Group, so long as the Employee has no active participation in the business of such corporation. In addition, the provisions of this Section 10(a) shall not be violated by the Employee commencing employment with a subsidiary, division or unit of any entity that engages in a business in competition with the Company Group so long as the Employee and such subsidiary, division or unit does not engage in a business in competition with the Company Group;

(b) solicit, induce or attempt to induce any person who was, as of the Termination Date, an employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company or any member of the Company Group ("Covered Individuals") to terminate his or her employment or contracting relationship with such entity, or to become an employee or independent contractor of any other Person or hire or retain any such employee, agent or individual, or take any action to materially assist or aid any other Person in identifying, hiring or soliciting any such employee, agent or individual (any employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company shall be deemed covered by this Section 10(b) while so employed or retained and for a period of six (6) months thereafter); notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, general employment solicitations through advertisements for candidates in publicly available media for potential employment do not violate this provision; so long as such advertisements are not specifically targeted at any Covered Individuals;

(c) solicit, induce or attempt to induce any Customer (as defined below) or any supplier or other business relation of the Company Group who was working with any member of the Company Group as of the Termination Date, to cease doing or reduce the amount of its business with such entity or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such Customer, supplier or other business relation and such entity; or

(d) interfere, or aid or induce any other person or entity in interfering, with the relationship between the Company Group and any of their respective vendors, joint venturers or licensors.

(e) Definitions. For the purposes of this Section 10, the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Customer" means any Person who or which: (a) purchased products or services from the Company Group prior to or during Employee's period of employment and who or which Employee was aware of or about which Employee had received Confidential Information; or (b) was called upon or solicited by the Company Group or any of their predecessors prior to or during the twelve (12) month period prior to the Termination Date, if Employee had direct or indirect contact with such Person as an employee of the Company Group or learned or became aware of such Person during Employee's employment with the Company Group.

(ii) "Person" means an individual, a partnership, a limited liability company, a corporation, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint venture, an unincorporated organization and a governmental entity or any department, agency or political subdivision thereof.

11. Ownership of Intellectual Property.

(a) Employee agrees that the Company shall own, and Employee shall (and hereby does) assign, all right, title and interest (including patent rights, copyrights, trade secret rights, mask work rights, trademark rights, and all other intellectual and industrial property rights of any sort throughout the world) relating to any and all inventions (whether or not patentable), discoveries, developments, improvements, innovations, works of authorship, mask works, designs, know-how, ideas, formulae, processes, techniques, data and information authored, created, contributed to, made or conceived or reduced to practice, in whole or in part, by Employee during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, whether or not registerable under U.S. law or the laws of other jurisdictions, that either (i) relate, at the time of conception, reduction to practice, creation, derivation or development, to any member of the Company Group's businesses or actual or anticipated research or development; or (ii) were developed on any amount of the Company's or any other member of the Company Group's time or with the use of any member of the Company Group's equipment, supplies, facilities or Confidential Information (all of the foregoing collectively referred to herein as "Company Intellectual Property"), and Employee shall promptly disclose all Company Intellectual Property to the Company in writing. To support Employee's disclosure obligation herein, Employee shall keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all Company Intellectual Property made by Employee (solely or jointly with others) during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group in such form as may be specified from time to time by the Company. These records shall be available to, and remain the sole property of, the Company at all times.

(b) All of Employee's works of authorship and associated copyrights created during the period in which Employee is employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group and in the scope of Employee's employment or engagement shall be deemed to be "works made for hire" within the meaning of the Copyright Act. To the extent any right, title and interest in and to Company Intellectual Property cannot be assigned by Employee to the Company, Employee shall grant, and does hereby grant, to the Company Group an exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import, export, reproduce, practice and otherwise commercialize such rights, title and interest.

(c) Employee recognizes that this Agreement will not be deemed to require assignment of any invention or intellectual property that Employee developed entirely on Employee's own time without using the equipment, supplies, facilities, trade secrets, or Confidential Information of any member of the Company Group. In addition, this Agreement does not apply to any invention that qualifies fully for protection from assignment to the Company under any specifically applicable state law or regulation.

(d) To the extent allowed by law, this Section applies to all rights that may be known as or referred to as "moral rights," "artist's rights," "droit moral," or the like, including without limitation those rights set forth in 17 U.S.C. §106A (collectively, "Moral Rights"). To the extent Employee retains any Moral Rights under applicable law, Employee hereby ratifies and consents to any action that may be taken with respect to such Moral Rights by or authorized by the Company or any member of the Company Group, and Employee hereby waives and agrees not to assert any Moral Rights with respect to such Moral Rights. Employee shall confirm any such ratifications, consents, waivers, and agreements from time to time as requested by the Company.

(e) All inventions (whether or not patentable), original works of authorship, designs, know-how, mask works, ideas, information, developments, improvements, and trade secrets of which Employee is the sole or joint author, creator, contributor, or inventor that were made or developed by Employee prior to Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, or in which Employee asserts any intellectual property right, and which are applicable to or relate in any way to the business, products, services, or demonstrably anticipated research and development or business of any member of the Company Group ("Prior Inventions") are listed on Exhibit A, and Employee represents that Exhibit A is a complete list of all such Prior Inventions. If no such list is attached, Employee hereby represents and warrants that there are no Prior Inventions, and Employee shall make no claim of any rights to any Prior Inventions. If, in the course of Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, Employee incorporates into the product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group a Prior Invention, the Company Group is hereby granted and will have a nonexclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license to make, have made, modify, use, import, export, offer for sale, sell and otherwise commercialize such Prior Invention as part of or in connection with such product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group.

(f) Employee shall perform, during and after the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, all acts deemed necessary or desirable by the Company to permit and assist each member of the Company Group, at the Company's expense, in obtaining and enforcing the full benefits, enjoyment, rights and title throughout the world in the Company Intellectual Property and Confidential Information assigned, to be assigned, or licensed to the Company under this Agreement. Such acts may include execution of documents and assistance or cooperation (i) in the filing, prosecution, registration, and memorialization of assignment of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, or other applications; (ii) in the enforcement of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, moral rights, trade secrets, or other proprietary rights; and (iii) in other legal proceedings related to the Company Intellectual Property or Confidential Information.

(g) In the event that after reasonable and diligent effort to coordinate with Employee, the Company (or, as applicable, a member of the Company Group) is unable to secure Employee's signature to any document required to file, prosecute, register, or memorialize the assignment of any patent, copyright, mask work or other applications or to enforce any patent, copyright, mask work, moral right, trade secret or other proprietary right under any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property (including derivative works, improvements, renewals, extensions, continuations, divisionals, continuations in part, continuing patent applications, reissues, and reexaminations of such Company Intellectual Property), Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee, (i) to execute, file, prosecute, register and memorialize the assignment of any such application; (ii) to execute and file any documentation required for such enforcement; and (iii) to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the filing, prosecution, registration, memorialization of assignment, issuance, and enforcement of patents, copyrights, mask works, moral rights, trade secrets or other rights under the Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, all with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Employee.

(h) In the event that Employee enters into, on behalf of any member of the Company Group, any contracts or agreements relating to any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, Employee shall assign such contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) promptly, and in any event, prior to Employee's termination of employment. In the event that after reasonable and diligent effort to coordinate with Employee, the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to assign said contracts or agreements, or if Employee does not assign said contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) prior to Employee's termination of employment, Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee to execute said assignments and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the execution of said documents.

12. Defense of Claims. During the Employment Period and for a period of one (1) year following the Termination Date, upon request from the Company, Employee shall reasonably cooperate with the Company Group, at times and locations agreeable to Employee, to assist (i) in the prosecution of any claims that may be made by the Company Group, to the extent that such claims may relate to the Employee's employment with the Company and about which the Employee has substantial knowledge, and (ii) in the defense of any Claims that may be made by or against any member of the Company Group that relate to Employee's actual or prior areas of responsibility (items (i) and (ii) of this sentence, collectively, the "Claims"). Subject to Section 9(e), the Employee agrees to promptly inform the Company if the Employee becomes aware of any lawsuits involving Claims that may be filed or threatened against the Company Group. Subject to Section 9(e), the Employee also agrees to promptly inform the Company (to the extent that the Employee is legally permitted to do so) if the Employee is asked to assist in any investigation of the Company Group (or their actions) or another party attempts to obtain information or documents from the Employee (other than in connection with any litigation or other proceeding in which the Employee is a party-in-opposition) with respect to matters the Employee believes in good faith to relate to any investigation of the Company Group, in each case, regardless of whether a lawsuit or other proceeding has then been filed against the Company Group with respect to such investigation, and shall not do so unless legally required. Subject to Section 9(e), during the pendency of any litigation or other proceeding involving Claims, the Employee shall not communicate with anyone (other than the Employee's attorneys and tax and/or financial advisors and except to the extent that the Employee determines in good faith is necessary in connection with the performance of the Employee's duties hereunder) with respect to the facts or subject matter of any pending or potential litigation or regulatory or administrative proceeding involving the Company Group without giving prior written notice to the Company or the Company's counsel.

13. Non-Disparagement. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except to the extent compelled or required by applicable law and subject to Section 9(e), Employee agrees Employee shall not disparage the Company or its respective officers, directors, employees, shareholders or successors or their respective products or services, in any manner (including but not limited to, verbally or via hard copy, websites, blogs, social media forums or any other medium); provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall prevent Employee from: engaging in concerted activity relative to the terms and conditions of Employee's employment and in communications protected under the National Labor Relations Act, filing a charge or providing information to any governmental agency; and provided, further, that nothing in this Section shall prevent Employee from providing information in response to a subpoena or other enforceable legal process or as otherwise required by law.

14. Reasonableness of Covenants. In signing this Agreement, Employee has carefully read and considered all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed under these Sections 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13. Employee agrees that these restraints are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company Group and their trade secrets and Confidential Information and that such restraints are reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area. Employee acknowledges that each of these covenants has a unique, very substantial and immeasurable value to the Company Group.

15. Tolling. In the event of any violation of the provisions of Section 10 hereto, Employee acknowledges and agrees that the post-termination restrictions contained in Section 10 shall be extended by a period of time equal to the period of such violation, as determined by a court of law, it being the intention of the parties hereto that the running of the applicable post-termination restriction period shall be tolled during any period of such violation.

16. Withholdings; Deductions. The Company may withhold and deduct from any benefits and payments made or to be made pursuant to this Agreement (a) all federal, state, local and other taxes as may be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling and (b) any deductions consented to in writing by Employee.

17. Title and Headings; Construction. Titles and headings to Sections hereof are for the purpose of reference only and shall in no way limit, define or otherwise affect the provisions hereof. Any and all Exhibits or Attachments referred to in this Agreement are, by such reference, incorporated herein and made a part hereof for all purposes. Unless the context requires otherwise, all references to laws, regulations, contracts, documents, agreements and instruments refer to such laws, regulations, contracts, documents, agreements and instruments as they may be amended from time to time, and references to particular provisions of laws or regulations include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any succeeding law or regulation. All references to "dollars" or "$" in this Agreement refer to United States dollars. The words "herein", "hereof", "hereunder" and other compounds of the word "here" shall refer to the entire Agreement, including all Exhibits attached hereto, and not to any particular provision hereof. The word "or" is not exclusive. Wherever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural and conversely. All references to "including" shall be construed as meaning "including without limitation." Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein shall be construed or resolved against any party hereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Agreement has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of the parties hereto.

18. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall in all respects be construed according to the laws of the State of Texas without regard to its conflict of laws principles that would result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. With respect to any claim or dispute related to or arising under this Agreement, the parties hereto consent to the exclusive jurisdiction, forum and venue of the state and federal courts (as applicable) located in Houston, Texas.

19. Entire Agreement and Amendment. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the matters covered herein and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, oral or written, between the parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof, other than any indemnification rights or equity award agreements, which are in effect or outstanding as of the Effective Date. This Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument executed by both parties hereto.

20. Enforcement. The parties hereto acknowledge that an award of damages for failure to comply with Sections 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13 of this Agreement may not be an adequate remedy for the Company attempting to enforce or prevent the breach of such provisions, and accordingly the parties hereto authorize the Company to (in addition to any other remedies or relief to which it may be entitled) bring an action against Employee for a permanent or temporary injunction, to compel the specific performance or any other equitable remedy by Employee of their obligations to comply with, or prevent the breach of or remedy the breach of, such provisions without proof of actual damages.

21. Waiver of Breach. Any waiver of this Agreement must be executed by the party to be bound by such waiver. No waiver by either party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other party, or of compliance with any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party, will operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by such other party or any similar or dissimilar provision or condition at the same or any subsequent time. The failure of either party hereto to take any action by reason of any breach will not deprive such party of the right to take action at any time.

22. Assignment. This Agreement is personal to Employee, and neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder shall be assignable or otherwise transferred by Employee. The Company may assign this Agreement without Employee's consent, including to any member of the Company Group and to any successor (whether by merger, purchase or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the equity, assets or businesses of the Company.

23. Notices. Notices provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly received (a) when delivered in person; (b) on the first Business Day after such notice is sent by express overnight courier service; or (c) on the second Business Day following deposit with a nationally-recognized second-day courier service with proof of receipt maintained, in each case, to the following address, as applicable:

If to the Company, addressed to:

1780 Hughes Landing Blvd.
Suite 800
The Woodlands, Texas 77380
Attention: Board of Directors

If to Employee, addressed to:

(Or, if different, the latest address on file with the Company)

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, including by electronic mail or facsimile, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument. Each counterpart may consist of a copy hereof containing multiple signature pages, each signed by one party, but together signed by both parties hereto.

25. Deemed Resignations. Except as otherwise determined by the Board or as otherwise agreed to in writing by Employee and any member of the Company Group prior to the termination of Employee's employment with the Company or any member of the Company Group, any termination of Employee's employment shall constitute, as applicable, an automatic resignation of Employee: (a) as an officer of the Company and each member of the Company Group; (b) from the Board; and (c) from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any member of the Company Group and from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any corporation, limited liability entity, unlimited liability entity or other entity in which any member of the Company Group holds an equity interest and with respect to which board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) Employee serves as such Company Group member's designee or other representative.

26. Section 409A.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all provisions of this Agreement are intended to comply with Section 409A of the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations and administrative guidance issued thereunder (collectively, "Section 409A") or an exemption therefrom and shall be construed and administered in accordance with such intent. Any payments under this Agreement that may be excluded from Section 409A either as separation pay due to an involuntary separation from service or as a short-term deferral shall be excluded from Section 409A to the maximum extent possible. For purposes of Section 409A, each installment payment provided under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment. Any payments to be made under this Agreement upon a termination of Employee's employment shall only be made if such termination of employment constitutes a "separation from service" under Section 409A.

(b) To the extent that any right to reimbursement of expenses or payment of any benefit in-kind under this Agreement constitutes nonqualified deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A), (i) any such expense reimbursement shall be made by the Company no later than the last day of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which such expense was incurred by Employee, (ii) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (iii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other taxable year; provided, that the foregoing clause shall not be violated with regard to expenses reimbursed under any arrangement covered by Section 105(b) of the Code solely because such expenses are subject to a limit related to the period in which the arrangement is in effect.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, if any payment or benefit provided for herein would be subject to additional taxes and interest under Section 409A if Employee's receipt of such payment or benefit is not delayed until the earlier of the date of Employee's death or the date that is six (6) months after the Termination Date (such date, the "Section 409A Payment Date"), then such payment or benefit shall not be provided to Employee (or Employee's estate, if applicable) until the Section 409A Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company makes no representations that the payments and benefits provided under this Agreement are exempt from, or compliant with, Section 409A and in no event shall any member of the Company Group be liable for all or any portion of any taxes, penalties, interest or other expenses that may be incurred by Employee on account of non-compliance with Section 409A.

27. Effect of Termination. The provisions of Sections 7(a), 7(f), 8-15, 20, 25, and 26 and those provisions necessary to interpret and enforce them, shall survive any termination of this Agreement and any termination of the employment relationship between Employee and the Company.

28. Third-Party Beneficiaries. Each member of the Company Group that is not a signatory to this Agreement shall be a third-party beneficiary of Employee's obligations under Sections 7-15, 20, and 25 and shall be entitled to enforce such obligations as if a party hereto.

29. Certain Excise Taxes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if Employee is a "disqualified individual" (as defined in Section 280G(c) of the Code), and the benefits provided for in this Agreement, together with any other payments and benefits which Employee has the right to receive from the Company and its affiliates, would constitute a "parachute payment" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), then the benefits provided for in this Agreement (beginning with any benefit to be paid in cash hereunder) shall be either (a) reduced (but not below zero) so that the present value of such total amounts and benefits received by Employee from the Company will be one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) and so that no portion of such amounts and benefits received by Employee shall be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or (b) paid in full, whichever produces the better net after-tax position to Employee (taking into account any applicable excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code and any other applicable taxes). The determination as to whether any such reduction in the amount of the benefits provided hereunder is necessary shall be made by the Compensation Committee in good faith and in consultation with tax and legal advisors of the Company. If a reduced payment or benefit is made and through error or otherwise that payment or benefit, when aggregated with other payments and benefits from the Company (or its affiliates) used in determining if a "parachute payment" exists, exceeds one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's base amount, then Employee shall immediately repay such excess to the Company upon notification that an overpayment has been made. Nothing in this Section 29 shall require the Company to be responsible for, or have any liability or obligation with respect to, Employee's excise tax liabilities under Section 4999 of the Code.

30. Severability. If an arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) is invalid or unenforceable, then the invalidity or unenforceability of that provision (or portion thereof) shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

Employee's duties and responsibilities shall include those normally incidental to the position(s) identified in Section 1, as well as such additional duties as may be assigned to Employee by the CEO from time to time, which duties and responsibilities may include providing services to other members of the Company Group in addition to the Company. Employee may, without violating this Section 2(a), (i) as a passive investment, own publicly traded securities in such form or manner as will not require any services by Employee in the operation of the entities in which such securities are owned; (ii) engage in charitable and civic activities; (iii) serve on the board of directors of Vogel Alcove, a nonprofit organization; and (iv) with the prior written consent of the board of directors of the Company (the "Board"), engage in other personal and passive investment activities, in each case, so long as such engagements, ownership, interests or activities do not interfere with Employee's ability to fulfill Employee's duties and responsibilities under this Agreement and are not inconsistent with Employee's obligations to any member of the Company Group or competitive with the business of any member of the Company Group.

(b) Employee hereby represents and warrants that Employee is not the subject of. or a party to. any non-competition or non-solicitation covenant, non-disclosure agreement, or any other agreement, obligation, restriction or understanding that would prohibit Employee from executing this Agreement or fully performing each of Employee's duties and responsibilities hereunder, or would in any manner, directly or indirectly, limit or affect any of the duties and responsibilities that may now or in the future be assigned to Employee hereunder. Employee expressly acknowledges and agrees that Employee is strictly prohibited from using or disclosing any confidential information belonging to any prior employer in the course of performing services for any member of the Company Group, and Employee promises that Employee shall not do so. Employee shall not introduce documents or other materials containing confidential information of any prior employer to the premises or property (including computers and computer systems) of any member of the Company Group.

(c) Employee owes each member of the Company Group fiduciary duties, and the obligations described in this Agreement are in addition to. and not in lieu of, the obligations Employee owes each member of the Company Group under statutory and common law.

The performance targets that must be achieved in order to be eligible for certain bonus levels shall be established by the Compensation Committee annually, in its sole discretion, and communicated to Employee within the first one-hundred twenty (120) days of the applicable Bonus Year. Each Annual Bonus (including the 2023 Bonus), if any, shall be paid as soon as administratively feasible after the Compensation Committee certifies whether the applicable performance targets for the applicable Bonus Year have been achieved, but in no event later than March 15 following the end of such Bonus Year. In addition, the provisions of the last sentence of Section 8(a) shall apply, and, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event Employee fails to abide by the terms of Sections 9, 10 or 11.

9. Disclosures. Promptly (and in any event, within three (3) Business Days) upon becoming aware of (a) any actual or potential Conflict of Interest or (b) any lawsuit, claim or arbitration filed against or involving Employee or any trust or vehicle owned or controlled by Employee, in each case, Employee shall disclose such actual or potential Conflict of Interest or such lawsuit, claim or arbitration to the Board. A "Conflict of Interest" shall exist when Employee engages in, or plans to engage in. any activities, associations, or interests that conflict with, or create an appearance of a conflict with, Employee's duties, responsibilities, authorities, or obligations for or to any member of the Company Group.

10. Confidentiality. In the course of Employee's employment with the Company and the performance of Employee's duties on behalf of the Company Group hereunder, Employee will be provided with, and will have access to. Employee shall follow all Company policies and protocols regarding the security of all documents and other materials containing Confidential Information (regardless of the medium on which Confidential Information is stored). The covenants of this Section 10(a) shall apply to all Confidential Information, whether now known or later to become known to Employee during the period that Employee is employed by or affiliated with or providing services to the Company or any other member of the Company Group.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of Section 10(a) to the contrary, Employee may make the following disclosures and uses of Confidential Information:

(i) disclosures to other employees of a member of the Company Group who have a need to know the information in connection with the businesses of the Company Group;

(iii) disclosures and uses that are approved in writing by the Board; or

(iv) disclosures to a person or entity that has (x) been retained by a member of the Company Group to provide services to one or more members of the Company Group and (y) agreed in writing to abide by the terms of a confidentiality agreement.

In addition, the provisions of this Section 11(a) shall not be violated by the Employee commencing employment with a subsidiary, division or unit of any entity that engages in a business in competition with the Company Group so long as the Employee and such subsidiary, division or unit does not engage in a business in competition with the Company Group.

contractor of any other Person or hire or retain any such employee, agent or individual, or take any action to materially assist or aid any other Person in identifying, hiring or soliciting any such employee, agent or individual (any employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company shall be deemed covered by this Section 11(b) while so employed or retained and for a period of six (6) months thereafter);

(d) interfere, or aid or induce any other person or entity in interfering, with the relationship between the Company Group and any of their respective vendors, joint venturers or licensors.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement or any agreement to which Employee is a party or by which Employee may be bound, this Section 11 will be limited to comply with Rule 5.06(a) of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct or other similar applicable law or ethical or professional rules or restrictions.

(f) Definitions. For the purposes of this Section 11, the following definitions shall apply:

(ii) "Person" means an individual, a partnership, a limited liability company, a corporation, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint venture, an unincorporated organization and a governmental entity or any department, agency or political subdivision thereof.

12. Ownership of Intellectual Property.

(a) Employee agrees that the Company shall own. and Employee shall (and hereby does) assign, all right, title and interest (including patent rights, copyrights, trade secret rights, mask work rights, trademark rights, and all other intellectual and industrial property rights of any sort throughout the world) relating to any and all inventions (whether or not patentable), discoveries, developments, improvements, innovations, works of authorship, mask works, designs, know-how, ideas, formulae, processes, techniques, data and information authored, created, contributed to, made or conceived or reduced to practice, in whole or in part, by Employee during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, whether or not registerable under U.S. law or the laws of other jurisdictions, that either (i) relate, at the time of conception, reduction to practice, creation, derivation or development, to any member of the Company Group's businesses or actual or anticipated research or development; or (ii) were developed on any amount of the Company's or any other member of the Company Group's time or with the use of any member of the Company Group's equipment, supplies, facilities or Confidential Information (all of the foregoing collectively referred to herein as "Company Intellectual Property"), and Employee shall promptly disclose all Company Intellectual Property to the Company in writing. To support Employee's disclosure obligation herein. Employee shall keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all Company Intellectual Property made by Employee (solely or jointly with others) during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group in such form as may be specified from time to time by the Company. These records shall be available to, and remain the sole property of, the Company at all times.

(b) All of Employee's works of authorship and associated copyrights created during the period in which Employee is employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group and in the scope of Employee's employment or engagement shall be deemed to be "works made for hire" within the meaning of the Copyright Act. To the extent any right, title and interest in and to Company Intellectual Property cannot be assigned by Employee to the Company, Employee shall grant, and does hereby grant, to the Company Group an exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import, export, reproduce, practice and otherwise commercialize such rights, title and interest.

(c) Employee recognizes that this Agreement will not be deemed to require assignment of any invention or intellectual property that Employee developed entirely on Employee's own time without using the equipment, supplies, facilities, trade secrets, or Confidential Information of any member of the Company Group. In addition, this Agreement does not apply to any invention that qualifies fully for protection from assignment to the Company under any specifically applicable state law or regulation.

(d) To the extent allowed by law, this Section applies to all rights that may be known as or referred to as "moral rights," "artist's rights," "droit moral," or the like, including without limitation those rights set forth in 17 U.S.C. § 106A (collectively, " Moral Rights"). To the extent Employee retains any Moral Rights under applicable law, Employee hereby ratifies and consents to any action that may be taken with respect to such Moral Rights by or authorized by the Company or any member of the Company Group, and Employee hereby waives and agrees not to assert any Moral Rights with respect to such Moral Rights. Employee shall confirm any such ratifications, consents, waivers, and agreements from time to time as requested by the Company.

(e) All inventions (whether or not patentable), original works of authorship, designs, know-how, mask works, ideas, information, developments, improvements, and trade secrets of which Employee is the sole or joint author, creator, contributor, or inventor that were made or developed by Employee prior to Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, or in which Employee asserts any intellectual property right, and which are applicable to or relate in any way to the business, products, services, or demonstrably anticipated research and development or business of any member of the Company Group ("Prior Inventions") are listed on Exhibit A, and Employee represents that Exhibit A is a complete list of all such Prior Inventions. If no such list is attached. Employee hereby represents and warrants that there are no Prior Inventions, and Employee shall make no claim of any rights to any Prior Inventions. If, in the course of Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, Employee incorporates into the product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group a Prior Invention, the Company Group is hereby granted and will have a nonexclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license to make, have made, modify, use, import, export, offer for sale, sell and otherwise commercialize such Prior Invention as part of or in connection with such product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group.

(f) Employee shall perform, during and after the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, all acts deemed necessary or desirable by the Company to permit and assist each member of the Company Group, at the Company's expense, in obtaining and enforcing the full benefits, enjoyment, rights and title throughout the world in the Company intellectual Property and Confidential Information assigned, to be assigned, or licensed to the Company under this Agreement. Such acts may include execution of documents and assistance or cooperation (i) in the filing, prosecution, registration, and memorialization of assignment of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, or other applications; (ii) in the enforcement of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, moral rights, trade secrets, or other proprietary rights; and (iii) in other legal proceedings related to the Company Intellectual Property or Confidential Information.

(g) In the event that the Company (or, as applicable, a member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to file, prosecute, register, or memorialize the assignment of any patent, copyright, mask work or other applications or to enforce any patent, copyright, mask work, moral right, trade secret or other proprietary right under any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property (including derivative works, improvements, renewals, extensions, continuations, divisionals, continuations in part, continuing patent applications, reissues, and reexaminations of such Company Intellectual Property), Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee, (i) to execute, file, prosecute, register and memorialize the assignment of any such application; (ii) to execute and file any documentation required for such enforcement; and (iii) to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the filing, prosecution, registration, memorialization of assignment, issuance, and enforcement of patents, copyrights, mask works, moral rights, trade secrets or other rights under the Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, all with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Employee.

(h) In the event that Employee enters into, on behalf of any member of the Company Group, any contracts or agreements relating to any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, Employee shall assign such contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) promptly, and in any event, prior to Employee's termination of employment. If the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to assign said contracts or agreements, or if Employee does not assign said contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) prior to Employee's termination of employment. Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee to execute said assignments and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the execution of said documents.

13. Defense of Claims. During the Employment Period and for a period of one (1) year following the Termination Date, upon request from the Company, Employee shall reasonably cooperate with the Company Group, at times and locations agreeable to Employee, to assist (i) in the prosecution of any claims that may be made by the Company Group, to the extent that such claims may relate to the Employee's employment with the Company and about which the Employee has substantial knowledge (collectively, the "Claims"). (2) in the defense of any Claims that may be made by or against any member of the Company Group that relate to Employee's actual or prior areas of responsibility. Subject to Section 10(e), the Employee agrees to promptly inform the Company if the Employee becomes aware of any lawsuits involving Claims that may be filed or threatened against the Company Group. Subject to Section 10(e), the Employee also agrees to promptly inform the Company (to the extent that the Employee is legally permitted to do so) if the Employee is asked to assist in any investigation of the Company Group (or their actions) or another party attempts to obtain information or documents from the Employee (other than in connection with any litigation or other proceeding in which the Employee is a party-in-opposition) with respect to matters the Employee believes in good faith to relate to any investigation of the Company Group, in each case, regardless of whether a lawsuit or other proceeding has then been tiled against the Company Group with respect to such investigation, and shall not do so unless legally required. Subject to Section 10(e). during the pendency of any litigation or other proceeding involving Claims, the Employee shall not communicate with anyone (other than the Employee's attorneys and tax and/or financial advisors and except to the extent that the Employee determines in good faith is necessary in connection with the performance of the Employee's duties hereunder) with respect to the facts or subject matter of any pending or potential litigation or regulatory or administrative proceeding involving the Company Group without giving prior written notice to the Company or the Company's counsel.

14. Non-Disparagement. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except to the extent compelled or required by applicable law and subject to Section 10(e), Employee agrees Employee shall not disparage the Company or its respective officers, directors, employees, shareholders or successors or their respective products or services, in any manner (including but not limited to, verbally or via hard copy, websites, blogs, social media forums or any other medium); provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall prevent Employee from: engaging in concerted activity relative to the terms and conditions of Employee's employment and in communications protected under the National Labor Relations Act, filing a charge or providing information to any governmental agency; and provided, further, that nothing in this Section shall prevent either Employee or the Company or any of its directors or executive officers from providing information in response to a subpoena or other enforceable legal process or as otherwise required by law.

15. Reasonableness of Covenants. In signing this Agreement, Employee has carefully read and considered all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed under these Sections 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14. Employee agrees that these restraints are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company Group and their trade secrets and Confidential Information and that such restraints are reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area. Employee acknowledges that each of these covenants has a unique, very substantial and immeasurable value to the Company Group.

16. Tolling. In the event of any violation of the provisions of Section 11 hereto, Employee acknowledges and agrees that the post-termination restrictions contained in Section 11 shall be extended by a period of time equal to the period of such violation, as determined by a court of law, it being the intention of the parties hereto that the running of the applicable post-termination restriction period shall be tolled during any period of such violation.

17. Withholdings; Deductions. The Company may withhold and deduct from any benefits and payments made or to be made pursuant to this Agreement (a) all federal, state, local and other taxes as may be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling and (b) any deductions consented to in writing by Employee.

18. Title and Headings; Construction. Titles and headings to Sections hereof are for the purpose of reference only and shall in no way limit, define or otherwise affect the provisions hereof. Any and all Exhibits or Attachments referred to in this Agreement are, by such reference, incorporated herein and made a part hereof for all purposes. Unless the context requires otherwise, all references to laws, regulations, contracts, documents, agreements and instruments refer to such laws, regulations, contracts, documents, agreements and instruments as they may be amended from time to time, and references to particular provisions of laws or regulations include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any succeeding law or regulation. All references to "dollars" or "$" in this Agreement refer to United States dollars. The words "herein", "hereof", "hereunder" and other compounds of the word "here" shall refer to the entire Agreement, including all Exhibits attached hereto, and not to any particular provision hereof. The word "or" is not exclusive. Wherever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural and conversely. All references to "including" shall be construed as meaning "including without limitation." Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein shall be construed or resolved against any party hereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Agreement has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of the parties hereto.

19. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall in all respects be construed according to the laws of the State of Texas without regard to its conflict of laws principles that would result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. With respect to any claim or dispute related to or arising under this Agreement, the parties hereto consent to the exclusive jurisdiction, forum and venue of the state and federal courts (as applicable) located in Houston. Texas.

20. Entire Agreement and Amendment. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the matters covered herein and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, oral or written, between the parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof, other than any indemnification rights or equity award agreements, which are in effect or outstanding as of the Effective Date. This Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument executed by both parties hereto.

21. Enforcement. The parties hereto acknowledge that an award of damages for failure to comply with Sections 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14 of this Agreement may not be an adequate remedy for the Company attempting to enforce or prevent the breach of such provisions, and accordingly the parties hereto authorize the Company to (in addition to any other remedies or relief to which it may be entitled) bring an action against Employee for a permanent or temporary injunction, to compel the specific performance or any other equitable remedy by Employee of their obligations to comply with, or prevent the breach of or remedy the breach of, such provisions without proof of actual damages.

22. Waiver of Breach. Any waiver of this Agreement must be executed by the party to be bound by such waiver. No waiver by either party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other party, or of compliance with any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party, will operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by such other party or any similar or dissimilar provision or condition at the same or any subsequent time. The failure of either party hereto to take any action by reason of any breach will not deprive such party of the right to take action at any time.

23. Assignment. This Agreement is personal to Employee, and neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder shall be assignable or otherwise transferred by Employee. The Company may assign this Agreement without Employee's consent, including to any member of the Company Group and to any successor (whether by merger, purchase or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the equity, assets or businesses of the Company.

24. Notices. Notices provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly received (a) when delivered in person; (b) on the first Business Day after such notice is sent by express overnight courier service; or (c) on the second Business Day following deposit with a nationally-recognized second-day courier service with proof of receipt maintained, in each case, to the following address, as applicable:

If to the Company, addressed to:

1780 Hughes Landing Blvd.
Suite 800
The Woodlands, Texas 77380
Attention: Board of Directors

If to Employee, addressed to:

(Or, if different, the latest address on file with the Company)

25. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, including by electronic mail or facsimile, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument. Each counterpart may consist of a copy hereof containing multiple signature pages, each signed by one party, but together signed by both parties hereto.

26. Deemed Resignations. Except as otherwise determined by the Board or as otherwise agreed to in writing by Employee and any member of the Company Group prior to the termination of Employee's employment with the Company or any member of the Company Group, any termination of Employee's employment shall constitute, as applicable, an automatic resignation of Employee: (a) as an officer of the Company and each member of the Company Group; (b) from the Board; and (c) from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any member of the Company Group and from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any corporation, limited liability entity, unlimited liability entity or other entity in which any member of the Company Group holds an equity interest and with respect to which board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) Employee serves as such Company Group member's designee or other representative.

27. Section 409A.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all provisions of this Agreement are intended to comply with Section 409A of the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations and administrative guidance issued thereunder (collectively, "Section 409A") or an exemption therefrom and shall be construed and administered in accordance with such intent. Any payments under this Agreement that may be excluded from Section 409A either as separation pay due to an involuntary separation from service or as a short-term deferral shall be excluded from Section 409A to the maximum extent possible. For purposes of Section 409A. each installment payment provided under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment. Any payments to be made under this Agreement upon a termination of Employee's employment shall only be made if such termination of employment constitutes a "separation from service" under Section 409A.

(b) To the extent that any right to reimbursement of expenses or payment of any benefit in-kind under this Agreement constitutes nonqualified deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A). (i) any such expense reimbursement shall be made by the Company no later than the last day of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which such expense was incurred by Employee, (ii) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (iii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other taxable year; provided, that the foregoing clause shall not be violated with regard to expenses reimbursed under any arrangement covered by Section 105(b) of the Code solely because such expenses are subject to a limit related to the period in which the arrangement is in effect.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, if any payment or benefit provided for herein would be subject to additional taxes and interest under Section 409A if Employee's receipt of such payment or benefit is not delayed until the earlier of the date of Employee's death or the date that is six (6) months after the Termination Date (such date, the "Section 409A Payment Date"), then such payment or benefit shall not be provided to Employee (or Employee's estate, if applicable) until the Section 409A Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company makes no representations that the payments and benefits provided under this Agreement are exempt from, or compliant with. Section 409A and in no event shall any member of the Company Group be liable for all or any portion of any taxes, penalties, interest or other expenses that may be incurred by Employee on account of non- compliance with Section 409A.

28. Effect of Termination. The provisions of Sections 8(a), 9-16, 21, 26, and 27 and those provisions necessary to interpret and enforce them, shall survive any termination of this Agreement and any termination of the employment relationship between Employee and the Company.

29. Third-Party Beneficiaries. Each member of the Company Group that is not a signatory to this Agreement shall be a third-party beneficiary of Employee's obligations under Sections 8-16, 21, and 26 and shall be entitled to enforce such obligations as if a party hereto.

30. Certain Excise Taxes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if Employee is a "disqualified individual" (as defined in Section 280G(c) of the Code), and the benefits provided for in this Agreement, together with any other payments and benefits which Employee has the right to receive from the Company and its affiliates, would constitute a "parachute payment" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), then the benefits provided for in this Agreement (beginning with any benefit to be paid in cash hereunder) shall be either (a) reduced (but not below zero) so that the present value of such total amounts and benefits received by Employee from the Company will be one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) and so that no portion of such amounts and benefits received by Employee shall be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or (b) paid in full, whichever produces the better net after-tax position to Employee (taking into account any applicable excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code and any other applicable taxes). The determination as to whether any such reduction in the amount of the benefits provided hereunder is necessary shall be made by the Compensation Committee in good faith and in consultation with tax and legal advisors of the Company. If a reduced payment or benefit is made and through error or otherwise that payment or benefit, when aggregated with other payments and benefits from the Company (or its affiliates) used in determining if a "parachute payment" exists, exceeds one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's base amount, then Employee shall immediately repay such excess to the Company upon notification that an overpayment has been made. Nothing in this Section 30 shall require the Company to be responsible for. or have any liability or obligation with respect to, Employee's excise tax liabilities under Section 4999 of the Code.

31. Severability. If an arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) is invalid or unenforceable, then the invalidity or unenforceability of that provision (or portion thereof) shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Talen Energy Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Andrew Wright ("Employee") effective as of June 19, 2023 (the "Effective Date").

1. Employment. During the Employment Period (as defined below), the Company shall employ Employee, and Employee shall serve, as Chief Administrative Officer of the Company. In addition, if requested by the Company, Employee shall serve as an officer or member of the board of directors of any subsidiaries or affiliates of the Company without additional compensation.

2. Duties and Responsibilities of Employee.

(a) During the Employment Period, Employee shall actively engage in the business and affairs of the Company (together with its direct and indirect subsidiaries, the "Company Group") as may be requested by the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of the Company from time to time, devote such amount of Employee's business time and attention as is reasonably necessary to manage the business and affairs of the Company, which amount of time will constitute substantially all of Employee's business time. Employee's duties and responsibilities shall include those normally incidental to the position(s) identified in Section 1, as well as such additional duties as may be assigned to Employee by the CEO from time to time, which duties and responsibilities may include providing services to other members of the Company Group in addition to the Company. Employee may, without violating this Section 2(a), (i) as a passive investment, own publicly traded securities in such form or manner as will not require any services by Employee in the operation of the entities in which such securities are owned; (ii) engage in charitable and civic activities; and (iii) with the prior written consent of the board of directors of the Company (the "Board"), engage in other personal and passive investment activities, in each case, so long as such engagements, ownership, interests or activities do not interfere with Employee's ability to fulfill Employee's duties and responsibilities under this Agreement and are not inconsistent with Employee's obligations to any member of the Company Group or competitive with the business of any member of the Company Group.

(b) Employee hereby represents and warrants that Employee is not the subject of, or a party to, any non-competition or non-solicitation covenant, non-disclosure agreement, or any other agreement, obligation, restriction or understanding that would prohibit Employee from executing this Agreement or fully performing each of Employee's duties and responsibilities hereunder, or would in any manner, directly or indirectly, limit or affect any of the duties and responsibilities that may now or in the future be assigned to Employee hereunder. Employee expressly acknowledges and agrees that Employee is strictly prohibited from using or disclosing any confidential information belonging to any prior employer in the course of performing services for any member of the Company Group, and Employee promises that Employee shall not do so. Employee shall not introduce documents or other materials containing confidential information of any prior employer to the premises or property (including computers and computer systems) of any member of the Company Group.

(c) Employee owes each member of the Company Group fiduciary duties, and the obligations described in this Agreement are in addition to, and not in lieu of, the obligations Employee owes each member of the Company Group under statutory and common law.

3. Compensation.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company shall pay to Employee an annualized base salary of $530,000 (the "Base Salary") in consideration for Employee's services under this Agreement, payable in substantially equal installments in conformity with the Company's customary payroll practices for similarly situated employees as may exist from time to time, but no less frequently than twice per month. The Base Salary shall be subject to annual review by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee").

(b) Annual Bonus. Employee shall be eligible for bonus compensation for calendar year 2023 and each subsequent complete calendar year that Employee is employed by the Company hereunder (the "Annual Bonus"). The target Annual Bonus for each such calendar year (the "Bonus Year") shall be 100% of Employee's Base Salary in effect as of the first day of the Bonus Year (or, with respect to calendar year 2023, in effect on the Effective Date), with the actual Annual Bonus for a Bonus Year depending on the level of achievement of the performance targets as determined by the Compensation Committee for the Bonus Year. The performance targets that must be achieved in order to be eligible for certain bonus levels shall be established by the Compensation Committee annually, in its sole discretion, and communicated to Employee within the first one-hundred twenty (120) days of the applicable Bonus Year. Each Annual Bonus (including the 2023 Bonus), if any, shall be paid as soon as administratively feasible after the Compensation Committee certifies whether the applicable performance targets for the applicable Bonus Year have been achieved, but in no event later than March 15 following the end of such Bonus Year. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3(b) to the contrary, but subject to Section 7, no Annual Bonus (including the 2023 Bonus), if any, nor any portion thereof, shall be payable for any Bonus Year unless Employee remains continuously employed by the Company from the Effective Date through the date on which such Annual Bonus is paid.

(c) Long-Term Incentive Awards.

(i) As soon as practicable (but no later than sixty (60) days) following the Effective Date (the "Date of Grant"), the Board shall establish a Long Term Incentive Plan (such plan, or any successor plan, the "LTIP") and grant to Employee thereunder: (i) an award of restricted stock units (the "RSUs") and (ii) an award of performance stock units (the "PSUs," and collectively with the RSUs, the "Emergence Grant"). The Emergence Grant will be made with respect to a number of shares of Company common stock having a value, based on the equity value implied by the Company's plan enterprise value determined as of the effective date of its Plan of Reorganization pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as determined by the Board in good faith, equal to $6,360,000. The Emergence Grant will be allocated between RSUs and PSUs on a basis determined by the Board. The RSUs shall generally vest in one-third increments on each of the first three (3) anniversaries of the Date of Grant, provided Employee remains continuously employed by the Company or an affiliate of the Company through each such vesting date. The PSUs shall vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Date of Grant, subject to Employee's continuous employment and the achievement of the performance metrics determined by the Board and set forth in the applicable grant agreements.

(ii) Provided that Employee is employed by the Company on the applicable date of grant, Employee shall be eligible to receive an annual grant under the LTIP with a grant date target value not less than 400% of Employee's Base Salary as in effect on the applicable date of grant of such award on such terms and conditions as the Board and the Compensation Committee shall determine from time to time. All awards granted to Employee under the LTIP shall be subject to and governed by the terms and provisions of the LTIP as in effect from time to time and the award agreements evidencing such awards. For the avoidance of doubt, after the receipt of the Emergence Grant, Employee shall not receive any additional annual grants in the calendar years of 2023, 2024 or 2025. Employee will resume receipt of annual grants under the LTIP in the normal course in calendar year 2026.

4. Term of Employment. The term of Employee's employment under this Agreement shall be for the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term"). The parties may, but shall not be required to, mutually agree to extend the Term for additional one (1)-year periods. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Employee's employment pursuant to this Agreement may be terminated at any time in accordance with Section 7. The period from the Effective Date through the expiration of this Agreement or, if sooner, the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Agreement, regardless of the time or reason for such termination, shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period."

5. Business Expenses. Subject to Section 26, the Company shall reimburse Employee for Employee's reasonable out-of-pocket business-related expenses actually incurred in the performance of Employee's duties hereunder during the Employment Period so long as Employee timely submits all documentation for such expenses, as required by Company policy in effect from time to time. Any such reimbursement of expenses shall be made by the Company upon or as soon as practicable following receipt of such documentation (but in any event not later than the close of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which the expense is incurred by Employee). In no event shall any reimbursement be made to Employee for any expenses incurred after the date of Employee's termination of employment with the Company.

6. Benefits.

(a) During the Employment Period, Employee shall be eligible to participate in the same benefit plans and programs in which other similarly situated Company employees are eligible to participate, subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plans and programs in effect from time to time. The Company shall not, however, by reason of this Section 6, be obligated to institute, maintain, or refrain from changing, amending, or discontinuing, any such plan or policy, so long as such changes are similarly applicable to similarly situated Company employees generally.

(b) The Company shall reimburse Employee up to $15,000 for legal fees incurred in connection with the review of this Agreement.

(c) The Company shall cover Employee under directors' and officers' liability insurance from the Effective Date, through the Term, and, while potential liability exists, after the Term or the termination of Employee's employment with the Company, on substantially similar terms as provided to other executive officers of the Company.

(d) During the Employment Period, the Employee shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of paid vacation per calendar year (as prorated for partial years), administered in accordance with the Company's policy on accrual and use applicable to employees as in effect from time to time. Vacation may be taken at such times and intervals as the Employee determines, subject to the business needs of the Company.

7. Termination of Employment.

(a) Company's Right to Terminate Employee's Employment for Cause. The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment hereunder at any time for Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean Employee's commission of an act or omission, or Employee causing the Company or any other member of the Company Group to commit an act or omission, that constitutes:

(i) Employee's fraud or misconduct;

(ii) Employee's violation of applicable law in connection with the management, operation or reputation of the Company or any other member of the Company Group that results in (or could reasonably be expected to result in) material injury to the Company or any other member of the Company Group;

(iii) Employee's material breach of this Agreement or any other written agreement between Employee and one or more members of the Company Group, including Employee's material breach of any representation, warranty or covenant made under any such agreement;

(iv) Employee's act of theft, embezzlement or misappropriation of the property of the Company or any other member of the Company Group, in each case, that results in (or could reasonably be expected to result in) material financial or reputational harm to the Company or any other member of the Company Group;

(v) Employee's breach of his duty of loyalty to the Company or violation of the Company's policies (to the extent such policies have been clearly communicated in writing to Employee), including the Company's code of conduct and business ethics (or similar policies), anti-harassment policy, anti-retaliation, or policies related to age, sex or other prohibited discrimination in the workplace; or

(vi) Employee's conviction or plea of nolo contendere to a felony or crime involving moral turpitude.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no determination of "Cause" may be made pursuant to Sections 7(a)(ii) or (iii) unless (1) Employee has been given written notice by the Board describing the specific alleged action(s) or omission(s) that constitute "Cause," and (2) Employee has failed to cure such acts or omissions within thirty (30) days of such notice from the Board. Upon the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Section 7(a), the Company shall pay to Employee (A) all earned and unpaid Base Salary as of the date of the termination of Employee's employment with the Company, (B) reimbursement for all incurred but unreimbursed expenses for which Employee is entitled to reimbursement in accordance with Section 5 and Sections 6(b), (c), and (d), and (C) benefits to which Employee is entitled under the terms of any applicable benefit plan or program described in Section 6(a) (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits"). In addition, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event of a termination of Employee's employment for Cause.

(b) Company's Right to Terminate for Convenience. The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment for convenience at any time and for any reason, or no reason at all, upon written notice to Employee, in which event Employee shall receive the compensation and benefits described in Section 7(f).

(c) Employee's Right to Terminate for Good Reason. Employee shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment with the Company at any time for Good Reason, in which event Employee shall receive the compensation and benefits described in Section 7(f). For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean any of the following occurring without Employee's consent:

(i) a material adverse change in Employee's title, duties or responsibilities (including reporting responsibilities);

(ii) a material reduction in Employee's Base Salary;

(iii) a relocation of Employee's primary work location to a distance of more than 50 miles from the Houston, Texas metropolitan area; or

(iv) a material breach by the Company of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

The Company and Employee agree that Good Reason shall not exist unless and until Employee provides the Company with written notice of the acts alleged to constitute Good Reason within ninety (90) days of Employee's knowledge of the occurrence of such event, and Company fails to cure such acts within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice. Employee must terminate employment within sixty (60) days following the expiration of such cure period for the termination to be on account of Good Reason.

(d) Death or Disability. Upon the death or Disability of Employee, Employee's employment with the Company shall automatically terminate and the Company shall pay to Employee or Employee's estate, as applicable, (i) the Accrued Benefits, (ii) any earned and unpaid Annual Bonus for the calendar year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurs (which amount shall be paid within sixty (60) days following the date of such termination of employment but in no event later than March 15 of the year following the Bonus Year to which such Annual Bonus relates), and (iii) an Annual Bonus for the year in which such termination of employment occurs based on actual performance results for the applicable Bonus Year and prorated for the period of days beginning on January 1 (or, if later the Effective Date) and ending on the date of such termination of employment relative to the number of days in the applicable Bonus Year. The prorated Annual Bonus described in clause (iii) of the preceding sentence, if any, shall be paid in cash at the same time corresponding bonuses are paid to similarly situated employees of the Company, but in no event later than March 15 following the year in which such termination of employment occurs. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Disability" shall exist if, as determined in the reasonable opinion of a licensed physician, Employee is unable to perform the essential functions of Employee's position (after accounting for reasonable accommodation, if applicable and required by applicable law), due to physical or mental impairment, that continues for a period in excess of ninety (90) consecutive days or one hundred-eighty (180) days, whether or not consecutive (or for any longer period as may be required by applicable law), in any twelve (12)-month period.

(e) Employee's Right to Terminate for Convenience. In addition to Employee's right to terminate Employee's employment for Good Reason, Employee shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment with the Company for convenience at any time and for any other reason, or no reason at all, upon sixty (60) days' advance written notice to the Company; provided, however, that if Employee has provided notice to the Company of Employee's termination of employment, the Company may determine, in its sole discretion, that such termination shall be effective on any date prior to the effective date of termination provided in such notice (and, if such earlier date is so required, then it shall not change the basis for Employee's termination of employment nor be construed or interpreted as a termination of employment pursuant to Section 7(b)). Upon the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Section 7(e), the Company shall pay to Employee the Accrued Benefits.

(f) Effect of Termination of Employment without Cause or for Good Reason.

(i) If Employee's employment hereunder is terminated prior to the expiration of the Term by the Company without Cause pursuant to Section 7(b) or is terminated by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Section 7(c), then the Company shall pay Employee the Accrued Benefits and any earned and unpaid Annual Bonus for the calendar year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurs (which amount shall be paid within sixty (60) days following the date of such termination of employment but in no event later than March 15 of the year following the Bonus Year to which such Annual Bonus relates) and, so long as (and only if) Employee: (x) executes on or before the Release Expiration Date (as defined below), and does not revoke within any time provided by the Company to do so, a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees (the "Release"), which Release shall release each member of the Company Group and their respective affiliates, and the foregoing entities' respective shareholders, members, partners, officers, managers, directors, fiduciaries, employees, representatives, agents and benefit plans (and fiduciaries of such plans) from any and all claims, including any and all causes of action arising out of Employee's employment with the Company and any other member of the Company Group or the termination of such employment, but excluding all claims to severance payments Employee may have under this Section 7(f); and (y) abides by the terms of each of Sections 8, 9, and 10 then:

(A) The Company shall make severance payments to Employee in a total amount equal to (i) twelve (12) months' worth of Employee's Base Salary and (ii) one (1) times the target Annual Bonus, where each are determined as of the year in which such termination occurs (such total severance payments being referred to as the "Severance Payment"). The Severance Payment will be divided into substantially equal installments paid over the twelve (12)-month period following the date on which Employee's employment terminates (the "Termination Date"). On the Company's first regularly scheduled pay date that is on or after the date that is sixty (60) days after the Termination Date (the "First Payment Date"), the Company shall pay to Employee, without interest, a number of such installments equal to the number of such installments that would have been paid during the period beginning on the Termination Date and ending on the First Payment Date had the installments been paid on the Company's regularly scheduled pay dates on or following the Termination Date, and each of the remaining installments shall be paid on the Company's regularly scheduled pay dates during the remainder of such twelve (12)-month period; provided, however, that to the extent, if any, that the aggregate amount of the installments of the Severance Payment that would otherwise be paid pursuant to the preceding provisions of this Section 7(f)(i) after March 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Termination Date occurs (the "Applicable March 15") exceeds the maximum exemption amount under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii)(A), then such excess shall be paid to Employee in a lump sum on the Applicable March 15 (or the first Business Day (as defined below) preceding the Applicable March 15 if the Applicable March 15 is not a Business Day) and the installments of the Severance Payment payable after the Applicable March 15 shall be reduced by such excess (beginning with the installment first payable after the Applicable March 15 and continuing with the next succeeding installment until the aggregate reduction equals such excess). "Business Day" shall mean any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in Houston, Texas, are authorized or required by law to be closed.

(B) The RSUs and PSUs issued under Employee's Emergence Grant shall be treated in accordance with the award agreements evidencing such Emergence Grant, which treatment will be no less favorable than the treatment provided to other similarly situated senior executives (other than the CEO).

The payments and benefits described in clauses (A) and (B) above are collectively referred to herein as the "Termination Benefits."

(ii) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Termination Benefits (and any portions thereof) shall not be payable if Employee's employment hereunder terminates upon the expiration of the Term.

(iii) If the Release is not executed and returned to the Company on or before the Release Expiration Date, and the required revocation period has not fully expired without revocation of the Release by Employee, then Employee shall not be entitled to any portion of the Termination Benefits. As used herein, the "Release Expiration Date" is that date that is twenty-one (21) days following the date upon which the Company delivers the Release to Employee (which shall occur no later than seven (7) days after the Termination Date) or, in the event that such termination of employment is "in connection with an exit incentive or other employment termination program" (as such phrase is defined in the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967), the date that is forty-five (45) days following such delivery date.

(g) After-Acquired Evidence. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines, in good faith, that Employee is eligible to receive the Termination Benefits pursuant to Section 7(f) but, after such determination, the Company subsequently acquires evidence or determines that: (i) Employee has failed to abide by the terms of Sections 8, 9, or 10; or (ii) a Cause condition existed prior to the Termination Date that, had the Company been fully aware of such condition, would have given the Company the right to terminate Employee's employment pursuant to Section 7(a), then the Company shall have the right to cease the payment of any future installments of the Termination Benefits and Employee shall promptly return to the Company all installments of the Termination Benefits received by Employee prior to the date that the Company determines that the conditions of this Section 7(g) have been satisfied. In addition, the provisions of the last sentence of Section 7(a) shall apply, and, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event Employee fails to abide by the terms of Sections 8, 9 or 10.

8. Disclosures. Promptly (and in any event, within three (3) Business Days) upon becoming aware of (a) any actual or potential Conflict of Interest or (b) any lawsuit, claim or arbitration filed against or involving Employee or any trust or vehicle owned or controlled by Employee, in each case, Employee shall disclose such actual or potential Conflict of Interest or such lawsuit, claim or arbitration to the Board. A "Conflict of Interest" shall exist when Employee engages in, or plans to engage in, any activities, associations, or interests that conflict with, or create an appearance of a conflict with, Employee's duties, responsibilities, authorities, or obligations for or to any member of the Company Group.

9. Confidentiality. In the course of Employee's employment with the Company and the performance of Employee's duties on behalf of the Company Group hereunder, Employee will be provided with, and will have access to, Confidential Information (as defined below). As a condition of Employee's receipt and access to such Confidential Information and in exchange for other valuable consideration provided hereunder, and as a condition of Employee's employment hereunder, Employee shall comply with this Section 9.

(a) Both during the Employment Period and thereafter, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or by directive of the Board, Employee shall not disclose any Confidential Information to any person or entity and shall not use any Confidential Information except for the benefit of the Company Group. Employee shall follow all Company policies and protocols regarding the security of all documents and other materials containing Confidential Information (regardless of the medium on which Confidential Information is stored). The covenants of this Section 9(a) shall apply to all Confidential Information, whether now known or later to become known to Employee during the period that Employee is employed by or affiliated with or providing services to the Company or any other member of the Company Group.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of Section 9(a) to the contrary, Employee may make the following disclosures and uses of Confidential Information:

(i) disclosures to other employees of a member of the Company Group who have a need to know the information in connection with the businesses of the Company Group;

(ii) disclosures to third parties when, in the reasonable and good faith belief of Employee, such disclosure is in connection with Employee's performance of Employee's duties under this Agreement and in the best interest of the Company Group;

(iii) disclosures and uses that are approved in writing by the Board; or

(iv) disclosures to a person or entity that has (x) been retained by a member of the Company Group to provide services to one or more members of the Company Group and (y) agreed in writing to abide by the terms of a confidentiality agreement.

(c) Upon the expiration of the Employment Period, and at any other time upon request of the Company, Employee shall promptly surrender and deliver to the Company all documents (including electronically stored information) and all copies thereof and all other materials of any nature containing or pertaining to all Confidential Information and any other Company Group property (including any Company Group-issued computer, mobile device or other equipment) in Employee's possession, custody or control and Employee shall not retain any such documents or other materials or property of the Company Group. Within five (5) days of any such request, Employee shall certify to the Company in writing that all such documents, materials and property have been returned to the Company.

(d) All trade secrets, non-public information, designs, ideas, concepts, improvements, product developments, discoveries and inventions, whether patentable or not, that are conceived, made, developed or acquired by or disclosed to Employee, individually or in conjunction with others, during the period that Employee is employed by the Company or any other member of the Company Group (whether during business hours or otherwise and whether on the Company's premises or otherwise), that relate to any member of the Company Group's businesses or properties, products or services (including all such information relating to corporate opportunities, operations, future plans, methods of doing business, business plans, strategies for developing business and market share, research, financial and sales data, pricing terms, evaluations, opinions, interpretations, acquisition prospects, the identity of customers or acquisition targets or their requirements, the identity of key contacts within customers' organizations or within the organization of acquisition prospects, or marketing and merchandising techniques, prospective names and marks) is defined as "Confidential

Information." Moreover, all documents, videotapes, written presentations, brochures, drawings, memoranda, notes, records, files, correspondence, manuals, models, specifications, computer programs, e-mail, voice mail, electronic databases, maps, drawings, architectural renditions, models and all other writings or materials of any type including or embodying any of such information, ideas, concepts, improvements, discoveries, inventions and other similar forms of expression are and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company or other applicable member of the Company Group and be subject to the same restrictions on disclosure applicable to all Confidential Information pursuant to this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information shall not include any information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure or wrongful act of Employee or any of Employee's agents; (ii) was available to Employee on a non-confidential basis before its disclosure by a member of the Company Group; or (iii) becomes available to Employee on a non-confidential basis from a source other than a member of the Company Group; provided, however, that such source is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other obligation with respect to confidentiality to, a member of the Company Group.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or restrict Employee from lawfully: (i) initiating communications directly with, cooperating with, providing information to, causing information to be provided to, or otherwise assisting in an investigation by, any governmental authority regarding a possible violation of any law; (ii) responding to any inquiry or legal process directed to Employee from any such governmental authority; (iii) testifying, participating or otherwise assisting in any action or proceeding by any such governmental authority relating to a possible violation of law; or (iv) making any other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of any applicable law. Additionally, pursuant to the federal Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, an individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that: (A) is made (1) in confidence to a federal, state or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney and (2) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; (B) is made to the individual's attorney in relation to a lawsuit for retaliation against the individual for reporting a suspected violation of law; or (C) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Nothing in this Agreement requires Employee to obtain prior authorization before engaging in any conduct described in this paragraph, or to notify the Company that Employee has engaged in any such conduct.

10. Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation. The Employee acknowledges that (i) the Employee performs services of a unique nature for the Company that are irreplaceable, and that the Employee's performance of such services to a competing business will result in irreparable harm to the Company, (ii) the Employee has had and will continue to have access to Confidential Information which, if disclosed, would unfairly and inappropriately assist in competition against the Company Group, (iii) in the course of the Employee's employment by a competitor, the Employee would inevitably use or disclose such Confidential Information, (iv) the Company and Group has substantial relationships with their Customers and the Employee has had and will continue to have access to these Customers, (v) the Employee has received and will receive specialized training from the Company Group, and (vi) the Employee has generated and will continue to generate goodwill for the Company Group in the course of the Employee's employment. Accordingly, the Employee agrees that for the duration of Employee's employment and for one (1) year thereafter, Employee shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) own, manage, operate, control, be employed by (whether as an employee, consultant, independent contractor or otherwise, and whether or not for compensation) or render services to any person, firm, corporation or other entity, in whatever form, engaged in competition with the Company Group on the Termination Date, which includes the business of merchant power production, including nuclear power generation, or any business material to the Company which the Company has taken substantial steps, on or prior to such date, to engage in, in any geographic region in the United States where the Company conducts or has taken substantial steps to conduct business prior to the Termination Date (a "Competing Business"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prohibit the Employee from being a passive owner of not more than three percent (3%) of the equity securities of a publicly traded corporation engaged in a business that is in competition with the Company Group, so long as the Employee has no active participation in the business of such corporation. In addition, the provisions of this Section 10(a) shall not be violated by the Employee commencing employment with a subsidiary, division or unit of any entity that engages in a business in competition with the Company Group so long as the Employee and such subsidiary, division or unit does not engage in a business in competition with the Company Group. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 10(a) shall not be violated if Employee is employed by a law firm in the practice of law (even if such law firm or Employee provides advice to or otherwise represents a Competing Business) or as a general counsel or chief legal officer of an entity that is not a Competing Business.

(b) solicit, induce or attempt to induce any employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company or any member of the Company Group to terminate his or her employment or contracting relationship with such entity, or to become an employee or independent contractor of any other Person or hire or retain any such employee, agent or individual, or take any action to materially assist or aid any other Person in identifying, hiring or soliciting any such employee, agent or individual (any employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company shall be deemed covered by this Section 10(b) while so employed or retained and for a period of six (6) months thereafter);

(c) solicit, induce or attempt to induce any Customer, supplier or other business relation of the Company Group to cease doing or reduce the amount of its business with such entity or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such Customer, supplier or other business relation and such entity; or

(d) interfere, or aid or induce any other person or entity in interfering, with the relationship between the Company Group and any of their respective vendors, joint venturers or licensors.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement or any agreement to which Employee is a party or by which Employee may be bound, this Section 11 will be limited to comply with Rule 5.06(a) of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct or other similar applicable law or ethical or professional rules or restrictions.

(f) Definitions. For the purposes of this Section 10, the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Customer" means any Person who or which: (a) purchased products or services from the Company Group prior to or during Employee's period of employment and who or which Employee was aware of or about which Employee had received Confidential Information; or (b) was called upon or solicited by the Company Group or any of their predecessors prior to or during the twelve (12) month period prior to the Termination Date, if Employee had direct or indirect contact with such Person as an employee of the Company Group or learned or became aware of such Person during Employee's employment with the Company Group.

(ii) "Person" means an individual, a partnership, a limited liability company, a corporation, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint venture, an unincorporated organization and a governmental entity or any department, agency or political subdivision thereof.

11. Ownership of Intellectual Property.

(a) Employee agrees that the Company shall own, and Employee shall (and hereby does) assign, all right, title and interest (including patent rights, copyrights, trade secret rights, mask work rights, trademark rights, and all other intellectual and industrial property rights of any sort throughout the world) relating to any and all inventions (whether or not patentable), discoveries, developments, improvements, innovations, works of authorship, mask works, designs, know-how, ideas, formulae, processes, techniques, data and information authored, created, contributed to, made or conceived or reduced to practice, in whole or in part, by Employee during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, whether or not registerable under U.S. law or the laws of other jurisdictions, that either (i) relate, at the time of conception, reduction to practice, creation, derivation or development, to any member of the Company Group's businesses or actual or anticipated research or development; or (ii) were developed on any amount of the Company's or any other member of the Company Group's time or with the use of any member of the Company Group's equipment, supplies, facilities or Confidential Information (all of the foregoing collectively referred to herein as "Company Intellectual Property"), and Employee shall promptly disclose all Company Intellectual Property to the Company in writing. To support Employee's disclosure obligation herein, Employee shall keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all Company Intellectual Property made by Employee (solely or jointly with others) during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group in such form as may be specified from time to time by the Company. These records shall be available to, and remain the sole property of, the Company at all times.

(b) All of Employee's works of authorship and associated copyrights created during the period in which Employee is employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group and in the scope of Employee's employment or engagement shall be deemed to be "works made for hire" within the meaning of the Copyright Act. To the extent any right, title and interest in and to Company Intellectual Property cannot be assigned by Employee to the Company, Employee shall grant, and does hereby grant, to the Company Group an exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import, export, reproduce, practice and otherwise commercialize such rights, title and interest.

(c) Employee recognizes that this Agreement will not be deemed to require assignment of any invention or intellectual property that Employee developed entirely on Employee's own time without using the equipment, supplies, facilities, trade secrets, or Confidential Information of any member of the Company Group. In addition, this Agreement does not apply to any invention that qualifies fully for protection from assignment to the Company under any specifically applicable state law or regulation.

(d) To the extent allowed by law, this Section applies to all rights that may be known as or referred to as "moral rights," "artist's rights," "droit moral," or the like, including without limitation those rights set forth in 17 U.S.C. §106A (collectively, "Moral Rights"). To the extent Employee retains any Moral Rights under applicable law, Employee hereby ratifies and consents to any action that may be taken with respect to such Moral Rights by or authorized by the Company or any member of the Company Group, and Employee hereby waives and agrees not to assert any Moral Rights with respect to such Moral Rights. Employee shall confirm any such ratifications, consents, waivers, and agreements from time to time as requested by the Company.

(e) All inventions (whether or not patentable), original works of authorship, designs, know-how, mask works, ideas, information, developments, improvements, and trade secrets of which Employee is the sole or joint author, creator, contributor, or inventor that were made or developed by Employee prior to Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, or in which Employee asserts any intellectual property right, and which are applicable to or relate in any way to the business, products, services, or demonstrably anticipated research and development or business of any member of the Company Group ("Prior Inventions") are listed on Exhibit A, and Employee represents that Exhibit A is a complete list of all such Prior Inventions. If no such list is attached, Employee hereby represents and warrants that there are no Prior Inventions, and Employee shall make no claim of any rights to any Prior Inventions. If, in the course of Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, Employee incorporates into the product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group a Prior Invention, the Company Group is hereby granted and will have a nonexclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license to make, have made, modify, use, import, export, offer for sale, sell and otherwise commercialize such Prior Invention as part of or in connection with such product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group.

(f) Employee shall perform, during and after the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, all acts deemed necessary or desirable by the Company to permit and assist each member of the Company Group, at the Company's expense, in obtaining and enforcing the full benefits, enjoyment, rights and title throughout the world in the Company Intellectual Property and Confidential Information assigned, to be assigned, or licensed to the Company under this Agreement. Such acts may include execution of documents and assistance or cooperation (i) in the filing, prosecution, registration, and memorialization of assignment of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, or other applications; (ii) in the enforcement of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, moral rights, trade secrets, or other proprietary rights; and (iii) in other legal proceedings related to the Company Intellectual Property or Confidential Information.

(g) In the event that the Company (or, as applicable, a member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to file, prosecute, register, or memorialize the assignment of any patent, copyright, mask work or other applications or to enforce any patent, copyright, mask work, moral right, trade secret or other proprietary right under any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property (including derivative works, improvements, renewals, extensions, continuations, divisionals, continuations in part, continuing patent applications, reissues, and reexaminations of such Company Intellectual Property), Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee, (i) to execute, file, prosecute, register and memorialize the assignment of any such application; (ii) to execute and file any documentation required for such enforcement; and (iii) to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the filing, prosecution, registration, memorialization of assignment, issuance, and enforcement of patents, copyrights, mask works, moral rights, trade secrets or other rights under the Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, all with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Employee.

(h) In the event that Employee enters into, on behalf of any member of the Company Group, any contracts or agreements relating to any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, Employee shall assign such contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) promptly, and in any event, prior to Employee's termination of employment. If the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to assign said contracts or agreements, or if Employee does not assign said contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) prior to Employee's termination of employment, Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee to execute said assignments and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the execution of said documents.

12. Defense of Claims. During the Employment Period and for a period of one (1) year following the Termination Date, upon request from the Company, Employee shall reasonably cooperate with the Company Group, at times and locations agreeable to Employee, to assist (i) in the prosecution of any claims that may be made by the Company Group, to the extent that such claims may relate to the Employee's employment with the Company and about which the Employee has substantial knowledge (collectively, the "Claims"), (2) in the defense of any Claims that may be made by or against any member of the Company Group that relate to Employee's actual or prior areas of responsibility. Subject to Section 9(e), the Employee agrees to promptly inform the Company if the Employee becomes aware of any lawsuits involving Claims that may be filed or threatened against the Company Group. Subject to Section 9(e), the Employee also agrees to promptly inform the Company (to the extent that the Employee is legally permitted to do so) if the Employee is asked to assist in any investigation of the Company Group (or their actions) or another party attempts to obtain information or documents from the Employee (other than in connection with any litigation or other proceeding in which the Employee is a party-in-opposition) with respect to matters the Employee believes in good faith to relate to any investigation of the Company Group, in each case, regardless of whether a lawsuit or other proceeding has then been filed against the Company Group with respect to such investigation, and shall not do so unless legally required. Subject to Section 9(e), during the pendency of any litigation or other proceeding involving Claims, the Employee shall not communicate with anyone (other than the Employee's attorneys and tax and/or financial advisors and except to the extent that the Employee determines in good faith is necessary in connection with the performance of the Employee's duties hereunder) with respect to the facts or subject matter of any pending or potential litigation or regulatory or administrative proceeding involving the Company Group without giving prior written notice to the Company or the Company's counsel.

13. Non-Disparagement. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except to the extent compelled or required by applicable law and subject to Section 9(e), Employee agrees Employee shall not disparage the Company or its respective officers, directors, employees, shareholders or successors or their respective products or services, in any manner (including but not limited to, verbally or via hard copy, websites, blogs, social media forums or any other medium); provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall prevent Employee from: engaging in concerted activity relative to the terms and conditions of Employee's employment and in communications protected under the National Labor Relations Act, filing a charge or providing information to any governmental agency; and provided, further, that nothing in this Section shall prevent Employee from providing information in response to a subpoena or other enforceable legal process or as otherwise required by law.

14. Reasonableness of Covenants. In signing this Agreement, Employee has carefully read and considered all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed under these Sections 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13. Employee agrees that these restraints are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company Group and their trade secrets and Confidential Information and that such restraints are reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area. Employee acknowledges that each of these covenants has a unique, very substantial and immeasurable value to the Company Group.

15. Tolling. In the event of any violation of the provisions of Section 10 hereto, Employee acknowledges and agrees that the post-termination restrictions contained in Section 10 shall be extended by a period of time equal to the period of such violation, as determined by a court of law, it being the intention of the parties hereto that the running of the applicable post-termination restriction period shall be tolled during any period of such violation.

16. Withholdings; Deductions. The Company may withhold and deduct from any benefits and payments made or to be made pursuant to this Agreement (a) all federal, state, local and other taxes as may be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling and (b) any deductions consented to in writing by Employee.

17. Title and Headings; Construction. Titles and headings to Sections hereof are for the purpose of reference only and shall in no way limit, define or otherwise affect the provisions hereof. Any and all Exhibits or Attachments referred to in this Agreement are, by such reference, incorporated herein and made a part hereof for all purposes. Unless the context requires otherwise, all references to laws, regulations, contracts, documents, agreements and instruments refer to such laws, regulations, contracts, documents, agreements and instruments as they may be amended from time to time, and references to particular provisions of laws or regulations include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any succeeding law or regulation. All references to "dollars" or "$" in this Agreement refer to United States dollars. The words "herein", "hereof", "hereunder" and other compounds of the word "here" shall refer to the entire Agreement, including all Exhibits attached hereto, and not to any particular provision hereof. The word "or" is not exclusive. Wherever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural and conversely. All references to "including" shall be construed as meaning "including without limitation." Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein shall be construed or resolved against any party hereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Agreement has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of the parties hereto.

18. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall in all respects be construed according to the laws of the State of Texas without regard to its conflict of laws principles that would result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. With respect to any claim or dispute related to or arising under this Agreement, the parties hereto consent to the exclusive jurisdiction, forum and venue of the state and federal courts (as applicable) located in Houston, Texas.

19. Entire Agreement and Amendment. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the matters covered herein and supersedes and replaces all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, oral or written, between the parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof, including, for the avoidance of doubt, that certain Offer Letter, dated May 24, 2018, by and between Employee and Talen Energy Supply, LLC and that certain Severance Agreement by and between Employee and the Company, dated November 15, 2021 (the "Prior Severance Agreement") and that certain Non-Competition, Non-Solicitation and Confidentiality Agreement by and between Employee and Talen Energy Supply, LLC dated June 4, 2018, other than any indemnification rights (including, without limitation, any indemnification rights Employee has under that certain Indemnification Agreement by and between Employee and the Company dated May 17, 2023), equity award agreements, or rights under the Key Employee Incentive Plan approved by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas related to Talen Energy Supply, LLC and certain of its subsidiaries voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (Case No. 22-90054; Docket No. 1071), which are in effect or outstanding as of the Effective Date. By signing this Agreement, Employee hereby waives any claim of "good reason" (or term of like import) under the Prior Severance Agreement or any other agreement to which Employee is a party that Employee may otherwise have as a result of (a) entering into this Agreement or (b) any other event, occurrence or circumstance prior to the Effective Date. This Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument executed by both parties hereto.

20. Enforcement. The parties hereto acknowledge that an award of damages for failure to comply with Sections 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13 of this Agreement may not be an adequate remedy for the Company attempting to enforce or prevent the breach of such provisions, and accordingly the parties hereto authorize the Company to (in addition to any other remedies or relief to which it may be entitled) bring an action against Employee for a permanent or temporary injunction, to compel the specific performance or any other equitable remedy by Employee of their obligations to comply with, or prevent the breach of or remedy the breach of, such provisions without proof of actual damages.

21. Waiver of Breach. Any waiver of this Agreement must be executed by the party to be bound by such waiver. No waiver by either party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other party, or of compliance with any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party, will operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by such other party or any similar or dissimilar provision or condition at the same or any subsequent time. The failure of either party hereto to take any action by reason of any breach will not deprive such party of the right to take action at any time.

22. Assignment. This Agreement is personal to Employee, and neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder shall be assignable or otherwise transferred by Employee. The Company may assign this Agreement without Employee's consent, including to any member of the Company Group and to any successor (whether by merger, purchase or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the equity, assets or businesses of the Company.

23. Notices. Notices provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly received (a) when delivered in person; (b) on the first Business Day after such notice is sent by express overnight courier service; or (c) on the second Business Day following deposit with a nationally-recognized second-day courier service with proof of receipt maintained, in each case, to the following address, as applicable:

If to the Company, addressed to:

1780 Hughes Landing Blvd.
Suite 800
The Woodlands, Texas 77380
Attention: Board of Directors

If to Employee, addressed to:

Andrew Wright

(Or, if different, the latest address on file with the Company)

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, including by electronic mail or facsimile, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument. Each counterpart may consist of a copy hereof containing multiple signature pages, each signed by one party, but together signed by both parties hereto.

25. Deemed Resignations. Except as otherwise determined by the Board or as otherwise agreed to in writing by Employee and any member of the Company Group prior to the termination of Employee's employment with the Company or any member of the Company Group, any termination of Employee's employment shall constitute, as applicable, an automatic resignation of Employee: (a) as an officer of the Company and each member of the Company Group; (b) from the Board; and (c) from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any member of the Company Group and from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any corporation, limited liability entity, unlimited liability entity or other entity in which any member of the Company Group holds an equity interest and with respect to which board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) Employee serves as such Company Group member's designee or other representative.

26. Section 409A.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all provisions of this Agreement are intended to comply with Section 409A of the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations and administrative guidance issued thereunder (collectively, "Section 409A") or an exemption therefrom and shall be construed and administered in accordance with such intent. Any payments under this Agreement that may be excluded from Section 409A either as separation pay due to an involuntary separation from service or as a short-term deferral shall be excluded from Section 409A to the maximum extent possible. For purposes of Section 409A, each installment payment provided under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment. Any payments to be made under this Agreement upon a termination of Employee's employment shall only be made if such termination of employment constitutes a "separation from service" under Section 409A.

(b) To the extent that any right to reimbursement of expenses or payment of any benefit in-kind under this Agreement constitutes nonqualified deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A), (i) any such expense reimbursement shall be made by the Company no later than the last day of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which such expense was incurred by Employee, (ii) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (iii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other taxable year; provided, that the foregoing clause shall not be violated with regard to expenses reimbursed under any arrangement covered by Section 105(b) of the Code solely because such expenses are subject to a limit related to the period in which the arrangement is in effect.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, if any payment or benefit provided for herein would be subject to additional taxes and interest under Section 409A if Employee's receipt of such payment or benefit is not delayed until the earlier of the date of Employee's death or the date that is six (6) months after the Termination Date (such date, the "Section 409A Payment Date"), then such payment or benefit shall not be provided to Employee (or Employee's estate, if applicable) until the Section 409A Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company makes no representations that the payments and benefits provided under this Agreement are exempt from, or compliant with, Section 409A and in no event shall any member of the Company Group be liable for all or any portion of any taxes, penalties, interest or other expenses that may be incurred by Employee on account of non-compliance with Section 409A.

27. Effect of Termination. The provisions of Sections 7(a), 8-15, 20, 25, and 26 and those provisions necessary to interpret and enforce them, shall survive any termination of this Agreement and any termination of the employment relationship between Employee and the Company.

28. Third-Party Beneficiaries. Each member of the Company Group that is not a signatory to this Agreement shall be a third-party beneficiary of Employee's obligations under Sections 7-15, 20, and 25 and shall be entitled to enforce such obligations as if a party hereto.

29. Certain Excise Taxes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if Employee is a "disqualified individual" (as defined in Section 280G(c) of the Code), and the benefits provided for in this Agreement, together with any other payments and benefits which Employee has the right to receive from the Company and its affiliates, would constitute a "parachute payment" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), then the benefits provided for in this Agreement (beginning with any benefit to be paid in cash hereunder) shall be either (a) reduced (but not below zero) so that the present value of such total amounts and benefits received by Employee from the Company will be one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) and so that no portion of such amounts and benefits received by Employee shall be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or (b) paid in full, whichever produces the better net after-tax position to Employee (taking into account any applicable excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code and any other applicable taxes). The determination as to whether any such reduction in the amount of the benefits provided hereunder is necessary shall be made by the Compensation Committee in good faith and in consultation with tax and legal advisors of the Company. If a reduced payment or benefit is made and through error or otherwise that payment or benefit, when aggregated with other payments and benefits from the Company (or its affiliates) used in determining if a "parachute payment" exists, exceeds one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's base amount, then Employee shall immediately repay such excess to the Company upon notification that an overpayment has been made. Nothing in this Section 29 shall require the Company to be responsible for, or have any liability or obligation with respect to, Employee's excise tax liabilities under Section 4999 of the Code.

30. Severability. If an arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) is invalid or unenforceable, then the invalidity or unenforceability of that provision (or portion thereof) shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Talen Energy Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Brad Berryman ("Employee") effective as of June 26, 2023 (the "Effective Date").

1. Employment. During the Employment Period (as defined below), the Company shall employ Employee, and Employee shall serve, as Chief Nuclear Officer of the Company. In addition, if requested by the Company, Employee shall serve as an officer or member of the board of directors of any subsidiaries or affiliates of the Company without additional compensation.

2. Duties and Responsibilities of Employee.

(a) During the Employment Period, Employee shall actively engage in the business and affairs of the Company (together with its direct and indirect subsidiaries, the "Company Group") as may be requested by the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of the Company from time to time, devote such amount of Employee's business time and attention as is reasonably necessary to manage the business and affairs of the Company, which amount of time will constitute substantially all of Employee's business time. Employee's duties and responsibilities shall include those normally incidental to the position(s) identified in Section 1, as well as such additional duties as may be assigned to Employee by the CEO from time to time, which duties and responsibilities may include providing services to other members of the Company Group in addition to the Company. Employee may, without violating this Section 2(a), (i) as a passive investment, own publicly traded securities in such form or manner as will not require any services by Employee in the operation of the entities in which such securities are owned; (ii) engage in charitable and civic activities, including, without limitation, serving on boards and committees of the United Way; and (iii) with the prior written consent of the board of directors of the Company (the "Board"), engage in other personal and passive investment activities, in each case, so long as such engagements, ownership, interests or activities do not interfere with Employee's ability to fulfill Employee's duties and responsibilities under this Agreement and are not inconsistent with Employee's obligations to any member of the Company Group or competitive with the business of any member of the Company Group.

(b) Employee hereby represents and warrants that Employee is not the subject of, or a party to, any non-competition or non-solicitation covenant, non-disclosure agreement, or any other agreement, obligation, restriction or understanding that would prohibit Employee from executing this Agreement or fully performing each of Employee's duties and responsibilities hereunder, or would in any manner, directly or indirectly, limit or affect any of the duties and responsibilities that may now or in the future be assigned to Employee hereunder. Employee expressly acknowledges and agrees that Employee is strictly prohibited from using or disclosing any confidential information belonging to any prior employer in the course of performing services for any member of the Company Group, and Employee promises that Employee shall not do so. Employee shall not introduce documents or other materials containing confidential information of any prior employer to the premises or property (including computers and computer systems) of any member of the Company Group.

(c) Employee owes each member of the Company Group fiduciary duties, and the obligations described in this Agreement are in addition to, and not in lieu of, the obligations Employee owes each member of the Company Group under statutory and common law.

3. Compensation.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company shall pay to Employee an annualized base salary of $550,000 (the "Base Salary") in consideration for Employee's services under this Agreement, payable in substantially equal installments in conformity with the Company's customary payroll practices for similarly situated employees as may exist from time to time, but no less frequently than twice per month. The Base Salary shall be subject to annual review by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee").

(b) Annual Bonus. Employee shall be eligible for bonus compensation for calendar year 2023 and each subsequent complete calendar year that Employee is employed by the Company hereunder (the "Annual Bonus"). The target Annual Bonus for each such calendar year (the "Bonus Year") shall be 100% of Employee's Base Salary in effect as of the first day of the Bonus Year (or, with respect to calendar year 2023, in effect on the Effective Date), with the actual Annual Bonus for a Bonus Year depending on the level of achievement of the performance targets as determined by the Compensation Committee for the Bonus Year. The performance targets that must be achieved in order to be eligible for certain bonus levels shall be established by the Compensation Committee annually, in its sole discretion, and communicated to Employee within the first one-hundred twenty (120) days of the applicable Bonus Year. Each Annual Bonus (including the 2023 Bonus), if any, shall be paid as soon as administratively feasible after the Compensation Committee certifies whether the applicable performance targets for the applicable Bonus Year have been achieved, but in no event later than March 15 following the end of such Bonus Year. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3(b) to the contrary, but subject to Section 7, no Annual Bonus (including the 2023 Bonus), if any, nor any portion thereof, shall be payable for any Bonus Year unless Employee remains continuously employed by the Company from the Effective Date through the date on which such Annual Bonus is paid.

(c) Long-Term Incentive Awards.

(i) As soon as practicable (but no later than sixty (60) days) following the Effective Date (the "Date of Grant"), the Board shall establish a Long Term Incentive Plan (such plan, or any successor plan, the "LTIP") and grant to Employee thereunder: (i) an award of restricted stock units (the "RSUs") and (ii) an award of performance stock units (the "PSUs," and collectively with the RSUs, the "Emergence Grant"). The Emergence Grant will be made with respect to a number of shares of Company common stock having a value, based on the equity value implied by the Company's plan enterprise value determined as of the effective date of its Plan of Reorganization pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as determined by the Board in good faith, equal to $6,600,000. The Emergence Grant will be allocated between RSUs and PSUs on a basis determined by the Board. The RSUs shall generally vest in one-third increments on each of the first three (3) anniversaries of the Date of Grant, provided Employee remains continuously employed by the Company or an affiliate of the Company through each such vesting date. The PSUs shall vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Date of Grant, subject to Employee's continuous employment and the achievement of the performance metrics determined by the Board and set forth in the applicable grant agreements.

(ii) Provided that Employee is employed by the Company on the applicable date of grant, Employee shall be eligible to receive an annual grant under the LTIP with a grant date target value not less than 400% of Employee's Base Salary as in effect on the applicable date of grant of such award on such terms and conditions as the Board and the Compensation Committee shall determine from time to time. All awards granted to Employee under the LTIP shall be subject to and governed by the terms and provisions of the LTIP as in effect from time to time and the award agreements evidencing such awards. For the avoidance of doubt, after the receipt of the Emergence Grant, Employee shall not receive any additional annual grants in the calendar years of 2023, 2024 or 2025. Employee will resume receipt of annual grants under the LTIP in the normal course in calendar year 2026.

4. Term of Employment. The term of Employee's employment under this Agreement shall be for the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term"). The parties may, but shall not be required to, mutually agree to extend the Term for additional one (1)-year periods. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Employee's employment pursuant to this Agreement may be terminated at any time in accordance with Section 7. The period from the Effective Date through the expiration of this Agreement or, if sooner, the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Agreement, regardless of the time or reason for such termination, shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period."

5. Business Expenses. Subject to Section 26, the Company shall reimburse Employee for Employee's reasonable out-of-pocket business-related expenses actually incurred in the performance of Employee's duties hereunder during the Employment Period so long as Employee timely submits all documentation for such expenses, as required by Company policy in effect from time to time. Any such reimbursement of expenses shall be made by the Company upon or as soon as practicable following receipt of such documentation (but in any event not later than the close of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which the expense is incurred by Employee). In no event shall any reimbursement be made to Employee for any expenses incurred after the date of Employee's termination of employment with the Company.

6. Benefits.

(a) During the Employment Period, Employee shall be eligible to participate in the same benefit plans and programs in which other similarly situated Company employees are eligible to participate, subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plans and programs in effect from time to time. The Company shall not, however, by reason of this Section 6, be obligated to institute, maintain, or refrain from changing, amending, or discontinuing, any such plan or policy, so long as such changes are similarly applicable to similarly situated Company employees generally.

(b) The Company shall reimburse Employee up to $15,000 for legal fees incurred in connection with the review of this Agreement.

(c) The Company shall cover Employee under directors' and officers' liability insurance from the Effective Date, through the Term, and, while potential liability exists, after the Term or the termination of Employee's employment with the Company, on substantially similar terms as provided to other executive officers of the Company.

(d) During the Employment Period, the Employee shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of paid vacation per calendar year (as prorated for partial years), administered in accordance with the Company's policy on accrual and use applicable to employees as in effect from time to time. Vacation may be taken at such times and intervals as the Employee determines, subject to the business needs of the Company.

7. Termination of Employment.

(a) Company's Right to Terminate Employee's Employment for Cause. The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment hereunder at any time for Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean Employee's commission of an act or omission, or Employee causing the Company or any other member of the Company Group to commit an act or omission, that constitutes:

(i) Employee's fraud or misconduct;

(ii) Employee's violation of applicable law in connection with the management, operation or reputation of the Company or any other member of the Company Group that results in (or could reasonably be expected to result in) material injury to the Company or any other member of the Company Group;

(iii) Employee's material breach of this Agreement or any other written agreement between Employee and one or more members of the Company Group, including Employee's material breach of any representation, warranty or covenant made under any such agreement;

(iv) Employee's act of theft, embezzlement or misappropriation of the property of the Company or any other member of the Company Group, in each case, that results in (or could reasonably be expected to result in) material financial or reputational harm to the Company or any other member of the Company Group;

(v) Employee's breach of his duty of loyalty to the Company or violation of the Company's policies (to the extent such policies have been clearly communicated in writing to Employee), including the Company's code of conduct and business ethics (or similar policies), anti-harassment policy, anti-retaliation, or policies related to age, sex or other prohibited discrimination in the workplace; or

(vi) Employee's conviction or plea of nolo contendere to a felony or crime involving moral turpitude.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no determination of "Cause" may be made pursuant to Sections 7(a)(ii) or (iii) unless (1) Employee has been given written notice by the Board describing the specific alleged action(s) or omission(s) that constitute "Cause," and (2) Employee has failed to cure such acts or omissions within thirty (30) days of such notice from the Board. Upon the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Section 7(a), the Company shall pay to Employee (A) all earned and unpaid Base Salary as of the date of the termination of Employee's employment with the Company, (B) reimbursement for all incurred but unreimbursed expenses for which Employee is entitled to reimbursement in accordance with Section 5 and Sections 6(b), (c), and (d), and (C) benefits to which Employee is entitled under the terms of any applicable benefit plan or program described in Section 6(a) (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits"). In addition, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event of a termination of Employee's employment for Cause.

(b) Company's Right to Terminate for Convenience. The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment for convenience at any time and for any reason, or no reason at all, upon written notice to Employee, in which event Employee shall receive the compensation and benefits described in Section 7(f).

(c) Employee's Right to Terminate for Good Reason. Employee shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment with the Company at any time for Good Reason, in which event Employee shall receive the compensation and benefits described in Section 7(f). For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean any of the following occurring without Employee's consent:

(i) a material adverse change in Employee's title, duties or responsibilities (including reporting responsibilities);

(ii) a material reduction in Employee's Base Salary;

(iii) a relocation of Employee's primary work location to a distance of more than 50 miles from both Allentown, Pennsylvania and Berwick, Pennsylvania; or

(iv) a material breach by the Company of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

The Company and Employee agree that Good Reason shall not exist unless and until Employee provides the Company with written notice of the acts alleged to constitute Good Reason within ninety (90) days of Employee's knowledge of the occurrence of such event, and Company fails to cure such acts within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice. Employee must terminate employment within sixty (60) days following the expiration of such cure period for the termination to be on account of Good Reason.

(d) Death or Disability. Upon the death or Disability of Employee, Employee's employment with the Company shall automatically terminate and the Company shall pay to Employee or Employee's estate, as applicable, (i) the Accrued Benefits, (ii) any earned and unpaid Annual Bonus for the calendar year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurs (which amount shall be paid within sixty (60) days following the date of such termination of employment but in no event later than March 15 of the year following the Bonus Year to which such Annual Bonus relates), and (iii) an Annual Bonus for the year in which such termination of employment occurs based on actual performance results for the applicable Bonus Year and prorated for the period of days beginning on January 1 (or, if later the Effective Date) and ending on the date of such termination of employment relative to the number of days in the applicable Bonus Year. The prorated Annual Bonus described in clause (iii) of the preceding sentence, if any, shall be paid in cash at the same time corresponding bonuses are paid to similarly situated employees of the Company, but in no event later than March 15 following the year in which such termination of employment occurs. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Disability" shall exist if, as determined in the reasonable opinion of a licensed physician, Employee is unable to perform the essential functions of Employee's position (after accounting for reasonable accommodation, if applicable and required by applicable law), due to physical or mental impairment, that continues for a period in excess of ninety (90) consecutive days or one hundred-eighty (180) days, whether or not consecutive (or for any longer period as may be required by applicable law), in any twelve (12)-month period.

(e) Employee's Right to Terminate for Convenience. In addition to Employee's right to terminate Employee's employment for Good Reason, Employee shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment with the Company for convenience at any time and for any other reason, or no reason at all, upon sixty (60) days' advance written notice to the Company; provided, however, that if Employee has provided notice to the Company of Employee's termination of employment, the Company may determine, in its sole discretion, that such termination shall be effective on any date prior to the effective date of termination provided in such notice (and, if such earlier date is so required, then it shall not change the basis for Employee's termination of employment nor be construed or interpreted as a termination of employment pursuant to Section 7(b)). Upon the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Section 7(e), the Company shall pay to Employee the Accrued Benefits.

(f) Effect of Termination of Employment without Cause or for Good Reason.

(i) If Employee's employment hereunder is terminated prior to the expiration of the Term by the Company without Cause pursuant to Section 7(b) or is terminated by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Section 7(c), then the Company shall pay Employee the Accrued Benefits and any earned and unpaid Annual Bonus for the calendar year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurs (which amount shall be paid within sixty (60) days following the date of such termination of employment but in no event later than March 15 of the year following the Bonus Year to which such Annual Bonus relates) and, so long as (and only if) Employee: (x) executes on or before the Release Expiration Date (as defined below), and does not revoke within any time provided by the Company to do so, a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees (the "Release"), which Release shall release each member of the Company Group and their respective affiliates, and the foregoing entities' respective shareholders, members, partners, officers, managers, directors, fiduciaries, employees, representatives, agents and benefit plans (and fiduciaries of such plans) from any and all claims, including any and all causes of action arising out of Employee's employment with the Company and any other member of the Company Group or the termination of such employment, but excluding all claims to severance payments Employee may have under this Section 7(f); and (y) abides by the terms of each of Sections 8, 9, and 10 then:

(A) The Company shall make severance payments to Employee in a total amount equal to (i) twelve (12) months' worth of Employee's Base Salary and (ii) one (1) times the target Annual Bonus, where each are determined as of the year in which such termination occurs (such total severance payments being referred to as the "Severance Payment"). The Severance Payment will be divided into substantially equal installments paid over the twelve (12)-month period following the date on which Employee's employment terminates (the "Termination Date"). On the Company's first regularly scheduled pay date that is on or after the date that is sixty (60) days after the Termination Date (the "First Payment Date"), the Company shall pay to Employee, without interest, a number of such installments equal to the number of such installments that would have been paid during the period beginning on the Termination Date and ending on the First Payment Date had the installments been paid on the Company's regularly scheduled pay dates on or following the Termination Date, and each of the remaining installments shall be paid on the Company's regularly scheduled pay dates during the remainder of such twelve (12)-month period; provided, however, that to the extent, if any, that the aggregate amount of the installments of the Severance Payment that would otherwise be paid pursuant to the preceding provisions of this Section 7(f)(i) after March 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Termination Date occurs (the "Applicable March 15") exceeds the maximum exemption amount under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii)(A), then such excess shall be paid to Employee in a lump sum on the Applicable March 15 (or the first Business Day (as defined below) preceding the Applicable March 15 if the Applicable March 15 is not a Business Day) and the installments of the Severance Payment payable after the Applicable March 15 shall be reduced by such excess (beginning with the installment first payable after the Applicable March 15 and continuing with the next succeeding installment until the aggregate reduction equals such excess). "Business Day" shall mean any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in Houston, Texas, are authorized or required by law to be closed.

(B) The RSUs and PSUs issued under Employee's Emergence Grant shall be treated in accordance with the award agreements evidencing such Emergence Grant, which treatment will be no less favorable than the treatment provided to other similarly situated senior executives (other than the CEO).

The payments and benefits described in clauses (A) and (B) above are collectively referred to herein as the "Termination Benefits."

(ii) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Termination Benefits (and any portions thereof) shall not be payable if Employee's employment hereunder terminates upon the expiration of the Term.

(iii) If the Release is not executed and returned to the Company on or before the Release Expiration Date, and the required revocation period has not fully expired without revocation of the Release by Employee, then Employee shall not be entitled to any portion of the Termination Benefits. As used herein, the "Release Expiration Date" is that date that is twenty-one (21) days following the date upon which the Company delivers the Release to Employee (which shall occur no later than seven (7) days after the Termination Date) or, in the event that such termination of employment is "in connection with an exit incentive or other employment termination program" (as such phrase is defined in the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967), the date that is forty-five (45) days following such delivery date.

(g) After-Acquired Evidence. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines, in good faith, that Employee is eligible to receive the Termination Benefits pursuant to Section 7(f) but, after such determination, the Company subsequently acquires evidence or determines that: (i) Employee has failed to abide by the terms of Sections 8, 9, or 10; or (ii) a Cause condition existed prior to the Termination Date that, had the Company been fully aware of such condition, would have given the Company the right to terminate Employee's employment pursuant to Section 7(a), then the Company shall have the right to cease the payment of any future installments of the Termination Benefits and Employee shall promptly return to the Company all installments of the Termination Benefits received by Employee prior to the date that the Company determines that the conditions of this Section 7(g) have been satisfied. In addition, the provisions of the last sentence of Section 7(a) shall apply, and, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event Employee fails to abide by the terms of Sections 8, 9 or 10.

8. Disclosures. Promptly (and in any event, within three (3) Business Days) upon becoming aware of (a) any actual or potential Conflict of Interest or (b) any lawsuit, claim or arbitration filed against or involving Employee or any trust or vehicle owned or controlled by Employee, in each case, Employee shall disclose such actual or potential Conflict of Interest or such lawsuit, claim or arbitration to the Board. A "Conflict of Interest" shall exist when Employee engages in, or plans to engage in, any activities, associations, or interests that conflict with, or create an appearance of a conflict with, Employee's duties, responsibilities, authorities, or obligations for or to any member of the Company Group.

9. Confidentiality. In the course of Employee's employment with the Company and the performance of Employee's duties on behalf of the Company Group hereunder, Employee will be provided with, and will have access to, Confidential Information (as defined below). As a condition of Employee's receipt and access to such Confidential Information and in exchange for other valuable consideration provided hereunder, and as a condition of Employee's employment hereunder, Employee shall comply with this Section 9.

(a) Both during the Employment Period and thereafter, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or by directive of the Board, Employee shall not disclose any Confidential Information to any person or entity and shall not use any Confidential Information except for the benefit of the Company Group. Employee shall follow all Company policies and protocols regarding the security of all documents and other materials containing Confidential Information (regardless of the medium on which Confidential Information is stored). The covenants of this Section 9(a) shall apply to all Confidential Information, whether now known or later to become known to Employee during the period that Employee is employed by or affiliated with or providing services to the Company or any other member of the Company Group.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of Section 9(a) to the contrary, Employee may make the following disclosures and uses of Confidential Information:

(i) disclosures to other employees of a member of the Company Group who have a need to know the information in connection with the businesses of the Company Group;

(ii) disclosures to third parties when, in the reasonable and good faith belief of Employee, such disclosure is in connection with Employee's performance of Employee's duties under this Agreement and in the best interest of the Company Group;

(iii) disclosures and uses that are approved in writing by the Board; or

(iv) disclosures to a person or entity that has (x) been retained by a member of the Company Group to provide services to one or more members of the Company Group and (y) agreed in writing to abide by the terms of a confidentiality agreement.

(c) Upon the expiration of the Employment Period, and at any other time upon request of the Company, Employee shall promptly surrender and deliver to the Company all documents (including electronically stored information) and all copies thereof and all other materials of any nature containing or pertaining to all Confidential Information and any other Company Group property (including any Company Group-issued computer, mobile device or other equipment) in Employee's possession, custody or control and Employee shall not retain any such documents or other materials or property of the Company Group. Within five (5) days of any such request, Employee shall certify to the Company in writing that all such documents, materials and property have been returned to the Company.

(d) All trade secrets, non-public information, designs, ideas, concepts, improvements, product developments, discoveries and inventions, whether patentable or not, that are conceived, made, developed or acquired by or disclosed to Employee, individually or in conjunction with others, during the period that Employee is employed by the Company or any other member of the Company Group (whether during business hours or otherwise and whether on the Company's premises or otherwise), that relate to any member of the Company Group's businesses or properties, products or services (including all such information relating to corporate opportunities, operations, future plans, methods of doing business, business plans, strategies for developing business and market share, research, financial and sales data, pricing terms, evaluations, opinions, interpretations, acquisition prospects, the identity of customers or acquisition targets or their requirements, the identity of key contacts within customers' organizations or within the organization of acquisition prospects, or marketing and merchandising techniques, prospective names and marks) is defined as "Confidential

Information." Moreover, all documents, videotapes, written presentations, brochures, drawings, memoranda, notes, records, files, correspondence, manuals, models, specifications, computer programs, e-mail, voice mail, electronic databases, maps, drawings, architectural renditions, models and all other writings or materials of any type including or embodying any of such information, ideas, concepts, improvements, discoveries, inventions and other similar forms of expression are and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company or other applicable member of the Company Group and be subject to the same restrictions on disclosure applicable to all Confidential Information pursuant to this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information shall not include any information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure or wrongful act of Employee or any of Employee's agents; (ii) was available to Employee on a non-confidential basis before its disclosure by a member of the Company Group; or (iii) becomes available to Employee on a non-confidential basis from a source other than a member of the Company Group; provided, however, that such source is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other obligation with respect to confidentiality to, a member of the Company Group.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or restrict Employee from lawfully: (i) initiating communications directly with, cooperating with, providing information to, causing information to be provided to, or otherwise assisting in an investigation by, any governmental authority regarding a possible violation of any law; (ii) responding to any inquiry or legal process directed to Employee from any such governmental authority; (iii) testifying, participating or otherwise assisting in any action or proceeding by any such governmental authority relating to a possible violation of law; or (iv) making any other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of any applicable law. Additionally, pursuant to the federal Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, an individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that: (A) is made (1) in confidence to a federal, state or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney and (2) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; (B) is made to the individual's attorney in relation to a lawsuit for retaliation against the individual for reporting a suspected violation of law; or (C) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Nothing in this Agreement requires Employee to obtain prior authorization before engaging in any conduct described in this paragraph, or to notify the Company that Employee has engaged in any such conduct.

10. Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation. The Employee acknowledges that (i) the Employee performs services of a unique nature for the Company that are irreplaceable, and that the Employee's performance of such services to a competing business will result in irreparable harm to the Company, (ii) the Employee has had and will continue to have access to Confidential Information which, if disclosed, would unfairly and inappropriately assist in competition against the Company Group, (iii) in the course of the Employee's employment by a competitor, the Employee would inevitably use or disclose such Confidential Information, (iv) the Company and Group has substantial relationships with their Customers and the Employee has had and will continue to have access to these Customers, (v) the Employee has received and will receive specialized training from the Company Group, and (vi) the Employee has generated and will continue to generate goodwill for the Company Group in the course of the Employee's employment. Accordingly, the Employee agrees that for the duration of Employee's employment and for one (1) year thereafter, Employee shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) own, manage, operate, control, be employed by (whether as an employee, consultant, independent contractor or otherwise, and whether or not for compensation) or render services to any person, firm, corporation or other entity, in whatever form, engaged in competition with the Company Group on the Termination Date, which includes the business of merchant power production, including nuclear power generation, or any business material to the Company which the Company has taken substantial steps, on or prior to such date, to engage in, in any geographic region in the United States where the Company conducts or has taken substantial steps to conduct business prior to the Termination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prohibit the Employee from (i) being a passive owner of not more than three percent (3%) of the equity securities of a publicly traded corporation engaged in a business that is in competition with the Company Group, so long as the Employee has no active participation in the business of such corporation, or (ii) serving on an outside safety review committee that advises on safety issues (and that does not advise on business matters). In addition, the provisions of this Section 10(a) shall not be violated by the Employee commencing employment with a subsidiary, division or unit of any entity that engages in a business in competition with the Company Group so long as the Employee and such subsidiary, division or unit does not engage in a business in competition with the Company Group.

(b) solicit, induce or attempt to induce any employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company or any member of the Company Group to terminate his or her employment or contracting relationship with such entity, or to become an employee or independent contractor of any other Person or hire or retain any such employee, agent or individual, or take any action to materially assist or aid any other Person in identifying, hiring or soliciting any such employee, agent or individual (any employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company shall be deemed covered by this Section 10(b) while so employed or retained and for a period of six (6) months thereafter);

(c) solicit, induce or attempt to induce any Customer, supplier or other business relation of the Company Group to cease doing or reduce the amount of its business with such entity or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such Customer, supplier or other business relation and such entity; or

(d) interfere, or aid or induce any other person or entity in interfering, with the relationship between the Company Group and any of their respective vendors, joint venturers or licensors.

(e) Definitions. For the purposes of this Section 10, the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Customer" means any Person who or which: (a) purchased products or services from the Company Group prior to or during Employee's period of employment and who or which Employee was aware of or about which Employee had received Confidential Information; or (b) was called upon or solicited by the Company Group or any of their predecessors prior to or during the twelve (12) month period prior to the Termination Date, if Employee had direct or indirect contact with such Person as an employee of the Company Group or learned or became aware of such Person during Employee's employment with the Company Group.

(ii) "Person" means an individual, a partnership, a limited liability company, a corporation, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint venture, an unincorporated organization and a governmental entity or any department, agency or political subdivision thereof.

11. Ownership of Intellectual Property.

(a) Employee agrees that the Company shall own, and Employee shall (and hereby does) assign, all right, title and interest (including patent rights, copyrights, trade secret rights, mask work rights, trademark rights, and all other intellectual and industrial property rights of any sort throughout the world) relating to any and all inventions (whether or not patentable), discoveries, developments, improvements, innovations, works of authorship, mask works, designs, know-how, ideas, formulae, processes, techniques, data and information authored, created, contributed to, made or conceived or reduced to practice, in whole or in part, by Employee during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, whether or not registerable under U.S. law or the laws of other jurisdictions, that either (i) relate, at the time of conception, reduction to practice, creation, derivation or development, to any member of the Company Group's businesses or actual or anticipated research or development; or (ii) were developed on any amount of the Company's or any other member of the Company Group's time or with the use of any member of the Company Group's equipment, supplies, facilities or Confidential Information (all of the foregoing collectively referred to herein as "Company Intellectual Property"), and Employee shall promptly disclose all Company Intellectual Property to the Company in writing. To support Employee's disclosure obligation herein, Employee shall keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all Company Intellectual Property made by Employee (solely or jointly with others) during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group in such form as may be specified from time to time by the Company. These records shall be available to, and remain the sole property of, the Company at all times.

(b) All of Employee's works of authorship and associated copyrights created during the period in which Employee is employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group and in the scope of Employee's employment or engagement shall be deemed to be "works made for hire" within the meaning of the Copyright Act. To the extent any right, title and interest in and to Company Intellectual Property cannot be assigned by Employee to the Company, Employee shall grant, and does hereby grant, to the Company Group an exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import, export, reproduce, practice and otherwise commercialize such rights, title and interest.

(c) Employee recognizes that this Agreement will not be deemed to require assignment of any invention or intellectual property that Employee developed entirely on Employee's own time without using the equipment, supplies, facilities, trade secrets, or

Confidential Information of any member of the Company Group. In addition, this Agreement does not apply to any invention that qualifies fully for protection from assignment to the Company under any specifically applicable state law or regulation.

(d) To the extent allowed by law, this Section applies to all rights that may be known as or referred to as "moral rights," "artist's rights," "droit moral," or the like, including without limitation those rights set forth in 17 U.S.C. §106A (collectively, "Moral Rights"). To the extent Employee retains any Moral Rights under applicable law, Employee hereby ratifies and consents to any action that may be taken with respect to such Moral Rights by or authorized by the Company or any member of the Company Group, and Employee hereby waives and agrees not to assert any Moral Rights with respect to such Moral Rights. Employee shall confirm any such ratifications, consents, waivers, and agreements from time to time as requested by the Company.

(e) All inventions (whether or not patentable), original works of authorship, designs, know-how, mask works, ideas, information, developments, improvements, and trade secrets of which Employee is the sole or joint author, creator, contributor, or inventor that were made or developed by Employee prior to Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, or in which Employee asserts any intellectual property right, and which are applicable to or relate in any way to the business, products, services, or demonstrably anticipated research and development or business of any member of the Company Group ("Prior Inventions") are listed on Exhibit A, and Employee represents that Exhibit A is a complete list of all such Prior Inventions. If no such list is attached, Employee hereby represents and warrants that there are no Prior Inventions, and Employee shall make no claim of any rights to any Prior Inventions. If, in the course of Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, Employee incorporates into the product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group a Prior Invention, the Company Group is hereby granted and will have a nonexclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license to make, have made, modify, use, import, export, offer for sale, sell and otherwise commercialize such Prior Invention as part of or in connection with such product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group.

(f) Employee shall perform, during and after the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, all acts deemed necessary or desirable by the Company to permit and assist each member of the Company Group, at the Company's expense, in obtaining and enforcing the full benefits, enjoyment, rights and title throughout the world in the Company Intellectual Property and Confidential Information assigned, to be assigned, or licensed to the Company under this Agreement. Such acts may include execution of documents and assistance or cooperation (i) in the filing, prosecution, registration, and memorialization of assignment of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, or other applications; (ii) in the enforcement of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, moral rights, trade secrets, or other proprietary rights; and (iii) in other legal proceedings related to the Company Intellectual Property or Confidential Information.

(g) In the event that the Company (or, as applicable, a member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to file, prosecute, register, or memorialize the assignment of any patent, copyright, mask work or other applications or to enforce any patent, copyright, mask work, moral right, trade secret or other proprietary right under any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property (including derivative works, improvements, renewals, extensions, continuations, divisionals, continuations in part, continuing patent applications, reissues, and reexaminations of such Company Intellectual Property), Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee, (i) to execute, file, prosecute, register and memorialize the assignment of any such application; (ii) to execute and file any documentation required for such enforcement; and (iii) to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the filing, prosecution, registration, memorialization of assignment, issuance, and enforcement of patents, copyrights, mask works, moral rights, trade secrets or other rights under the Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, all with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Employee.

(h) In the event that Employee enters into, on behalf of any member of the Company Group, any contracts or agreements relating to any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, Employee shall assign such contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) promptly, and in any event, prior to Employee's termination of employment. If the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to assign said contracts or agreements, or if Employee does not assign said contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) prior to Employee's termination of employment, Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee to execute said assignments and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the execution of said documents.

12. Defense of Claims. During the Employment Period and for a period of one (1) year following the Termination Date, upon request from the Company, Employee shall reasonably cooperate with the Company Group, at times and locations agreeable to Employee, to assist (i) in the prosecution of any claims that may be made by the Company Group, to the extent that such claims may relate to the Employee's employment with the Company and about which the Employee has substantial knowledge (collectively, the "Claims"), (2) in the defense of any Claims that may be made by or against any member of the Company Group that relate to Employee's actual or prior areas of responsibility. Subject to Section 9(e), the Employee agrees to promptly inform the Company if the Employee becomes aware of any lawsuits involving Claims that may be filed or threatened against the Company Group. Subject to Section 9(e), the Employee also agrees to promptly inform the Company (to the extent that the Employee is legally permitted to do so) if the Employee is asked to assist in any investigation of the Company Group (or their actions) or another party attempts to obtain information or documents from the Employee (other than in connection with any litigation or other proceeding in which the Employee is a party-in-opposition) with respect to matters the Employee believes in good faith to relate to any investigation of the Company Group, in each case, regardless of whether a lawsuit or other proceeding has then been filed against the Company Group with respect to such investigation, and shall not do so unless legally required. Subject to Section 9(e), during the pendency of any litigation or other proceeding involving Claims, the Employee shall not communicate with anyone (other than the Employee's attorneys and tax and/or financial advisors and except to the extent that the Employee determines in good faith is necessary in connection with the performance of the Employee's duties hereunder) with respect to the facts or subject matter of any pending or potential litigation or regulatory or administrative proceeding involving the Company Group without giving prior written notice to the Company or the Company's counsel.

13. Non-Disparagement. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except to the extent compelled or required by applicable law and subject to Section 9(e), Employee agrees Employee shall not disparage the Company or its respective officers, directors, employees, shareholders or successors or their respective products or services, in any manner (including but not limited to, verbally or via hard copy, websites, blogs, social media forums or any other medium); provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall prevent Employee from: engaging in concerted activity relative to the terms and conditions of Employee's employment and in communications protected under the National Labor Relations Act, filing a charge or providing information to any governmental agency; and provided, further, that nothing in this Section shall prevent Employee from providing information in response to a subpoena or other enforceable legal process or as otherwise required by law.

14. Reasonableness of Covenants. In signing this Agreement, Employee has carefully read and considered all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed under these Sections 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13. Employee agrees that these restraints are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company Group and their trade secrets and Confidential Information and that such restraints are reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area. Employee acknowledges that each of these covenants has a unique, very substantial and immeasurable value to the Company Group.

15. Tolling. In the event of any violation of the provisions of Section 10 hereto, Employee acknowledges and agrees that the post-termination restrictions contained in Section 10 shall be extended by a period of time equal to the period of such violation, as determined by a court of law, it being the intention of the parties hereto that the running of the applicable post-termination restriction period shall be tolled during any period of such violation.

16. Withholdings; Deductions. The Company may withhold and deduct from any benefits and payments made or to be made pursuant to this Agreement (a) all federal, state, local and other taxes as may be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling and (b) any deductions consented to in writing by Employee.

17. Title and Headings; Construction. Titles and headings to Sections hereof are for the purpose of reference only and shall in no way limit, define or otherwise affect the provisions hereof. Any and all Exhibits or Attachments referred to in this Agreement are, by such reference, incorporated herein and made a part hereof for all purposes. Unless the context requires otherwise, all references to laws, regulations, contracts, documents, agreements and instruments refer to such laws, regulations, contracts, documents, agreements and instruments as they may be amended from time to time, and references to particular provisions of laws or regulations include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any succeeding law or regulation. All references to "dollars" or "$" in this Agreement refer to United States dollars. The words "herein",

"hereof", "hereunder" and other compounds of the word "here" shall refer to the entire Agreement, including all Exhibits attached hereto, and not to any particular provision hereof. The word "or" is not exclusive. Wherever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural and conversely. All references to "including" shall be construed as meaning "including without limitation." Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein shall be construed or resolved against any party hereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Agreement has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of the parties hereto.

18. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall in all respects be construed according to the laws of the State of Texas without regard to its conflict of laws principles that would result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. With respect to any claim or dispute related to or arising under this Agreement, the parties hereto consent to the exclusive jurisdiction, forum and venue of the state and federal courts (as applicable) located in Houston, Texas.

19. Entire Agreement and Amendment. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the matters covered herein and supersedes and replaces all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, oral or written, between the parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof, including, for the avoidance of doubt, that certain Severance Agreement by and between Employee and the Company, dated November 15, 2021 (the "Prior Severance Agreement"), other than any indemnification rights, equity award agreements, or rights under the Key Employee Incentive Plan approved by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas related to Talen Energy Supply, LLC and certain of its subsidiaries voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (Case No. 22-90054; Docket No. 1071), which are in effect or outstanding as of the Effective Date. By signing this Agreement, Employee hereby waives any claim of "good reason" (or term of like import) under the Prior Severance Agreement or any other agreement to which Employee is a party that Employee may otherwise have as a result of (a) entering into this Agreement or (b) any other event, occurrence or circumstance prior to the Effective Date. This Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument executed by both parties hereto.

20. Enforcement. The parties hereto acknowledge that an award of damages for failure to comply with Sections 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13 of this Agreement may not be an adequate remedy for the Company attempting to enforce or prevent the breach of such provisions, and accordingly the parties hereto authorize the Company to (in addition to any other remedies or relief to which it may be entitled) bring an action against Employee for a permanent or temporary injunction, to compel the specific performance or any other equitable remedy by Employee of their obligations to comply with, or prevent the breach of or remedy the breach of, such provisions without proof of actual damages.

21. Waiver of Breach. Any waiver of this Agreement must be executed by the party to be bound by such waiver. No waiver by either party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other party, or of compliance with any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party, will operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by such other party or any similar or dissimilar provision or condition at the same or any subsequent time. The failure of either party hereto to take any action by reason of any breach will not deprive such party of the right to take action at any time.

22. Assignment. This Agreement is personal to Employee, and neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder shall be assignable or otherwise transferred by Employee. The Company may assign this Agreement without Employee's consent, including to any member of the Company Group and to any successor (whether by merger, purchase or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the equity, assets or businesses of the Company.

23. Notices. Notices provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly received (a) when delivered in person; (b) on the first Business Day after such notice is sent by express overnight courier service; or (c) on the second Business Day following deposit with a nationally-recognized second-day courier service with proof of receipt maintained, in each case, to the following address, as applicable:

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, including by electronic mail or facsimile, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument. Each counterpart may consist of a copy hereof containing multiple signature pages, each signed by one party, but together signed by both parties hereto.

25. Deemed Resignations. Except as otherwise determined by the Board or as otherwise agreed to in writing by Employee and any member of the Company Group prior to the termination of Employee's employment with the Company or any member of the Company Group, any termination of Employee's employment shall constitute, as applicable, an automatic resignation of Employee: (a) as an officer of the Company and each member of the Company Group; (b) from the Board; and (c) from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any member of the Company Group and from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any corporation, limited liability entity, unlimited liability entity or other entity in which any member of the Company Group holds an equity interest and with respect to which board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) Employee serves as such Company Group member's designee or other representative.

26. Section 409A.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all provisions of this Agreement are intended to comply with Section 409A of the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations and administrative guidance issued thereunder (collectively, "Section 409A") or an exemption therefrom and shall be construed and administered in accordance with such intent. Any payments under this Agreement that may be excluded from Section 409A either as separation pay due to an involuntary separation from service or as a short-term deferral shall be excluded from Section 409A to the maximum extent possible. For purposes of Section 409A, each installment payment provided under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment. Any payments to be made under this Agreement upon a termination of Employee's employment shall only be made if such termination of employment constitutes a "separation from service" under Section 409A.

(b) To the extent that any right to reimbursement of expenses or payment of any benefit in-kind under this Agreement constitutes nonqualified deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A), (i) any such expense reimbursement shall be made by the Company no later than the last day of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which such expense was incurred by Employee, (ii) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (iii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other taxable year; provided, that the foregoing clause shall not be violated with regard to expenses reimbursed under any arrangement covered by Section 105(b) of the Code solely because such expenses are subject to a limit related to the period in which the arrangement is in effect.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, if any payment or benefit provided for herein would be subject to additional taxes and interest under Section 409A if Employee's receipt of such payment or benefit is not delayed until the earlier of the date of Employee's death or the date that is six (6) months after the Termination Date (such date, the "Section 409A Payment Date"), then such payment or benefit shall not be provided to Employee (or Employee's estate, if applicable) until the Section 409A Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company makes no representations that the payments and benefits provided under this Agreement are exempt from, or compliant with, Section 409A and in no event shall any member of the Company Group be liable for all or any portion of any taxes, penalties, interest or other expenses that may be incurred by Employee on account of non-compliance with Section 409A.

27. Effect of Termination. The provisions of Sections 7(a), 8-15, 20, 25, and 26 and those provisions necessary to interpret and enforce them, shall survive any termination of this Agreement and any termination of the employment relationship between Employee and the Company.

28. Third-Party Beneficiaries. Each member of the Company Group that is not a signatory to this Agreement shall be a third-party beneficiary of Employee's obligations under Sections 7-15, 20, and 25 and shall be entitled to enforce such obligations as if a party hereto.

29. Certain Excise Taxes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if Employee is a "disqualified individual" (as defined in Section 280G(c) of the Code), and the benefits provided for in this Agreement, together with any other payments and benefits which Employee has the right to receive from the Company and its affiliates, would constitute a "parachute payment" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), then the benefits provided for in this Agreement (beginning with any benefit to be paid in cash hereunder) shall be either (a) reduced (but not below zero) so that the present value of such total amounts and benefits received by Employee from the Company will be one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) and so that no portion of such amounts and benefits received by Employee shall be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or (b) paid in full, whichever produces the better net after-tax position to Employee (taking into account any applicable excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code and any other applicable taxes). The determination as to whether any such reduction in the amount of the benefits provided hereunder is necessary shall be made by the Compensation Committee in good faith and in consultation with tax and legal advisors of the Company. If a reduced payment or benefit is made and through error or otherwise that payment or benefit, when aggregated with other payments and benefits from the Company (or its affiliates) used in determining if a "parachute payment" exists, exceeds one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's base amount, then Employee shall immediately repay such excess to the Company upon notification that an overpayment has been made. Nothing in this Section 29 shall require the Company to be responsible for, or have any liability or obligation with respect to, Employee's excise tax liabilities under Section 4999 of the Code.

30. Severability. If an arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) is invalid or unenforceable, then the invalidity or unenforceability of that provision (or portion thereof) shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Talen Energy Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Dale Lebsack ("Employee") effective as of June 26, 2023 (the "Effective Date").

1. Employment. During the Employment Period (as defined below), the Company shall employ Employee, and Employee shall serve, as Chief Fossil Officer of the Company. In addition, if requested by the Company, Employee shall serve as an officer or member of the board of directors of any subsidiaries or affiliates of the Company without additional compensation.

2. Duties and Responsibilities of Employee.

(a) During the Employment Period, Employee shall actively engage in the business and affairs of the Company (together with its direct and indirect subsidiaries, the "Company Group") as may be requested by the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of the Company from time to time, devote such amount of Employee's business time and attention as is reasonably necessary to manage the business and affairs of the Company, which amount of time will constitute substantially all of Employee's business time. Employee's duties and responsibilities shall include those normally incidental to the position(s) identified in Section 1, as well as such additional duties as may be assigned to Employee by the CEO from time to time, which duties and responsibilities may include providing services to other members of the Company Group in addition to the Company. Employee may, without violating this Section 2(a), (i) as a passive investment, own publicly traded securities or privately-held funds or investments in such form or manner as will not require any services by Employee in the operation of the entities in which such securities are owned; (ii) engage in charitable and civic activities; and (iii) with the prior written consent of the board of directors of the Company (the "Board"), engage in other personal and passive investment activities, in each ease, so long as such engagements, ownership, interests or activities do not interfere with Employee's ability to fulfill Employee's duties and responsibilities under this Agreement and are not inconsistent with Employee's obligations to any member of the Company Group or competitive with the business of any member of the Company Group.

(b) Employee hereby represents and warrants that Employee is not the subject of, or a party to, any non-competition or non-solicitation covenant, non-disclosure agreement, or any other agreement, obligation, restriction or understanding that would prohibit Employee from executing this Agreement or fully performing each of Employee's duties and responsibilities hereunder, or would in any manner, directly or indirectly, limit or affect any of the duties and responsibilities that may now or in the future be assigned to Employee hereunder. Employee expressly acknowledges and agrees that Employee is strictly prohibited from using or disclosing any confidential information belonging to any prior employer in the course of performing services for any member of the Company Group, and Employee promises that Employee shall not do so. Employee shall not introduce documents or other materials containing confidential information of any prior employer to the premises or property (including computers and computer systems) of any member of the Company Group.

(c) Employee owes each member of the Company Group fiduciary duties, and the obligations described in this Agreement are in addition to, and not in lieu of, the obligations Employee owes each member of the Company Group under statutory and common law.

3. Compensation.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company shall pay to Employee an annualized base salary of $475,000 (the "Base Salary") in consideration for Employee's services under this Agreement, payable in substantially equal installments in conformity with the Company's customary payroll practices for similarly situated employees as may exist from time to time, but no less frequently than twice per month. The Base Salary shall be subject to annual review by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee").

(b) Annual Bonus. Employee shall be eligible for bonus compensation for calendar year 2023 and each subsequent complete calendar year that Employee is employed by the Company hereunder (the "Annual Bonus"). The target Annual Bonus for each such calendar year (the "Bonus Year") shall be 100% of Employee's Base Salary in effect as of the first day of the Bonus Year (or, with respect to calendar year 2023, in effect on the Effective Date), with the actual Annual Bonus for a Bonus Year depending on the level of achievement of the performance targets, as determined by the Compensation Committee for the Bonus Year, that are consistent with the performance targets established for other similarly-situated executives. The performance targets that must be achieved in order to be eligible for certain bonus levels shall be established by the Compensation Committee annually, in its sole discretion, and communicated to Employee within the first one-hundred twenty (120) days of the applicable Bonus Year. Each Annual Bonus (including the 2023 Bonus), if any, shall be paid as soon as administratively feasible after the Compensation Committee certifies whether the applicable performance targets for the applicable Bonus Year have been achieved, but in no event later than March 15 following the end of such Bonus Year. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3(b) to the contrary, but subject to Section 7, no Annual Bonus (including the 2023 Bonus), if any, nor any portion thereof, shall be payable for any Bonus Year unless Employee remains continuously employed by the Company from the Effective Date through the date on which such Annual Bonus is paid.

(c) Long-Term Incentive Awards.

(i) As soon as practicable (but no later than sixty (60) days) following the Effective Date (the "Date of Grant"), the Board shall establish a Long Term Incentive Plan (such plan, or any successor plan, the "LTIP") and grant to Employee thereunder:(i) an award of restricted stock units (the "RSUs") and (ii) an award of performance stock units (the "PSUs," and collectively with the RSUs, the "Emergence Grant"). The Emergence Grant will be made with respect to a number of shares of Company common stock having a value, based on the equity value implied by the Company's plan enterprise value determined as of the effective date of its Plan of Reorganization pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as determined by the Board in good faith, equal to $5,700,000. The Emergence Grant will be allocated between RSUs and PSUs on a basis determined by the Board. The RSUs shall generally vest in one-third increments on each of the first three (3) anniversaries of the Date of Grant, provided Employee remains continuously employed by the Company or an affiliate of the Company through each such vesting date. The PSUs shall vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Date of Grant, subject to Employee's continuous employment and the achievement of the performance metrics determined by the Board and set forth in the applicable grant agreements.

(ii) Provided that Employee is employed by the Company on the applicable date of grant, Employee shall be eligible to receive an annual grant under the LTIP with a grant date target value not less than 400% of Employee's Base Salary as in effect on the applicable date of grant of such award on such terms and conditions as the Board and the Compensation Committee shall determine from time to time. All awards granted to Employee under the LTIP shall be subject to and governed by the terms and provisions of the LTIP as in effect from time to time and the award agreements evidencing such awards. For the avoidance of doubt, after the receipt of the Emergence Grant, Employee shall not receive any additional annual grants in the calendar years of 2023, 2024 or 2025. Employee will resume receipt of annual grants under the LTIP in the normal course in calendar year 2026.

4. Term of Employment. The term of Employee's employment under this Agreement shall be for the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term"). The parties may, but shall not be required to, mutually agree to extend the Term for additional one (l)-year periods. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Employee's employment pursuant to this Agreement may be terminated at any time in accordance with Section 7. The period from the Effective Date through the expiration of this Agreement or, if sooner, the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Agreement, regardless of the time or reason for such termination, shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period."

5. Business Expenses. Subject to Section 26, the Company shall reimburse Employee for Employee's reasonable out-of-pocket business-related expenses actually incurred in the performance of Employee's duties hereunder during the Employment Period so long as Employee timely submits all documentation for such expenses, as required by Company policy in effect from time to time. Any such reimbursement of expenses shall be made by the Company upon or as soon as practicable following receipt of such documentation (but in any event not later than the close of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which the expense is incurred by Employee). In no event shall any reimbursement be made to Employee for any expenses incurred after the date of Employee's termination of employment with the Company.

6. Benefits.

(a) During the Employment Period, Employee shall be eligible to participate in the same benefit plans and programs in which other similarly situated Company employees are eligible to participate, subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable plans and programs in effect from time to time. The Company shall not, however, by reason of this Section 6, be obligated to institute, maintain, or refrain from changing, amending, or discontinuing, any such plan or policy, so long as such changes are similarly applicable to similarly situated Company employees generally.

(b) The Company shall reimburse Employee up to $15,000 for legal fees incurred in connection with the review of this Agreement.

(c) The Company shall cover Employee under directors' and officers' liability insurance from the Effective Date, through the Term, and, while potential liability exists, after the Term or the termination of Employee's employment with the Company, on substantially similar terms as provided to other executive officers of the Company. The Company further agrees to continue to cover Employee under any tail coverage liability insurance policies that are in effect as of the Effective Date, from and after the Effective Date through the current term of such policies, subject to the terms and conditions of such policies.

(d) During the Employment Period, the Employee shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of paid vacation per calendar year (as prorated for partial years of employment), administered in accordance with the Company's policy on accrual and use applicable to employees as in effect from time to time. Vacation may be taken at such times and intervals as the Employee determines, subject to the business needs of the Company.

7. Termination of Employment.

(a) Company's Right to Terminate Employee's Employment for Cause . The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment hereunder at any time for Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean Employee's commission of an aet or omission, or Employee causing the Company or any other member of the Company Group to commit an aet or omission, that constitutes:

(i) Employee's fraud or misconduct;

(ii) Employee's violation of applicable law in connection with the management, operation or reputation of the Company or any other member of the Company Group that results in (or could reasonably be expected to result in) material injury to the Company or any other member of the Company Group;

(iii) Employee's material breach of this Agreement or any other written agreement between Employee and one or more members of the Company Group, including Employee's material breach of any representation, warranty or covenant made under any such agreement;

(iv) Employee's aet of theft, embezzlement or misappropriation of the property of the Company or any other member of the Company Group, in each ease, that results in (or could reasonably be expected to result in) material financial or reputational harm to the Company or any other member of the Company Group;

(v) Employee's breach of his duty of loyalty to the Company or violation of the Company's policies (to the extent such policies have been clearly communicated in writing to Employee), including the Company's code of conduct and business ethics (or similar policies), anti-harassment policy, anti-retaliation, or policies related to age, sex or other prohibited discrimination in the workplace; or

(vi) Employee's conviction or plea of nolo contendere to a felony or crime involving moral turpitude.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no determination of "Cause" may be made pursuant to Sections 7(a)(ii) or (iii) unless (1) Employee has been given written notice by the Board describing the specific alleged action(s) or omission(s) that constitute "Cause," and (2) Employee has failed to cure such acts or omissions within thirty (30) days of such notice from the Board. Upon the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Section 7(a), the Company shall pay to Employee (A) all earned and unpaid Base Salary as of the date of the termination of Employee's employment with the Company, (B) reimbursement for all incurred but unreimbursed expenses for which Employee is entitled to reimbursement in accordance with Section 5 and Sections 6(b), (e), and (d), and (C) benefits to which Employee is entitled under the terms of any applicable benefit plan or program described in Section 6(a) (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits"). In addition, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(e) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event of a termination of Employee's employment for Cause.

(b) Company's Right to Terminate for Convenience. The Company shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment for convenience at any time and for any reason, or no reason at all, upon written notice to Employee, in which event Employee shall receive the compensation and benefits described in Section 7(f).

(c) Employee's Right to Terminate for Good Reason. Employee shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment with the Company at any time for Good Reason, in which event Employee shall receive the compensation and benefits described in Section 7(f). For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean any of the following occurring without Employee's consent:

(i) a material adverse change in Employee's title, duties or responsibilities (including reporting responsibilities);

(ii) a material reduction in Employee's Base Salary;

(iii) a relocation of Employee's primary work location to a distance of more than 50 miles from its location as of immediately prior to such change (for this purpose, Employee's primary work location as of the Effective Date shall be The Woodlands, Texas; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Employee's provision of services at the Company's headquarters in Houston, Texas, as reasonably required by Company, shall not constitute a change or relocation of Employee's primary work location for purposes of this definition); or

(iv) a material breach by the Company of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

The Company and Employee agree that Good Reason shall not exist unless and until Employee provides the Company with written notice of the acts alleged to constitute Good Reason within ninety (90) days of Employee's knowledge of the occurrence of such event, and Company fails to cure such acts within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice. Employee must terminate employment within sixty (60) days following the expiration of such cure period for the termination to be on account of Good Reason.

(d) Death or Disability. Upon the death or Disability of Employee, Employee's employment with the Company shall automatically terminate and the Company shall pay to Employee or Employee's estate, as applicable, (i) the Accrued Benefits, (ii) any earned and unpaid Annual Bonus for the calendar year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurs (which amount shall be paid within sixty (60) days following the date of such termination of employment but in no event later than March 15 of the year following the Bonus Year to which such Annual Bonus relates), and (iii) an Annual Bonus for the year in which such termination of employment occurs based on actual performance results for the applicable Bonus Year and prorated for the period of days beginning on January 1 (or, if later the Effective Date) and ending on the date of such termination of employment relative to the number of days in the applicable Bonus Year. The prorated Annual Bonus described in clause (iii) of the preceding sentence, if any, shall be paid in each at the same time corresponding bonuses are paid to similarly situated employees of the Company, but in no event later than March 15 following the year in which such termination of employment occurs. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Disability" shall exist if, as determined in the reasonable opinion of a licensed physician, Employee is unable to perform the essential functions of Employee's position (after accounting for reasonable accommodation, if applicable and required by applicable law), due to physical or mental impairment, that continues for a period in excess of ninety (90) consecutive days or one hundred-eighty (180) days, whether or not consecutive (or for any longer period as may be required by applicable law), in any twelve (12)-month period.

(e) Employee's Right to Terminate for Convenience. In addition to Employee's right to terminate Employee's employment for Good Reason, Employee shall have the right to terminate Employee's employment with the Company for convenience at any time and for any other reason, or no reason at all, upon sixty (60) days' advance written notice to the Company; provided, however, that if Employee has provided notice to the Company of Employee's termination of employment, the Company may determine, in its sole discretion, that such termination shall be effective on any date prior to the effective date of termination provided in such notice (and, if such earlier date is so required, then it shall not change the basis for Employee's termination of employment nor be construed or interpreted as a termination of employment pursuant to Section 7(b)). Upon the termination of Employee's employment pursuant to this Section 7(e), the Company shall pay to Employee the Accrued Benefits.

(f) Effect of Termination of Employment without Cause or for Good Reason.

(i) If Employee's employment hereunder is terminated prior to the expiration of the Term by the Company without Cause pursuant to Section 7(b) or is terminated by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Section 7(e), then the Company shall pay Employee the Accrued Benefits and any earned and unpaid Annual Bonus for the calendar year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurs (which amount shall be paid within sixty (60) days following the date of such termination of employment but in no event later than March 15 of the year following the Bonus Year to which such Annual Bonus relates) and, so long as (and only if) Employee: (x) executes on or before the Release Expiration Date (as defined below), and does not revoke within any time provided by the Company to do so, a release of all claims in a form acceptable to the Company and generally used by the Company with respect to similarly situated employees (the "Release"), which Release shall release each member of the Company Group and their respective affiliates, and the foregoing entities' respective shareholders, members, partners, officers, managers, directors, fiduciaries, employees, representatives, agents and benefit plans (and fiduciaries of such plans) from any and all claims, including any and all causes of action arising out of Employee's employment with the Company and any other member of the Company Group or the termination of such employment, but excluding all claims to severance payments Employee may have under this Section 7(f); and (y) abides by the terms of each of Sections 8, 9, and 10 then:

(A) The Company shall make severance payments to Employee in a total amount equal to (i) twelve (12) months' worth of Employee's Base Salary and (ii) one (1) times the target Annual Bonus, where each are determined as of the year in which such termination occurs (such total severance payments being referred to as the "Severance Payment"). The Severance Payment will be divided into substantially equal installments paid over the twelve (12)-month period following the date on which Employee's employment terminates (the "Termination Date"). On the Company's first regularly scheduled pay date that is on or after the date that is sixty (60) days after the Termination Date (the "First Payment Date"), the Company shall pay to Employee, without interest, a number of such installments equal to the number of such installments that would have been paid during the period beginning on the Termination Date and ending on the First Payment Date had the installments been paid on the Company's regularly scheduled pay dates on or following the Termination Date, and each of the remaining installments shall be paid on the Company's regularly scheduled pay dates during the remainder of such twelve (12)-month period; provided, however, that to the extent, if any, that the aggregate amount of the installments of the Severance Payment that would otherwise be paid pursuant to the preceding provisions of this Section 7(f)(i) after March 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Termination Date occurs (the "Applicable March 15") exceeds the maximum exemption amount under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii)(A), then such excess shall be paid to Employee in a lump sum on the Applicable March 15 (or the first Business Day (as defined below) preceding the Applicable March 15 if the Applicable March 15 is not a Business Day) and the installments of the Severance Payment payable after the Applicable March 15 shall be reduced by such excess (beginning with the installment first payable after the Applicable March 15 and continuing with the next succeeding installment until the aggregate reduction equals such excess). "Business Day" shall mean any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in Houston, Texas, are authorized or required by law to be closed.

(B) The RSUs and PSUs issued under Employee's Emergence Grant shall be treated in accordance with the award agreements evidencing such Emergence Grant, which treatment will be no less favorable than the treatment provided to other similarly situated senior executives (other than the CEO).

The payments and benefits described in clauses (A) and (B) above are collectively referred to herein as the "Termination Benefits."

(ii) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Termination Benefits (and any portions thereof* shall not be payable if Employee's employment hereunder terminates upon the expiration of the Term.

(iii) If the Release is not executed and returned to the Company on or before the Release Expiration Date, and the required revocation period has not fully expired without revocation of the Release by Employee, then Employee shall not be entitled to any portion of the Termination Benefits. As used herein, the "Release Expiration Date" is that date that is twenty-one (21) days following the date upon which the Company delivers the Release to Employee (which shall occur no later than seven (7) days after the Termination Date) or, in the event that such termination of employment is "in connection with an exit incentive or other employment termination program" (as such phrase is defined in the Age Discrimination in Employment Aet of 1967), the date that is forty-five (45) days following such delivery date.

(g) After-Acquired Evidence. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines, in good faith, that Employee is eligible to receive the Termination Benefits pursuant to Section 7(f) but, after such determination, the Company subsequently acquires evidence or determines that: (i) Employee has failed to abide by the terms of Sections 8, 9, or 10; or (ii) a Cause condition existed prior to the Termination Date that, had the Company been fully aware of such condition, would have given the Company the right to terminate Employee's employment pursuant to Section 7(a), then the Company shall have the right to cease the payment of any future installments of the Termination Benefits and Employee shall promptly return to the Company all installments of the Termination Benefits received by Employee prior to the date that the Company determines that the conditions of this Section 7(g) have been satisfied. In addition, the provisions of the last sentence of Section 7(a) shall apply, and, subject to any limitation under applicable law, previously paid compensation pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(e) shall be subject to clawback or forfeiture and cancellation at the discretion of the Compensation Committee in the event Employee fails to abide by the terms of Sections 8, 9, or 10.

8. Disclosures. Promptly (and in any event, within three (3) Business Days) upon becoming aware of (a) any actual or potential Conflict of Interest or (b) any lawsuit, claim or arbitration filed against or involving Employee or any trust or vehicle owned or controlled by Employee, in each ease, Employee shall disclose such actual or potential Conflict of Interest or such lawsuit, claim or arbitration to the Board. A "Conflict of Interest" shall exist when Employee engages in, or plans to engage in, any activities, associations, or interests that conflict with, or create an appearance of a conflict with, Employee's duties, responsibilities, authorities, or obligations for or to any member of the Company Group.

9. Confidentiality. In the course of Employee's employment with the Company and

(a) the performance of Employee's duties on behalf of the Company Group hereunder, Employee will be provided with, and will have access to, Confidential Information (as defined below). As a condition of Employee's receipt and access to such Confidential Information and in exchange for other valuable consideration provided hereunder, and as a condition of Employee's employment hereunder, Employee shall comply with this Section 9.

(b) Both during the Employment Period and thereafter, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or by directive of the Board, Employee shall not disclose any Confidential Information to any person or entity and shall not use any Confidential Information except for the benefit of the Company Group. Employee shall follow all Company policies and protocols regarding the security of all documents and other materials containing Confidential Information (regardless of the medium on which Confidential Information is stored). The covenants of this Section 9(a) shall apply to all Confidential Information, whether now known or later to become known to Employee during the period that Employee is employed by or affiliated with or providing services to the Company or any other member of the Company Group.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of Section 9(a) to the contrary, Employee may make the following disclosures and uses of Confidential Information:

(i) disclosures to other employees of a member of the Company Group who have a need to know the information in connection with the businesses of the Company Group;

(ii) disclosures to third parties when, in the reasonable and good faith belief of Employee, such disclosure is in connection with Employee's performance of Employee's duties under this Agreement and in the best interest of the Company Group;

(iii) disclosures and uses that are approved in writing by the Board; or

(iv) disclosures to a person or entity that has (x) been retained by a member of the Company Group to provide services to one or more members of the Company Group and (y) agreed in writing to abide by the terms of a confidentiality agreement.

(d) Upon the expiration of the Employment Period, and at any other time upon request of the Company, Employee shall promptly surrender and deliver to the Company all documents (including electronically stored information) and all copies thereof and all other materials of any nature containing or pertaining to all Confidential Information and any other Company Group property (including any Company Group-issued computer, mobile device or other equipment) in Employee's possession, custody or control and Employee shall not retain any such documents or other materials or property of the Company Group. Within five (5) days of any such request, Employee shall certify to the Company in writing that all such documents, materials and property have been returned to the Company.

(e) All trade secrets, non-public information, designs, ideas, concepts, improvements, product developments, discoveries and inventions, whether patentable or not, that are conceived, made, developed or acquired by or disclosed to Employee, individually or in conjunction with others, during the period that Employee is employed by the Company or any other member of the Company Group (whether during business hours or otherwise and whether on the Company's premises or otherwise), that relate to any member of the Company Group's businesses or properties, products or services (including all such information relating to corporate opportunities, operations, future plans, methods of doing business, business plans, strategies for developing business and market share, research, financial and sales data, pricing terms, evaluations, opinions, interpretations, acquisition prospects, the identity of customers or acquisition targets or their requirements, the identity of key contacts within customers' organizations or within the organization of acquisition prospects, or marketing and merchandising techniques, prospective names and marks) is defined as "Confidential Information." Moreover, all documents, videotapes, written presentations, brochures, drawings, memoranda, notes, records, files, correspondence, manuals, models, specifications, computer programs, e-mail, voice mail, electronic databases, maps, drawings, architectural renditions, models and all other writings or materials of any type including or embodying any of such information, ideas, concepts, improvements, discoveries, inventions and other similar forms of expression are and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company or other applicable member of the Company Group and be subject to the same restrictions on disclosure applicable to all Confidential Information pursuant to this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information shall not include any information that (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure or wrongful aet of Employee or any of Employee's agents;)ii) was available to Employee on a non-confidential basis before its disclosure by a member of the Company Group; or (iii) becomes available to Employee on a non-confidential basis from a source other than a member of the Company Group; provided, however, that such source is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other obligation with respect to confidentiality to, a member of the Company Group.

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or restrict Employee from lawfully: (i) initiating communications directly with, cooperating with, providing information to, causing information to be provided to, or otherwise assisting in an investigation by, any governmental authority regarding a possible violation of any law; (ii) responding to any inquiry or legal process directed to Employee from any such governmental authority; (iii) testifying, participating or otherwise assisting in any action or proceeding by any such governmental authority relating to a possible violation of law; or (iv) making any other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of any applicable law. Additionally, pursuant to the federal Defend Trade Secrets Aet of 2016, an individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that: (A) is made (1) in confidence to a federal, state or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney and (2) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; (B) is made to the individual's attorney in relation to a lawsuit for retaliation against the individual for reporting a suspected violation of law; or (C) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Nothing in this Agreement requires Employee to obtain prior authorization before engaging in any conduct described in this paragraph, or to notify the Company that Employee has engaged in any such conduct.

10. Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation. The Employee acknowledges that (i) the Employee performs services of a unique nature for the Company that are irreplaceable, and that the Employee's performance of such services to a competing business will result in irreparable harm to the Company, (ii) the Employee has had and will continue to have access to Confidential Information which, if disclosed, would unfairly and inappropriately assist in competition against the Company Group, (iii) in the course of the Employee's employment by a competitor, the Employee would inevitably use or disclose such Confidential Information, (iv) the Company and Group has substantial relationships with their Customers and the Employee has had and will continue to have access to these Customers, (v) the Employee has received and will receive specialized training from the Company Group, and (vi) the Employee has generated and will continue to generate goodwill for the Company Group in the course of the Employee's employment. Accordingly, the Employee agrees that for the duration of Employee's employment and for one (1) year thereafter, Employee shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) own, manage, operate, control, be employed by (whether as an employee, consultant, independent contractor or otherwise, and whether or not for compensation) or render services to any person, firm, corporation or other entity, in whatever form, engaged in competition with the Company Group on the Termination Date, which includes the business of merchant power production, including nuclear power generation, or any business material to the Company which the Company has taken substantial steps, on or prior to such date, to engage in, in any geographic region in the United States where the Company conducts or has taken substantial steps to conduct business prior to the Termination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prohibit the Employee from being a passive owner of not more than three percent (3%) of the equity securities of a publicly traded corporation engaged in a business that is in competition with the Company Group, so long as the Employee has no active participation in the business of such corporation. In addition, the provisions of this Section 10(a) shall not be violated by the Employee commencing employment with a subsidiary, division or unit of any entity that engages in a business in competition with the Company Group so long as the Employee and such subsidiary, division or unit does not engage in a business in competition with the Company Group.

(b) solicit, induce or attempt to induce any employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company or any member of the Company Group to terminate his or her employment or contracting relationship with such entity, or to become an employee or independent contractor of any other Person or hire or retain any such employee, agent or individual, or take any action to materially assist or aid any other Person in identifying, hiring or soliciting any such employee, agent or individual (any employee, agent or individual retained as an independent contractor of the Company shall be deemed covered by this Section 10(b) while so employed or retained and for a period of six (6) months thereafter);

(c) (e) solicit, induce or attempt to induce any Customer, supplier or other business relation of the Company Group to cease doing or reduce the amount of its business with such entity or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such Customer, supplier or other business relation and such entity; or

(d) (d) interfere, or aid or induce any other person or entity in interfering, with the relationship between the Company Group and any of their respective vendors, joint venturers or licensors.

(e) (e) Definitions. For the purposes of this Section 10, the following definitions shall apply:

(ii) "Person" means an individual, a partnership, a limited liability company, a corporation, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint venture, an unincorporated organization and a governmental entity or any department, agency or political subdivision thereof.

11. Ownership of Intellectual Property.

(a) Employee agrees that the Company shall own, and Employee shall (and hereby does) assign, all right, title and interest (including patent rights, copyrights, trade secret rights, mask work rights, trademark rights, and all other intellectual and industrial property rights of any sort throughout the world) relating to any and all inventions (whether or not patentable), discoveries, developments, improvements, innovations, works of authorship, mask works, designs, know-how, ideas, formulae, processes, techniques, data and information authored, created, contributed to, made or conceived or reduced to practice, in whole or in part, by Employee during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, whether or not registerable under U.S.

law or the laws of other jurisdictions, that either (i) relate, at the time of conception, reduction to practice, creation, derivation or development, to any member of the Company Group's businesses or actual or anticipated research or development; or (ii) were developed on any amount of the Company's or any other member of the Company Group's time or with the use of any member of the Company Group's equipment, supplies, facilities or Confidential Information (all of the foregoing collectively referred to herein as "Company Intellectual Property"), and Employee shall promptly disclose all Company Intellectual Property to the Company in writing. To support Employee's disclosure obligation herein, Employee shall keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all Company Intellectual Property made by Employee (solely or jointly with others) during the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group in such form as may be specified from time to time by the Company. These records shall be available to, and remain the sole property of, the Company at all times.

(b) All of Employee's works of authorship and associated copyrights created during the period in which Employee is employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group and in the scope of Employee's employment or engagement shall be deemed to be "works made for hire" within the meaning of the Copyright Aet. To the extent any right, title and interest in and to Company Intellectual Property cannot be assigned by Employee to the Company, Employee shall grant, and does hereby grant, to the Company Group an exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import, export, reproduce, practice and otherwise commercialize such rights, title and interest.

(c) (e) Employee recognizes that this Agreement will not be deemed to require assignment of any invention or intellectual property that Employee developed entirely on Employee's own time without using the equipment, supplies, facilities, trade secrets, or Confidential Information of any member of the Company Group. In addition, this Agreement does not apply to any invention that qualifies fully for protection from assignment to the Company under any specifically applicable state law or regulation.

(d) To the extent allowed by law, this Section applies to all rights that may be known as or referred to as "moral rights," "artist's rights," "droit moral," or the like, including without limitation those rights set forth in 17 U.S.C. §106A (collectively, "Moral Rights"). To the extent Employee retains any Moral Rights under applicable law, Employee hereby ratifies and consents to any action that may be taken with respect to such Moral Rights by or authorized by the Company or any member of the Company Group, and Employee hereby waives and agrees not to assert any Moral Rights with respect to such Moral Rights. Employee shall confirm any such ratifications, consents, waivers, and agreements from time to time as requested by the Company.

(e) All inventions (whether or not patentable), original works of authorship, designs, know-how, mask works, ideas, information, developments, improvements, and trade secrets of which Employee is the sole or joint author, creator, contributor, or inventor that were made or developed by Employee prior to Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, or in which Employee asserts any intellectual property right, and which are applicable to or relate in any way to the business, products, services, or demonstrably anticipated research and development or business of any member of the Company Group ("Prior Inventions") are listed on Exhibit A, and Employee represents that Exhibit A is a complete list of all such Prior Inventions. If no such list is attached, Employee hereby represents and warrants that there are no Prior Inventions, and Employee shall make no claim of any rights to any Prior Inventions. If, in the course of Employee's employment with or affiliation with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, Employee incorporates into the product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group a Prior Invention, the Company Group is hereby granted and will have a nonexclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license to make, have made, modify, use, import, export, offer for sale, sell and otherwise commercialize such Prior Invention as part of or in connection with such product, process, or device of any member of the Company Group.

(f) Employee shall perform, during and after the period in which Employee is or has been employed by or affiliated with the Company or any other member of the Company Group, all acts deemed necessary or desirable by the Company to permit and assist each member of the Company Group, at the Company's expense, in obtaining and enforcing the full benefits, enjoyment, rights and title throughout the world in the Company Intellectual Property and Confidential Information assigned, to be assigned, or licensed to the Company under this Agreement. Such acts may include execution of documents and assistance or cooperation (i) in the filing, prosecution, registration, and memorialization of assignment of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, or other applications; (ii) in the enforcement of any applicable patents, copyrights, mask work, moral rights, trade secrets, or other proprietary rights; and (iii) in other legal proceedings related to the Company Intellectual Property or Confidential Information.

(g) In the event that the Company (or, as applicable, a member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to file, prosecute, register, or memorialize the assignment of any patent, copyright, mask work or other applications or to enforce any patent, copyright, mask work, moral right, trade secret or other proprietary right under any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property (including derivative works, improvements, renewals, extensions, continuations, divisional, continuations in part, continuing patent applications, reissues, and reexaminations of such Company Intellectual Property), Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to aet for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee,)i) to execute, file, prosecute, register and memorialize the assignment of any such application; (ii) to execute and file any documentation required for such enforcement; and (iii) to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the filing, prosecution, registration, memorialization of assignment, issuance, and enforcement of patents, copyrights, mask works, moral rights, trade secrets or other rights under the Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, all with the same legal force and effect as if executed by Employee.

(h) In the event that Employee enters into, on behalf of any member of the Company Group, any contracts or agreements relating to any Confidential Information or Company Intellectual Property, Employee shall assign such contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) promptly, and in any event, prior to Employee's termination of employment. If the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) is unable for any reason to secure Employee's signature to any document required to assign said contracts or agreements, or if Employee does not assign said contracts or agreements to the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) prior to Employee's termination of employment, Employee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Company (or the applicable member of the Company Group) and each of the Company's duly authorized officers and agents as Employee's agents and attorneys-in-fact to aet for and on Employee's behalf and instead of Employee to execute said assignments and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the execution of said documents.

12. Defense of Claims. During the Employment Period and for a period of one (1) year following the Termination Date, upon request from the Company, Employee shall reasonably cooperate with the Company Group, at times and locations agreeable to Employee, to assist (i) in the prosecution of any claims that may be made by the Company Group, to the extent that such claims may relate to the Employee's employment with the Company and about which the Employee has substantial knowledge (collectively, the "Claims"), (2) in the defense of any Claims that may be made by or against any member of the Company Group that relate to Employee's actual or prior areas of responsibility. Subject to Section 9(e), the Employee agrees to promptly inform the Company if the Employee becomes aware of any lawsuits involving Claims that may be filed or threatened against the Company Group. Subject to Section 9(e), the Employee also agrees to promptly inform the Company (to the extent that the Employee is legally permitted to do so) if the Employee is asked to assist in any investigation of the Company Group (or their actions) or another party attempts to obtain information or documents from the Employee (other than in connection with any litigation or other proceeding in which the Employee is a party-in-opposition) with respect to matters the Employee believes in good faith to relate to any investigation of the Company Group, in each ease, regardless of whether a lawsuit or other proceeding has then been filed against the Company Group with respect to such investigation, and shall not do so unless legally required. Subject to Section 9(e), during the pendency of any litigation or other proceeding involving Claims, the Employee shall not communicate with anyone (other than the Employee's attorneys and tax and/or financial advisors and except to the extent that the Employee determines in good faith is necessary in connection with the performance of the Employee's duties hereunder) with respect to the facts or subject matter of any pending or potential litigation or regulatory or administrative proceeding involving the Company Group without giving prior written notice to the Company or the Company's counsel.

13. Non-Disparagement. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except to the extent compelled or required by applicable law and subject to Section 9(e), Employee agrees Employee shall not disparage the Company or its respective officers, directors, employees, shareholders or successors or their respective products or services, in any manner (including but not limited to, verbally or via hard copy, websites, blogs, social media forums or any other medium); provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall prevent Employee from: engaging in concerted activity relative to the terms and conditions of Employee's employment and in communications protected under the National Labor Relations Aet, filing a charge or providing information to any governmental agency; and provided, further, that nothing in this Section shall prevent Employee from providing information in response to a subpoena or other enforceable legal process or as otherwise required by law.

14. Reasonableness of Covenants. In signing this Agreement, Employee has carefully read and considered all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed under these Sections 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13. Employee agrees that these restraints are necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the Company Group and their trade secrets and Confidential Information and that such restraints are reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area. Employee acknowledges that each of these covenants has a unique, very substantial and immeasurable value to the Company Group.

15. Tolling. In the event of any violation of the provisions of Section 10 hereto, Employee acknowledges and agrees that the post-termination restrictions contained in Section 10 shall be extended by a period of time equal to the period of such violation, as determined by a court of law, it being the intention of the parties hereto that the running of the applicable post-termination restriction period shall be tolled during any period of such violation.

16. Withholdings; Deductions. The Company may withhold and deduct from any benefits and payments made or to be made pursuant to this Agreement (a) all federal, state, local and other taxes as may be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling and (b) any deductions consented to in writing by Employee.

17. Title and Headings; Construction. Titles and headings to Sections hereof are for the purpose of reference only and shall in no way limit, define or otherwise affect the provisions hereof. Any and all Exhibits or Attachments referred to in this Agreement are, by such reference, incorporated herein and made a part hereof for all purposes. Unless the context requires otherwise, all references to laws, regulations, contrasts, documents, agreements and instruments refer to such laws, regulations, contrasts, documents, agreements and instruments as they may be amended from time to time, and references to particular provisions of laws or regulations include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any succeeding law or regulation. All references to “dollars” or “$” in this Agreement refer to United States dollars. The words “herein”, “hereof”, “hereunder” and other compounds of the word “here” shall refer to the entire Agreement, including all Exhibits attached hereto, and not to any particular provision hereof. The word “or” is not exclusive. Wherever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural and conversely. All references to “including” shall be construed as meaning “including without limitation.” Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein shall be construed or resolved against any party hereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Agreement has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of the parties hereto.

18. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall in all respects be construed according to the laws of the State of Texas without regard to its conflict of laws principles that would result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. With respect to any claim or dispute related to or arising under this Agreement, the parties hereto consent to the exclusive jurisdiction, forum and venue of the state and federal courts (as applicable) located in Houston, Texas.

19. Entire Agreement and Amendment. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the matters covered herein and supersedes and replaces all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, oral or written, between the parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof, including, for the avoidance of doubt, that certain Severance Agreement by and between Employee and the Company, dated November 15, 2021 (the "Prior Severance Agreement" and that certain Non-Competition, Non-Solicitation and Confidentiality Agreement by and between Employee and Talen Energy Supply, LLC dated December 14, 2017, other than any indemnification rights (including, without limitation, any indemnification rights Employee has under any of the limited liability company agreements of the Company's subsidiaries), equity award agreements, or rights under the Key Employee Incentive Plan approved by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas related to Talen Energy Supply, LLC and certain of its subsidiaries voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (Case No. 22-90054; Docket No. 1071), which are in effect or outstanding as of the Effective Date. By signing this Agreement, Employee hereby waives any claim of "good reason" (or term of like import) under the Prior Severance Agreement or any other agreement to which Employee is a party that Employee may otherwise have as a result of (a) entering into this Agreement or (b) any other event, occurrence or circumstance prior to the Effective Date. This Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument executed by both parties hereto.

20. Enforcement. The patties hereto acknowledge that an award of damages for failure to comply with Sections 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13 of this Agreement may not be an adequate remedy for the Company attempting to enforce or prevent the breach of such provisions, and accordingly the parties hereto authorize the Company to (in addition to any other remedies or relief to which it may be entitled) bring an action against Employee for a permanent or temporary injunction, to compel the specific performance or any other equitable remedy by Employee of their obligations to comply with, or prevent the breach of or remedy the breach of, such provisions without proof of actual damages.

21. Waiver of Breach. Any waiver of this Agreement must be executed by the party to be bound by such waiver. No waiver by either party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other party, or of compliance with any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party, will operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by such other party or any similar or dissimilar provision or condition at the same or any subsequent time. The failure of either party hereto to take any action by reason of any breach will not deprive such party of the right to take action at any time.

22. Assignment. This Agreement is personal to Employee, and neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder shall be assignable or otherwise transferred by Employee. The Company may assign this Agreement without Employee's consent, including to any member of the Company Group and to any successor (whether by merger, purchase or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the equity, assets or businesses of the Company.

23. Notices. Notices provided for in this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly received (a) when delivered in person; (b) on the first Business Day after such notice is sent by express overnight courier service; or (e) on the second Business Day following deposit with a nationally-recognized second-day courier service with proof of receipt maintained, in each ease, to the following address, as applicable:

(Or, if different, the latest address on file with the Company)

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, including by electronic mail or facsimile, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument. Each counterpart may consist of a copy hereof containing multiple signature pages, each signed by one party, but together signed by both parties hereto.

25. Deemed Resignations. Except as otherwise determined by the Board or as otherwise agreed to in writing by Employee and any member of the Company Group prior to the termination of Employee's employment with the Company or any member of the Company Group, any termination of Employee's employment shall constitute, as applicable, an automatic resignation of Employee: (a) as an officer of the Company and each member of the Company Group; (b) from the Board; and (e) from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any member of the Company Group and from the board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) of any corporation, limited liability entity, unlimited liability entity or other entity in which any member of the Company Group holds an equity interest and with respect to which board of directors or board of managers (or similar governing body) Employee serves as such Company Group member's designee or other representative.

26. Section 409A.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all provisions of this Agreement are intended to comply with Section 409A of the Code and the applicable Treasury regulations and administrative guidance issued thereunder (collectively, "Section 409A") or an exemption therefrom and shall be construed and administered in accordance with such intent. Any payments under this Agreement that may be excluded from Section 409A either as separation pay due to an involuntary separation from service or as a short-term deferral shall be excluded from Section 409A to the maximum extent possible. For purposes of Section 409A, each installment payment provided under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment. Any payments to be made under this Agreement upon a termination of Employee's employment shall only be made if such termination of employment constitutes a "separation from service" under Section 409A.

(b) To the extent that any right to reimbursement of expenses or payment of any benefit in-kind under this Agreement constitutes nonqualified deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A), (i) any such expense reimbursement shall be made by the Company no later than the last day of Employee's taxable year following the taxable year in which such expense was incurred by Employee, (ii) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (iii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other taxable year; provided, that the foregoing clause shall not be violated with regard to expenses reimbursed under any arrangement covered by Section 105(b) of the Code solely because such expenses are subject to a limit related to the period in which the arrangement is in effect.

(c) (e) Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, if any payment or benefit provided for herein would be subject to additional taxes and interest under Section 409A if Employee's receipt of such payment or benefit is not delayed until the earlier of the date of Employee's death or the date that is six (6) months after the Termination Date (such date, the "Section 409A Payment Date"), then such payment or benefit shall not be provided to Employee (or Employee's estate, if applicable) until the Section 409A Payment Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company makes no representations that the payments and benefits provided under this Agreement are exempt from, or compliant with, Section 409A and in no event shall any member of the Company Group be liable for all or any portion of any taxes, penalties, interest or other expenses that may be incurred by Employee on account of non-compliance with Section 409A.

27. Effect of Termination. The provisions of Sections 7(a), 8-15, 20, 25, and 26 and those provisions necessary to interpret and enforce them, shall survive any termination of this Agreement and any termination of the employment relationship between Employee and the Company.

28. Third-Party Beneficiaries. Each member of the Company Group that is not a signatory to this Agreement shall be a third-party beneficiary of Employee's obligations under Sections 7-15, 20, and 25 and shall be entitled to enforce such obligations as if a party hereto.

29. Certain Excise Taxes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if Employee is a "disqualified individual" (as defined in Section 280G(e) of the Code), and the benefits provided for in this Agreement, together with any other payments and benefits which Employee has the right to receive from the Company and its affiliates, would constitute a "parachute payment" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), then the benefits provided for in this Agreement (beginning with any benefit to be paid in each hereunder) shall be either (a) reduced (but not below zero) so that the present value of such total amounts and benefits received by Employee from the Company will be one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) and so that no portion of such amounts and benefits received by Employee shall be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or (b) paid in full, whichever produces the better net after-tax position to Employee (taking into account any applicable excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code and any other applicable taxes). The determination as to whether any such reduction in the amount of the benefits provided hereunder is necessary shall be made by the Compensation Committee in good faith and in consultation with tax and legal advisors of the Company. If a reduced payment or benefit is made and through error or otherwise that payment or benefit, when aggregated with other payments and benefits from the Company (or its affiliates) used in determining if a "parachute payment" exists, exceeds one dollar ($1.00) less than three times Employee's base amount, then Employee shall immediately repay such excess to the Company upon notification that an overpayment has been made. Nothing in this Section 29 shall require the Company to be responsible for, or have any liability or obligation with respect to, Employee's excise tax liabilities under Section 4999 of the Code.

30. Severability. If an arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) is invalid or unenforceable, then the invalidity or unenforceability of that provision (or portion thereof) shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company entered into an Employment Agreement, dated December 6, 2016, as amended on December 14, 2020 and November 1, 2021 (collectively, the "Employment Agreement"), pursuant to which Executive was employed most recently as Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company and certain subsidiaries of the Company;

WHEREAS, Executive served as a director on the Board of Directors of the Company and certain subsidiaries of the Company;

WHEREAS, Executive and Talen Energy Supply, LLC and its subsidiaries entered into: (i) a Talen Retention Bonus Award letter, dated November 4, 2021 (the "Retention Bonus Award"), (ii) an Amended and Restated Talen Retention Bonus Award letter, dated April 22, 2022 (the "Amended Retention Bonus Award "), and (iii) a Changes to Short-Term Incentive Program Awards letter, dated April 22, 2022 (the " STI Award") (collectively, with the Retention Bonus Award and Amended Retention Bonus Award, the " Award Agreements");

WHEREAS, Talen Energy Supply, LLC adopted a key employee incentive plan, as approved by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas pursuant to the Order Approving Debtors' Key Employee Incentive Program, entered on August 15, 2022 [Docket No. 1071] (the "Key Employee Incentive Plan"), pursuant to which Executive was granted certain KEIP Awards (as defined therein);

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 7(b) of the Employment Agreement, the Company Group provided written notice to Executive, dated April 12, 2023, of Executive's termination without Cause from the Company Group;

WHEREAS, terms used and not defined herein have the meanings set forth in the Employment Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to enter into this Agreement to memorialize their agreement with respect to resolving all claims relating to, and arising from, Executive's employment and the termination without Cause of Executive's employment with the Company Group, effective May 17, 2023 (the "Separation Date").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the Parties, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Separation from Employment. The Parties agree that Executive's employment with the Company Group ended on the Separation Date. As of the Separation Date, Executive: (i) no longer has an employment relationship with the Company Group or any other Company Party (as defined below); (ii) to the extent applicable, Executive is deemed to have been resigned from any other positions as an officer, director, or manager of the Company Group or, as applicable, any other Company Party; and (iii) no longer serves on any committees of the Company Group or any Company Party. To the extent applicable, Executive agrees to execute any necessary documentation presented by the Company Group to effectuate all such resignations and/or removals from such offices and/or positions held by Executive. Executive agrees that, after the Separation Date, Executive shall not represent himself as being an employee, officer, principal, partner, agent, or representative of the Company Group for any purpose, and shall have no authority to enter into any agreements, incur any costs, or take any action that would otherwise bind the Company Group or any Company Parties on behalf of the Company Group.

2. Accrued Benefits. Regardless of whether or not Executive signs this Agreement, Executive will receive the following in accordance with Section 7(f)(i) of the Employment Agreement: (i) his accrued and unpaid Base Salary and accrued and unused vacation through the Separation Date; (ii) reimbursement of any unreimbursed expenses incurred through the Separation Date and substantiated in accordance with Section 5 of the Employment Agreement; and (iii) Executive's accrued and vested benefits under the terms of the applicable employee retirement, welfare, and fringe benefit plans and programs in which he is a participant immediately prior to the Separation Date, including but not limited to the Key Employee Incentive Plan (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits"). For the avoidance of doubt: (A) Executive's Second Bonus Installment (as defined in the Amended Retention Bonus Award) shall be deemed vested and not subject to clawback by the Company Group, (B) the STI Award is fully vested and not subject to clawback by the Company Group, and (C) Executive remains entitled to a pro-rata portion of the KEIP Award (or, if applicable, the full portion of the KEIP Award with respect to the Asset Sale Metric) for the current Performance Period in accordance with Section 5.2 of the Key Employee Incentive Plan. Executive acknowledges that he has already been paid by the Company his Annual Bonus for the prior Bonus Year (as such terms are defined in the Employment Agreement).

3. Severance Payment and Benefits. In consideration for and provided that Executive (i) timely executes and returns this Agreement, signed by him, in the manner described in Section 25 of this Agreement; (ii) does not exercise his revocation right, discussed in Section 9 of this Agreement; and (iii) abides by his commitments set forth in this Agreement, including but not limited to his continuing obligations under Sections 9, 10, 11, and 13 of the Employment Agreement, then Executive shall receive the following payments and benefits, less any payroll deductions required by law, which shall be in lieu of any other payments or benefits to which he otherwise might be entitled:

(a) Severance payments to Executive in a total amount equal to the sum of: (x) twelve (12) months' worth of Executive's Base Salary for the year of the Separation Date (equal to $1,261,750), and (y) Executive's Target Bonus for the Bonus Year in which termination occurs (equal to $2,523,500 for the year of 2023), which is to be paid in a single lump sum payment that is placed in escrow upon the Company's emergence from bankruptcy and to be paid on the Effective Date of this Agreement (as defined in Section 25 below), less any applicable withholdings and deductions; and

(b) If Executive elects to continue coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended ("COBRA"), and/or sections 601 through 608 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, the Company Group shall reimburse Executive for such coverage as specified in Section 7(f)(i) of the Employment Agreement (collectively, Sections 3(a) and (b) herein, the "Severance Payment and Benefits").

4. Equity Interests. In entering into this Agreement, Executive expressly acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) Immediately prior to the Separation Date, Executive held 117.767 Series B Units (the " Raven Units") in Raven Power Holdings LLC ("Raven Power"), a Delaware limited liability company, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Amended and Restated Limited Liability Corporation Agreement of Raven Power, dated October 28, 2013, as amended on April 1, 2014 (the " Raven Power LLC Agreement "), and the Raven Power Incentive Unit Award Agreement, dated September 22, 2017, as amended on December 5, 2017 (collectively, the " Raven Power Incentive Unit Award Agreement"). Executive acknowledges and agrees that 47.107 of the Series B Units in Raven Power issued to him pursuant to the Raven Power Incentive Unit Award Agreement remain unvested as of the Separation Date, and in accordance with the Raven Power Inventive Unit Award Agreement and the Raven Power LLC Agreement, all such unvested Series B Units in Raven Power (and all rights arising from such unvested Series B Units in Raven Power and from being a holder thereof) shall be forfeited to Raven Power without consideration on the Separation Date. Executive acknowledges and agrees this his vested Series B Units in Raven Power continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of the Raven Power LLC Agreement and the Raven Power Incentive Unit Award Agreement. All terms within this Section 4(a) that are not otherwise defined in this Agreement shall be defined as provided in the Raven Power Incentive Award Unit Agreement.

(b) Immediately prior to the Separation Date, Executive held 150,000 Series B-l Units (the " Midco Units") in Talen Midco LLC, a Delaware limited liability Corporation ("Midco"), subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Amended and Restated Limited Liability Corporation Agreement of Midco, dated as of September 22, 2017 (the "Midco LLC Agreement "), and the Incentive Unit Award Agreement, dated September 22, 2017 (the "B-l Midco Award Agreement "). Executive acknowledges and agrees that 60,000 of the Series B-l Units in Midco issued to him pursuant to the B-l Midco Award Agreement remained unvested as of the Separation Date and, in accordance with the B-l Midco Award Agreement and the Midco LLC Agreement, all of such unvested Series B-l Units in Midco (and all rights arising from such unvested B-l Midco Incentive Units and from being a holder thereof) shall be forfeited to Midco without consideration on the Separation Date. Executive acknowledges and agrees this his vested Series B-l Units in Midco continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of the Midco LLC Agreement and the B-l Midco Award Agreement. All terms within this Section 4(b) that are not otherwise defined in this Agreement shall be defined as provided in the B-l Midco Award Agreement.

(c) Immediately prior to the Separation Date, Executive held 1,000,000 Class A Units (the "Cumulus Units") in Cumulus Digital Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability Corporation ("Cumulus Holdings"), subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of Cumulus Holdings, dated as of September 29, 2022 (the "Cumulus Holdings LLC Agreement"). Executive purchased the Cumulus Units in cash and such Cumulus Units shall remain the property of Executive following the Separation Date. Executive acknowledges and agrees that his Class A Units in Cumulus Holdings continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of the Cumulus Holdings LLC Agreement. All terms within this Section 4(c) that are not otherwise defined in this Agreement shall be defined as provided in the Cumulus Holdings LLC Agreement.

(d) Executive and the Company entered into a Make-Whole Bonus letter, dated September 22, 2017 (the " Make-Whole Bonus"). Executive acknowledges and agrees that any payments due or payable to him under the Make-Whole Bonus continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of the Make-Whole Bonus.

(e) Other than his vested Series B Units in Raven Power, his vested Series B-l Units in Midco, and his Cumulus Units, Executive does not hold (or have any rights to hold) any other interests in Raven Power, Midco, or any other Company Party (as defined in Section 6 below). Executive further acknowledges and agrees that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Raven Power LLC Agreement, Raven Power Incentive Unit Award Agreement, Midco LLC Agreement, or the B-1 Midco Award Agreement, at any time following the Separation Date, Raven Power and Midco shall have the right (but not the obligation) to repurchase, in accordance with the applicable terms of the Raven Power Incentive Unit Award Agreement and B-l Midco Award Agreement, any or all of the vested Series B Units in Raven Power or the vested B-l Units in Midco.

(f) Executive represents that he has not assigned, transferred, alienated, encumbered, hypothecated, sold, delivered, mortgaged, pledged, or granted options or rights to purchase any of his vested Series B Units in Raven Power, his vested B-l Units in Midco, his Cumulus Units, his rights to payment under the Make-Whole Bonus, or any other Awarded Units (as defined in the Raven Power Incentive Award Unit Agreement, the B-l Midco Award Agreement, and the Make-Whole Bonus) and Executive will not do so. Executive further represents that Executive is the sole owner of his vested Series B Units in Raven Power, his vested B-l Units in Midco, and his Cumulus Units, subject to the terms and conditions of the Raven Power LLC Agreement, Raven Power Incentive Unit Award Agreement, Midco LLC Agreement, the B-l Midco Award Agreement, and the Cumulus Holdings LLC Agreement. Executive further agrees, covenants, and warrants that, in the event of Executive's death, all of the representations, releases, and covenants made and agreed to by Executive in this Section 4 shall be binding upon Executive's estate and heirs.

5. Satisfaction of All Leaves and Payment Amounts; Prior Rights and Obligations . In entering into this Agreement, Executive expressly acknowledges and agrees that Executive has received all leaves (paid and unpaid) to which Executive was entitled during Executive's employment with the Company Group and any other Company Party (as defined below) and Executive has received all wages, bonuses, and other compensation, been provided all benefits, been afforded all rights and been paid all sums that Executive is owed and has been owed by the Company Group and any other Company Party as of the date that Executive executes this Agreement (the "Signing Date"), including all payments arising out of all Award Agreements, the Employment Agreement, any incentive plans, and any other bonus arrangements, in each case (x) to the extent required under the various agreements that Executive entered into with the Company Group and any other Company Party and (y) subject to the payments and rights contemplated in Sections 2, 3 and 4 above. For the avoidance of doubt, Executive acknowledges and agrees that Executive had no right to any of the Severance Payment and Benefits described in Section 3 above (or any portions thereof) but for Executive's entry into this Agreement.

6. Release of Liability and Claims.

(a) In consideration of Executive's receipt of the Severance Payment and Benefits (and any portion thereof), Executive hereby forever releases, discharges, and acquits the Company Group, its affiliates, and each of the foregoing entities' respective past, present, and future subsidiaries, affiliates, stockholders, members, partners, directors, officers, managers, insurers, employees, agents, attorneys, heirs, predecessors, successors, and representatives in their personal and representative capacities, as well as all employee benefit plans maintained by any Company Party and all fiduciaries and administrators of any such plans, in their personal and representative capacities (collectively, the "Company Parties" or any one, individually, a "Company Party"), from liability for, and Executive hereby waives, any and all claims, damages, or causes of action of any kind related to Executive's employment with any Company Party, the termination of such employment, and any other acts or omissions related to any matter occurring or existing on or prior to the Signing Date, including (i) any alleged violation through such date of: (A) any federal, state, or local anti-discrimination or anti-retaliation law, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended (including as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act), Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, as amended, and Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code, as amended; and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, the Texas Labor Code (including the Texas Payday Law the Texas Anti-Retaliation Act, Chapter 21 of the Texas Labor Code, and the Texas Whistleblower Act), as amended; (B) the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"); (C) the Immigration Reform Control Act, as amended; (D) the Occupational Safety and Health Act, as amended; (E) the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993; (F) any federal, state or local wage and hour law; (G) any other local, state or federal law, regulation or ordinance; or (H) any public policy, contract, tort, or common law claim or claim for fiduciary duty or breach thereof or claim for fraud or misrepresentation or fraud of any kind; (ii) any allegation for costs, fees, or other expenses including attorneys' fees incurred in, or with respect to, a Released Claim; (iii) any and all rights, benefits or claims Executive may have under any retention, change in control, bonus, or severance plan or policy of any Company Party or any retention, change in control, bonus, or severance-related agreement that Executive may have or have had with any Company Party other than the rights described herein; (iv) any and all rights, benefits, or claims Executive may have under any employment contract (including the Employment Agreement), the Award Agreements, any equity-based compensation plan or arrangement, any incentive compensation plan or other bonus arrangements, any limited liability company agreements, and any other agreement; and (v) any claim for compensation or benefits of any kind not expressly set forth in this Agreement (collectively, the "Released Claims"). In no event shall the Released Claims include (a) any claim that first arises after the Signing Date, (b) any claim or right Executive may have under this Agreement, under the Raven Power LLC Agreement, the Raven Power Incentive Unit Award Agreement, the B-l Midco Award Agreement, the Midco LLC Agreement, and/or the Cumulus Holdings LLC Agreement, (c) any claim for indemnification, including pursuant to the Indemnification Agreement entered into by the Parties on December 6, 2016, and any claim pursuant to directors and officers liability insurance, (d) any claim to vested benefits under an employee benefit plan governed by ERISA, (e) any claim under any equity award agreement (other than the Raven Power Incentive Unit Award Agreement and the B-l Midco Award Agreement), unitholders agreement, or other agreement respecting Executive's equity ownership in the Company or any other Company Party that survives the Separation Date, or (f) any claim to recovery to which Executive may be entitled pursuant to any applicable workers' compensation and unemployment insurance laws. This Agreement is not intended to indicate that any such claims exist or that, if they do exist, they are meritorious. Rather, Executive is simply agreeing that, in exchange for the consideration received by him pursuant to Section 3 above, any and all potential claims of this nature that Executive may have against the Company Parties, regardless of whether they actually exist, are expressly settled, compromised, and waived. THIS RELEASE INCLUDES MATTERS ATTRIBUTABLE TO THE SOLE OR PARTIAL NEGLIGENCE (WHETHER GROSS OR SIMPLE) OR OTHER FAULT, INCLUDING STRICT LIABILITY, OF ANY OF THE COMPANY PARTIES.

(b) Notwithstanding this release of liability, nothing in this Agreement prevents Executive from filing any non-legally waivable claim (including a challenge to the validity of this Agreement) with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, National Labor Relations Board, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, Securities and Exchange Commission, or other federal, state, or local governmental agency or commission or comparable state or local agency (collectively "Governmental Agencies" and each a "Governmental Agency"), reporting in good faith a possible violation of law to a Government Agency under such agency's applicable whistleblower program, or participating in or cooperating with any investigation or proceeding conducted by a Government Agency; however,

Executive understands and agrees that Executive is waiving any and all rights to recover any monetary or personal relief or recovery as a result of a Government Agency proceeding or subsequent legal actions.

7. Representations. Executive represents and warrants that, as of the date he signs this Agreement, Executive has not filed any claims, complaints, charges, or lawsuits against any of the Company Parties with any Governmental Agency or with any state or federal court or arbitrator for or with respect to a matter, claim, or incident that occurred or arose out of one or more occurrences that took place on or prior to the Signing Date. Executive further represents and warrants that Executive has made no assignment, sale, delivery, transfer, or conveyance of any rights Executive has asserted or may have against any of the Company Parties with respect to any Released Claim. The Company Group represents that it is not currently aware of any facts or circumstances that may constitute or otherwise form the basis for a Cause termination under the Employment Agreement.

8. Executive's Acknowledgements. By executing and delivering this Agreement, Executive expressly acknowledges that:

(a) Executive has carefully read this Agreement and has had sufficient time (and at least twenty-one (21) days) to consider this Agreement before the execution and delivery to the Company Group;

(b) Executive has been advised, and hereby is advised in writing, to discuss this Agreement with an attorney of Executive's choice and Executive has had adequate opportunity to do so prior to executing this Agreement;

(c) Executive fully understands the final and binding effect of this Agreement; the only promises made to Executive to sign this Agreement are those stated herein; and Executive is signing this Agreement knowingly, voluntarily, and of Executive's own free will, and that Executive understands and agrees to each of the terms of this Agreement;

(d) The only matters relied upon by Executive and causing Executive to sign this Agreement are the provisions set forth in writing within the four comers of this Agreement;

(e) Executive would not otherwise have been entitled to the Severance Payment and Benefits described in Section 3 above, or any portion thereof, but for Executive's agreement to be bound by the terms of this Agreement; and

(f) No Company Party has provided any tax or legal advice regarding this Agreement and Executive has had an adequate opportunity to receive sufficient tax and legal advice from advisors of Executive's own choosing such that Executive enters into this Agreement with full understanding of the tax and legal implications thereof.

9. Revocation Right. Notwithstanding the initial effectiveness of this Agreement upon the Signing Date, Executive may revoke the delivery (and therefore the effectiveness) of this Agreement within the seven (7) day period beginning on the date Executive executes this Agreement (such seven (7) day period being referred to herein as the "Release Revocation Period"). To be effective, such revocation must be in writing signed by Executive and must be received by Andrew Wright, General Counsel & Corporate Secretary, at the address (or e-mail address) set forth in Section 25 below, such that it is received by Mr. Wright no later than 11:59 p.m. Houston, Texas time, on the last day of the Release Revocation Period. In the event Executive exercises his revocation right as set forth herein, the Agreement shall be null and void and Executive will not be entitled to receive the Severance Payment and Benefits set forth in Section 3 above.

10. Third Party Beneficiaries. Executive expressly acknowledges and agrees that each Company Party that is not a signatory to this Agreement shall be a third-party beneficiary of Executive's release of claims and representations in Sections 5-8 and 13 hereof.

11. Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement (or part thereof) that renders such term or provision (or part thereof) or any other term or provision hereof (or part thereof) invalid or unenforceable in any respect shall be severable and shall be modified or severed to the extent necessary to avoid rendering such term or provision (or part thereof) invalid or unenforceable, and such modification or severance shall be accomplished in the manner that most nearly preserves the benefit of the bargain set forth in the Employment Agreement and hereunder.

12. Withholding of Taxes and Other Deductions. Executive acknowledges that the Company Group shall withhold from the Severance Payment and Benefits (referred to in Section 3) all federal, state, local, and other taxes and withholdings as may be required by any law or governmental regulation or ruling. Executive shall satisfy all of his tax obligations arising from his receipt of the payments and benefits set forth herein, and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company Group and the other Company Parties for any costs, expenses or liabilities arising from his failure to do so.

13. Return of Property. Executive expressly represents and warrants that he has returned to the Company Group all property belonging to the Company Group or any other Company Party, including all computer files, electronically stored information, and other materials provided to him by the Company Group or any other Company Party in the course of Executive's employment with the Company and Executive further represents and warrants that Executive has not maintained a copy of any such materials in any form.

14. Further Assurances. By signing this Agreement, Executive expressly acknowledges the enforceability, and continued effectiveness of Sections 9 (relating to the confidentiality and non-disclosure of Confidential Information), 10 (relating to Executive's noncompetition and non-solicitation covenants), 11 (relating to the ownership of intellectual property), and 13 (relating to Executive's cooperation with the Company Group after the Separation Date in connection with any defense of claims against the Company Group) of the Employment Agreement and promises to abide by those terms of the Employment Agreement. Executive acknowledges and understands that his receipt of the Severance Payment and Benefits set forth in Section 3 above is conditioned on Executive's continuing compliance with the commitments contained in the Employment Agreement.

15. Permitted Reporting. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect Executive's rights to engage in activity protected by Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act, and notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or restrict Executive from lawfully (i) initiating communications directly with, cooperating with, providing information to, causing information to be provided to, or otherwise assisting in an investigation by, any Governmental Agency regarding a possible violation of any law; (ii) responding to any inquiry or legal process directed to Executive from any such Governmental Agency so long as Executive timely provides notice to the Company Group of such inquiry or legal process and provides the Company Group with the opportunity to seek relief that would prevent or limit such disclosure (and so long as Executive only discloses the minimum amount of information as required to be disclosed by such inquiry or legal process, after giving effect to the Company Group's efforts to prevent or limit such disclosure); (iii) testifying, participating, or otherwise assisting in any action or proceeding by any such Governmental Agency relating to a possible violation of law, or (iv) making any other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of any applicable law. Additionally, pursuant to the federal Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, an individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that: (1) is made (x) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney and (y) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; (2) is made to the individual's attorney in relation to a lawsuit for retaliation against the individual for reporting a suspected violation of law; or (3) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a law suit or proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

16. Non-Disparagement. Executive agrees to refrain from, directly or indirectly, making any statements, whether or not such statement legally constitutes libel or slander in any form (or permitting any statements to be reported as being attributed to him), including but not limited to on social media, the Internet, or any other medium, that are critical, disparaging, or derogatory about, or which injure or reasonably could injure the reputation of, the Company Group or any other Company Party. Nothing in this Section 16 will prevent Executive from making any statements required by law or compelled by legal process, and nothing herein shall affect Executive's rights to engage in activity protected by Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act. The Company Group agrees to provide a verbal instruction to members of the Company's Board of Directors and Executive's direct reports at the time of the Separation Date, as of the Effective Date of this Agreement (as defined in Section 25 below), not to directly or indirectly make any statements, whether or not such statement legally constitutes libel or slander, in any form (or permitting any statements to be reported as being attributed to him), including but not limited to on social media, the Internet, or any other medium, that are critical, disparaging or derogatory about, or which injure or reasonably could injure the reputation of Executive.

17. No Admission of Wrongdoing. Neither by offering to make nor by entering into this Agreement, does the Company Group, its subsidiaries, or affiliated entities, any Company Party, or Executive admit any liability, wrongdoing, failure of performance, or violation of any law, statute, regulation, or policy, and it is expressly understood and agreed that this Agreement is being entered into solely for the purpose of resolving all matters of any kind whatsoever concerning the Executive's employment and the separation of the Executive's employment from the Company Group.

18. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Raven Power LLC Agreement, the Midco LLC Agreement, the Cumulus Holdings LLC Agreement, the Raven Power Incentive Award Unit Agreement, the B-l Midco Award Agreement, the Award Agreements, the Employment Agreement, and the Key Employee Incentive Plan and KEIP Awards thereunder constitute the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the matters herein provided. No modifications or waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless in writing and signed by each Party.

19. Governing Law; Dispute Resolution. The validity, interpretation, construction, performance, and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of law. Any dispute arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement shall be resolved in accordance with Section 12 of the Employment Agreement; provided, however, that any dispute arising out of, or relating to, Section 4 of this Agreement shall be governed by the applicable dispute resolution procedures set forth in the Raven Power Incentive Unit Award Agreement, the Raven Power LLC Agreement, the B-l Midco Award Agreement, the Midco LLC Agreement, and/or the Cumulus Holdings LLC Agreement.

20. Headings; Interpretation. Titles and headings to Sections hereof are for the purpose of reference only and shall in no way limit, define, or otherwise affect the provisions hereof. Unless the context requires otherwise, all references herein to laws, regulations, contracts, agreements, instruments, and other documents shall be deemed to refer to such laws, regulations, agreements, instruments, and other documents as they may be amended, supplemented, modified, and restated from time to time, and references to particular provisions of laws or regulations include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any succeeding law or regulation. The word "or" as used herein is not exclusive and is deemed to have the meaning "and/or." The words "herein", "hereof", "hereunder", and other compounds of the word "here" shall refer to the entire Agreement, including all exhibits, and not to any particular provision hereof. The use herein of the word "including" following any general statement, term or matter shall not be construed to limit such statement, term or matter to the specific items or matters set forth immediately following such word or to similar items or matters, whether or not non-limiting language (such as "without limitation", "but not limited to", or words of similar import) is used with reference thereto, but rather shall be deemed to refer to all other items or matters that could reasonably fall within the broadest possible scope of such general statement, term or matter. Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein shall be construed or resolved against any Party hereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Agreement has been reviewed by each of the Parties hereto and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of the Parties.

21. Assignment; Successors. Except as provided herein, this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by and against Executive, each Company Party and their respective successors, permitted assigns and representatives, as the case may be (including subsequent holders of the vested Series B Units in Raven Power, the vested B-l Units in Midco and the Cumulus Units); provided, however, that the Company Group has the right to assign this Agreement, including to any successor, but Executive does not.

22. No Waiver. No failure by any Party at any time to give notice of any breach by the other Party of, or to require compliance with, any condition or provision of this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same or at any prior or subsequent time.

23. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts (including portable document format (.pdf) and facsimile counterparts), each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same agreement.

24. Section 409A. This Agreement and the payments provided hereunder are intended to comply with or be exempt from the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the Treasury regulations and interpretive guidance issued thereunder (collectively, "Section 409A"), and this Agreement shall be construed and administered in accordance with such intent. For purposes of Section 409A, each installment payment provided under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company Group makes no representations that this Agreement or the payments provided under this Agreement complies with or is exempt from the requirements of Section 409A and in no event shall the Company Group or any other Company Party be liable for all or any portion of any taxes, penalties, interest or other expenses that may be incurred by Executive on account of non-compliance with Section 409A.

25. Consideration and Revocation Period. Executive may take up to twenty-one (21) days from the date upon which the Company Group delivers this Agreement to the Executive to consider, sign, and return this Agreement to the Company Group, care of Andrew Wright, General Counsel &

Corporate Secretary, at 1780 Hughes Landing Blvd., Suite 800, The Woodlands, TX (e-mail:). This Agreement shall become effective on the eighth day after Executive signs and returns it, without having revoked the Agreement during that period (the "Effective Date"). In the event that Executive does not sign this Agreement within twenty-one (21) days of the Separation Date, this Agreement will be null and void and Executive will not be entitled to receive the Severance Payment and Benefits referred to in Section 3.

WHEREAS, Executive is serving as a director or manager on the Board of Directors/Managers of certain subsidiaries of the Company;

WHEREAS, Talen Energy Supply, LLC adopted a key employee incentive plan, as approved by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas pursuant to the Order Approving Debtors' Key Employee Incentive Program, entered on August 15, 2022 [Docket No. 1071] (the "Key Employee Incentive Plan"), pursuant to which Executive was granted certain KEIP Awards (as defined therein);

WHEREAS, Executive and Talen Energy Supply, LLC and its subsidiaries entered into: (i) a Talen Retention Bonus Award letter, dated November 4, 2021 (the "Retention Bonus Award "), (ii) an Amended and Restated Talen Retention Bonus Award letter, dated April 22, 2022 (the "Amended Retention Bonus Award "), and (iii) a Changes to Short Term Incentive Program Awards letter, dated April 22, 2022 (the "STI Award ") (collectively, with the Retention Bonus Award and Amended Retention Bonus Award, the "Award Agreements");

WHEREAS, terms used and not defined herein have the meanings set forth in the Offer Letter; and

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to enter into this Agreement to memorialize their agreement with respect to resolving all claims relating to, and arising from, Executive's employment and the termination without Cause of Executive's employment with the Company Group, effective July 7, 2023 (the "Separation Date").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the Parties, the Parties agree as follows:

1 . Separation from Employment. The Parties agree that Executive's employment with the Company Group was terminated by the Company without Cause, effective as of the Separation Date. As of the Separation Date, Executive: (i) no longer has an employment relationship with the Company Group or any other Company Party (as defined below); (ii) to the extent applicable, Executive is deemed to have been resigned from any other positions as an officer, director, or manager of the Company Group or, as applicable, any other Company Party; and (iii) no longer serves on any committees of the Company Group or any Company Party. To the extent applicable, Executive agrees to execute any necessary documentation presented by the Company Group to effectuate all such resignations and/or removals from such offices and/or positions held by Executive. Executive agrees that, after the Separation Date, Executive shall not represent himself as being an employee, officer, principal, partner, agent, or representative of the Company Group for any purpose, and shall have no authority to enter into any agreements, incur any costs, or take any action that would otherwise bind the Company Group or any Company Parties on behalf of the Company Group.

2. Accrued Benefits. Regardless of whether or not Executive signs this Agreement, Executive will receive the following: (i) his accrued and unpaid Base Salary and accrued and unused vacation through the Separation Date; (ii) reimbursement of any unreimbursed and substantiated expenses incurred through the Separation Date; and (iii) Executive's accrued and vested benefits under the terms of the applicable employee retirement, welfare, and fringe benefit plans and programs in which he is a participant immediately prior to the Separation Date, including but not limited to the Key Employee Incentive Plan (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits"). The Company will pay Executive's reasonable professional fees and expenses incurred to negotiate and prepare this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, (A) Executive's Second Bonus Installment (as defined in the Amended Retention Bonus Award) shall be deemed vested and not subject to clawback by the Company Group, (B) the STI Award is fully vested and not subject to clawback by the Company Group, and (C) Executive remains entitled to a pro-rata portion of the KEIP Award (or, if applicable, the full portion of the KEIP Award with respect to the Asset Sale Metric) for the second quarter 2023 Performance Period in accordance with Section 5.2 of the Key Employee Incentive Plan.

3. Severance Payment and Benefits. In consideration for and provided that Executive (i) timely executes and returns this Agreement, signed by him, in the manner described in Section 26 of this Agreement; (ii) does not exercise his revocation right, discussed in Section 9 of this Agreement; and (iii) abides by his commitments set forth in this Agreement, including but not limited to his continuing obligations under Sections 1, 2 and 3 of the Non-Competition Agreement, then Executive shall receive the following payments and benefits, less any payroll deductions required by law, which shall be in lieu of any other payments or benefits to which he otherwise might be entitled:

(a) Severance payments to Executive in a total amount equal to the sum of: (x) twelve (12) months' worth of Executive's Base Salary for the year of the Separation Date (equal to $529,162.50), (y) Executive's Target Bonus for the Bonus Year in which termination occurs (equal to $529,162.50 for the year of 2023), and (z) $15,000 for financial advisory services, which is to be paid in a single lump sum payment that is to be paid on the Effective Date of this Agreement (as defined in Section 26 below), less any applicable withholdings and deductions;

(b) In consideration of Executive substantial contributions to the Company, a special cash bonus in the lump sum amount of $100,000.00, to be paid on the Effective Date, less any applicable withholdings and deductions; and

(c) If Executive elects to continue coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended ("COBRA"), and/or sections 601 through 608 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, the Company Group shall reimburse Executive for 12 months of such coverage as specified in the Offer Letter (collectively, Sections 3(a)-(c) herein, the "Severance Payment and Benefits").

4. [Reserved]

5. Satisfaction of All Leaves and Payment Amounts; Prior Rights and Obligations. In entering into this Agreement, Executive expressly acknowledges and agrees that Executive has received all leaves (paid and unpaid) to which Executive was entitled during Executive's employment with the Company Group and any other Company Party (as defined below) and Executive has received all wages, bonuses, and other compensation, been provided all benefits, been afforded all rights and been paid all sums that Executive is owed and has been owed by the Company Group and any other Company Party as of the date that Executive executes this Agreement (the "Signing Date"), including all payments arising out of all Award Agreements, the Offer Letter, any incentive plans, and any other bonus arrangements, in each case (x) to the extent required under the various agreements that Executive entered into with the Company Group and any other Company Party and (y) subject to the payments and rights contemplated in Sections 2 and 3 above. For the avoidance of doubt, Executive acknowledges and agrees that Executive had no right to any of the Severance Payment and Benefits described in Section 3 above (or any portions thereof) but for Executive's entry into this Agreement.

6. Release of Liability and Claims.

(a) In consideration of Executive's receipt of the Severance Payment and Benefits (and any portion thereof), Executive hereby forever releases, discharges, and acquits the Company Group, its affiliates, and each of the foregoing entities' respective past, present, and future subsidiaries, affiliates, stockholders, members, partners, directors, officers, managers, insurers, employees, agents, attorneys, heirs, predecessors, successors, and representatives in their personal and representative capacities, as well as all employee benefit plans maintained by any Company Party and all fiduciaries and administrators of any such plans, in their personal and representative capacities (collectively, the "Company Parties" or any one, individually, a "Company Party"), from liability for, and Executive hereby waives, any and all claims, damages, or causes of action of any kind related to Executive's employment with any Company Party, the termination of such employment, and any other acts or omissions related to any matter occurring or existing on or prior to the Signing Date, including (i) any alleged violation through such date of: (A) any federal, state, or local anti-discrimination or anti-retaliation law, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended (including as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act), Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, as amended, and Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code, as amended; and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, the Texas Labor Code (including the Texas Payday Law the Texas Anti-Retaliation Act, Chapter 21 of the Texas Labor Code, and the Texas Whistleblower Act), as amended; (B) the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"); (C) the Immigration Reform Control Act, as amended; (D) the Occupational Safety and Health Act, as amended; (E) the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993; (F) any federal, state or local wage and hour law; (G) any other local, state or federal law, regulation or ordinance; or (H) any public policy, contract, tort, or common law claim or claim for fiduciary duty or breach thereof or claim for fraud or misrepresentation or fraud of any kind; (ii) any allegation for costs, fees, or other expenses including attorneys' fees incurred in, or with respect to, a Released Claim; (iii) any and all rights, benefits or claims Executive may have under any retention, change in control, bonus, or severance plan or policy of any Company Party or any retention, change in control, bonus, or severance-related agreement that Executive may have or have had with any Company Party other than the rights described herein; (iv) any and all rights, benefits, or claims Executive may have under any employment contract (including the Offer Letter), any equity-based compensation plan or arrangement, any incentive compensation plan or other bonus arrangements, any limited liability company agreements, and any other agreement; and (v) any claim for compensation or benefits of any kind not expressly set forth in this Agreement (collectively, the "Released Claims"). In no event shall the Released Claims include

(a) any claim that first arises after the Signing Date, (b) any claim or right Executive may have under this Agreement, (c) any claim for indemnification, including pursuant to the Indemnification Agreement entered into by the Parties on May 17, 2023 (the "Indemnification Agreement"), and any claim pursuant to directors and officers liability insurance, (d) any claim to vested benefits under an employee benefit plan governed by ERISA, or (e) any claim to recovery to which Executive may be entitled pursuant to any applicable workers' compensation and unemployment insurance laws. This Agreement is not intended to indicate that any such claims exist or that, if they do exist, they are meritorious. Rather, Executive is simply agreeing that, in exchange for the consideration received by him pursuant to Section 3 above, any and all potential claims of this nature that Executive may have against the Company Parties, regardless of whether they actually exist, are expressly settled, compromised, and waived. THIS RELEASE INCLUDES MATTERS ATTRIBUTABLE TO THE SOLE OR PARTIAL NEGLIGENCE (WHETHER GROSS OR SIMPLE) OR OTHER FAULT, INCLUDING STRICT LIABILITY, OF ANY OF THE COMPANY PARTIES.

(b) Notwithstanding this release of liability, nothing in this Agreement prevents Executive from filing any non-legally waivable claim (including a challenge to the validity of this Agreement) with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, National Labor Relations Board, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, Securities and Exchange Commission, or other federal, state, or local governmental agency or commission or comparable state or local agency (collectively "Governmental Agencies" and each a "Governmental Agency"), reporting in good faith a possible violation of law to a Government Agency under such agency's applicable whistleblower program, or participating in or cooperating with any investigation or proceeding conducted by a Government Agency; however, Executive understands and agrees that Executive is waiving any and all rights to recover any monetary or personal relief or recovery as a result of a Government Agency proceeding or subsequent legal actions.

7. Representations. Executive represents and warrants that, as of the date he signs this Agreement, Executive has not filed any claims, complaints, charges, or lawsuits against any of the Company Parties with any Governmental Agency or with any state or federal court or arbitrator for or with respect to a matter, claim, or incident that occurred or arose out of one or more occurrences that took place on or prior to the Signing Date. Executive further represents and warrants that Executive has made no assignment, sale, delivery, transfer, or conveyance of any rights Executive has asserted or may have against any of the Company Parties with respect to any Released Claim. The Company Group represents that it is not currently aware of any facts or circumstances that may constitute or otherwise form the basis for a Cause termination under the Offer Letter.

8. Executive's Acknowledgements. By executing and delivering this Agreement, Executive expressly acknowledges that:

(a) Executive has carefully read this Agreement and has had sufficient time (and at least twenty-one (21) days) to consider this Agreement before the execution and delivery to the Company Group;

(b) Executive has been advised, and hereby is advised in writing, to discuss this Agreement with an attorney of Executive's choice and Executive has had adequate opportunity to do so prior to executing this Agreement;

(c) Executive fully understands the final and binding effect of this Agreement; the only promises made to Executive to sign this Agreement are those stated herein; and Executive is signing this Agreement knowingly, voluntarily, and of Executive's own free will, and that Executive understands and agrees to each of the terms of this Agreement;

(d) The only matters relied upon by Executive and causing Executive to sign this Agreement are the provisions set forth in writing within the four corners of this Agreement;

(e) Executive would not otherwise have been entitled to the Severance Payment and Benefits described in Section 3 above, or any portion thereof, but for Executive's agreement to be bound by the terms of this Agreement; and

(f) No Company Party has provided any tax or legal advice regarding this Agreement and Executive has had an adequate opportunity to receive sufficient tax and legal advice from advisors of Executive's own choosing such that Executive enters into this Agreement with full understanding of the tax and legal implications thereof.

9. Revocation Right. Notwithstanding the initial effectiveness of this Agreement upon the Signing Date, Executive may revoke the delivery (and therefore the effectiveness) of this Agreement within the seven (7) day period beginning on the date Executive executes this Agreement (such seven (7) day period being referred to herein as the "Release Revocation Period"). To be effective, such revocation must be in writing signed by Executive and must be received by Andrew Wright, Chief Administrative Officer, at the address (or e-mail address) set forth in Section 26 below, such that it is received by Mr. Wright no later than 11:59 p.m. Houston, Texas time, on the last day of the Release Revocation Period. In the event Executive exercises his revocation right as set forth herein, the Agreement shall be null and void and Executive will not be entitled to receive the Severance Payment and Benefits set forth in Section 3 above.

10. Third Party Beneficiaries. Executive expressly acknowledges and agrees that each Company Party that is not a signatory to this Agreement shall be a third-party beneficiary of Executive's release of claims and representations in this Agreement.

11. Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement (or part thereof) that renders such term or provision (or part thereof) or any other term or provision hereof (or part thereof) invalid or unenforceable in any respect shall be severable and shall be modified or severed to the extent necessary to avoid rendering such term or provision (or part thereof) invalid or unenforceable, and such modification or severance shall be accomplished in the manner that most nearly preserves the benefit of the bargain set forth in the Offer Letter and hereunder.

12. Withholding of Taxes and Other Deductions. Executive acknowledges that the Company Group shall withhold from the Severance Payment and Benefits (referred to in Section 3) all federal, state, local, and other taxes and withholdings as may be required by any law or governmental regulation or ruling. Executive shall satisfy all of his tax obligations arising from his receipt of the payments and benefits set forth herein, and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company Group and the other Company Parties for any costs, expenses or liabilities arising from his failure to do so.

13. Return of Property. Executive expressly represents and warrants that he has returned to the Company Group all property belonging to the Company Group or any other Company Party, including all computer files, electronically stored information, and other materials provided to him by the Company Group or any other Company Party in the course of Executive's employment with the Company and Executive further represents and warrants that Executive has not maintained a copy of any such materials in any form.

14. Further Assurances. By signing this Agreement, Executive expressly acknowledges the enforceability, and continued effectiveness of Sections 1 (relating to the confidentiality and non-disclosure of Confidential Information), 2 (relating to Executive's noncompetition and non-solicitation covenants) and 3 (relating to the ownership of intellectual property) of the Non-Competition Agreement and promises to abide by those terms of the NonCompetition Agreement. Executive acknowledges and understands that his receipt of the Severance Payment and Benefits set forth in Section 3 above is conditioned on Executive's continuing compliance with the commitments contained in the Non-Competition Agreement.

15. Permitted Reporting. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect Executive's rights to engage in activity protected by Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act, and notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit or restrict Executive from lawfully (i) initiating communications directly with, cooperating with, providing information to, causing information to be provided to, or otherwise assisting in an investigation by, any Governmental Agency regarding a possible violation of any law; (ii) responding to any inquiry or legal process directed to Executive from any such Governmental Agency so long as Executive timely provides notice to the Company Group of such inquiry or legal process and provides the Company Group with the opportunity to seek relief that would prevent or limit such disclosure (and so long as Executive only discloses the minimum amount of information as required to be disclosed by such inquiry or legal process, after giving effect to the Company Group's efforts to prevent or limit such disclosure); (iii) testifying, participating, or otherwise assisting in any action or proceeding by any such Governmental Agency relating to a possible violation of law, or (iv) making any other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of any applicable law. Additionally, pursuant to the federal Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, an individual shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that: (1) is made (x) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney and (y) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; (2) is made to the individual's attorney in relation to a lawsuit for retaliation against the individual for reporting a suspected violation of law; or (3) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a law suit or proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

16. Non-Disparagement. Executive agrees to refrain from, directly or indirectly, making any statements, whether or not such statement legally constitutes libel or slander in any form (or permitting any statements to be reported as being attributed to him), including but not limited to on social media, the Internet, or any other medium, that are critical, disparaging, or derogatory about, or which injure or reasonably could injure the reputation of, the Company Group or any other Company Party. Nothing in this Section 16 will prevent Executive from making any statements required by law or compelled by legal process, and nothing herein shall affect Executive's rights to engage in activity protected by Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act. The Company Group agrees to provide a verbal instruction to members of the Company's Board of Directors and Executive's direct reports at the time of the Separation Date, as of the Effective Date of this Agreement (as defined in Section 26 below), not to directly or indirectly make any statements, whether or not such statement legally constitutes libel or slander, in any form (or permitting any statements to be reported as being attributed to him), including but not limited to on social media, the Internet, or any other medium, that are critical, disparaging or derogatory about, or which injure or reasonably could injure the reputation of Executive.

17. Cooperation.

(a) Executive agrees that he shall, in good faith, provide full and continued cooperation to the Company, its directors, officers, agents, partners, employees, and/or legal counsel, as necessary or appropriate, including, without limitation: (i) to respond truthfully to any inquiries that may arise with respect to matters that Executive was responsible for or involved with during his employment with the Company, including but not limited to assisting the Company with any reasonably requested transition-related Company business with respect to matters that Executive was responsible for or involved with during Executive's employment with the Company; (ii) to furnish to the Company, as reasonably requested by the Company, from time to time, Executive's honest and good faith advice, assistance, support, information, judgment and knowledge with respect to matters that Executive was responsible for or involved with during Executive's employment with the Company; (iii) to cooperate with the Company in connection with any defense, prosecution, filings, investigations, or proceedings or other legal matters in which Executive may be involved as a party and/or relevant witness and/or possess or may possess relevant information; and (iv) to cooperate with the Company in connection with any and all legal matters relating to the Company and its past and present employees, managers, directors, officers, administrators, agents, and attorneys in which Executive may be called as an involuntary witness, affiant or declarant (including, but not limited to, by subpoena or other compulsory process served by any third-party), including, without limitation, by providing the Company written notice of such subpoena or other compulsory process served on Executive within forty-eight (48) hours of service. The Company agrees to reimburse Executive for reasonable expenses incurred by Executive in connection with cooperation provided pursuant to this Section 17, provided such expenses are pre-approved in writing by the Company and consistent with operative Company policies and practices pertaining to reimbursement of expenses. The Company also agrees to pay Executive for his time reasonably incurred cooperating with the Company pursuant to this Section 17 at an hourly rate determined by dividing his annual base salary immediately prior to the Separation Date, by 52, and then further by 40. Any such cooperation pursuant to this Section 17 will also take into account Executive's professional commitments and scheduling to the extent reasonably practicable.

(b) Executive acknowledges and agrees that Executive's cooperation under this Section 17 with respect to any current or future legal or threatened legal action or proceeding or other matter pertaining to, arising out of, or relating to Executive's employment with the Company, including any and all written or oral communications with Company's counsel regarding the same, will be treated and maintained as strictly confidential, and as privileged under the attorney-client privilege and, with respect to any work performed at the direction of counsel, the attorney work product doctrine.

(c) In connection with the matters described in this Section 17, Executive agrees to truthfully communicate and be represented by, and provide requested information to the Company's legal counsel, to fully cooperate and work in good faith with such legal counsel with respect to, and in preparation for, any response to a subpoena or other compulsory process served upon you, any depositions, interviews, written or oral responses, appearances or other legal matters or proceedings, and to testify truthfully and honestly with respect to any such matters.

18. No Admission of Wrongdoing. Neither by offering to make nor by entering into this Agreement, does the Company Group, its subsidiaries, or affiliated entities, any Company Party, or Executive admit any liability, wrongdoing, failure of performance, or violation of any law, statute, regulation, or policy, and it is expressly understood and agreed that this Agreement is being entered into solely for the purpose of resolving all matters of any kind whatsoever concerning the Executive's employment and the separation of the Executive's employment from the Company Group.

19. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Offer Letter, the Indemnification Agreement, the Award Agreements, the Non-Competition Agreement, and the Key Employee Incentive Plan and KEIP Awards thereunder constitute the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the matters herein provided. No modifications or waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless in writing and signed by each Party.

20. Governing Law; Dispute Resolution. The validity, interpretation, construction, performance, and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of law. Any dispute arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement shall be resolved in accordance with Sections 10 and 12 of the NonCompetition Agreement, which sections are hereby incorporated by reference; provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, for any disputes arising out of or relating to this Agreement or of the Non-Competition Agreement, Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies available to the Company at law or in equity, be entitled to seek specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief in a federal or state court in Texas, without the necessity of posting a bond or proving actual damages.

21. Headings; Interpretation. Titles and headings to Sections hereof are for the purpose of reference only and shall in no way limit, define, or otherwise affect the provisions hereof. Unless the context requires otherwise, all references herein to laws, regulations, contracts, agreements, instruments, and other documents shall be deemed to refer to such laws, regulations, agreements, instruments, and other documents as they may be amended, supplemented, modified, and restated from time to time, and references to particular provisions of laws or regulations include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any succeeding law or regulation. The word "or" as used herein is not exclusive and is deemed to have the meaning "and/or." The words "herein", "hereof", "hereunder", and other compounds of the word "here" shall refer to the entire Agreement, including all exhibits, and not to any particular provision hereof. The use herein of the word "including" following any general statement, term or matter shall not be construed to limit such statement, term or matter to the specific items or matters set forth immediately following such word or to similar items or matters, whether or not non-limiting language (such as "without limitation", "but not limited to", or words of similar import) is used with reference thereto, but rather shall be deemed to refer to all other items or matters that could reasonably fall within the broadest possible scope of such general statement, term or matter. Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein shall be construed or resolved against any Party hereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Agreement has been reviewed by each of the Parties hereto and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of the Parties.

22. Assignment; Successors. Except as provided herein, this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by and against Executive, each Company Party and their respective successors, heirs, executors, permitted assigns and representatives, as the case may be; provided, however, that the Company Group has the right to assign this Agreement, including to any successor, but Executive does not.

23. No Waiver. No failure by any Party at any time to give notice of any breach by the other Party of, or to require compliance with, any condition or provision of this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same or at any prior or subsequent time.

24. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts (including portable document format (.pdf) and facsimile counterparts), each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same agreement.

25. Section 409A. This Agreement and the payments provided hereunder are intended to comply with or be exempt from the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the Treasury regulations and interpretive guidance issued thereunder (collectively, "Section 409A"), and this Agreement shall be construed and administered in accordance with such intent. For purposes of Section 409A, each installment payment provided under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company Group makes no representations that this Agreement or the payments provided under this Agreement complies with or is exempt from the requirements of Section 409A and in no event shall the Company Group or any other Company Party be liable for all or any portion of any taxes, penalties, interest or other expenses that may be incurred by Executive on account of non-compliance with Section 409A.

26. Consideration and Revocation Period. Executive may take up to twenty-one (21) days from the date upon which the Company Group delivers this Agreement to the Executive to consider, sign, and return this Agreement to the Company Group, care of Andrew Wright, Chief Administrative Officer, at 1780 Hughes Landing Blvd., Suite 800, The Woodlands, TX (e-mail: andrew.wright@talenenergy.com). In addition, Executive may revoke the Agreement after signing it within seven (7) days of signing this Agreement, as further discussed in Section 9 of this Agreement. This Agreement shall become effective on the eighth day after Executive signs and returns it, without having revoked the Agreement during that period (the "Effective Date"). In the event that Executive does not sign this Agreement within twenty-one (21) days of the Separation Date, this Agreement will be null and void and Executive will not be entitled to receive the Severance Payment and Benefits referred to in Section 3.
